Romney, seven; Hugh J. Cannon, one; George G. Smith, 10; Nephil L. Morris, one; William Noell, seven; William McLachlan, one; and Charles S. Martin, 10. Following are the officers of the corporation: Frank Y. Taylor, president; Richard W. Young, vice president; S. H. Love, secretary and treasurer; Hugh J. Cannon, Nephil L. Morris and William McLachlan, directors.

ED McLELLAND MANAGER.

The manager of the new resort, or rather the old resort to be made new, is to be Ed McLelland, who has already entered upon his duties, while Mr. Love is now in the east, booking attractions for the summer season.

$20,000 IN IMPROVEMENTS.

Mr. S. T. Whitaker, the well known architect, is now mapping out improvements, to cost in the neighborhood of $20,000. They mean the razing to the ground of old buildings, the erection of several new ones, the installation of a miniature railroad, enlargement of the lake, the construction of electric launches, a chute the chutes, rustic bridges, numerous arbors and other buildings, as required. The baseball ground is to be bettered, a grand stand erected, and particular attention paid to beautifying the whole landscape with flowers, grass, shrubbery, electric illuminations, cement boat landings, etc.

A TEMPERANCE RESORT.

The announcement is made that it is to be a strictly temperance resort, and that it will cater to family trade and picnic and other parties, who desire to go where nothing offensive can be found. The purpose is to make it an up-to-date resort in all respects.

WAS UNABLE TO MEET.

Municipal Laws Committee Could Not Consider Sunday Theaters.

Owing to the important water discussion before the waterworks committee of the city council on last Thursday night the committee on municipal laws was unable to meet for the consideration of the Wells ordinance prohibiting Sunday theater performances. A delegation from the Ministerial association of the city was present ready to give their support to the ordinance. Those interested in the matter were informed that the committee will make the ordinance the special order of business at the committee meetings next Thursday evening and will dispose of the matter at that time.

JESS THOMAS SET AT LIBERTY.

The Jury Brought in a Verdict Of Not Guilty Today.

WAS CONSIDERED ALL NIGHT.

He Killed a Man Over a Game of Cards in a Commercial Street Colored Gambling Dive.

"Not guilty" is the verdict of the jury in the case of the State of Utah against Jess Thomas, colored, who was charged with the murder of Harry Wilson, another colored man, last fall. The trial of the case was concluded at about 9:50 o'clock last night, and the jury reached a verdict at 11 o'clock this morning. The jury was then discharged, and the defendant was ordered released from custody. Thomas shot Wilson on Oct. 27 in a quarrel over a game of cards in a Commercial street gambling house. Wilson died from the effects of his wounds in December. Thomas was defended by Attorney Sam A. King, and the case was prosecuted by Dist. Atty. Leobourne. The evidence introduced by defendant showed that the shooting was done in self-defense, and was also accidental.

MRS. LUND WINS.

Upon the allegations in her cross-complaint, Mrs. Etta Lund was yesterday afternoon granted a decree of divorce from August Lund. The latter was the plaintiff in the action and charged his wife with failing to properly cook his food, using vile language towards him and otherwise cruelly treating him.

Mrs. Lund in her cross-complaint charged her husband with failing to provide either a home or the necessities of life for her. She also alleged that he treated her in a cruel and evil manner and had deserted her and ordered her to vacate their home. The matter came up yesterday upon an order to show cause why Lund should not pay alimony and also why he should not be restrained from disposing of any of his property. Judge Morse ordered him to pay his wife $20 per month alimony and restrained him from disposing of his property.

The parties then left the court room, but later returned and informed the court that they had agreed to have a decree rendered without further delay. The court then rendered a decree for Mrs. Lund and allowed her $25 alimony and $20 attorney's fees, the alimony to be paid in monthly installments of $20 each.

Judge Morse also granted divorces in favor of plaintiff in each of the following cases: Daniel H. Morton against Mary E. Morton, desertion; T. Sylvester Walker against Jessie Walker, desertion; John Bagdanovich against Frances E. Bagdanovich, desertion.

IMPRESSIVE SERVICES.

Funeral of William X. Jones Held in Seventeenth Ward.

The Seventeenth ward meetinghouse was filled yesterday afternoon with the relatives and friends of William X. Jones, who met to pay their last respects to the remains of the departed veteran. The building had been tastefully arranged for the occasion, there being a profusion of palms and potted plants and also many cut flowers. Bishop Franklin S. Tingey of the seventeenth ward presided over the services, and the opening prayer was offered by Bishop Edwin P. Parry. The following speakers, in the order named, spoke words of comfort and instruction appropriate to the occasion and in commendation of the life and labors of Elder Jones: Arthur F. Barnes, Joseph R. Morgan, Nephil L. Morris, N. V. Jones, John Henry Smith, and Charles B. Felt. The benediction was pronounced by Carlin N. N. Porter of Boxelder county.

The music was rendered by a number of the Tabernacle choir members, led by Prof. Evan Arthur. Prof. Evan Stephens accompanied, and a song composed of Lizzie Thomas Edwards, Judith Anderson, Thomas Butler and Evan Arthur. Mrs. Edwards sang the beautiful solo, "O Love Divine," with Prof. Stephens at the organ.

The remains of Elder Jones were interred in the city cemetery, where the grave was dedicated by Elder Duncan M. McAllister.

The living children left by the deceased are Frank P. Thomas, Mrs. Louis Miller, Mrs. Mabel Smith, Mrs. Samuel Bills and Mrs. Leo Parry. A sister, Mrs. Mary Ann Evans, resides in San Francisco, and was not able to attend the funeral of her brother.

CIVIC LEAGUE MEETING.

Mrs. Bamberger Resigned and W. H. Shearman Chosen Secretary.

The Civic league met last night, in the Manufacturers & Merchants offices. The resignation of Mrs. Simon Bamberger as league treasurer was accepted, and W. H. Shearman was chosen to succeed her. Mrs. Susan Young Gates was elected to the vacancy created by the resignation of Mrs. Anna Cannon.

A committee of five was appointed, D. H. Hewlett, C. A. Quigley, Jay T. Harris, Mrs. Kimball and Mrs. E. T. Cronson to prepare an address to the public, to secure editorial indorsement and the co-operation of the city council in furthering the objects of the league. A committee of five was also appointed for arranging plans for selecting members. H. W. Lawrence, R. L. Pritchard, Mrs. L. M. Bailey, Mrs. C. S. Kinney and Mrs. Edwin Kimball.

The first named committee will ask that immediate steps be taken toward cleaning the paved streets in the business portion of the town. The suggestion will be made that all paved streets be washed, not sprinkled, every morning, and that sweeping streets be postponed each day until after mid-night. Dr. T. B. Beatty said the dust raised by sweepers is decidedly unhealthful to persons on the street.

Mr. Hewlett suggested that the City Council be asked to appoint 10 inspectors for 30 days to aid in cleaning up and beautifying the city. Then there should be voluntary inspectors from each district. He favored an address that would arouse civic pride. For an object lesson he suggested the macadamizing of Sixth East street from South Temple street to Liberty park.

Mr. Hewlett favored moving all telephone poles from the middle of the street, and if this could not be done, to have all poles planted in the future to be put on the sides of the street. He urged that a united effort be made to clean up the city by Arbor day, and that people be asked to tear down old fences and gates.

Mr. H. W. Lawrence advocated planting shade trees on vacant lots; also, that the ordinance against allowing rubbish to accumulate be enforced.

A membership committee was elected, composed of H. W. Lawrence, R. L. Pritchard, Mrs. L. M. Bailey, Mrs. C. S. Kinney and Mrs. Edwin Kimball. This committee will arrange for registration places. The drug stores and large mercantile institutions will be supplied with enrollment blanks. Persons desiring to join the league can do so by paying an entrance fee of 25 cents and enrolling at designated places. All committees deemed necessary to perfect the organization of the league will be appointed by President Stephens.

The meeting adjourned to meet Tuesday evening in the Commercial club.
