WHERE DOES IT COME FROM.—Pints and quarts of filthy catarrhal discharges. Where does it come from? The mucous membrane, lining the chambers of the nose, and its little glands, are diseased, so that they draw from the blood its liquid, and exposure to the air changes it into corruption. This life-liquid was to build up the system, but it is extracted and the system is weakened by the loss. To cure, gain flesh and strength by using Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, which also acts directly upon these glands, correcting them, applying Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy with Dr. Pierce's Nasal Douche, the only method of reaching the upper cavities where the discharge accumulates and comes from:

LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

THERMOMETER 64 degrees F. in the shade, at 1 p. m. to-day. Fine, some clouds, breezy.

Venire Ordered.—Judge P. H. Emerson has ordered a venire to be issued for a grand and petit jury for the First Judicial District.

Lecture.—Mr. C. R. Savage's lecture, at the 14th Ward Assembly Rooms, last night, was attended by a large audience, to whom it gave great satisfaction.

Shooting at Sandy. — Yesterday Charles Hanks and —— Mescal quarreled at Sandy and the former shot the latter twice in the head, inflicting two slight wounds. Hanks came to this City last evening and was arrested by the police this afternoon and now lies in jail. Mescal is also in town.

Germany.—We have had the pleasure, through the courtesy of President Wells, of perusing a letter from Elder John C. Naile now on a mission in Germany. The letter is dated, Baden, Karlsruhe, March 2. He has suffered considerable through sickness while he has been on his mission, but, notwithstanding, he considers that he has been blessed exceedingly. The people in general do not seem to be anxious to hear the gospel, either through indifference or fear of the worldly results.

Enlarged and Improved.— That enterprising, able, spirited and free-spoken paper, the Omaha Herald, comes in an enlarged form, with new heading of "The Herald," dropping the word "Omaha," and in a new dress, which gives it a handsome appearance. If the pages were a little longer for the width, the appearance of the Herald would be still further improved. We are glad to see such evidence of the prosperity of our deserving Omaha contemporary, and hope it will live long and continue to prosper.

R. R. Land Claims.—We understand that the U. P. R. R. Company have in the land office claims to alternate sections of land within a certain distance and on each side of their road in the Weber region, some of which land was settled and improved before the railroad was constructed or surveyed, and that the company have asked and been allowed until the 19th of May next for the appearance of their representative to urge their claims at the land office in this city. Settlers or parties having counter claims will see the necessity of their having their claims and the evidence thereof ready by the same time.

The Small Beer Crusade.—A correspondent, writing from Fairview, March 31st, speaks as follows concerning a disagreeable postmaster and Hollister's small beer crusade—

"Our postmaster has been removed, and a man very obnoxious to the people now holds that office. He lives at an extreme corner of the town, making it particularly annoying. We have fought hard and long by way of petitions, signed by ninety-five out of every hundred of the citizens of this place, but to no purpose. There is now a unanimous feeling not to support the office, but to transfer our mail matter, as far as possible, to the Mount Pleasant office.

"Aside from this, we are afflicted with a deputy marshal on small beer, and it appears that if any person has sold one pint of beer he has to pay government licenne and penalty, then commissioner's fees, then collector's fees, then marshal's fees, making it amount to, at the least, something over one hundred dollars. And after a man goes to the officers in Salt Lake City and gets his full papers from commissioner and collector, still the marshals will pursue him, although they never served a paper."

Bender.—Crowds continue to besiege the city jail, eager to catch a sight of John T. Bender, the chief among latter-time murderers. Mr. Hyde has accommodated the sight-seeing portion of the public as much as possible, by giving them an opportunity of gratifying their curiosity to see this human monstrosity. Such individualities as this old man and the other members of the family certainly present a most horrible phase of human character. The old man is not devoid of intelligence, which fact may be observed by scrutinizing him minutely while he is being questioned by different persons. He has a peculiar faculty, however, of secreting from every casual observer the inward actions of his mind, for while internally inspired with intense fear his countenance assumes an expression of stolidity which is apt to throw a person off his guard with regard to his real character. He frequently looks furtively or slantingly around at persons from under his eyebrows and from the corners of his eyes, a strong indication of cunning foxiness of character. This faculty of assuming indifference and stolidity appears to be common to the family, for before it was fully known that they were the perpetrators of the bloody deeds which subsequently came to light, Dr. York, brother to Col. York, one of the victims, and others, paid frequent visits to them and questioned them closely, and repeatedly left with the impression that they were innocent; that they were an ignorant, stolcal German family, who did not know enough to commit the deeds of which they were suspected. The old man is not without education either. He writes a pretty good hand. His head is low and broad. It appears somewhat depressed at the temples and shoots outwards sharply towards, over the top and around the ears. According to phrenologists this formation would give a preponderance of the organs of destructiveness, secretiveness, combativeness, and acquisitiveness, while the large projection over the eyes would indicate, according to the same theory, that he is a close and quick observer of men and things, which is also indicated by a somewhat piercing kind of silent-question-asking expression of the eye.

Yesterday in the sunlight, as it streamed through the cell window upon his head, his hair appeared to be of a light color; a fairer view of him, however, shows that the original color of the hair and beard was brown, but is now almost entirely of a dingy gray.

We are informed that a man answering the description of Bender appeared in Richmond, Cache County, early in January. He asked the privilege of sleeping in Mr. Whittle's barn. The family, as the weather was then intensely cold, allowed him to sleep in the kitchen. In the morning, while he was fast asleep, one of Mr. Whittle's boys got up to light a fire in the kitchen stove. The rattling of the kettles and stove lids aroused the man from his slumbers, and he started up, as if in a horrible fright, and acted wildly, till he seemed to become assured regarding his surroundings. He was then, we are informed, taken into custody by officers and conveyed to Logan, where he remained a few days, was questioned closely, and, as nothing could be elicited from him was set at liberty.

This morning the old man was taken to Savage's art gallery, in a closed carriage, where his likeness was taken in several styles, so that those who wish to preserve a counterfeit presentment of the notorious Kansas murderer can have that privilege to-morrow morning, when copies will be ready. The likeness is exceedingly good.

It may be interesting to say that the woman supposed to be Kate Bender, who appeared in the suburbs of Provo some time ago, and who stayed a little while at Mr. Samuel Cluff's, was last seen at a settlement in Provo Valley, where she also stayed with a family for a time and then suddenly left, without warning, taking with her the remains on the supper table, after that meal had been finished one evening, and since then has not been heard of.

We now learn that Bender has been positively identified to-day by Mr. C. W. Kitchen. The old man had stayed at Mr. Kitchen's house, eight miles from Kansas, and when the latter asked him if he recollected doing so he shook his head, intimating that he did not. Mr. Kitchen was perfectly familiar with his features and general appearance, and recognised him directly. The only instance that we know of where he appeared to be off his guard and commit himself was when, at the instance of Mr. Crane, he was asked where Schmidt was, he said that individual was dead, which was correct, he having been administrator on the Schmidt estate, in Illinois.

Will Appear.—Our readers will see, by the advt. elsewhere in the NEWS that the favorite comedian, Mr. W. C. Crosbie, will positively appear in the new play of "Quits" this evening. He has so far recovered from his indisposition that the management desire to dispel all doubts from the public upon the subject.

Theatre.—Last night, in consequence of the indisposition of Mr. Crosbie, the play of the "Prussian Spy" was substituted for "Caught in the Snare," and with "Po-ca-hon-tas" was well played.

This evening, the excellent actor and competent stage manager, Mr. J. H. Vinson, will take a benefit, when will be presented the original sensational five-act drama of "Quits, or the Winning Hand," written expressly for Messrs. Vinson and Crosbie, by W. Sherwood Johnson, Esq. Mr. Vinson appears as "Longbow, the great American Tiger Tamer," Mr. Crosbie as "Joe Dorkey, One of the Boys," Mr. Sawtelle as "Bob Thorn," Mr. Thorne as "James Anderson," Mr. Rea as "Hugh Madrigan," Miss Walters as "Mrs. Allen," Miss Adams as "Clara Morton," Mrs. Belle Douglas as "Sallie."

The entertainment will commence with the fine one-act drama of "The Old Guard," Mr. Vinson as "Haversack."

During the evening the Thirteenth Infantry band will play overture, "To the Dark Visage," "Where Thou Art, Love, is Heaven to Me," "Cornet Gallop," "Musetto Waltz," and "Captain Jenks."

The orchestra will play "Il Trovatore Quadrille," composed by Prof. Thomas.

Currency Bill Again Up.

WASHINGTON, D. C., 10.—The motion of Butler, of Mass., made yesterday, to table the motion for the re-consideration of the vote postponing the currency bill, came up, and was rejected by the casting vote of the Speaker, and the motion to reconsider the vote for the postponement of the bill was carried 128 to 120. The vote then recurred on the original motion to postpone until Tuesday next, and the motion was rejected, so the bill is now again before the House.

It is reported that the train which left Vanderbilt's Landing, Staten Island, at seven last evening, was stopped when about two miles out, by a band of Italians, who tore up the track; the particulars of the outrage are not yet received, save that the robbers secured the cash box on the train, but were themselves soon after arrested and are now locked up.

Terrible Boiler Explosion—Colliers on Strike—Want to Oust Bismarck.

LONDON, 10, 5 a.m.—The steam boiler in a factory at Hamilton, near Glasgow, exploded yesterday, with terrible effect; a large portion of the boiler was driven several hundred feet through the air, and crashed into a school house filled with children, three of whom were instantly killed, and thirty, it is reported, more or less injured.

Three thousand colliers are on strike in Somersetshire.

A Berlin dispatch to the Daily News represents that the conservatives and ultramontanes are actively intriguing to supplant Bismarck by General Von Manteufel.

WASHINGTON NOTES.

WASHINGTON, April 3.—"The Commissioner of Internal Revenue has addressed a circular letter to all collectors of internal revenue, calling their attention to a recent act of the Supreme Court, where it is held that the government may bring an action for the recovery of taxes, not only of such as are assessed, but also of those which are not assessed, and likewise of those which, on account of the statute of limitations, are not assessable. The Commissioner says—

"I desire that you will exert yourself to discover all cases in your district where any taxes cannot now be assessed owing to the limitation of section 20 of the act of June 30, 1864, amended, and section five of the act of March 2, 1865, without a waiver of those limitations by the taxpayers. In all these cases you will notify the delinquents that if they make a written waiver of their legal rights under these statutes across the face of their returns the taxes will be assessed without penalty; but in cases where delinquents neglect or refuse to take this course you will at once report the fact to the proper U. S. District Attorney, referring him at the same time to the terms of the above mentioned decision of the Supreme Court."

In view of the importance of this matter collectors are urged to prompt action.—N. Y. Herald.

The following are from the Washington Star—

The U. S. Supreme Court will adjourn early in May, and Chief Justice Waite will soon thereafter start on his first circuit, comprising the Richmond, Virginia, and Baltimore, Maryland, districts.

The following are from the Congressional Record—

In the U. S. House of Representatives, March 31, Mr. Coburn, from the committee on military affairs, reported back, with a substitute, Senate bill No. 347, granting a portion of the United States military reservation at Salt Lake City for cemetery purposes; which substitute was ordered to be printed, and recommitted to the committee on military affairs, not to be brought back into the house on a motion to reconsider.

In the U. S. Senate, April 2, Mr. Buckingham, from the committee on Indian Affairs, to whom was referred the bill (S. No. 425) for the restoration to market of certain lands in the Territory of Utah, reported it without amendment.
