The Humane Society will hold a meeting tomorrow evening in the office of George Y. Wallace in the telephone building.

Ben Jones, the man who was cut in the fight with Eph Madsen Saturday night, is improving rapidly. It is thought now that he will recover from his injuries.

George E. Hedges of Park City has filed in the federal court a petition in bankruptcy. He places his liabilities at $364.18 and assets at $394.36, out of which he claims that $561.85 is exempt. The Young Ladies' Aid Society has disbanded. The officers of this benevolent organization ascribe as the cause their inability to get a sufficient number of active workers to carry on the work of the society.

Mrs. Elizabeth Klenke of Nephi is in the city visiting with friends. She is mourning the death of her 20-year-old son Frederick W., which occurred on May 9th. The cause of the young man's death was heart disease.

William F. Duncan, of Park City, formerly of Provo, is at the St. Mark's hospital, where he has undergone an operation for removing internal trouble. He is believed to be in a fair way to recover.

The senior class of the Salt Lake High school gave a banquet Saturday night at Franklin's. The room was decorated in class and school colors and a most enjoyable time was had. The responses to the toasts were very clever.

The Union Line and Stone company has filed articles of incorporation with a capital stock of $100,000 in $1 shares. The directors are: L. Mitchell, president; John E. Smith, vice president; A. D. Peterson, secretary and treasurer; C. H. Fischer and S. J. Paulsen.

A quiet but pleasant event of Saturday evening was the marriage of Mrs. Alice C. Crawford and Mr. John S. Courter, which took place at the home of the bride, Elder C. W. Penrose presiding. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Mr. Penrose. The bride was dressed in white and the groom in a tuxedo. A delicious supper was served, the affair being a most enjoyable one.

Rev. W. Daint Scott arrived in Salt Lake at 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon and at 5 o'clock was given in his ministerial habiliments and was officiating at the services at St. Peter's chapel. After the services the entire congregation remained to shake his hand and welcome him back to their midst. He is living at 270 east First street.

Thomas Starlin, formerly a resident of Provo, is at the St. Mark's hospital, suffering from injuries received about two weeks ago through the explosion of a "missed shot" in a mine at Marysville, where Mr. Starlin was working. It is reported that he will lose part of his right hand and that there is danger of the loss of his eyesight, of at least one eye.

OPENING OF THE YELLOWSTONE PARK

Wonderland of the Great West Thrown Open to General Public.

BIG TRAVEL ANTICIPATED.

Oregon Short Line Starts to Haul Parties to the Government Reservation—General Railroad News.

Assistant General Passenger Agent D. S. Spencer this morning stated that there is every prospect that this year the Yellowstone Park business, as far as the Oregon Short Line is concerned, will be the best in the history of the line. The numerous hotels throughout the government reserve have been thoroughly overhauled, and the four modern hostels of the Yellowstone National Association, electric light and steam heated, furnish every comfort to sight-seers.

The park was thrown open for the season yesterday and among the first to leave Salt Lake for the grand six-day tour were the two French princes and the Baron von Holland, who have been making the Knutsford their headquarters during the last three days. Two parties leave for Montana on this evening's train and from this time on until the end of September it is expected that there will be a steady stream of tourists passing through Salt Lake on their way to the Wonderland of the American continent. In anticipation of the rush the Oregon Short Line passenger department has issued a handsome illustrated booklet, which is replete with views of the most prominent features of the trip, and is also a veritable mine of information for the tourist, who contemplates making the regulation six-day tour of the park.

Under the new schedule parties will leave Salt Lake on the morning train to leave Montana the next morning in one of the stages. After thoroughly "doing" the park the return to Salt Lake is made via Cinnabar, Butte and Fossil.

The itinerary is as follows:

First Day—Leave Montana, 8:30 a. m.; arrive Red Rock Lakes, 12:30 p. m., 30 miles; leave Red Rock Lakes, 1:30 p. m.; arrive Grayling Inn, 6:30 p. m., 20 miles.

Second Day—Leave Grayling Inn, 8:00 a. m.; arrive Fountain Hotel, 12:00 noon, 25 miles.

Third Day—Leave Fountain Hotel, 8:00 a. m.; arrive Upper Basin, 10 a. m., 10 miles; leave Upper Basin, 4:30 p. m.; arrive Fountain Hotel, 6:00 p. m., 10 miles.

Fourth Day—Leave Fountain Hotel, 7:30 a. m.; arrive Thumb Bay, 12:30 p. m., 29 miles; leave Thumb Bay, 2:00 p. m.; arrive Lake Hotel, 5:00 p. m., 19 miles.

Fifth Day—Leave Lake Hotel, 9:00 a. m.; arrive Lake Hotel, 5:00 p. m., 19 miles.

Sixth Day—Leave Canyon Hotel, 9:30 a. m.; arrive Norris, 11:30 a. m., 12 miles; leave Norris, 12:30 p. m.; arrive Mammoth Springs, 4:00 p. m., 20 miles; leave Mammoth Springs, 6:30 p. m.; arrive Cinnabar, 8:00 p. m., 8 miles.

CONDUCTORS ARRIVE.

Third Contingent of O. R. C. Excursion Comes to Salt Lake.

The third contingent of O. R. C. tourists came to town last night from the north. There were ninety-one members in the party which consisted for the major part of ticket purchasers from Chicago and vicinity, who arrived on the regular Oregon Short Line train at 8:30 p. m. The visitors occupied three sleepers and were in charge of Col. N. H. Wood, who is known throughout the railroad world as "the ticket collector." His help, it is said, is to be exacted by 7 feet 4 1/2 inches.

The Chicago contingent is a record breaker in several ways, the prime attraction being Martin Stark of the Chicago contingent, who, it is said, has been in the city for some time. THE CAT CAME HOME.

True Story of a "Cute Hat and an O. S. L. Official.

There is a young and debonaire Oregon Short Line official who has a desk on the east side of the hallway of West Temple street, who is rapidly developing into a rank pessimist. As for his charming young wife, words cannot express her feelings. It all happened because "John Doe" went to the baseball game, and thus he came home. It was on the occasion of the coming of the Ogden Lobsters down at Walker's field by the Griffin Tribe. The railroad man was one of the enthusiastic rooters for the Salt Lake aggregation and his feelings were so aroused that he of an Ogden supporter that he flashed a fat roll at the Short Line official, and told him in as many words to either shut up or get out. The official never bet, but on this occasion he broke the rule with the result that he was left with a fat roll in his pocket. While walking up the street the happy thought struck him, and stepping into a millinery establishment he proceeded to price the dainty feminine headdress. Finally after considerable mental debate regarding the rival claims of a tulle creation and a divine dream of a cream-colored turban he added another five to the twenty and ordered the latter sent home to his wife, to his surprise.

There was joy in that family household that evening when the "cute little headpiece" arrived. The very atmosphere of the front porch was surcharged with tenderness and poetry. The sweet little mother spent fully an hour before the mirror admiring the present and complimenting her "dear, sweet hubbie-boy" on his good taste. Finally the lights went out and all slept the sleep of the just and dreamed of attending camp the next morning clad in ravest plumage, the envy of the assembled femininity.

"At the witching hour of midnight, when church yards yawn," the family cat came sneaking home and crawling up the stairs to the window pane in the kitchen proceeded to prospect for a nice soft spot wherein to go to sleep. Bright and early the next morning the family arose and "Mrs. Doe" at once hastened to take another look at her "cute hat."

A choking cry, a stifled sob! There in the very center of the cream-colored creation lay pussy and the cutest little family of assorted tabbies that ever saw the light of day.

Gloom now hangs over that erstwhile happy home. The cat is now where pussies cease from troubling and pussies are at rest. So are the kittens. The hat is in the ash barrel.

RAILROAD PRINCIPALITIES.

Partition of the Country by the Railroad Kings of America.

An attempt has been made to group the large railroad systems of the country in view of the recent progress of the "community of interest" idea. The Harriman-Kuhn,Loeb & Co. group figures a total mileage of 20,345 and easily beats the Morgan group which has 19,517 miles. The Pennsylvania 18,320 and the Northern Pacific-C. B. & Q. group has 18,453 miles. Many of the latter as a Morgan combination, and if so we have 37,528 miles under that control. The Vanderbilt group has 19,517 miles of railroad and are likely to control more. The 7,808 miles of the Atchafalpa is added to the Pennsylvania there is a total of 26,028 miles. In the tabulation the St. Paul, the Rock Island and the Louisville & Nashville are considered separately. Together they have 15,941 miles, and doubtless will land ultimately among the various combines.

In effect, less than six groups of ownership now control considerably over 100,000 miles of railroad and are likely to control more. The railway situation is settling down to a division along practically horizontal lines—the Northern Pacific group in the north, the Morgan in the south, the Vanderbilt and Pennsylvania between the south and the southwest. It takes but little imagination these days to reconstruct the railway map of the United States. Most solid of all the combinations is the Vanderbilt, reaching from Boston to Omaha, a symmetrical colossus on a natural line of strength is the Pennsylvania-Atchafalpa, giving a transcontinental line, well secured by branches and feeders; the Gould group is well fortified in its territory, and the southern combination shows ability and wisdom in its amalgamation. It is the Northern Pacific-Union Pacific business that is still "adjusting," and when the dust of the conflict clears it is very likely that these great roads, with others like the St. Paul and Rock Island, will yet be classed, will be seen in a close and harmonious relation to the whole.

"The United States railroad" may not be so much of a dream as some think—everything points in that direction. We take time and perhaps the rage for combination may be checked by unlooked for and untoward consequences of its own intensity, but certainly giant strides are taking towards making the expression "community of interest" a matter of practical meaning.—Boston Transcript.

WORKED UNDER HILL.

Many Railroad Presidents Were Former Employes of Great Northern.

A glance at the Biographical Directory of Railroad officials demonstrates that numerous prominent railroad men of one time in their career worked for J. J. Hill, who has been so prominently before the public, especially during the past three months.

Here are some of the G. N. ex-employees:

A. L. Mohler, president of the Oregon Railway & Navigation company; J. D. Farrell, president of the Pacific Coast company, which controls railroads in Washington and California, and the Northern Pacific; President W. H. Newman of the Lake Shore road; Russell Harding, vice president and general manager of the Missouri Pacific; J. M. Barr, president of the Seaboard Air Line; H. Warren, president of the Jersey Central; P. P. Shelby, president of the Pacific & Idaho Northern; F. H. Britton, vice president and C. W. Bowron, general superintendent of the St. Louis Southwest; J. E. Newman, president of the Central of Georgia railroad; W. W. Finley, vice president of the Southern railway.

SPIRE AND RAIL.

A carload of laborers en route from Denver to Uvada passed through Salt Lake yesterday morning over the Short Line.

In addition to being interested in railroad affairs, H. J. O'Brien is said to be contemplating outfitting an exploring expedition into northern Alaska.

F. A. Dunbar, late of W. J. Toller's office, Oregon Short Line, has succeeded Stenographer Jayne in the general passenger department of the Rio Grande Valley.

J. C. Stubbs, of the Southern Pacific, denies the report to the effect that he has been offered an appointment as commissioner of transcontinental railroads at an extravagant salary.

One fare for the round trip plus $2, is the rate announced for the twenty-seventh annual meeting of the Imperial Council of the Nobles of the Mystic Shrine at Kansas City, June 11 and 12.

The new Oregon Short Line time card went into effect yesterday. Owing to the fact that the Pullmans have not yet been received standard sleepers will not be put on the Uvada train for several days yet to come. The usual tourist sleeper is attached to the train for the next few days.

There is keen speculation as to the identity of the new men who will enter the Northern Pacific directorate under the commercial treaty of peace subscribed to by the rival interests in the property. Many names have been called up in the past, but according to a member of the Harriman syndicate there has been no decision yet as to any of them.

Mercur Miner: The surveyors of the Oregon Short Line are now cross-sectioning the proposed Leamington cut off south of Stockton. The road will be about 10 miles long and will go through Tooele, along the bench through Stockton, then to the mouth of Ophir canyon through the West Dip, perhaps up to Sunshine, and connect at Five Mile Pass with the present line to Eureka. It is said that the new cut-off will save 25 miles between Salt Lake and Leamington. If they build a branch line up Lewiston canyon to Mercur it will make a shorter route from here to Salt Lake.

AMUSEMENTS.

Tonight at the Tabernacle the concert in aid of the Japanese mission takes place. The undoubted excellence of the program, which includes several of the "Faust" numbers by the Tabernacle choir, a solo on the organ by Prof. McClellan and vocal solos by some of our leading soloists, to say nothing of the object of the entertainment, should all guarantee a handsome audience. A number of public spirited citizens have sent their checks for amounts varying from $10 to $50 to Manager Pyper and tickets to the value of these subscriptions will be given to the poor of the city.

The opening of the Salt Palace theater tonight, the attraction being the Wilbur Kirwin opera company in "Salt Palace" and vaudeville acts. The race track will be open tomorrow night, and on such occasions the plan will be not to begin the opera till after the races. How this plan will work is yet to be determined.

In answer to several inquiries, the "News" will state that the next public organ recital will occur on Saturday morning next. None will be given on Wednesday.

BOUGHT GOOD PROPERTY.

Mrs. Mary Judge Takes Over Third South Land.

Mrs. Mary Judge has succeeded in making what most real estate men devalue to be a good purchase in realty. The property of which Mrs. Judge is now owner formerly belonged to J. E. Hamburger and consists of a frontage of 100 feet and a depth of 330 feet in land on Third South street, just east of East Temple street, and occupied by the Freed Furniture company. The price paid for the ground was $85,000.

The property was leased by the Freed Furniture company about ten years ago and in consideration of the company building the store on the ground the Messrs. Hamburger will pay Mr. Freed between $15,000 and $20,000. Mr. Hamburger says that Market street, west of main, between Third and Fourth South, is to be existing through to State street, and he looks for property to become very valuable on this street since the Federal building is to be built with one side facing this street.

Negotiations are also being carried on for the sale of the new building occupied by several small buildings at the corner of Market and Main streets. Messrs. Simon and J. E. Hamburger own 66 2/3 feet by 165 feet on the corner, which they hold at $1,000 a foot. Herman Hill also owns a piece of property about the same size adjoining the Hamburger corner, which will probably be included in the sale. It is stated that a big office building is to be erected on the corner.

WOODMEN'S MEMORIAL DAY

Salt Lake Will be Filled With Them on Next Sunday.

Sunday, June 3, is to be observed by the local camps of the Woodmen of the World as memorial day, and there are to be services at both cemeteries in which the Salt Lakers will be assisted by visiting welders of the axe. The doings will commence as early as 9 o'clock in the morning, at which time the Ogden contingent will be met at the railway station by the reception committee and a band. Later on the march to the cemeteries will be taken up, and in this there will be all the local and visiting Woodmen, Huerfano band and very likely a couple of other such organizations which may come with the visiting delegations. In the afternoon the Salt Lake members of the order will entertain those from outside with a nice lunch and music. It is confidently expected that the town will be literally filled with Woodmen on that day.

THREATENED SUICIDE.

Another Sad Incident in Career of Youthful Pearl Kesler.

Pearl Kesler late Saturday afternoon reached the climax in her role of persecuted innocence, and when the court solemnly pronounced her commitment to the reform school she burst into a paroxysm of screams. Nothing seemed to have any quieting effect on the girl and after she had taken time to vent her grief on the floor she was picked up by Bailiff Sloan and Bailiff Shippe and carried from the court room to the elevator, while she raised the echoes in the corridor as they had probably never been raised before, and temporarily suspended the argument on the Garland murder case across the hall, and indeed all work on the fourth floor of the city and county building.

Pearl will remain at the reform school till she is twenty-one years of age, and will then be committed to the juvenile court, where she will be held in the meantime warrants her discharge. She will not be 16 years old till July 24th. On Friday Pearl secured a piece of broken glass with which she announced to Clara Carney, her cellmate at the reform school, that she intended to cut the arteries of her wrists in the event of her commitment, but Clara was alarmed and turned informant.

WINNING DISTINCTION.

Moshah Hall of Ogden Makes a Hit at University of Chicago.

Chicago, May 30.—Mr. Moshah Hall of the Brigham Young college, Logan, who is doing post-graduate work in the University of Chicago, is fast winning distinction. Yesterday he created a mild sensation by delivering an eloquent address before the graduate class in oratory and Forensics on the "Rise and Exodus of the Mormon Church." In the class in pedagogy under Dr. Dewey, Mr. Hall probably stands first.

SALT LAKE TEMPLE.

The Salt Lake Temple will close Friday evening, June 28th, and reopen on Monday, Aug. 13th.

LORENZO SNOW, President.

Cholera Morbus a Dangerous Disease.

In many instances attacks of cholera morbus terminate fatally before medical aid can be procured or a physician summoned. The safe way is to keep at hand a reliable medicine for use in such cases. For this purpose there is nothing so sure as Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. W. E. Bosworth, of Lafayette, Ark., says: "In June, 1900, I had a serious attack of cholera morbus and one dose of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy gave me relief in fifteen minutes."

Whooping Cough.

My little son had an attack of whooping cough and was threatened with pneumonia; but for Chamberlain's Cough Remedy we would have had a serious time of it. It also saved him from several severe attacks of croup. H. J. Strickland, editor World-Herald, Fair Haven, Wash.

A Warning.

To feel tired after exertion is one thing; to feel tired before is another. Don't let the latter be business—it isn't; but it is a sign that the system lacks vitality, is running down, and needs the tonic effect of Hood's Sarsaparilla. It's a warning, too—and sufferers should begin taking Hood's at once. Buy a bottle today.
