ARMS OF CUBAN INSURGENTS

In Keeping With Secy. Tait's Promise Those Surrendered Are Effectually Disposed Of.

PUT IN 30 FATHOMS OF WATER

Thousands of Rifles and Carbines pumped in-Unrest Continues in Some Provinces.

Havana, Oct. 24.-The statement made by Secy. Tail, on the eve of his departure from Cuba, that he would put all the arms surrendered by the insurgents where they would do no further barm was verified today when a company of the Cuban artillery spent the afternoon throwing these weapons into the sea from the outer bastion of Morro castle. Thousands of rifles and carbines were sunk in 80 fathoms of water.

Some unrest continues to prevail in the provinces of Puerto Principe and Santa Clara, where small armed bands are roving and committing minor depredations. The residents of Holguin requested protection of troops against a considerable body of former rebels who are reported not to have disbanded, and a battalion of the Eleventh infantry a battailon of the Elleventh Infantry reached Holgain this afternoon. The mayor of the town of Aguacate, in the province of Havana, who was ousted from office, was restored to his position Tuesday and organized an armed es-Tuesday and organized the arried escort of 25 men, alleging that he feared at attack by the Moderates. Gov. Mason tonight ordered Gov. Nunez to proceed to Aguacate with troops.

SECY. SHAW ANSWERS HEARST'S CAMPAIGN TALK.

Buffalo, Oct. 24.—Secy of the Treasury Shaw delivered a speech to a large au-dence at the auditorium here tonight, tevoting sometime to Mr. Hearst's anneign talk.

Referring to a visit to Lead, S. D., a year ago, where is located the Home Stake mine, discovered by Mr. Hearst's father, he said.

"Hearned much concerning the meth-ca. I saw the ore brought to the makers and was fold that 100 feet beby the surface a railway system was a speration, 200 feet below another and ion down for each 100 feet for a quarter of a mile. The next day I had the pleasure of riding from Spearfish. through Lead, to Deadwood on the place of the case had presented a place of an engine, crossing the divide, the gorges and the cuts, making 30 miles in 30 minutes. It was an inspiring ride. I was told that one of the

Washington, Oct. 24.-With the exception of a brief dispatch from Amabssa-dor Wright enclosing certain clippings from Japanese newspapers showing the feeling of resentment which the Japan-ese people are exhibiting over the anti-Japanese agitation in California, the state department has nothing to indicate that such a feeling exists. Fear is expressed in some quarters here, however, that persistent agitation may result in an anti-American boycott in Japan that will dwarf in magnitude the injury inflicted on American trade in the orient by the boycott in China.

Will do as He Says-Pays His Compliments to Hearst and Independence.

Cortlandt, N. Y., Oct. 24 .- With a profusion of red fire, with brass bands and with much cheering, Charles E. Hughes, the Republican candidate for governor, was welcomed in Cortlandt tonight. Mr. Hughes made two addresses to audiences which tested the capacity of the halls.

After leaving Elmira this morning After leaving Elmira this morning Mr. Hughes continued to tour the southern tier, touching many points where Mr. Hearst recently appeared. He spoke at Waverly in the opera house there, and then stopped for a brief five-minute speech from the rear platform of his car at Oswego.

At Whitney's Point, Mr. Hughes made a five-minute address and at Marathon spoke a few words to a crowd at the depot.

At Cortlandt tonight he renewed the pledges to which he has given so much prominence in his speeches of late, and when he declared he would be "the governor of all the people," was loudly applauded; again when he said, "I have promised nothing in this campaign I cannot perform."

He again charged Mr. Hearst with being a "corruptionist himself, despite his denunciation of all corporations," and again declared his interest in labor and labor legislation, saying no cause would receive greater attention at his hands if he was chosen chief executive of the Empire state.

Mr. Hughes laid special emphasis on the labor feature of his address. "This campaign," he said, "was opened with a sonorous declaration of independence. It declared independence of party and arraigned both parties; it declared for the free expression of the importance of representative commence of the presentative commence of the pressentative commence of the presentative commence of the presentat

"I have promised nothing in this campaign that I cannot perform, and there will be no exigency of this campaign which will lead me to promise a single thing I cannot perform in order to get a vote."

BANK SWINDLER CONVICTED.

Houston, Tex., Oct. 24.-Clarence N. Hughes of Swainsboro, Ga., aged 22 years old, who has given banks in all parts of the country trouble during the past several years, was today convicted here on three counts of forgery and given two years in each case. He made an escape from the Colorado state peni-tentiary and is also wanted in Alabama, Louisiana, Pennsylvania, Ohlo, Maryland, Arkansas, Illinois and probably other states.

KNIGHTS OF PYTHIAS' NEW INSURANCE LAWS

New Orleans, Oct. 24.—New insurance laws affecting 80,000 policyholders were officially adopted today by the supreme ledge, Knights of Pythias. The features of these laws are:

An increase in the maximum policy from $5,000 to $5,000.

An increase in the age limit at which members can be insured from 50 to 60 years.

An increase in the age limit at which members can be insured from 50 to 60 years.

The creation of a new fifth class of insurance. This class involves a complete change from the old fraternal congress to the American experiment table with interest at 3½ per cent.

There will be an annual accounting, an annual dividend policy, returning to the members at the end of each year all over and above the cost of carrying the risk and expense of management.

All policies under the new system become incontestable after three years.

Privilege is given policyholders in the fourth class to transfer into the new fifth class, taking the same amount without new medical examination.

Arthur J. Stoddard of St. Paul was tonight reappointed major-general of the uniform rank for a term of two years by the supreme chancellor. The new regulation permitting the uniform rank a voice in nominating the major-general will not go into effect until at the Boston convention, two years hence. C. F. S. Noal of Chicago, William Ledew of New York and Z. H. Host of Wisconsin were re-elected to the board of control, endowment rank.

DROWNED DUCKSHOOTING.

Mayor Snyder of Dayton, Ohio, Loses His Life in Canada.

Port Arthur, Ont., Oct. 24.—Charles A. Snyder, mayor of Dayton, Ohio, was drowned today while duckshooting in the White Fish district. Mayor Snyder had been in this vicinity for the last two weeks hunting moose. This morning he went out after ducks on the lake. His companions returned to the city tonight saying that the boat had been overturned accidentally and Mr. Snyder drowned. He was 38 years of age and was serving his third term as mayor of Dayton.

IMMIGRATION FOR 1905.

Secy, Metcalf Says it May Reach a Total of 1,400,000.

Washington, Oct. 24.—"The total immigration to the United States may reach 1,400,000 people this year," said Secy, Metcalf of the department of commerce and labor, as he left the White House after a brief talk with the president today. The secretary has just returned from New York, where he investigated conditions at the Ellis island immigration station.

WARRANT FOR EDITOR OF SAN FRANCISCO CALL

San Francisco, Oct. 24.—Judge E. P. Shortall today issued a warrant charging R. A. Crothers, editor of the Bulletin, with criminal libel. The complaint was made by Abraham Ruef, who bases his allegation upon an article published Oct. 5, relating to the action of the San Francisco board of supervisors and other officials in negotiating for a municipal water supply. Judge Shortall fixed the amount of Mr. Crothers' ball at $100.
