LOSE ALL TRACE OF JAIL BREAKERS

Fugitives Cover Their Tracks So Effectively as to Baffle Pursuit.

SPRING MUSICAL FESTIVAL.

Madame Lillian Blauvelt and Chicago Symphony Orchestra Appear March 23 and 30.

Ogden, March 18.—As if the earth had opened and swallowed them, has been the escape of the four prisoners who Sunday night throttled Jailer Amos Sebring and escaped from the Weber county jail. Sheriff Wilson has used every possible means to locate them, but his efforts have been without results. The theory is that the men had carefully planned the escape for days and that they had paid on the outside who had provided them with coats and hats. If they did not have friends and are still in hiding in or near Ogden, they must soon put in an appearance for eatables. Night and day since the jail break, the sheriff has kept guards in the local yards to watch every outgoing train, and according to descriptions have been sent along the lines in every direction so that if they walk out of town and catch a train somewhere else along the railroads they are almost sure to be caught. Sheriff Wilson feels confident he will yet recapture all of the escapees.

FACES SERIOUS CHARGE.

Amrose H. Lindsay, one of the prisoners of the county jail, who declined to escape Sunday night, has been taken to Carson City, Nev., by a U. S. deputy marshal, where he will be tried on the charge of stealing a registered letter from a mail train on which Lindsay was clerk. Before his departure the officers wrote a letter for him setting forth the fact that he declined to escape when he had the chance. Lindsay has many friends especially among the younger set, who have paid him frequent visits at the jail and loaded him with dainties on his departure for Nevada.

SPRING MUSICAL FESTIVAL.

The spring musical festival, which is given under the local management of W. S. Wallace, promises to be the most successful affair of the kind ever given in this city.

Monday night, March 23, Madame Lillian Blauvelt and her company appear at the Grand, while on Monday afternoon and evening, March 30, the Chicago Symphony orchestra appears. The sale of season tickets has been unusually brisk, indicating considerable interest on the part of Ogdenites. That it should be a matter of local pride, the appearance of these great attractions, is no idle assertion. Madame Blauvelt stands today without a peer in America as a lyric soprano. She is a charming and graceful woman, an artist and an actress. The interpretations of Madame Blauvelt, ranging from the classical compositions of the masters, to the more humble folk-songs of England, Germany and other nations, not forgetting our own "Sally in Our Alley" and "Swanee Song," are pieces, is superb. At home in grand opera pieces or the popular songs of the day, her beautiful flexible voice lending itself to the modulations of the symphonies of the mocking bird or to the deep throaty tones of the baser harmonic elements, her programs are interesting and classical.

In the Chicago Symphony orchestra tra, that magnificent organization of 82 artists, with a number of soloists including Herr Von Oest, the great Dutch violinist, and Adolphe Rosenblyer, the greatest musical conductor in America today, Ogden will witness the finest aggregation of musical artists—soloists and concertists; vocal and instrumental—that has ever appeared in the west.

DAMAGE SUIT COMPROMISED.

Edna A. Elmer, administratrix of the estate of the late William W. Elmer, was granted permission by Judge Howell to settle the $20,000 damage suit she brought against the Southern Pacific and Oregon Short Line for $4,500. Her husband met his death Sept. 17, 1907, on the old line of the Southern Pacific. He was fireman on a train which ran into a culvert wrecking the same and killing him instantly.

FUNERAL SERVICES.

The last sad rites over the mortal remains of James G. Paine were performed yesterday morning at 11 o'clock at the Methodist church and his body was shipped to Elk City, Kansas, for burial.

A large number of relatives and friends attended the services including the Grand Army of the Republic and Women's Relief corps. The church choir assisted by Mrs. F. N. Hess and Miss Bennett sang some beautiful musical selections. Rev. McCreery preached a comforting sermon, and eulogized the many excellent virtues possessed by the deceased. The Scripture readings were given by Rev. Frank Shaw and Rev. Noble S. Elderkin. The floral tributes were numerous and beautiful.

SUIT FOR DIVORCE.

Suit for divorce was filed in the district court by Elizabeth P. Clark against William H. Clark. According to the allegations of the complaint they were married Christmas day, 1905, and have two children living. The wife charges that defendant has failed to provide her with the necessities of life. A decree of divorce, alimony and custody of the children is prayed for.

MARRIAGE PERMIT.

A marriage license was granted by the county clerk to Orson R. Christensen 25, and Miss Eva Manning, 18, both of Hooper, Weber county.

of Ward E. Pack, Jr., who died in a hospital in Salt Lake City, and who was brought home to Vernal for interment. It was the first public gathering since the general quarantine was raised. The service began at 2 p. m. in the Vernal ward house, Bishop Jno. N. Davis presiding. Owing to the popularity of the deceased and his wide acquaintance the house was filled. The choir rendered suitable selections, Mrs. Lucille Bassett sang, "Dry Throat Tears," Thos. Birehail sang, "When the Swallows Homeward Fly," a favorite song of the deceased. Elder R. S. Collett, of Harder, Benham, and President Don B. Colton were the speakers, each feeling referred to the upright life and noble character of the deceased.

The casket was centrally buried in roses, carnations, lilies and many flowers coming from Salt Lake, from friends there. In the passing of Ward E. Pack so soon after his honor of its best citizens, an honest man, true to his friends, honorable above all else, a despoiler of hypocrisy, not afraid to speak his mind for what he believed to be right in the face of any opposition. A man among men.

PLEASANT GROVE.

High Price for Fruit Land—Relief Society Day.

Pleasant Grove, Utah Co., March 17.—The Telluride power company has replaced the poles across Artemus Holman's farm in place of the ones he took away last Friday, the court having given the company a temporary right of way. Holman has possession of two sets of poles which he has taken up. The outcome of it all is awaited with interest.

A party from here and Lehi have piped the water from Greely's springs in the south end of Cedar valley, some distance down from its source and erected a large tank to hold the water this will be a great help to the dry farms in that section.

Joseph B. Clark has bought the old home of Mrs. Nancy Holman adjoining the old meetinghouse lot and has broken ground for the erection of a pavilion, the largest in the county.

Fruit land on Provo bench is changing hands, some pieces are bringing $200 per acre.

The Telluride power company's plant at Battle Creek canyon is given the owners additional expense; two large reservoirs must be cemented to hold the water. A large force of men will be employed to do the work.

The Relief society is holding its annual meeting today in honor of the

BEAVER.

NEW $50,000 SCHOOL BUILDING.

Church School District Organized—Business Improvements.

Special Correspondence.
Beaver, Beaver Co., March 16.—An important educational move was made last week when the presidents of several of the surrounding stakes met at the Beaver Branch of the Y. M. C. to take steps to organize a church school district, consisting of Beaver, Millard, Parowan and possibly Kanab stakes. Those present were filled with enthusiasm over the movement, and a district board of education was formed, with President Charles D. White of Beaver stake as president, and Principal Joseph E. Smith of the Beaver stake as secretary. A generous appropriation of $15,000 from the general church fund for education for the proposed new building at the school has been supplemented by the generous contribution of a similar sum from the Beaver stake, and it is expected that the other stakes in the district will make up the balance. The building will cost about $50,000, and it will be the most imposing structure in this part of the state.

BUSINESS IMPROVEMENTS

The spirit of improvement seems to have taken hold of the people of the Mansfield, Murdock Mercantile company, already the largest business house in the city, has bought adjacent property and will double its premises this year. The National bank building is being rushed to completion, and the Relief Society has disposed of its various real estate and buildings; the opera house people secured 10 feet frontage and 12 rods back for their new building. John E. Tolton, the large rock granary, and W. G. Bickley the corner fronting east and south. The whole sum raised by the Relief Society was $5,200, which sum will be divided between the east and west ward societies.

The citizens turned out during the past week and made a fine graveled sidewalk between the city and the branch university, thus making walking more pleasant.
Measles is still prevalent, new flags being displayed daily; in some instances the disease is assuming a somewhat virulent type.
The services of an expert have been secured by the city fathers to look over the water situation, and ascertain what steps will be best to drain the city, portions of which for the past two seasons have been practically under water.

CARDSTON, CAN.

NEW STAKE TABERNACLE.

Sad Death of Bride of Two Months—Missionary Social.

Special Correspondence.
Cardston, Alberta, Canada, March 9.—A cold wave set in about the first of this month, but it is spring weather again, and the farmers are busy preparing for a larger crop than ever before.

Contracts have been let for the completion of the new stake tabernacle and work is already begun on the building.

MISSIONARY SOCIAL.

Last Friday evening the regular meeting of the stake Sunday school union was turned into an enjoyable farewell social for the retiring superintendent, Wm. H. Stead, who leaves soon to fill a mission in the eastern states. A special program of songs and prayers was prepared, and the whole entertainment concluded with an excellent picnic under the able direction of Wm. O. Lee.

Six missionaries leave Alberta stake this spring for various fields of labor. L. A. Little and C. E. Snow to Great Britain, J. M. Jensen to Scandinavia, Wm. H. Stead and Bishop Frank Leavitt to the eastern states, while Scott Brown will go to the Swiss and German mission.

DEATH OF BRIDE OF TWO MONTHS.

The sad word was received here today of the sudden death at Spokane of Mrs. A. N. Maude, nee Miss Ada Almsouche. Mrs. Maude is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. T. Almsouche of Woodford, Idaho, and was married only two months ago. The bereaved parents and family have the sympathies of the whole community.

INTERSTATE NEWS BRIEFS

Honorable Ben—March 14 a horse on which Mr. Wilford Richman was riding stumbled and fell upon him, breaking his foot in two places. Dr. Dorland of Devil's Slide was called in to reduce the fracture. Yesterday Mrs. J. W. Richman of this place, was taken to the Ogden general hospital to be operated on for an abscess in her head. The Relief Society celebrated its annual day with a program and picnic.

Library for Payson—Howard R. Briggs of the U. of C. gave a letter to Payson Sunday evening in the interest of libraries, which was well attended and a movement is already on foot as a result, to establish a library and reading room where the young men can go for instruction and receive without having to resort to the saloon.

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL.

Tonight the Author's club will give its annual entertainment in the way of a social evening at the home of Mrs. Augusta W. Grant, the event promising to be as usual delightful. A literary game will be the feature and there will be music and refreshments, the decorations to be in pink and white and about 40 present.

Mrs. Hugh Park who has been visiting with Lieutenant and Mrs. Beebe at Fort Leavenworth for some time past will return to the city this week.

This afternoon Mrs. Andrew Howat and Miss Howat entertained at a tea in honor of Mrs. Elliot Kelly, about 40 being present. The rooms were decorated in marguerites, maidenhair fern and mignonne, and assisting in the dining room were Mrs. Charles Richards, Mrs. Robert Hampton, Mrs. Howard Stowe, Mrs. Fred Odell, Mrs. Robert Steele and Mrs. Louis Schoppe.

Miss Florence Grant entertained at bridge yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Walker and two daughters will return this week from Riverside, Cal.

Mrs. Louis S. Stowe was hostess yesterday at a luncheon, about a half dozen being present. The decorations were in shades of green, carnations and tiny green smokes, the place cards also corresponding in design. The guests were: Mrs. William T. Kiser, Mrs. Russell Schneider, Mrs. Percy V. Nelson, Miss Mayge Miller, Miss Aileen Maclean, Miss Edna Bailey, Miss Gertrude Hanson and Miss Irene Morrison.

Miss Alice Nibley and Miss Veda Boebe will entertain at a St. Patrick's party tonight at the home of the former, about 40 being invited.

Mrs. W. E. Griggs and Helen Griggs leave at the end of the week for California, to be present at the arrival of the fleet in San Pedro Harbor.

The basketball team of the high school will entertain the Ogden team at the Orpheum on Saturday, the contest between the teams will follow in the evening at the Eaton school at 8:30.

Mrs. W. W. Armstrong entertained informally at bridge this afternoon, tables being played. The affair was in honor of Mrs. Hoag of Ogden.

Miss Edna Farnsworth was guest of honor this afternoon at a pretty card party given by Miss Dorothy Thompson.

Mrs. P. P. Stoddard entertained this afternoon at luncheon for Mrs. Hanna who is the guest of Mrs. Adolph Baer. The decorations were in the spring flowers and covers were laid for eight.

Mrs. E. D. Hammond was hostess yesterday at a bridge party, at which eight tables were played. The decorations were in the prevailing greens of the day. Prizes were won by Mrs. Kimball and Mrs. Williams.

Miss Ella Dukes expects to spend the coming summer in England.

Mrs. George Bowman entertains the Swastika club today at her home.

Last night a St. Patrick's ball was given at Unity hall in honor of the late General P. E. Connor, the Woman's American club being the hostesses. The decorations were in the prevailing greens and the American and Irish flags, and an excellent program of music was rendered by Held's band. The proceeds will go towards the Gen. Connor monument fund.

QUAKER MERCHANT DEAD.

Philadelphia, March 18.—Joseph Darlington, aged 65, a leading dry goods merchant of this city, died today at his home in Haverford, a suburb, after a week's illness.
Mr. Darlington was twice president of the Union League and took an active interest in civic affairs.

MOUNT PLEASANT.

SCHOOL CHILDREN MENACED.

School Firetraps to be Eliminated—Wedding Bells.

Special Correspondence.

Mt. Pleasant, March 17.—Elder Peter Sandwall of Fairview, left on Saturday for Sweden to preside over the L. D. S. mission there. Because of there being so much diphtheria and the city under quarantine, the missionary farewell was not held, but some of his associates and prominent Church workers called on him before he left.

On Saturday evening Thomas Braby was elected captain of company D. N. 6, U. by the unanimous vote of the company. He succeeds Capt. L. P. Nelson, resigned.

George Brough, of Spring City, had a paralytic stroke last week, but is recovering.

SCHOOL CHILDREN MENACED.

Since the recent commotion in school drives due to the shocking death of so many school children in Ohio, considerable talk and planning has been done here from the fact that the large 12-room school building here has its furnace in the basement and should anything like an explosion or fire occur, escape would be almost entirely cut off. The proposition is to move the furnace outside of the school building. There are no fire escapes to the building, which makes matters worse in a three story building.

WEDDING BELLS.

Miss Edna Monk, of this city and for pictures was yesterday arraigned before Justice and fined $50 for a statutory crime.

The Relief societies of the several Logan wards are today conducting their regular annual programs in commemoration of the organization of this society.

A fire drill was given at the Woodruff school this morning and the building was emptied in less than 14 seconds, less than a minute and a half, and the gong was sounded as unexpecting to the pupils as if it had been sounded for a fire.

VERNAL.

TOUCHING OBSEQUES.

Burial of Mrs. Chas. A. Perry and Infant, and Ward E. Pack, Jr.

Special Correspondence.

Vernal, Nintah Co., March 13.—The funeral services of Mrs. Chas. A. Perry and infant daughter were held at the family residence in Gilne's ward Friday, March 6, Bishop Jos. McKee presiding. The speakers were Elders Wm. O'Neil and Bishop Joseph A. McKee of Gilne's, Bishop John N. Davis of Vernal ward, and Elder Don B. Colton of the stake presidency. The remarks were consoling and reassuring of a nature beyond the grave. Elder Colton pointed to the beautiful work so well done by one yet in her early prime, a long life's work had been accomplished in a few years, evidenced by eight beautiful children yet living, and one who accompanied the mother back to the eternal home.

Truly was it said of her, "not in years but in deeds lies her glory," and well has she filled her short but noble mission.

Another touching funeral service was held Sunday, the 8th, over the remains of Ward E. Pack, Jr., who died in a hospital in Salt Lake City, and who was brought home to Vernal for interment.

It was the first public gathering since the general quarantine was raised.

The service began at 2 p. m. in the Vernal ward house, Bishop Jno. N. Davis presiding. Owing to the popularity of the deceased and his wide acquaintance the house was filled.
