WESTERN DISPATCHES.

VICTORIA, V. I., 20.—Puget Sound papers mention the shooting of watchman Ziegman, at Olympia, by a man named Andrews, whom he was trying to arrest. The bullet entered about an inch above the left eye, coming out about an inch and a half from where it entered. The wound is not considered dangerous. Andrews wes arrested.

VALEJO, 22.—Several prominent gentiemen, including Judge Ballard of Ky., and Col. J. W. Forney, will visit the navy yard, at Mare Island to-morrow.

In the shooting of watchman was raised to the highest notch. The World thus tells the story of their failure:

Yesterday afternoon last, and public expectation was raised to the highest notch. The World thus tells the story of their failure:

Yesterday afternoon, a little after 2 o'clock, the writer found himself one among a crowd of nineteen persons at the Fifth avenue entrance to Central Park. The nineteen persons were there early, determined to secure a good place from which to view the promised procession of "five young ladies" beatriding five proud steeds, after the manner recommended by a writer in Appletons' Journal.
