GENERAL ANNUAL CONFERENCE.

THE Fifty-eighth Annual Conference of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints will commence at 10 o'clock Thursday morning, April 5th, 1888, in the Tabernacle, Salt Lake City.

The officers and members of the Church are respectfully invited to attend.

WILFORD WOODRUFF,
In behalf of the Council of the Twelve Apostles.

IS IT INHUMAN?

WHEN the historian shall undertake the task of writing and grouping the incidents that have occurred in the career of the Latter-day Saints as a community during the last few years, he will find plenty of material out of which to construct a story of absorbing interest. It will bristle with facts that will, in the future, be perused with wonder and avidity. It will contain vivid illustrations of human devotion, suffering and exquisite cruelty. In these respects it will exceed many of the works of fiction the perusal of which excites sensitive readers to weep, and abhor. Scenes in which tender and devoted women and helpless children are made the victims of a misguided and merciless policy will occupy some prominence in the narrative.

Here is an instance in point. A woman with a three months' old babe is taken before a court as a witness, and declines to answer questions whose object is to discover the identity of the father of her infant. She is held to be in contempt and the court's idea of the majesty of the law is that it must be maintained by thrusting this woman into a loathesome prison, designed for criminals of the blackest cast. The life of the little one depends upon its being kept in contact with its mother. To deny this association might result in constructive murder, as without it the child would probably not survive. As a consequence the decree of imprisonment necessarily includes this little one, who belongs to a class the Savior said were of the Kingdom of Heaven. But even with the maternal companionship of the mother retained, the life and health of the little one is unsafe, its present condition being a verification of this pathetic fact. The public are aware of the character of the place of confinement. The present officers in charge are humane, and we have no idea that they would deny any accommodations for the comfort and convenience of the tender prisoners, the institution of which they have the oversight affords. But the difficulty is that the facilities in that respect are of the poorest and meanest description.

What is the reason for the perpetration of such acts that are, in our opinion, gross violations of the law of common humanity, which is higher in the scale of philosophy than any enacted statute? It has already been stated that the lady declines at present to tell who is the father of her child. Only this and nothing more.

It may be asked in this connection whether it is not believed she is a plural wife and that it is also believed her silence is caused by a desire on her part to screen her husband lest he be placed in jeopardy on account of his association with her. If that be admitted as a probability, she may be asked in reply whether in that case she is not acting upon an instinct that is one of the chief characteristics of a true woman's nature. He who is unwilling to admit so patent a fact connected with woman's composition is no higher in the scale of intelligence and consistency than an ass.

To a true wife her husband is all in all, and rather than place him in danger, she will confront it herself. History is full of illustrations of this complexion, and it has been a custom in all ages for the conduct of such women to be estimated as heroic.

It is needless to urge that if this woman is a plural wife, she is not a wife in the eyes of the law. The devoted woman looks out of her womanly eyes, and not through the cold, glassy eyes of the law. If such a relationship exists in the instance in point as is presumed, to her the father of her child is her husband, and to expect her to regard the relationship as severed is antipodal to the law of nature and humanity.

People may say what they please to the contrary, we contend that such cases as the one in question smack of the inquisitorial processes that belong to the dark ages the revival of which should be viewed with abhorrence. The law does not contemplate the perpetration of cruelty, and as to whether such instances as the one considered inculcates that element is left to the judgment of the unprejudiced portion of the public. If it does it is in conflict with the expressed policy of the Chief Executive of this Republic, who has stated in plain terms that he does not wish the "Mormon" people to be in a position to correctly hold that the law is being vindictively administered against them.

Yesterday Dr. Joseph S. Richards kindly responded to a request to visit the child referred to in the foregoing, and found it very ill. He was prepared to give a certificate to that effect and that to retain it in confinement in the penitentiary would endanger its life. Today Marshal Dyer stated that the issuance of such a certificate would be useless, as Judge Henderson had stated that under no circumstances would the mother—Anna E. Brown—be released unless she answered the questions to which she had refused to reply.

And so the matter stands, in this land of free America, in the nineteenth century. What a spectacle to see a great government stretch out the hand of its mighty power, through one of its agents, to crush a helpless woman and a suckling babe!

AN EVENT OF HORROR.

A TERRIBLE tale of woe comes from China. Recently the earth, as if in deep disgust at the condition of her sons and daughters in that part of the globe, vented her emotion by another of her convulsive throes. The result was the splitting and cracking of her crust into chasms of diverse dimensions, in which were engulfed 15,000 of the inhabitants.

The event is full of sickening horror, the statement of which is intensified in that respect by the announcement that after the living, writhing and crushed mass of humanity was entombed streams of bloody water issued from the fissures.

These are but notes of warning to the balance of earth's inhabitants to prepare for the great day of the Lord, which is at hand. The voice of revelation has stated that destruction will come upon this generation like a thief in the night; like the advent of a whirl wind, yet how true that as it was in the days of Noah, immediately previous to the time when the earth was swept by a flood of waters, so is it in the days of the coming of the Son of Man. The people are pursuing the paths of godlessness, heedless of the signs of the times, which are but the prologue to the most gigantic and dramatic scenes that ever transpired upon our globe.

Bringing it nearer home, there are many of those who profess to be looking for the coming of the Lord who appear to be imbued with the spirit of the world and wholly engrossed in its pursuits, while as to the things of eternity they are in a comatose condition. When will the awakening come?

A SUBJECT FOR SERIOUS REFLECTION.

OVER the signature of "W." a correspondent residing in this city writes a communication endorsing the tenor of an editorial article which appeared in the NEWS of March 16th, under the caption of "Scarce Times Ahead." He regards the subject as a fitting one for serious reflection, especially on the part of Latter-day Saints. He urges that those who have faith in the revelations which have been given, and the prophecies that have been uttered upon this subject, should manifest their faith by their works, and he shows that the only way in which they can do this is to store up grain for a time of need.

His position is that hoarded grain will yet be found more precious than hoarded gold, and he suggests the pertinent query if he who will not provide for his own household has not denied the faith, at least in part, and asks how much better than an infidel is the man who professes to believe in revelation, but refuses to be guided thereby?

He calls attention to the fact that, in certain portions of this country, there are large tracts of land whose productiveness has never been developed and suggests that some people would act wisely by locating on those lands, and developing their fertility. Much of his letter is devoted to this phase of his subject, and he incidentally shows the advantages that will accrue to land owners west of the Jordan as a result of the completion of the Utah and Salt Lake canal, work on which is being vigorously prosecuted.

To subdue the soil and produce from it the means of sustaining life, is to act in line with the spirit and policy which have characterized this Church throughout its career; and the Saints, by keeping on hand a generous supply of such kinds of food as are not readily injured by age, will be taking a course in harmony with their professions of faith, and with a sound financial policy.

PROHIBITION IN UTAH.

UNDER the authority of the National Prohibition Committee, a call has been issued for a "territorial prohibition mass organizing convention," to be held at Ogden on Tuesday, the 24th inst., for the purpose of organizing the National Prohibition Party in this Territory. The convention will be addressed by Walter T. Mills, of Ohio, "who comes on a special mission from the National Prohibition Committee, as national organizer for the Pacific states and territories. All citizens o Utah, who believe that the traffic in intoxicating beverages should be prohibited, are invited to take part in this convention."

The call announces that Mr. Mills "will show the logical ground for the existence of the party, describe the wonderful growth in twenty-nine years, and give reasons for its prospects of speedy triumph," and describes him as "a trained and skilful organizer, full of helpful plans and suggestions." In the work of Mr. Mills, and with any local organization of the Prohibition Party he may succeed in effecting, the masses of the people of this Territory will entertain an earnest sympathy, provided the suppression of the liquor traffic by lawful and proper methods be made the object of the efforts of that gentleman and the party he may organize.

There is in most parts of Utah a strong sentiment in favor of prohibition, and if all other issues could be eliminated from the campaign to be inaugurated here under the auspices of the Prohibition Party, the latter would enjoy the support of many of the thoughtful and stable citizens of the Territory.

The non-conformists of England are pressing the question "Do Ministers Know Their Bibles?" The Rev. Dr. McKennal, in a recent address before a Lancashire college, said that "it was a perfectly evident and painful fact in the minds of the committee that the students who came up were less furnished in knowledge of the English Bible than in almost any other subject." Of theology they seem to have a plenty but of a broad and thorough knowledge of the scriptures they seem to be badly deficient. It is also claimed that the same complaint can be made against many theological schools in Great Britain. Speaking upon this subject a prominent eastern journal very justly remarks: "Possibly in this country, also, it might be discovered upon an investigation that a similar condition of things obtains."

Appreciative.

We are in receipt of the following communication, dated Ogden, March 30th, and signed "A Friend to the Young:"

During my short stay in Utah I have been much interested in the the talent displayed by the young people in their Improvement and other Associations. I had the pleasure of attending an entertainment given, by the members of the Y. M. M. I. A. of Syracuse on the 28th inst. The programme was excellent and the execution very good, particularly the parts taken by Messrs. Cook, Singleton, Cotes and a few others whose names I did not learn. The singing by the ladies was very good. Great credit is due their President and his assistants for the admirable way the entertainment was carried out.

The contract for the cutting of the stone for the new City Hall was signed on Friday by Messrs. Martin & Brader. Yesterday they furnished bonds in the sum of $5,000. The cutting of the stone will begin as soon as the rock can be brought upon the ground. It is expected that about thirty carloads of cut stone will be necessary for the building. The work will be done here which will give employment to nine or ten workmen. Three or four carloads of Kyune stone from the Thistle quarries owned by Messrs. Lawrence & Hammel, will be needed. Two carloads of red sandstone and about twenty-five cars of Oolite stone from Sanpete will be shipped here as soon as the orders can be filled. The City Hall, according to the contract made by Messrs. Fife & Engelbrechsen, must be ready seven months from the date of the contract which is March 26.—Ogden Standard, April 1.

Charter Repealed.

BALTIMORE, April 3.—Late last night the legislature of Maryland repealed the charter of the Baltimore & Ohio Railroad Employes' Relief Association, to take effect April 15th, 1889. This action meets the approval of the new officers of the railroad company.

Thrown From the Fourth Story.

NEW YORK, April 3.—Mrs. Tillie Sipp, aged 35, while in a fit of insanity, this morning, threw her stwelve year old son, George, out of the window of the fourth story of house No. 169 East 122nd Street. She jumped after the child. The mother and son were both seriously injured and will probably die. The husband of the woman is a baker. He was not at home at the time.

Tied Up.

CHICAGO, April 3.—Not a wheel turned in the Michigan Central yards after seven o'clock this morning. While no strike was declared, the Chicago end of the road was completely tied up, the engineers, firemen and switchmen all having deserted their posts. The cause of such a state of affairs in the yards was the presence there of a "Q" freight train, which was delivered yesterday, and the announcement by the Michigan Central that they would handle all freight delivered. Mr. Lehommedieu, who, with Supt. Brown, is managing the affair for the company, said: "We intend to give the men as much grace as possible. At 7 this morning Supt. Brown and myself were here ready to carry out the programme announced yesterday, that is to say, see that all cars received by the company were handled without any discrimination, or dismiss the men who refused. Just as we were proceeding to do this, a delegation of our road engineers entered the office at 7:05 a. m. They had a few minutes previous arrived from Jackson, Michigan, where they had been deputed by the Brotherhood men on the Michigan Central to come here and endeavor to arrange matters satisfactorily. They said they would at once call a meeting of the yard employes who were objecting to handling Burlington freight and urged that all action be meantime suspended. As a matter of courtesy to our old employes, we readily consented, they will be given ample time, of course."

"How long?"

"Well, until noon at least."

The statement that no work was done in the yards after seven this morning, as explained by the company's representatives, does not mean that the Michigan Central passenger service was interfered with. All passenger trains this morning arrived and departed on time as usual. The strike was confined to the switch engineers, firemen and switchmen in the local freight yards of the company.

$5,000,000 for Philadelphia.

PHILADELPHIA, April 3.—It is stated by reliable authority that Claus Spreckels, the California sugar king, now in this city, has decided to build a refinery in Philadelphia and that the purchase of a site for it on Delaware River front will be consummated today. It is understood that $5,000,000 capital will be put into the enterprise, all to be supplied by Spreckels himself, and that contracts for the erection, machinery, etc., will be placed in a few days. The capacity of the proposed refinery is put at 7000 barrels or 2,000,000 pounds per day. The cost of the plant has been stated as $3,000,000 and the annual output as $35,000,000.

The Men All at Work again.

KANSAS CITY, April 3.—At a general secret meeting of the switchmen in the yards here late last night, reliable information was presented to the effect that the Santa Fe company would not force the men to handle "Q" freight. The meeting thereupon ordered that if such be the case the yard men on that road who went out last evening would resume work this morning. In accordance with this the men all took their places again this morning.

The Santa Fe has posted a notice that that road will receive no freight whatever of any kind today. All the other roads are working all right excepting the Burlington.

Favorable Report.

WASHINGTON, April 3.—The House commerce committee has ordered a favorable report on the resolution to provide for congressional inquiry into the engineers' strike in the west.

Buried.

NEW YORK, April 3.—Jacob Greenbaum, the well known California auctioneer, who died at the Windsor Hotel, on Friday, was buried this morning in Cypress Hill Cemetery. He was on his way to Europe on a visit when taken ill.

Drop of Oil.

NEW YORK, April 3.—A fall of six cents occurred in oil today. The market was completely demoralized.

Literary Notes.

Mr. Geo. P. Rowell, of New York, York, who is authority on such matters, in an address before the American Newspaper Publishers' Association, at Indianapolis, proved that five newspapers issue more than one-seventh of the total edition of all the daily papers printed. The number of daily newspapers in the United States now numbers about 1400, consequently the five which were referred to must each sell an average edition two hundred times greater than the average of the others.

Orders for the "Great Rock Island Cook Book" will hereafter be promptly filled. The delay, of which some recent subscribers have had cause to complain, was due to the fact that the first edition of the revised issue (for 1888) was exhausted much sooner than anticipated. Another large edition, however, has been printed and is now ready for delivery. Copies mailed, postpaid, at ten (10) cents (for postage) in stamps or coin. Address, E. A. Holbrook, General Ticket and Passenger Agent, Chicago. Also copies of the famous scientific series of Christmas Annuals, dedicated to the boys and girls of America,—"Watt Stephens," "Voltagal," "Petroleum and Natural Gas," and "Coal and Coke"—at ten (10) cents each.

Messrs. Cassell & Company have ready a life of the late Emperor of Germany, by Archibald Forbes, the famous war correspondent. The early chapters have been in type several weeks, but the book has been held back in anticipation of the sad event that has plunged all Germany in sorrow. The Emperor William's life covers ninety years, and he has played an important part in the world's history, having helped to defeat the first Napoleon when a lad of seventeen, and having driven the third Napoleon from France in his old age. Mr. Fortes' graphic pen has never had a better opportunity than in the writing of this book, and it is doubtful if the German Emperor will ever have a more brilliantly written biography.

In the article entitled "Where Shall We Spend Our Summer?" which General A. W. Greely, Chief Signal Officer, contributes to the April Scribner's, he shows (as far as one can predict from the series of observations made by the signal service of army for many years) which will be the three hottest days of the coming summer, east of the Mississippi River. In the concluding paper by John C. Ropes on "The Campaign of Waterloo," in the same number there will be four full-page illustrations—two ideal pictures by R. F. Zogbaum, and two by W. T. Smedley. There are also a great many smaller sketches by Mr. Smedley, which were made during his recent visit to the field of Waterloo for this magazine. In the first article on "The Centre of the Republic," contributed by Professor James Baldwin to this number, he gives a wonderfully vivid picture of the sturdy pioneer life which was the foundation of the prosperity and greatness of the States north of the Ohio River. These papers promise to be a valuable contribution towards enlightening the east as to the intellectual advances made by the great west.

The Breath of a chronic catarrh patient is often so offensive that he cannot go into society and he becomes an object of disgust. After a time ulceration sets in, the spongy bones are attacked, and frequently, entirely destroyed. A constant source of discomfort is the dripping of the purient secretions into the throat, sometimes producing inveterate bronchitis, which in its turn has been the exciting cause of pulmonary disease. The brilliant results which have attended its use for years past properly designate Ely's Cream Balm as by far the best if not the only real cure for hay fever, rose cold and catarrh.
