SOCIAL CHAT

Probably the largest affair of the week was the reception given by the Women's Democratic club on Thursday night in honor of the democratic members of the legislature, the event taking place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Boyle, which was brilliantly decorated for the occasion. A number of addresses were given by prominent guests, a delicious supper was served and the affair was in every way delightful.

One of Monday's pleasant events was the tea given by Mrs. Hugh Anderson, in honor of her niece, Mrs. J. E. Hunt, the rooms being decorated with a profusion of spring flowers and a number of intimate friends assisting, including Mrs. W. Montague Perry, Miss Jessie Anderson, Mrs. W. H. Cunningham, Mrs. June Sadler, Mrs. Edward S. Perry and Mrs. June Sadler Donnell.

Another pretty affair of the same afternoon was the luncheon given by Mrs. E. T. Harvey in honor of Mrs. Frank Halm. The guests sat at a long table artistically decorated with daffodils and yellow shaded candles, and afterward "tag" was enjoyed, the prizes going to Mrs. Halm, Mrs. Knight, and Mrs. Reinsmaier.

F. C. Schramm gave a box party at the Orpheum Monday evening in compliment to Mrs. J. E. Hunt. The guests, besides Mrs. Hunt, being Miss Jessie Anderson, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Cunningham, Mrs. June Sadler, Donnell, John S. Critchlow and Lester Freed.

A large affair of the week was the dancing and card party given by the Unitarian society on Tuesday night at Unity hall, about 100 guests enjoying the pleasant affair. Those on the reception committee included Rev. and Mrs. F. P. Eddy, Mr. and Mrs. George Raybould, Mr. and Mrs. George O. Orr, Mr. and Mrs. James L. Parks, Mrs. James Cowan, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Miss Gertrude Schwab.

SCHWAB TO MAKE SISTER PRINCELY GIFT.

A wedding present valued at $2,000.00 is rare enough to excite more than passing notice. A complete collection of gifts at a fashionable marriage rarely touches a figure half as large, yet Gertrude Schwab, the favorite sister of Charles M. Schwab, formerly president of the United States Steel corporation, is to receive $2,000.00 cash from her brother on the day she becomes the wife of David J. Barry, of Johnstown, Pa., to whom she is engaged. The wedding is to take place early in June, and will be celebrated at the home of Miss Schwab in Loreto, Pa. She is a very handsome young woman and bears a considerable resemblance to her famous brother. Mr. Barry is a banker and, although not considered a wealthy man, has some property and is in no actual need of the marriage portion which his future brother-in-law has seen fit to set aside for the young couple. They will make their home in Johnstown.

of Port Douglas, 10 tables being played, and prizes awarded the winners at each. The rooms were decorated with American Beauty roses and red carnations.

DAUGHTER OF CLEVELAND'S MAYOR TO MARRY.

The engagement to marry of Miss Elizabeth Flourence Johnson, daughter of Tom L. Johnson, mayor of Cleveland, Ohio, has been formally announced by the parents, but the date of the wedding has not been fixed. Miss Johnson has promised to be the wife of Federico Mariani, of Milan, Italy, but recently of New York, whom she has known for six years and with whom she has collaborated in writing a dramatic work. Miss Johnson has been on the stage, has staged a play of her own production and is intensely devoted to literary and dramatic art. She has a sympathetic helpmate in her choice of a life companion, his tastes being of a nature akin to her own. He speaks English fluently, with but the slightest trace of foreign accent, and has resided in America for a number of years. The couple have not yet decided whether they will have their future home in this country or Italy, but it is probable that Mayor Johnson will induce his daughter to make her permanent residence in the land of her birth.

COLORADO HAS ITS FIRST WOMAN JUROR.

Miss Hilda Smith, of Denver, is the first woman to sit on a jury in Colorado and has acquitted herself creditably in the company of her male associates. She is young, handsome and belongs to a leading family, but has expressed herself as having no desire to become a professional juror. Her first case was a suit for divorce on the ground of desertion and a verdict was awarded the husband, who made the complaint.

WEDDING BELLS

An interesting announcement of the week was the engagement of Miss Elsie Hansen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Hansen and Mr. Wallace Weiser, the wedding to be among the June events.

The marriage of Miss Hazel Florence Woodruff and J. Herman Johnson took place next Tuesday night, a reception to be held at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Woodruff, from 2 to 11 o'clock.

A pretty wedding of this week was that of Miss Louise Young and Mr. Thomas Carrigan, the event taking place at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Young, on Tuesday night, and the bridal pair leaving afterward for Goldfield, where they will make their home. The bride wore a beautiful gown of white marquisette over tulle, trimmed with Duchess lace and carried brides' roses and her bridesmaid, Miss Hal Cunningham, was in pale pink silk, her bouquet being pink carnations. Mr. Roullet of Pocatello was best man and a number of intimate friends assisted in entertaining.
