

SOCIAL CHAT

Miss Rebecca Nibbel entertained at her home on West Temple street on Wednesday evening in honor of Miss Emma Greenback and Mr. James Nibbel, whose marriage takes place next week. There were beautiful decorations and refreshments were served. Mr. Hugh Douglass sang several selections. Present were Mr. and Mrs. Joe J. Cannon, Mr. and Mrs. Adrian Pembroke, Miss Geneva Clark, Miss Grace Cannon, Miss Mary Young, Miss Hazel Beattie, Miss Clara Douglass, Miss Catherine Douglass, Miss Sarah Williams, Miss Tessa Williams, Miss Mabel Hill, Miss Myrtle Banks, Miss Dorothy Dwyer, Miss Edna Barker, Maule Cummings, Levi Young, Robert Wilson, Harry Nelson, Harry Shepherd, Scott Greenback, Will Nuttall, Roland Doyle, Art Gates, Thomas Thomas, Clarence Patten, Hyrum Burkstrom, George Badger, Marcena Foster.

On Monday night Battery A of the N. O. C. gave a delightful dancing party at the armory.

Mrs. J. S. Bonnemont entertained at an informal musicale Monday night, an enjoyable program being rendered.

Mr. Roscoe Breeden gave a box-party at the Theater on Thursday night in honor of Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Breeden of Portland, Or., who are visiting Attorney General and Mrs. Breeden.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Dinwoodey entertained at dinner last night in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Breeden of Portland, and tonight Mr. Roscoe Breeden will give a dinner at the Commercial club in their honor.

Great interest is being taken in the concert to be given by Mr. H. S. Goddard on Monday, the 28th.

The ladies of St. Mark's guild will give a concert in Unity hall on Dec. 22. Miss Agatha Berkhoel has charge of the arrangements.

Miss Elsie Pettit entertained a number of friends at a china shower on Thursday afternoon in honor of Jennie S. Hill, whose marriage will take place on Thanksgiving day.

Mrs. Hoyt Sherman gave an informal tea yesterday afternoon in honor of Mrs. B. L. Harding of Los Angeles.

The usual Wednesday dancing soiree took place at Christensen's and was largely attended. Quite a few private parties are arranging to attend next Wednesday.

Dr. and Mrs. McKenry gave a box-party at the Theater on Thursday night, their guests being Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Lamb, Rollo Watson and Mr. Woodcock.

Mrs. Thomas G. Griffin gave a luncheon at the Country club on Wednesday in honor of Miss Jessie Fox.

Maxine Elliott was guest of honor at a luncheon at the Country club on Thursday given by Clarence McCordick, Mrs. Newhouse and Charles Cherry were the other guests.

The Misses Buckingham will entertain at cards next Tuesday night.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Kiser gave a supper on Thursday night following the play in honor of friends who are members of Miss Elliott's company.

Maxine Elliott was the guest of Mrs. Newhouse during her stay in the city.

Misses Kate Farrell and Margaret Ryan entertained at a party last night in honor of Miss Alexander of Kansas City and Miss Vera Holden of Los Angeles.

Mrs. G. W. Snow was hostess at an informal afternoon affair on Wednesday, her guests being Mrs. Cook of Nephi, Mrs. Hampton, Mrs. Huxman, Mrs. Thomas Marionette, Mrs. Samuel Clark, Mrs. Harry Penmore, Mrs. Claude W. Gates, Mrs. Dallas.

Mrs. Osmond Carl entertained at tea on Thursday in honor of Mrs. Oscar Fry of Denver.

Tonight at Unity hall the football team of the Salt Lake High school will give a dancing party, the chaperones to be Mrs. C. O. Whittemore, Mrs. A. T. Moon, Mrs. E. B. Critchlow and Miss E. M. Dukes. A large number of invitations have been issued.

An interesting event of tonight will be the big ball given by the University students in honor of the Logan football team.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Smith will entertain at dinner next Wednesday.

Mrs. Edmund Wilkes was at home to a few of her friends on Tuesday afternoon.

Mrs. George Y. Wallace was hostess at an informal affair on Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Stiehl entertained at dinner on Tuesday, the occasion being the birthday anniversary of Dr. Stiehl. The table was prettily decorated and the event a delightful one.

Mrs. W. F. Rasmussen entertained informally at cards yesterday afternoon.

Dr. and Mrs. McEnery entertained at dinner on Wednesday, in honor of the Misses Allie and Margie Miller.

Mrs. Harry Ostler was hostess at a kitchen shower in honor of Miss Mable Ostler, whose wedding took place this week.

Christensen's hall was prettily decorated on Thursday night for the ball given by the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen, and the ladies' auxiliary, and a delightful time was spent.

Miss Emma Frewin and Miss Ella

WEDDING BELLS

A pretty and interesting wedding of the week was that of Miss Jessie Snyder and Mr. S. Fygar which took place on Thursday night, Elder Margetts performing the ceremony at the home of the bride's mother Mrs. Joseph Snyder. The rooms were decorated with a profusion of vines and flowers, the parlor being in green and yellow, the diningroom in pink and green, and the sitting room in yellow. Punch was served in the latter room from a prettily decorated table. The bride wore a gown of white damask over tulle, and carried white roses. The bride and groom stood in the bay window, which was banded with flowers and draped with vines and white carnations. They were the recipients of many handsome presents. Mr. and Mrs. Fygar

HORSE SHOW LEADER.

Mrs. Stuyvesant Fish, one of the leaders of New York's smart set, will be one of the prominent figures at the horse show. Mrs. Fish's box is always the mecca of society during the show.

COMING AND GOING

Mrs. Charles Nelson of Ogden, who has been visiting friends in the city, has returned to her home.

Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Ogden of Logan spent Thursday in the city, remaining over for the play in the evening.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Baker have moved and are now at home to their friends at 371 Third street.

Mrs. W. W. Armstrong has returned from a short visit with friends in Park City.

Mrs. Wright and Mrs. Carr, both of Sacramento, Cal., visited Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Hood this week.

W. A. Duvall and his two children have returned from their eastern trip.

Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Legg and son, Harry, left Thursday for Arizona to spend the winter.

Mrs. Richard H. Cabell is back at Riveland Hall after a month's leave of absence.

Mrs. Clark and Miss Laura Clark, wife and daughter of Senator Clark of Wyoming, are at the Whitehall for a few days.

Mrs. J. T. Keith has returned from a visit of several weeks with her parents in Evanston.

Miss Edith Maguire is at home for the present at 75 L street.

Robert B. Trip of Yankton, S. D., is in the city, and the latter part of the week will leave, accompanied by Mrs. Trip and the two daughters, for California.

Mrs. Jay T. Harris left Monday for New York, where she will join Colonel and Mrs. E. F. Holmes for an eastern visit.

Mrs. D. Moore Lindsay will sail shortly from Liverpool after having spent the summer at her home and will reach here before Christmas.

Miss Eleanor Crawford has returned from the east. Miss Mary Louise Anderson is remaining in the east for a visit with her brother.

Mrs. Jo Heimberger and Mrs. E. Leonard of Leadville are in the city, the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Sig Simon.

Mrs. E. J. Petty left Wednesday morning for St. Louis, where she will visit her sister, Mrs. C. F. Ehrlich of St. Louis, for a few weeks and take in the fair.

Graham Lawrence has returned from San Francisco.

Miss Florence Evans, who has been visiting Mrs. J. F. Evans, is now in St. Louis, before returning to her home in Cincinnati.

Mrs. J. O. Hermsberger and Mrs. Leon of Leadville are guests of Mr. and Mrs. Sig Simon.

Hoyt Sherman will return next week from a visit of a few weeks in the east.

Miss Katherine Hoag of Ogden is spending the week with friends in town.

Mrs. W. S. Cook of Nephi is the guest of Mrs. Marionneaux.

Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Strouse of Baltimore, Md., are stopping at the Knutsford. Mr. Strouse is the senior member of Strouse & Bros., manufacturers of high art clothing. Mr. Strouse's son, Mr. Ford Strouse, is the treasurer of the Greenwald Furniture Co.

THE LARGER OUTSIDE CITIES

OGDEN.

One of the happy social events of the week was the marriage on Wednesday of Miss Mary McQuarrie to Mr. Timothy Terry. The ceremony was performed in the Salt Lake Temple. The contracting parties are among Ogden's leading and most popular young people. The bride is the daughter of Bishop Robert McQuarrie, and has been employed in the dry goods department of Z. C. M. I. for a number of years, where she made many friends through her pleasant sociable ways. The groom is the manager of the Consolidated Creamery company of this city and prominent in social circles. Mr. and Mrs. Terry have many friends who will join in wishing them years of happiness and prosperity.

Prof. F. A. Sullivan of Denver, Colo., spent several days this week in Ogden, visiting with friends and attending to business matters.

The music lovers of Ogden will have an opportunity on Monday evening at

GOLDEN WEDDING OF THE PRICES.

Next Tuesday will witness the fiftieth wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. William Price, and the date will be celebrated in a family dinner to be given at the home of their son, C. Stanley Price, 261 Fifth street. Their children will celebrate the occasion in a befitting manner. Mr. and Mrs. Price are among the early pioneers of Utah and the former was for 30 years Bishop at Goshen. For the past two years their home has been in the Twentieth ward. Mr. Price is 57 years of age and bears the burdens of that long period with an ease that is most astonishing. His worthy wife is 20 years his junior. The honored couple will have the sincere congratulations of many friends in passing this important milestone upon life's journey together.

The Ogden tabernacle of listening to a recital to be given by Miss Ellen Thomas, assisted by the Ogden tabernacle choir and a number of local artists. This will be one of the best musical events of the season. Miss Thomas will leave Ogden Wednesday next for New York, where she will study vocal culture.

Mrs. J. H. Rhine gave a delightful party Friday afternoon at her home on Fowler avenue. She entertained a number of her lady friends at cards. Dainty refreshments were served, and a pleasant hour was spent at vocal and instrumental music.

The married people of the Fifth ward had a most delightful dancing party Thursday, which was well attended. Refreshments were served during the evening.

Miss Margaret Moran, a popular young lady of Harrisville, was married this week to William C. Field, a well known young man of Ogden. They were given a reception Thursday.

The Woodmen of the World ball given Wednesday evening at the Kiesel hall was largely attended, and all present had a very pleasurable time.

Mrs. Jane Davis, a popular lady of Ogden, daughter of Samuel Hornecks, was married this week at San Diego, Cal., to W. P. Jones of that city.

Prof. H. S. Goddard, whose excellent vocal work in the Salt Lake Opera company formerly, and who for the past

THE VANDERBILT BEAUTY.

Mrs. A. G. Vanderbilt is one of the great favorites of New York society and will be one of the most prominent of the horse show crowd. Her husband will be one of the large exhibitors.

PROVO.

Mrs. Ralph Poulton gave a Kensington Thursday afternoon at their cozy little home on First West street. The guests present comprised the enrolled member of the Third ward Relief society. Potted plants, palms and fall flowers, were the decorations used in the dining room and parlor. A dainty luncheon was served and a merry afternoon spent.

Mrs. Coolat Anderson and daughter Ruth of Colorado are guests of Mrs. Biersach. They expect to spend the winter in Provo, and will occupy the house of Mr. and Mrs. Woodhouse on First East and Second North street.

Mrs. Christian Bandley was hostess at a sewing party, Thursday evening. The ladies were invited for the evening, while the invitations for the gentlemen, read from 9 until 12. The guests present comprised a most delicious supper was served. The guests were Mr. and Mrs. Howe, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Gathum, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Williams, Mr. and Mrs. Myron Newell, Mr. and Mrs. Pierce, Mrs. Sord, Mrs. Selick, Mrs. Langstaff, Mrs. McLane and the Misses Mary Boshard and Annie Selick.

Mr. John Russon of Lehi was visiting friends in Provo on Saturday and Sunday.

Mrs. Sarah Eggertsen Cluff, who is spending the winter in Salt Lake City, is in Provo, visiting her mother.

Mr. and Mrs. Biersach have completed the furnishing of their beautiful new home on Academy avenue, and expect to move in Monday next.

Mrs. Joseph Farrer has been the guest of her mother, Mrs. Chipman, in Salt Lake City during the past week.

Mr. W. J. Beattie of Salt Lake City has been in Provo several days this week.

Mrs. Louisa McBride has been in Salt Lake City, visiting relatives and friends during the past week.

Bagley, Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Irvine, Mr. and Mrs. Yates, Mr. and Mrs. Phil Speckart, Mr. and Mrs. Will Roberts, Mr. and Mrs. Grey, Mr. and Mrs. John R. Twelves, Mr. and Mrs. Royance, Mr. and Mrs. Nowell, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Sutton, Mr. and Mrs. Schwab, Mr. and Mrs. Coffman, Mr. and Mrs. Searle and Mr. and Mrs. Haverkamp.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Deal have returned from Sevier, where they have been visiting relatives and friends, during the past few weeks.

The many friends of Mrs. S. R. Thurman will be pleased to know that she is out of danger, her condition is improving, and it is hoped that she will soon be removed from the hospital.

The reception given by the faculty of the Brigham Young university to the students last evening proved a most pleasant affair. The gymnasium hall was crowded, and a welcome, kindly feeling could be seen on the faces of all present, and the evening will long be remembered by both students and teachers alike.

Mr. C. A. Glazier was a Salt Lake visitor on Monday.

Enreka.—Mrs. Thomas Stevenson and daughter were in Ogden this week.

Mrs. Irwin Sprague entertained a party of friends at her home Friday evening. The guests were entertained with high five and "63" and the hostess provided a splendid supper to which all present did ample justice.

Miss Minnie Christensen of this city and George W. Curtis of Salem were married at Provo this week.

Thomas Chope of Butte City, Mont., is visiting relatives and friends in this district.

Superintendent Andrew Anderson of

Cut Glass Salad Bowl,
Regular $7.50
Hand Carved Salad Spoon
and Fork . . . . . 2.00
Regular Price Complete $9.50

Special Price For Above,
Complete, Monday
$4.75.

When we use printers ink to tell the public that we will sell something at special sale price we have a bargain to offer.

Our bargain this week is a handsome Cutglass Salad Bowl and a Wooden Swiss, hand carved, Salad Spoon and Fork. The Bowls are 9-inch pure white crystal glass and completely cut in most artistic design.

The Spoon and Fork are imported from Switzerland, made of handsome grain wood with elaborately hand carved handles. The usual size for serving salad.

THE SPECIAL SALE PRICES.
Cut Glass Salad Bowl, $3.75
Salad Spoon and Fork, 1.00
Bowl, Spoon and Fork, 5.50

We guarantee that the Bowl here offered for sale cannot be bought and sold in small quantities for less than $7.50 each and the Spoon and Fork for less than $2.00 a pair.

These Salad Sets are on display in our windows and will be sold Monday morning Nov. 21.

First come, first served. 'Phone 65 for the correct time.

Leysons
JEWELERS.
236 MAIN ST.
SALT LAKE CITY.

Mellin's Food — an infant food without an equal except Mother's Milk. A food that feeds, a food that gives satisfaction, a food that has been used for many years with best results, a food that makes the babies grow strong. Send for a free sample.

MELLIN'S FOOD CO., BOSTON, MASS.