MEMORIAL SERVICES.

At a meeting of the Apostles now in this city held on Wednesday, August 20th, 1884, at 2 p. m., President Joseph F. Smith presided, it was resolved that Memorial Services be held in the various Stakes of Zion on Sunday, August 24th, at 2 p. m., when the funeral services will be held at Kanab and Paradise over the remains of Elders W. S. Berry and John H. Gibbs, who were martyred for the word of God and the testimony of Jesus Christ, at Condon's Farm, Lewis County, Tenn., on Sunday, August 10th, 1884. The Presidents of the various Stakes will please take notice and make the necessary arrangements for these services. We recommend that moderation and the patience of the Gospel be observed in all these ceremonies, rendering honor and respect to the slain, and remembering that our mission is not to wreak vengeance on the ungodly, but to preach peace on earth and good will to all men.

JOSEPH F. SMITH.

FRAGMENTS.

Another hallorin in Utah County yesterday.

What a beautiful morning after the showers!

Linens coats and straw hats are out of fashion.

Two or three inches of snow fell at Granite, recently.

The District Court has adjourned till Friday, the 22nd.

The damage done at the Lake bathing resorts was insignificant.

A heavy fall of rain came down last evening, about the hour of this paper's going to press.

RANDALL, the man stabbed by the Spaniard in the Cabinet saloon, will not die, it is thought.

It was the nephew, not the brother, of President H. S. Kildredge, who died at Coalville Sunday morning.

JACOB IFF, who makes adobies in George Nebeker's pasture has lost his nose. See advt. describing it.

W. S. SMITH ships "Booth's New York Count" oysters, canned, east, therefore perfectly fresh and sells at 75 cents per can.

ONLY one case in the District Court to-day—that of E. S. Hill et al. vs. Geo. F. Adkins. Ten days additional time allowed defendant to plead.

THE Governor of Idaho has offered a reward of $1,000 for the apprehension of the murderers of Aaron Morris, and the people of Wood River $5,000.

WORK on the new depot building of the Utah Central Railway is going rapidly ahead. It is expected to have it finished by October Conference.

THE police court is dull. At least there was neither justice, marshal, policeman, clerk or record there when the reporter called. The city attorney was holding undisturbed possession.

THE Bijou Opera Company are rehearsing with the Orchestra, to-day, the entire piece, "Orpheus and Eurydice." The conductor who never before led the music without himself playing the instrument—the piano—will play it to-night.

THE bicyclists in the Yellowstone Park are in good company. The Governors of Wyoming and Montana are there to watch the game interests of the region. Our boys haven't hurt the game much yet, however, and as for grizzlies, why, no grizzly can catch a man on a good bicycle.

LOCAL NEWS.

The Martyrs.—The bodies of Elders Berry and Gibbs are expected to reach here on Friday at 4:30 p. m. Memorial Services will be held in all the Stakes on Sunday at 2 p. m.

Thoughtful.—The Deseret Hospital has received a number of newspapers and magazines from the enterprising dealer Herbert Pembroke, Esq., and a lot of palm leaf fans from Walker Brothers, for which the patients and the management are grateful. The latter desire to tender public acknowledgment.

Serious Accident.—Brother W. C. Hawkins, of Marsh Valley, Idaho, writes as follows under date of the 18th inst.:

"This morning, while Bishop Grunwell was moving he fell from the machine and had his left arm severed from the body near the shoulder. Dr. Grunwell, of Logan, was telegraphed for and came on a special engine. After examining the patient, he found it necessary to remove about two inches of the shoulder bone and considerable lacerated flesh, and with difficulty succeeded in closing the wound. The injury being so close to the joint, serious results are apprehended, although the patient, as can be expected at the present time—four hours after the operation."

Breaks his Neck.—Yesterday afternoon a serious accident occurred to Mr. Arthur Day, of the 13th Ward, which resulted in some slight injury to him and in the instantaneous death of his horse. He came out of the house where he had been attending the funeral services over the remains of Robert Edmonds' child, and had untied the horse and got into the buggy, when the animal made a sudden start, rushing between two vehicles which were about to turn in the corrie, and miraculously missing both of them, proceeded a short distance then took a sharp turn to go back again. This threw the horse on his head, breaking his neck and overturning the buggy. Mr. Day was not dangerously hurt.

To Cache Cheaply.—The advertisement of the 10th Ward brass band giving date and cost of tickets for their excursion to Cache County will be found in another column. The train will leave the Salt Lake depot at 7:30 a. m. on Wednesday the 28th of September, and will bring the party back three days later. Tickets for the round trip Salt Lake—Logan $8.00, Salt Lake—Franklin $9.00. During the out a concert and a grand ball will be given in Logan. The occasion will be a favorable one for those who wish to pay a visit to that most fruitful of Utah valleys, and whose time and means are such as to preclude the possibility of a longer stay. The band has shown itself a public spirited organization and has made excellent progress in its musical training. It is still handicapped with a slight debt, incurred in purchasing uniforms, and it is hoped that there will be a sufficient margin after paying the expenses of this trip to lift the deficiency. Whoever goes may count upon getting his money's worth.

PERSONAL.

Wm. C. Spence, Esq., is back from San Francisco.

Mrs. J. B. Glass and family who have been residing at Soda Springs for the last month returned home today.

THE BIJOU BURLESQUE.

"ORPHEUS AND EURYDICE" AT THE THEATRE.

The Bijou Opera Bouffe Company, of a portion of it at least, opened their engagement of four nights at the Salt Lake Theatre, last evening. It was not a jammed house that greeted them, but a large one nevertheless, as theatrical audiences now go. The parquette and its circle were pretty well filled and the upper galleries had a fair showing. Of the burlesque, "Orpheus and Eurydice," it can be said that it is equal to most things of its kind. No one looks for anything but nonsense in a musical burlesque founded on a legend of mythology, a very slender thread being sufficient, even if broken in places, for a plot, and success mainly depending upon music, ballet, scenery, costumes and other spectacular effects, with a libretto interlarded with puns, local hits, street phrases, and double entendres.

Of such, this burlesque has plenty and to spare. Some of the witticisms are new and funny, others stale and slanting. A little more independent play in the selection of localisms would make them less offensive and more laughable. The scenery is magnificent, ditto the costumes, the music for the most part good, and the dancing meagre, but acceptable as far as it goes.

The chief musical features were the duet between "Orpheus" and "Public Opinion," the tenor solos "Dreaming" and "Awaking," by "Orpheus," "Cupid" and "Hebe's" duet, "Thou Art My Own Love," the quartet, "I Long for Thee," and "Cupid's" choral song. Mr. Pepper in the tenor solos was fine, and for the duet between "Cupid" and "Hebe," which won an encore, nothing more charming has been seen or heard here in a long time.

The characters most worthy of mention are "Cupid," by Miss Daisy Murdoch; "Hebe," Miss Carrie Tutin; "Mercury," Miss Jennie McCutty; "Public Opinion," Miss Aquila Roache; "Jupiter," Mr. Grant; "Orpheus," Mr. Pepper; "Pluto," Mr. Gans. Most of the others had but little to do, and some should have had less. The company is strong and weak in places, and the performance good in others and spoils. One can readily see it is not the same personnel which presented the burlesque in New York or San Francisco. Still, some of the characters remain the same, and could scarcely be bettered. Four of the principals left in California, and as a consequence artists of inferior merit have been put into some of the most prominent parts. With a better company the burlesque would be quite good, other things, though not by any means a poor show as it is. It will be repeated to-night and it is worth seeing.

CITY COUNCIL.

Proceedings of the City Council, Tuesday evening, August 19th, 1884, Mayor Sharp presiding:

A petition signed by Thos. J. Brown and 10 others was presented complaining of the bad condition of the ditch on Severn Street used for drainage, that since the increase of water caused by drainage of the D. & R. G. depot grounds and other large ditched drain had filled with mud and sand. They asked that it be placed in proper repair before the fall rains. Referred to the committee on irrigation.

Walker Bros. and nineteen others, prominent property owners and business men of the city, asked to have the provision of an ordinance fixing a rate of $10 per annum for legal buildings used for fire protection, referred to the committee on fire.

There is talk of dividing the Utah & Northern at Eagle Rock, Idaho, about the last prox. Mr. St. Clair, the present superintendent, will probably look after the interests of the southern division, and Mr. F. S. Rawling, present, will assume the direction of the northern portion.

Workers employed in Ogden Canyon set fire to some brush last Saturday and came nearly causing great damage. The wind scattered the flames in every direction, and the roar of the consuming element was terrible. One man, Harry Turner, was struck in the face by a large rock and severely injured.

The first number of the Barter Valley Echo, the new weekly published at Richfield by Jas. T. Jakeman, Esq., is among our exchanges this morning. It is a small but newsy sheet and will be able to do much good if its policy be conscientiously carried out and is most the support necessary to such an enterprise. Success to the Echo!

Home-Made Drinks.—E. O. White, Esq., has recently commenced the manufacture of root and ginger beer in this city, and has made a success of it. The new office received a dozen trial bottles from his delivery wagon this morning, and judging of his beverage from these, we pronounce them refreshing and pleasant, harmless and pure. They are moreover cheap, and can be drunk without danger to health by any one. Mr. White is to be commended for his determination to make his own living, he being physically incapacitated for hard labor, and we hope he'll get the patronage he merits.

A Crazy Woman's Freak.—E. Hugh, Esq., of Kanab, called at our office to-day and furnished the facts regarding a serious incendiary fire in Circleville, Platte County, by which the house of W. A. Beebe, together with the furniture, clothing, a sewing machine and 100 pounds of flour were totally destroyed. The family have been taking care of a crazy woman, who, becoming angry at seeing dressmaking in progress for the 31st, while she was not getting anything new herself, set fire to the premises. Brother Beebe was not at home at the time, but his wife was buried in her hands and the face. No one else was hurt.

Home Again.—Sister Hannah T. King returned on Monday from a trip to Alma, Cassia County, Idaho, whither she went on a visit to her son, the 19th of July. She had a very pleasant experience, looks and feels better for it, and speaks in high terms of the beautiful locality and the good spirit possessed by the people in whose midst she has been residing away from home.

Sunday, August 25th, a Relief Society and a Sunday School were organized under the direction of Bishop Horton Haight, and Sister Miss at his invitation, addressed the afternoon meeting. There were 20 persons baptized, and 100 names in the Church the same day. It is a small but prosperous community, and as they have no power among them, the efforts of the Relief Society, for the present, will be directed toward uplifting the new settlers, house, school, and other improvements.

Any of the towns of Davis County may now communicate with each other, without ringing up the Central office in this city. The rate from Salt Lake to Bonville is 15 cents for 5 minutes; to Centerville 25 cents, and to Tarrytown the same. Kayville is on the through line, with a rate of 25 cents from this city. Utah County will be connected by a way-line with this city as soon as practicable.

It is also under consideration to connect the Deseret Paper Mill, and the country between and other interesting business points between here and there, with Salt Lake at an early day, provided satisfactory arrangements can be made with the parties who should be interested in the extension.

The Augusta (Ga.) Chronicle is informed by an eminent physician that the cholera never generated the regions of the South.

ANOTHER KIDNAP SHOT.

NOT KILLED BUT SERIOUSLY WOUNDED.—THE CORPSES COMING HOME.

The following dispatch came yesterday, bringing shortly after we went to press. It has caused a revival of the sickening effect produced last week by the news of the tragedy at Condon's house, which had only just commenced to lose its acuteness, and confirmation of the shocking news and further particulars regarding it will be awaited with great anxiety.

NASHVILLE, Tenn., Aug. 19, 1884.

Pres. John Morgan.

I keep in the dispatches another Elder in the Hawkins county, Tennessee, was shot and seriously wounded. Have Elder W. H. Robinson's name at 1:30 to-night with bodies. Will go via St. Louis, Kansas City and Pueblo, Can. Do say when they reach Salt Lake. Will remain here. It is unsafe for me in Chattanooga. Threats heavy. 1,000 bodies out of graves. They are O. K.

B. H. ROBERTS.

Regarding the homeward journey of Elder W. E. Robinson with the bodies of the two murdered Elders, two dispatches have been received by Elder John Morgan. The first was sent yesterday from the Union depot at St. Louis, and the second came 9 o'clock this morning announcing his arrival in Kansas City, and that everything up to that point was all right.

TERRITORIAL ITEMS.

CUILED FROM LATEST RECEIPTS.

—Provo has Segist & Howe's circus to-day and to-morrow.

—Leadville's population decreased about 2000 during the last year.

—Roving Cheyennes are burping grass in the Powder River country, Montana.

—Prof. J. E. Talmage, of Provo, while experimenting in the Academy laboratory yesterday morning, had a piece of glass tube blown almost through his right hand.

—A Chinaman in jail at Hailey, Idaho, knocked his jailor down with a boot some days since, in an attempt to escape. He was awaiting execution and will not be deprived of it by this escapade.

—H. C. Keeler, U. P. Baggage Agent at Ogden, received some small shot in his knee from the accidental discharge of a fellow sportsman's gun last Saturday. The wound is painful but not serious.

—Three Bellevue (Idaho) Chinamen washed and scraped the flesh of the bones of some of their dead friends the other day in the public water ditch. The bones were being prepared for the return journey to the flowery kingdom.

—The Serenities' organizations of Ogden are making arrangements to give a tribute to the two murdered Elders, Gibbs and Berry, on the arrival of the bodies there, provided it shall be ascertained that they will be brought that way.

—Some Shoshone Indians, about 150 of whom were encamped near the town, got on a spree last Sunday night in Rawlins, Wyoming, in the course of which one of them was shot through the leg by a policeman and lodged in jail.

—Dr. O'Donnell, the anti-Chinese agitator passed through Ogden Monday evening going west. He harangued a crowd at the depot on the evils of Chinese labor and immigration, and declared that he had turned two years loose in the streets of Washington.

—There is talk of dividing the Utah & Northern at Eagle Rock, Idaho, about the last prox. Mr. St. Clair, the present superintendent, will probably look after the interests of the southern division, and Mr. F. S. Rawling, present, will assume the direction of the northern portion.
