LOCAL BRIEFS.

"The Mathematical Man"—R. A. White, Jr., of Salt Lake, will appear before the Y. M. C. A. Sunday next on "The Mathematical Man."

Dr. Irving Conventual—Dr. A. C. Irving who has been ill at St. Mark's hospital, was discharged as convalescent yesterday afternoon, and will soon be able to resume his practice.

Green River's Peach Industry—Major McAlister, of California, who is in the city, and reports 400 acres set out to peach trees on the Green River side, and 1,200 acres on the Green River side.

Pay Day at the Fort—Major Vinson, paymaster of the United States army, with headquarters at Denver, came in over the Rio Grande yesterday, and is registered at the Knottford. Major Vinson is paying off the soldiers at Fort Douglas today.

Back From the Coast—W. T. Noble has just returned from California and Nevada business trip. He says he left California in a terribly soaked condition, but that Nevada is fairly blooming. Vegetation, as well as mining, is a success there this season.

Articles Amended—An amendment to the articles of incorporation of the Deseret-Romney Music company of this city has been filed with the county clerk by which the capital stock is increased from $150,000 to $200,000, of which $75,000 is preferred stock.

Demonstration vs. Theory—The city school principals, at yesterday afternoon's meeting, discussed the vertical system of instruction, and it was decided to secure signatures from 1,000 school children, with a view to ascertain the natural method of writing.

Open House Last Night—Several hundred people attended last evening's open house at the Chamber of Commerce under the auspices of the Salt Lake Real Estate association. Punch and lemonade were served and there was orchestral music. The occasion was most enjoyed.

Will Dispose of Stock—Manager John Q. Critchlow of the Utah Implement company has left for Chicago. The object of his trip is to dispose of blocks of stock to parties there who appear desirous of investing. One interested party states that Mr. Critchlow is aiming specially to dispose of the stock of the Utah Implement company, which is a reorganization of the implement company on a sound basis, so that the concern can continue, and not go into liquidation.

Unitarian Club—The men members of the Unitarian church entertained last evening in Unit hall in honor of Rev. J. H. Crooker of New York. Judge D. N. Straup officiated as toastmaster, and the guest spoke on "The Need of the Unitarian Church." The Unitarian club was subsequently organized with Judge Straup as president, H. W. Lawrence, vice president, and H. H. Madsen, secretary and treasurer. Hon. E. B. Stephens was one of the speakers of the evening, his theme being what the Galveston plan might have done for Salt Lake.

New Pastor Coming—The Westminster Presbyterian church held its annual meeting last night, when James Walker, Jr., and Stewart McLeese were chosen trustees, and James McLeese, S. T. Tolles, James Drennon and Luther Smith were elected elders. A letter was read from the new pastor, Rev. C. C. McIntyre of Spaulding, Mich., stating that he would be here today to assume the Westminster pastorate to succeed Rev. McLean Davis called to Green River. The report of the treasurer showed a balance of $112 in the treasury, as compared with $5 a year ago. The church numbers 175 members, of whom 115 are active members.

JUST BECAUSE—Your cough is not in the throat and does not trouble you now, don't think that it needs no attention. When it has not been much to start with, it will grow to a chronic cough, and then it will be too late to cure it. The only cure that will cure it is the only cure that will cure it. The only cure that will cure it is the only cure that will cure it.

THE BEETLED GLAM AGENT

And Was Induced to Sign a Release of Union Pacific From Liability.

COOK NOW SUES FOR DAMAGES

He Alleges That False Representations Were Made to Him While Suffering Intensely and Semi-Conscious.

Alleging that the claim agent of the Union Pacific Railroad company made false representations to him in regard to his injuries and thus induced him to sign a release of the company from liability, William J. Rodriguez has filed suit in the district court to have the release annulled and to recover damages from the company in the sum of $20,000. It is alleged that plaintiff was working in a dining car on one of the company's trains and on Dec. 7, 1906, he was seriously injured in a collision between the train and a freight car. His skull was fractured, several ribs broken and his limbs and body bruised. The claim agent of the company saw him, released him for $500 cash and all of his hospital expenses. Soon after he signed the release, he became unconscious and was removed to the hospital in this city where he was confined for several weeks. He now claims that his injuries are permanent and that his mind has become affected by reason of the same. He asks that the county clerk by which the capital stock is increased from $150,000 to $200,000, of which $75,000 is preferred stock.

DEGREE FOR DEFENDANT.

Is Rendered in the Case of J. W. Farrell vs. Ella Blake.

Judge Morse has rendered a decree in favor of defendant in the case of J. W. Farrell against Ella Blake, administratrix of the estate of Edward Blake, deceased. The action was brought to restrain defendant from attempting to collect a judgment entered in the district court in favor of Blake and against Farrell. The action was brought on the ground that the same was fraudulently obtained and Farrell had instructed his attorneys to appeal the judgment to the supreme court. Judge Morse found the issues in favor of defendant and he will have to pay the judgment and will not doubt attempt to recover what he paid. FIRST WEEKLY BULLETIN.

Issued by Local Weather Office is Published Today.

The first weekly weather bulletin to be issued this season by the local weather office, is being published today evening, as follows: The weather during the past week was cloudy and showers in general throughout the state. The temperature averaged about normal for the state as a whole and departures therefrom were slight in the different sections. In the northern and middle sections the week opened cloudy and cool as a rule, but the temperature rose considerably during the latter part. In the southern section the conditions were quite equable throughout the week and no extremes were reported in any district. The precipitation was above normal in all portions of the state. The heaviest snowfall of the season occurred on the 3rd. In many parts of the state there were showers almost every day in the week. The heaviest precipitation was reported from the southern section. At Kanab, Kane county, the rainfall for the 1st, 2nd and 3rd amounted to two inches. The occurrence of showers and rain to have inspired numerous country correspondents of the weather office with forgetfulness as to their government duties, for only a single official meteorological conditions were received last week in the Salt Lake weather office, whereas the usual number would be over 30.

DEATH OF MRS. SARAH THORN.

Wife of Patriarch William Thorn Succumbs to Attack of Pneumonia.

The funeral of Mrs. Sarah White Thorn will be held from the family residence, 150 West Sixth South street, tomorrow afternoon commencing at 2 o'clock. The illness of Mrs. Thorn was very brief, as she was stricken with pneumonia less than a week ago. It was not thought that the attack would terminate fatally, as even on the day that she died she appeared to be getting on her feet. However, a relapse occurred during the day, and she passed away at 7:30 o'clock in the evening. Mrs. Thorn was the wife of Patriarch William Thorn, who for many years was bishop of the Seventh ward. They were married in 1880, and have four surviving children, namely, Mrs. Robert Patrick, Jr., A. C. Thorn, Edith and Margaret. Mrs. Thorn was born in England, where she was born Jan. 1, 1832. When 25 years of age she became a member of the LDS church, and resided at Salt Lake City since 1862. She was a woman possessed of many noble qualities of heart and mind, and she had a wide circle of friends who mourn her death.
