New York, Oct. 24 .- Demonstrative welcomes were given W. A. Hearst at meetings addressed by him in Manhattan and Brooklyn tonight. The largest meeting was arranged by the Italian-American voters at Cooper Union.

The nominee was cheered heartily upon his entrance to the big hall, and when he ross to speak Mr. Hearst said:

"For the past two days I have been telling the citizens how proud I am of the fights we made together against the coal, gas and ice trusts. I have the coal, gas and ice trusts i nave said that 1 did not make the fight egainst the coal trust, in which 1 spent $250,000, to save the increased cost of coal at my home, but to save nundreds of thousands of dollars in increased cost in the homes of all the people. I did not fight the ice and the ice and gas which I used in my own home, but to save the cost home, and in all the homes in the city.

But I woke up this morning to find that Mr. Hughes says that I did not make the fight against the gas trust, but that Edward B. Whitney made that fight. I am going to tell you shout him. Mr. Hughes began by say-Ing he himself won the gas cases, but when we disproved that then he said Whitney won it. I would not have mentioned this small matter at all, only for filustration. Now, four years ago Mr. Whitney was employed by ago Mr. Whitney was employed by Mr. Searn a few times to attend to gas matters. He lost some of the cases, and I am sorry that he did. because I paid his retainer, which was $1.500. I can understand why Mr. Hughes mentions Whitney, for if he exhibited any public spirit at all in the insurance investigation he ex-hibited just $25,000 worth. An in the election cases, I retained Austin J. Fox at $7,500. if I got any patriot-ism out of Mr. Fox I got $7,500 worth. That is all he had. Mr. Fox was so afraid of the corporations that he seld he was not in sympathy with

That is all he had. Mr. Fox was so afraid of the corporations that he said he was not in sympathy with the case, but simply took it for the retainer. I do not deny his right to do that, nor the other lawyers that I paid $3.500, $3.000 and $7.500 to. "The point is just this: I do not deny the right of a corporation altor-ney to argue any side of the case for a fee, but I do deny their right to question the sincerity of men who are making the fights for the people. I will unceasingly carry on the fight to have your votes counted as cast, and we will not cease that fight until we have driven out of the city hall that wretched little sneak thief who stole your votes and does not belong there." The enthusiasm with which Mr. Hearst had been received and listened to in Manhatian was duplicated at the meetings he addressed in Brooklyn. In the course of one of his speeches he cried: "I am a Jeffersonian Demo. crat, and I want it understood that I den't want any Sindard OU Democrat

CERTAIN RESULTS. Many a Salt Lake City Citizen Knows

How Sure They Are.

Nothing uncertain about the work of Doan's Kidney Pills in Salt Lake City. There is plenty of positive proof of this in the testimony of citizens. Such evidence should convince the most skeptical sufferer. Read the following statement: Mrs. M. Burge; of 45 Jeremy St., Salt Lake City, Utah, says: "I have never known Doan's Kidney Pills to fail in relieving the worst forms of backache or kidney trouble. They have been used in our family as a standard remedy both here and in our old home in England. Any person who is afflicted with kidney complaint, backache or any frregularity of the action of the kidneys should give Santa Fe, N. M., Oct. 24.—It has just been learned here that Senora Gauda-hupe Vigily Bares, wife of a rancher at Round Mountain, and her two little children lost their lives Monday as the direct result of the terrific blizzard that raged at that time. All three were drowned in the Rio Grande river near Sanidlefonso, Pueblo, two miles north of Santa Fe.

While fording the river the animals became frightened at the depth and coldness of the water and the blinding snowstorm and becoming unmanage-able, overturned the wagon. Senora Bares' body was recovered some time after the accident, both the bodies of the two children were carried down the stream and probably will never be found
