President Jonathan G. Kumbal of the First Council of Seventies, met with the Thirty-eighth quorum in North Ogden yesterday and gave some timely instructions to the officers and mem-bers of the quorum; a number of El-ders were ordained Seventies to fill up the quorum. A committee consisting of S. W.

Campbell, James Storey, Joseph Bark-er, Mrs. Geo, S. Dean and Mrs. Ellinh Shaw were appointed a few days ago to provide a day's amusement for our annual missionary reunion for March 4. John S. Chadwick was out Monday, after a long confinement following the fearful accident that befeil him several weeks ago.

FARMINGTON. MRS. ANN JENKINS DEAD.

Veteran of 82-Had Been a Resident of Utah Over 40 Years.

Special Correspondence. Farmington, Davis Co., Feb. 20.--Mrs. And Davis Jenkins, widow of the late Evan Jenkins, died Tuesday, 14th Inst. at 10 s. m. at the residence of her son John Jenkins in Newton, Cache coun-ty. She was $2 years old on the 5th of this month, just six days before her death. Her husband, Evan Jenkins, died in Farmington three years ago last June, aged $5. Both were born in Wales, and came to Utah in 1861. They were parents of nine children, eight of whom are living. They are also survived by about 90 grandchildren and 25 great-grandchildren. The remains of Mrs, Jenkins were brought here Saturday, and the funeral services were held in Special Correspondence. and the funeral services were held in the meetinghouse, Sunday, which was largely attended, the deceased being held in high esteem by all who knew wood presiding. A large number of pro-bate cases were heard and disposed of. In the matter of the petition of George Finlinson et al for the sale of unclaimed lands in Oak City; on hearing the testi-mony of Peter Anderson and F. R. Ly-man in relation thereto, and documentary evidence and after due consideration the court ordered that the sherift of Millard courty sell the piece of land described as follows: Block 6, plat A of Oak City sur-vey, and that he make return of said sale at the next regular term of court. Evan Charlesworth, a 9-year-old boy, was committed to the industrial school. It appears that his mother, Mary M. Lee, cannot control him; that the boy is incorrligible, and disorderly. As there are a number of cases now pending in the courty which the judge of the district is disqualified from hearing, Judge J. F. Chidester of the Sixth judicial district will preside at a term of this court to be held at Fillmore beginning Feb. 3. During the last week Nelson Bishop-has been employed in putting a butter plant in the Tverson creamery.
