The Adoration of the Virgin of Guadalupe Results in a Terrible Accident.

New York, Nov. 3.—The World announces the burning of two images by the judge of the Mexican court of Mexico, which is published in a special dispatch from Mexico. The dispatch says:

As soon as the news reached Mexico, the principal town in the district, the municipal president, and other officials, with a great number of people, went to the place where the images were kept, and after a long and painful struggle, they succeeded in burning them. The images were of the Virgin of Guadalupe and of the Virgin of Luján.
