WAS THIS BOMB SET FOR HAWLEY?

Mysterious Object of Suspicious Appearance Discovered Under Prosecutor's Office Window.

NOBODY DARES TO OPEN IT.

Object Looks Like Shotgun Cartridge And Is Being Held For Expert Examination—Men Drowned.

Special Correspondence.

BOISE, Idaho, June 6.—Early yesterday there was found under the office window of Attorney James Hawley, leading counsel for the prosecution of the Steuermann murder case, a mysterious object which has the appearance of a bomb. Though small it arouses much suspicion and no one is yet found who dares dissect it. It is in the possession of the chief of police who is holding it for examination by an expert.

From the fact that Harry Orchard was housed in the office of Mr. Hawley night before last, lends more color to the suspicion.

The peculiar object is not sufficiently large to blow up a building, but could easily destroy a number of persons, whether it be made up of dynamite or nitro-glycerine.

In shape it is much like that of a shot gun cartridge and not much larger in size. It is quite heavy and is cased in tin and plugged at one end. At the opposite end there is a copper cap set in what appears to be crushed coal saturated with some kind of gluey substance. Solder has also been used in the make up of the thing.

COMMERCIAL TRAVELERS.

Idaho's capital is this week entertaining the United Commercial Travelers. With badges and ribbons hanging from coat lapels they can be counted by the score upon the streets and every incoming train brings dozens more. For four blocks on main street and every street intersecting it in that region, banners labeled: "Welcome" and "U. C. T." hang from every window and are projected from every telephone and lamp post and the shop windows are very artistically decorated in the state colors.

One of the biggest parades Boise has ever seen will be formed on Friday at 2 o'clock and march through the main streets of the city. There will be three good bands in the line and a number of floats with floral figures and tableaux. Members of the U. C. T. will appear in the line in the garb of bullfighters. Members of the order whose business calls them to other countries will appear in the costume of the respective countries in which they travel. There will also be clowns and other comic features in the parade.

The line of march will end up at Riverside park where a large concert hall named will be played by teams representing the commercial travelers and the Boise Commercial Club. In the evening a dancing party will be given at the Commercial Club. The official program, however, will begin this morning at the Commercial club rooms; speeches will be made by representatives from both sides and the program stretched out through the greater part of the day. A smoker will be given by the Commercial club in the evening.

SEVEN LOGGERS DROWN.

Three days after the dreadful accident happened, word was brought in this city that seven of the loggers logging in the south fork of the Payette river, 12 miles above Long valley, lost their lives in the angry waters of that river, last Thursday afternoon. The loggers were Joe Boden, Bert Ure, Mel Curtis, Joe Hamilton, Tom Highland, Frank Fitzgerald and David McMillan. As yet none of the bodies have been reported found, and it is not at all likely that they will ever be recovered, as the waters of the river at that place are so turbulent that recovery of the bodies would be all but impossible. Still, a diligent search has been in progress for a number of days in an effort to find the lost men.

The men were engaged by the Idaho White Pine Milling company of Nampa, and engaged in logging down the river a great log drive. In all there were 18 men with two boats. Thursday evening they reached rapids above which they expected to land for the night and take their boats over the next morning.

A short distance above the rapids is a small eddy where they intended to land, but the head boat missed it and went on over the rapids upon its rocks. The head boat was overturned and its occupants were thrown into the raging stream. The men in the second boat supposed that the first had made the rapids all right and intended to follow. They met the same fate.

Of the 16 men in the two boats only nine succeeded in reaching the shore alive, and this was after a fierce battle with death. They were drawn down in whirlpools, beaten against the rocks and carried by the swift current for a great distance down stream, but only by one they reached the shore in an all but completely exhausted condition.

So far as known, none of the drowned men had families, and scarcely anything is known of their family history.

DROWN IN BOISE RIVER.

Monday morning three men lost their lives in the Boise river in an effort to rescue a fellow workman. The men were engaged on a big log drive for the Barber mill, some 10 miles above the city when one of their number lost his footing and fell into the deep, swift-flowing water. Immediately dive of his companions sprang into the water to his rescue, but instead of lending assistance to their comrade they found it necessary to swim for their own lives. In the meantime the man who had fallen into the water had by his own effort succeeded in swimming to a landing; but the others were not so successful, only two of them were rescued, while the other three went down to their death. The drowned are George Corack, an Australian, and Fernand Austab and Francisco Yriondo, both Spaniards, and all of them were grown men who had been in the logging business for some time.

GETS EXTENT OF LAW.

C. H. Duncan, the man arrested last week for wearing false whiskers, mustache and eyebrows and in whose case was found a revolver, a disk and brass knuckles, had his hearing before Judge

WANTS TO SUCCEED DOWIE.

Jacob Bellhart, some time of Chicago and elsewhere, driven from place to place by reason of his antagonism of the laws of the land, now claims that he is the true successor of the late "Elijah" Dowie and that the "Spirit Fruit" of society, of which he is the head, will assume proportions in excess of the Dowieites' Zion City. Bellhart believes in free love and says that on June 14 he will be prepared to receive 5,000 free love disciples at his 500 acre farm near Ingleside, Ill. He seems to thoroughly believe in his new cult and says that the day will come when it will lead the world's religions. Just what his full belief is has not been made clear to those outside the fold.

Pefley of the municipal court, last Friday, Duncan acted as his own attorney and entered a plea of not guilty to the charge of carrying concealed weapons.

Several witnesses were introduced on both sides and after all the evidence was in and Duncan had made his plea, the judge imposed a fine of $200 and imprisonment for 60 days, the maximum penalty of the law, which is the heaviest fine ever imposed by the municipal court of Boise.

The wording of the judge's decision is as follows: "I will have to find you guilty. If you came here to play a prank, then you are unfortunate; and if you came with an evil intention, then you will get all that is coming to you. I must do my duty. I will place your fine at $200, with a sentence of 60 days in jail."

If Duncan does not supply the cash fine he will have to remain in jail 60 days. Day before yesterday Duncan received a postal card from his mother in Ann Arbor, Michigan, who wrote him upon her first hearing of her son's misfortune. Ann Arbor is Duncan's old home. He received his higher education in the university there. The card from his mother reads:

Ann Arbor, Mich., No. 428 Maynard St., June 1, 1907.
Dear Charlie—Can it be that all this in the papers means you? It is so terrible. Why do you do it? Why join yourself to the plans and schemes of foreign outcasts? Oh! Stop right where you are and remember all the better things of the past years. With love, MAMA.

MINING COMBINATION.

It is understood that negotiations are under way to complete a mining deal which will give F. A. Heinze, ex-senator Thomas Kearns, J. B. Keith and other associates complete control of the Silver King coal mines and the McGreager ground in Utah, and form the nucleus of one of the largest mining, milling and smelting corporations in the world. The deal, however, is relative to figures can be learned at this time.

WORKERS WALK OUT.

Out of sympathy for their striking fellows of Salt Lake City, the Boise Electric Light Workers walked out last Saturday morning from the Rocky Mountain Bell Telephone company, in accordance with a decision of the union. The workers of the company all there were 25 men. The men had no grievance whatever, and are ready to return to work any time the difficulty in Salt Lake can be settled, when a higher secured wages is demanded.

This action upon the part of the local union was not in the least anticipated by the telephone company and the walk out work a great hardship upon the company in caring for its regular work and installing new telephones where ordered. Linemen at Nampa, Caldwell, Payette and Wilder are also out, in fact, all the electrical works of the company in Idaho have been called out, and it is understood that the call affects Montana as well.

CHICKEN THIEVES CAUGHT.

Louis Montrose and Edward McGinley, aged 18 and 17 respectively, were arrested last week and had their hearing Saturday on a charge of stealing chickens valued at $30, from the residence of Dr. John Boeck. They were found guilty and sentenced to imprisonment in the city jail. Montrose being 30 days and McGinley 12 days.

PROBABLY CAPTURED.

It is possible that Harry Dougherty, who escaped from the state penitentiary nearly three years ago, where he was serving a three years' sentence under former Warden Perrin, is in receipt of a letter from a Washington county deputy sheriff at Meadows in which he states that he thought a man he had in custody was Dougherty. Warden Whitney has dispatched one of the traveling guards to Meadows to identify the man.

BARBER LOSES MIND.

Harry Hawks, the tenth street barber, lost his mind and has been committed to the asylum in Blackfoot. The first known signs of insanity were shown when he commenced to talk of the immense tracts of real estate to which he had fallen heir and of the great brick barber shop he was about to erect on Main street. He had suddenly become the richest man in the world.

NEW APPOINTMENTS.

Governor Gooding has made three new appointments, two on state boards and one to fill the place of state bank examiner. Dr. J. L. Conant, Jr., of Genesee, was appointed as a member of the state board of health; Dr. O. J. Allen of Bellevue a member of the state board of medical examiners, and W. S. Chaney of Pocatello to fill the unexpired term of C. S. Loveland, state bank examiner, who has been appointed national bank examiner.

DEAF PUPILS GO HOME.

The pupils of the state school for the deaf, dumb and blind are being taken home for their summer vacation. Not one of them lives in Boise. State superintendent of public instruction and the state librarian are conducting the pupils to their various homes.

FELL DEAD AT WORK.

Samuel Wilkerson, an employe on the New York canal above this city, fell dead while working on the excavation. At the time of his death he was piloting a boat down the canal and was alone. He did not show up at the camp for dinner and a man was sent out to look after him. When found Wilkerson was lying in the boat with his face downward. It is supposed that his death was the result of heart trouble. He was 65 years of age.

IDAHO DEALERS CARELESS.

The state pure food commission complains of the dealers in this state being very careless with regard to the observance of the pure food law. In speaking of it the commissioner said: "Only about one in 50 seem interested enough to send for bulletins. Then when we find illegal goods in their stores they plead ignorance of the law. I have been investigating candy kitchens and soda fountains lately and with what little work I have done I know that there are $10,000 worth of illegal goods in connection with these establishments in the state. And this estimate is very conservative. I find that some soda fountains are using home-made syrups and crushed fruits, etc., which are all right, but only a small percentage are doing so. The pure food commission will gladly furnish applicants copies of their bulletins free of all cost, and will be glad to do so that the people might become familiar with what stuffs are classed as illegal and impure."

BIG WOOL SALES.

Before another week has passed about 10,000,000 pounds of wool will have changed hands in the district of the lower Snake river valley. Never before have so many buyers gotten together more readily and seldom have sales been made so promptly and with such satisfaction to both parties as this year. The price has not been less than 18 1/2 cents per pound and some have received as high as 21 cents per pound. Governor Gooding was one of those receiving the higher figure.

FARM HELP SCARCE.

Help in the beet field is very hard to get. The Japs quit on one of the company farms the other day, leaving 100 acres more on their hands than they were fighting on. All the boys and girls in the ward are kept busy at $1 to $1.25 per day according to size and ability. There is no place for idlers here.

Elder William Kilian is expected home tomorrow from the southern states mission, returning on account of poor health.

DUKE OF ABRUZZI FETED AND DINED.

Italy's brilliant naval commander, explorer and royal scion has been, since his arrival here for the opening of the Jamestown Exposition, a guest at many important social functions. The sailor-explorer-duke is of sturdy frame, charming personality and attractive manners. He speaks English fluently and possesses a wealth of reminiscences of his varied exploits which stands him in good stead and makes him a most entertaining companion at all times.

decision last Monday in the case of Bass vs Pocatello for a quit title to the waters of the city park. The decision was in favor of the city, and it was the position taken by ex-Mayor Theodore Turner when in July, 1902, he purchased from the government a tract of land about two miles south of the city and two springs of water near it. Judge Budge gave the plaintiff 60 days in which to file a bill of exceptions.

GREEK KILLED.

Nick Vigrus, a Greek laborer, employed by the commissary department of the Short Line, was fatally injured Monday evening near the ice houses. He was holding on to some cars that were being switched and he slipped and was knocked off by a post in close proximity and both legs were run over. The injured man died at 1:30 this morning and the remains were taken to Salt Lake for interment. The deceased was about 20 years of age and came direct from Greece four days ago.

PRESIDENT ENTERTAINED.

Mrs. Rebecca H. Douglass entertained last Friday evening in honor of Mr. Louis K. Pond, state president of the Young Ladies Mutual Improvement Association, who is about to leave for Nampa with her husband and family. Mr. J. C. Pond having taken on some land near the ladies were entertained by games of progressive finch followed by dainty refreshments. The guest of honor was presented a box by the hostess at a moment of the occasion and the esteem in which she is held by all who have the pleasure of her acquaintance. Mr. Lyndauer C. Pond holds the important position of state superintendent of Sunday schools of the Pocatello stake which he has held since its inception nine years ago, and for eight years of that time he has been state clerk.

A partial change occurred in this office a little over two years ago when Mr. Pond accepted the federal position of collector of the Pacific. Mr. Hyrum Kay was appointed assistant clerk to the stake office under the title of "clerk of the stake clerk," since then the Church authorities have rendered both these titles obsolete and now it is simply "stake clerk" and assistant stake clerk." Last March Mr. Kay was advanced to stake clerk and Mr. Pond was retained as assistant stake clerk.

IDAHO BOOSTERS OFF FOR SALT LAKE

Many Members of St. Anthony Commercial Club Take Advantage of M. I. A. Rates.

COAL DEPOSITS IN TETON.

Railroad Surveys Have Been Completed to Coal Fields and Outlook For Future Is Bright.

Special Correspondence.

SALT ANTHONY, Ida, June 6.—This M. I. A. conference rates have a solid car of St. Anthony boosters to Salt Lake. A number of St. Anthony Commercial club are along and these are talking big things of the building little city of "Banana Belt." Among the boosters are: Pether, W. W. Youmans, A. D. Stevenson, J. O. Ashcraft and W. W. Solters. These gentlemen say that the outlook for Fremont county's progress for 1907 is very bright, St. Anthony's in particular.

Much activity is prevalent in the great coal deposits in the Teton and Snake country. Eastern exports have recently been in this country and claim there is as good coal in Fremont county as is to be found in the world and thousands of acres of undeveloped awaiting transportation facilities. The railroads, however, are working towards this country with much interest. The Northern and Burlington routes are very busy making surveys through the heart of these immense coal deposits and it is not generally known that the Northwestern has lately purchased $25,000 worth of these lands as well as much other property around the Teton and Snake country. Hundreds of settlers are pouring into this valley and it will not be long until it will become one of the richest valleys of Idaho. Fremont county will have 10 banks with the completion of the Ashton, Marysville and Driggs state banks and the large commodious St. Anthony Banking and Trust company's building. The Idaho Press club's convention recently held at St. Anthony, it was predicted by the brainy Idaho editors that Fremont county was bound to become a coal and iron empire with boundless resources. All the country needs is more people, more farmers, more mechanics, more men and women who are looking for homes and chances to build up a great commonwealth.

NEW MEETINGHOUSE COMPLETED AT BURLEY.

Special Correspondence.
BURLEY, Idaho, June 6.—Nearly two years ago President Jack and counselors paid us a visit and organized a branch of the Church here with E. A. Webb as presiding elder. At the same time President Jack advised the saints to build a house to meet in. This met with a hearty approval by all the saints present. A committee was appointed to build a house. In November of the same year meetings were held in the new house. A year ago last Sunday President Jack and counselors paid us a visit with L. W. Robbins as bishop. At that time all the lesser quorums were organized.

Last winter it was decided to build a new meetinghouse. The house was planned and a hearty approval, as it was plainly seen the house was too small for a fast growing ward. Under the direction of the building committee, an additional building, consisting of two rooms, was put up, which made it more convenient for the Sunday school and Mutual Improvement workers. The house has been completed and last Sunday dedicatory services were held, people from Rupert, Arden and Heyburn coming to assist in the work. The house was packed to its fullest capacity. President Jack offered the dedicatory prayer. The house cost completed about $200, which has all been paid for. The last day Saints have been very generous in this ward notwithstanding their financial condition, as a great many are living on their own and waiting for the Lord to open their eyes. Their faith is strong. Many of the men have to leave their families to seek work elsewhere in order to maintain a livelihood, but they are securing plenty of work.

The home of the town barber, T. E. Thorne, received an addition of a boy last Monday.

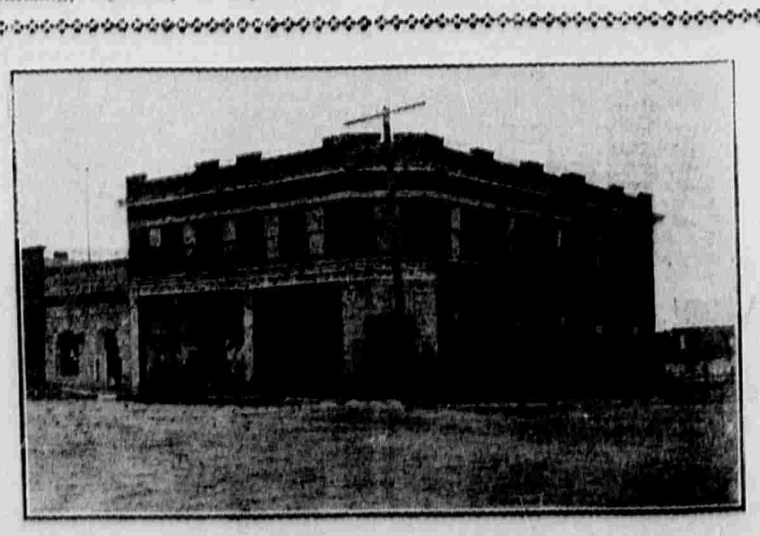

Mrs. Jacob Dayley of Oakley returned from a visit to her daughter at Willard last Friday.

This part of the stake will be pretty well represented at the Y. M. & Y. W. conference to be held at Salt Lake this week. About 75 tickets were sold Wednesday and the sleeper which left here was loaded to its fullest capacity. A number of the leading men of Burley met and other evening to take steps towards the organization of a commercial club. After some discussion it was decided to appoint a committee of three, consisting of Will J. Hayner, Jos. Sessions and T. Bailey Lee to correspond with the commercial clubs of Salt Lake and Boise to obtain all the necessary information, literature, etc. that will assist in the organization of the club.

MRS. MARIA THOMAS BURIED AT FRANKLIN.

Special Correspondence.
FRANKLIN, Ida, June 5.—The remains of Mrs. Maria Thomas, who died in Salt Lake City, were brought here for burial. Funeral services were held in the meetinghouse Tuesday, June 4. The speakers being Bishop L. L. Hatch, President George C. Parkinson, Elder Thomas Durant, Patriarch Samuel R. Parkinson, Elder Joshua Hawes and President Geddes. Many were present to pay their respects to the memory of a good woman, who loved the truth and lived an honorable and upright life.

Business is not very rushing here, although considerable building is going on. The new residence of S. C. Parkinson will soon be ready for occupancy. Garden truck is just beginning to grow a little. There has been much thunder of late, but no accompanying rain. Prospects for good crops are promising, especially on dry farms.

ST. ANTHONY'S NEW BANK.
