Apostle H. J. Grant and Daughter and Elder Moses W. Taylor Return.

Found the Country Very Dry - Nevertheiess Conditions sAre Not, Generally Speaking, Unfavorable.

Apostle Heber J. Grant, and daughter Lucy, and Elder Moses W. Taylor, returned today from a four weeks' trip through Arizona and Mexico, where they have been on Church matters, The trip was a pleasant and profitable one, said Apostle Grant today, notwith-standing the fact that the whole country, particularly Arlzona, is suffering greatly from drouth. The dry spell, however, was broken at Juarez, Mex-ico, where a magnificent storm occurred during the presence of the visitors. Here the Saints will raise a very good crop this year-their fruit crop is the best for a long time.

It is not a little strange to relate that the party felt no inconvenience from the warm weather, being fortunate enough to have cool waves almost constantly seceding and following them up. health of the people, said Apostic Grant, was generally very good and their spir-its buoyant and hopeful, although at St. Johns the killing of the two Mor-mon boys recently, by bandits, was still the principal theme of discussion. Meetings were held at St. Joseph, Thatcher, Central, Hubbard and Pima, in the order named. A new ward was organized at Hubbard, with Elder Elisha F. Hubbard as Bishop, In Mexico meetings were held at Juarez and Dublan. On the return trip meetings were held at Snowflake, Taylor, Woodward St. Lorent St. ruff, St. Joseph, St. Johns and Concho The Church Academy building at St Johns, a really fine structure, is rapidly nearing completion, and will be ready for occupancy this fall,

A Trio of Salt Lakers Return With More Disgust Than Dust.

Three more well known Salt Lake men have returned to the city from Cape Nome. These are Messts. E. D. Miller, J. S. Daveler, the well known printer and P. C. Kittle. All of them declare that Nome is the biggest mining fake yet sprung upon the people, and all of them are glad to be back

Mr. Kittle, who was the local salesman of the Kemmerer Coal company says that the boom has about collapsed and that there will be a rush for home from now on. A few miners are doing well, but these are on claims that were staked out months ago. Generally speaking, it does not pay to work the Daveler, while not sorry that he took the trip, was thoroughly disgusted with the country, and says there is nothing to keep a man there. He says the sanitary conditions at Nome City are frightful, and that a pestilence is sure to fellow.

Mr. Kittle is also pronounced in his ondemnation of the country, and says that but few are making anything.

that but few are making anything. A great number are broke and the wages given do not pay the living expenses of those who have found employment.

The three gentlemen bring word from a host of Utah and Idaho people, who are at Nome, all of them are well and are taking things as best they can. The most of these they say will as The most of these, they say, will return shortly

WHAT HAPPENED TO JONES. Stranger from Nevada Got More Than He Was Looking For.

Last evening a drunken man from Nevada who this morning gave his name as George Jones, started out to scare up a fight or two. He got one. In fact, he got it so bad that he remained unconsc us at the police sta-tion all night. It happened in the Mec-ca saloon on East Tempie street. Jones was stirring up trouble in the saloon when an officer was sent for. Jones was fired out of the place, and as he struck the sidewalk, J. E. Doty was passing and Jones struck him. Doty promptly smashed a return blow and knocked Jones back into the saloon.

Then according to the story of a man who called at the police station this morning and who saw the fracas, the kicked him into insensibility. This afternoon Jones swore to a com-plaint charging the bartender with as, sault and battery.

MEAGER INTEREST SHOWN.

Apathy of Taxpayers, After the Wide Publicity Given the Proposition. Was Surprising.

The result of yesterday's bond election was gratifying to the promoters of the proposed, and now authorized, city bonds, although the apathy shown by taxpayers is somewhat surprising in view of the wide publicity given the matter in all the newspapers and by personal talk and argument. The Australian ballot system was really unnecessary in yesterday's election, for the reason that every voter made no attempt to conceal his position in the matter and told how he would vote. The business of providing for the bond issue will now proceed with the great-est consistent speed and the improvement of the water system will at once be commenced. This is the way the people voted:

STATE TAX LEVY.

Fixed at Five Mills for General Purposes and Three for Schools.

The State board of equalization has fixed the State tax levy at the same rate as it was last year, that is, five mills for general purposes and three mills for school tax. The amount of money rulsed by the tax, however, will far exceed that of last year, owing to increased valuation of property this year over that of the year past.

LAST NIGHT'S VAUDEVILLE. An Astonishingly Fine Performance for a Cheap Theater.

If high class vaudeville performances are what Salt Lakers want for summer amusement, there is a chance for the multitudes to revel in the program which opened last evening in the Salt Palace theater. Every act is as good as the best and the performance compares favorably with the Orpheim shows in 'Prisco, or those of any of the large eastern cities. When the curtain rang up last evening the largeest Monday night audience since the open ing of the theater, filled every seat. I was an expectant audience, and the ap pearance of each new artist on the stage, was greeted with applaus Mlss Ola Hayden, the female baritone who has just arrived from the Orpheur circuit, was easily the star attraction. She is a wee bit of a girl with long curling tresses and a personality as charming as the richest notes of her remarkable voice. It was in her rendition of 'Because' that the marvelous range and excellent control of her voice was best observed. When she finished singing this song, the audience gave vent to appreciation by an outburst of apclause that resulted in an encore, and everal bows. This spell was heightened when Ned Baisden, a young man who has the title of "King of the Cycle," gave an exhibition of the most wonderful trick bike riding ever seen in Sali Lake. His feats included standing on his head on the saddle, with his hands on the handle bars while his wheel spun around the stage in a circle Lovers of high art juggling will be in-terested in Kalacratus, a fair haired young man, who does a pot pourri of clever acts. He made his mark as a juggler on his trip over the continent with Lole Fuller, the famous French lancer, who now has a theater in Paris. Perhaps his best feat is the juggling of live golf balls in one hand and then atching them in a silk hat.

In their musical specialty, Green and Daly, who came here after a run at Elitch's Denver Garden, are a hit. They on a dozen or more instruments nd are a ratented pair. Mr. Valin, the ventriloquist, who was billed for last night, but who was de-ayed in travel, will, it is said, appear A PAINFUL INJURY.

Charles Midgley Steps on Nail Which Passes Through His Foot.

Charles W. Midgley, the painter and decorator, who lives at No. 30 Jefferson avenue, stepped on a long rusty nail, while at work in Farmers' ward yesterday afternoon. The nail passed clear through the foot. It required consider able strength to draw it out. Dr. J. S. Richards was called and he dressed the wound. The injured man, later sustained so much pain from the wound that the doctor was recalled. Some fear was felt in regard to blood poison setting in, but it is thought now that the unfortunate man will recover with the unfortunate man will recover without anything so serious.
