

MR. TAFT REVIEWS CAMPAIGN ISSUES

Of Foremost Importance is Maintenance of Protection and Restoring Confidence.

"HOW ABOUT THE PANIC?"

Was Asked by an Auditor, and He Got A Full and Complete Answer To His Question.

New York, Oct. 26.—Devoting the day to a trip into Connecticut and the evening to speech-making in Brooklyn, William H. Taft's first day of active campaigning on his present visit to this section was carried on with vigor and earnestness. While the day, despite its call for a speech of some length in New Haven and a shorter one at Port Chester on the return trip, was one of comparative ease for the Republican candidate, the calls that were made upon him in Brooklyn tonight were such as to keep him actively occupied every moment. When he entered that portion of Greater New York late this afternoon he found himself fairly overwhelmed with engagements. Before the night was over he had accomplished five speeches, eaten dinner with a hundred prominent Republicans as the guest of Republican State Chairman Timothy L. Woodruff, reviewed a parade and then attended a reception at the Union League club.

A DELUGE OF RAIN.
—A deluge of rain which broke loose just at about the time Mr. Taft was entering Brooklyn threatened for a time to interfere with the evening's program. It had been planned to make the parade one of the big features of the Taft demonstration, and the downpour, the heaviest of the fall season thus far, continued long enough to give managers and participants some concern. The rainfall ceased, however, some time before the parade was scheduled to start, and the function was carried out with all the elaborateness planned. Similarly successful and enthusiastic were the meetings of the night, particularly those in the Clomont rink and the academy of music, where Mr. Taft made his principal addresses.

The feature of the trip into Connecticut was the New Haven meeting, where with football enthusiasm the candidate was greeted by the support of a large portion of the student body of Yale. Through the presentation of a handsomely bound memorial containing many names of signatures, Gov. Woodruff set on the platform beside George L. Lilly, candidate for governor.

THE YALE YELL.
—Mr. Taft delivered a pointed review of the campaign issues, in which he held up the importance of the maintenance of the protective principle and the rehabilitation of business confidence. The speech was punctuated by the Yale yell, which ended with "Taft, Taft, Taft." Enthusiasm and friendliness were everywhere apparent.

When the candidate arrived at New Haven he inquired at once for his son Robert. After the meeting Robert, who is a junior at Yale, and who had been making frantic efforts to get to his father through the crowds, finally reached him at the station.

"My son," said Judge Taft, as he placed the boy's muddy face between his hands and planted a kiss squarely on his lips. Robert was taken aboard and was an admiring listener to his father's speech at Port Chester on the way back.

Here a tremendous crowd had as-

Acts on Kidneys and Bladder and Should be Given a Trial by Sufferers in Salt Lake City.

Cut this out and put in some safe place. It is valuable and worth more than anything else in the world if you should have an attack of rheumatism or bladder trouble or any derangement of the kidneys whatsoever.

The prescription is simple and can be made up by anyone at home. The ingredients can be had at any good prescription pharmacy and all that is necessary is to shake them well in a bottle.

Here it is: Fluid extract dandelion, one-half ounce; compound Kargon, one ounce; compound syrup of sarsaparilla, three ounces.

Take a teaspoonful after each meal and at bedtime. A few doses is said to relieve almost any case of bladder trouble, frequent urination, pain and scalding, weakness and backache, pain above the kidneys, etc.

It is now claimed to be the method of curing chronic rheumatism, because of its direct and positive action upon the eliminative tissues of the kidneys. It gives them life and power to sift and strain the poisonous waste matter and uric acid from the blood, restoring the worst forms of Rheumatism and kidney and bladder troubles. The extract dandelion acts upon the stomach and liver and is used also as a purgative for relieving constipation and indigestion. Compound sarsaparilla cleans and enriches the blood. There is nothing better than Kargon Compound for the kidneys.

This prescription is safe to use at any time.

sembled for the purpose of listening to both William J. Bryan and Mr. Taft, who were due there about the same time. Judge Taft arrived first and was met by cheers and the waving of many small flags.

"Bryan said a year ago that the recent panic was not due to Roosevelt," said Mr. Taft in his brief speech. "He now says it was due to Roosevelt. The change in one year is not exceptional in Bryan's career."

Going to New Haven, Mr. Taft spoke to crowds in the main at Stamford, South Norwalk and Bridgeport, all stops not contemplated in his schedule. His very first utterance of the day was that Bryan had aided prosperity in no other way than to be defeated.

When the Taft special reached New York on its return at 4:30 o'clock the candidate was taken to the Montauk club, Brooklyn, accompanied by State Chairman Woodruff, where he was the guest of honor at a dinner participated in by a hundred prominent Republicans of that city.

TALKS TO JEWISH AUDIENCE.

It required an automobile ride of an hour in a heavy downpour of rain for Mr. Taft to reach the Montauk club in Brooklyn, where he had dinner. He arrived there at 7 o'clock. Among the guests were his two brothers, Charles B. and Henry W. Taft, and Frank H. Hittcock, national chairman. A five-mile automobile ride brought Judge Taft to his first meeting. The streets were crowded. The auditorium in the Metropolitan Sanger hall was filled with a Jewish audience, and after five minutes of cheers had been given for Taft the assemblage paid a hearty tribute to Oscar Straus, secretary of commerce and labor. Mr. Straus, in introducing Mr. Taft, said that he wanted to leave no doubt that the election of

Mr. Taft would work the greatest benefit to the country. "Nowhere in America," said Mr. Taft, "is there a greater spirit of freedom and love of country than right here among the people who owe so much to our immigration laws."

The one thought he wished to impress was that by the increase of the navy and army, President Roosevelt had been enabled to exercise a greater influence for peace than any world ruler or heterofores.

"Therefore," he continued, "we should progress to that point where, no matter in what part of the world an American citizen shall be found, his certificate of citizenship shall be all that is required to insure him respect and good treatment. Nothing, if I am elected president, will give me greater pleasure than to devise ways and means to make the American passport respected the world over."

At Congress hall, the next meeting, the audience was of the same character.

Mr. Taft launched into a speech to show why there was no good reason for changing the policy of the administration.

HOW ABOUT PANIC?

Mr. Taft answered by showing that Theodore Roosevelt had awakened the business conscience of the country, and then brought out that the exponent of this moral awakening in New York today was Gov. Hughes. As to the panic, he said it came a year ago in October. Prosperity so great resulted in wild-cat schemes and consequently loss of confidence, and then the panic. This, he said, was not widespread and was rapidly disappearing, and with Republican success would speedily disappear altogether. Such, he declared, would not be the case with Democratic success.

At Arion hall the candidate found an immense audience awaiting him. It was composed largely of Germans. Mr. Taft declared that the German-Americans belonged great credit for the defeat of the free silver heresy. Bryan, he said, could, if elected, put the country on a silver basis by executive order.

Thirty-two blocks of a parade, which divided on each side of the street and through which Mr. Taft passed, was the big feature of the evening.

When the candidate reached the Clomont rink he reviewed the issues to an immense audience; did the same at the new academy of music, and was then received with great enthusiasm at the Union League club.

CLOSE OF CAMPAIGN

SOLDIER REID'S CASE.

Attorneys Seek to Have It Advanced By Supreme Court.

Washington, Oct. 26.—The attorneys for Oscar W. Reid, one of the negro soldiers who was discharged from the army on account of alleged participation in the Brownsville affair, endeavor today to have the supreme court advance the case of Reid in the United States circuit court for the Southern district of New York. In a statement filed with the motion the attorneys say that "the principal matter involved is the right of the president, arbitrarily and summarily in time of peace, to discharge without honor, without trial before a court-martial or other constituted tribunal of any sort, a duly enlisted soldier in the regular army of the United States before the term of enlistment has expired without proof of wrongdoing on his part."

SERBIA REMAINS THE DANGER POINT

London, Oct. 26.—The British government has issued in London and through the British ambassadors abroad a formal denial of a rupture in the direct negotiations between Austria-Hungary and Turkey and Great Britain's intervention together with a statement that any direct arrangement satisfactory to Turkey would be in the opinion of the British government, smooth the way toward a general settlement.

Although there has been no change in the actual situation the tendency of diplomatic activity is toward peace. Serbia remains the danger point and the visit of the Serbian crown prince to St. Petersburg arouses a certain amount of apprehension in the absence of actual knowledge as to whether he is going on a matrimonial errand or a diplomatic mission to the emperor, or has merely been sent by King Peter to put an end to his dangerous agitation.

The prince is accompanied by M. Pachitch, the Serbian premier, and in an interview, while passing through Budia Pest, the premier said that the prince's mission was to persuade the Russian emperor to intervene against the annexation of Bosnia and Herzegovina. He added that he anticipated good results for Serbia.

Only a few days ago the crown prince declared that, though he was no firebrand and desired peace with his whole heart, the question of having access to the sea was a matter of life or death for Serbia, and she was prepared to fight it abandoned by the powers.

It is reported from both Vienna and Constantinople that direct negotiations between Austria and Turkey will be resumed.

JOHN D. ARCHBOLD ISSUES STATEMENT

Explains Letters Read by Hearst At Carnegie Hall Meeting Saturday Night.

LATTER CHALLENGES HIM

Either to Deny His Letters or Admit Them—Is Ready to Produce Facsimiles of Them.

New York, Oct. 26.—John D. Archbold of the Standard Oil company made the following statement this afternoon regarding the letters read by William R. Hearst at the Carnegie hall meeting Saturday night:

"I am very sure that until Hearst read the letters neither Judge Morrison nor Judge Henderson nor any knowledge of my having written Gov. Stone in their behalf. Judge Henderson was not appointed by Gov. Stone to the supreme court, but was three years later appointed by Gov. Pennington. As to the letters, I would like to have influenced in the slightest degree the selection of those gentlemen for their respective positions. I would like to have influenced in the slightest degree the election and the tragic death of Mr. McKinley that came near costing Hearst his precious neck."

"The statement regarding Judge Taft is in connection with an old libel that has been explained and exploded so many times that it would be a simple weariness to the public to go over it again.

"The intimation by Mr. Hearst that he has had any communication from me or any of my associates in connection with the stolen letters is a lie.

"The only favor which I would ask, or have asked, of Mr. Hearst, is that he return me the letters handed him by his larcenous gentleman friend which were written from Japan relating to the fatal illness of my daughter in that country."

HEARST REPLIES.

Late tonight William R. Hearst issued a reply to Mr. Archbold's statement in which he says that "The Standard Oil company pays its honest debts by check and when it has recourse to a certificate of deposit it is because there is a dishonest debt to be paid."

Mr. Hearst continues: "Mr. Archbold says now that he sent his secret certificates of deposit to Mr. Elkin in campaign contributions, but that with the very letters enclosing the $15,000 of secret certificates sent Mr. Elkin was a letter asking him to kill an amendment to a bill, with no other explanation, for reasons which seem patent to me."

Mr. Hearst then challenges Mr. Archbold in these words: "Either deny your letters or admit your letters. If you deny them I will produce the facsimiles. If you admit them you are convicted by your own written words."

Mr. Hearst refers to that "McKinley falsehood" and then says: "You did contribute to Mr. McKinley's campaign, but you did not contribute to Mr. Elkin. You contributed through Mr. Hann, and I have the letters to prove that."

In conclusion Mr. Hearst says: "Mr. Archbold finally takes refuge in the usual defense of the caught and cornered coward. He hides behind the skirts of the innocent woman of his family."

"I have not mentioned Mr. Archbold's daughter and now he would have the thought of dragging her name into this controversy. Why should Mr. Archbold do this despicable thing? I have no letters from his daughter."

At that time the child never cried, but she was very prickly heat and I suppose in scratching it, her own head was scratched. Several occasions it was nearly broken out in boils, one after another. She had about sixty boils on her head, neck and shoulders. I used Cuticura Soap and Cuticura Ointment which cured her of them."

sometime later, her little foot got sore between the toes. Being afraid it was salt rheum, I spoke to our doctor. He gave me a powder which dried it up, but soon after it broke out behind her ears. They cracked half way around and the humor spread up on to her head and neck. Several occasions it was nearly broken out in boils, one after another. She had about sixty boils on her head, neck and shoulders. I used Cuticura Soap and Cuticura Ointment which cured her of them."

To The People of Utah.

During the past two weeks the Inter-Mountain Republican, Republican speakers and Republican Campaign Managers have been and are wilfully and deliberately misrepresenting the Democratic party and its candidates and those charged with the conduct of the Democratic campaign.

The Inter-Mountain Republican during this time has repeatedly charged that a deal has been consummated by the Democratic party through its chairman, Samuel A. King, with the American party, by which the Democrats were to vote the American County, Judicial and legislative ticket in Salt Lake County, in exchange for votes for the State and National Democratic ticket. It has charged that the leaders of the Democratic party were bartering the votes of the Democrats within the state of Utah and were in league with the American party for the purpose of perpetuating trouble and contention within the State of Utah and for the purpose of making it possible to prosecute certain leaders of the dominant Church and to drive them from the state.

On behalf of the members of the Democratic State Central Committee; the members of the Democratic Executive Committee and of the Democratic Advisory Committee, we hereby denounce the statements as being wilful, malicious and deliberate falsehoods originated, circulated and proclaimed for the express purpose of alarming the members of the dominant Church and inducing them to support the Republican ticket. We charge that the Inter-Mountain Republican, the managers and leaders of the Republican party, are responsible for these outrageous and malicious falsehoods; that they are being circulated and proclaimed by them, and each of them well knowing that the charges are absolutely untrue.

We charge that the Inter-Mountain Republican, the Republican managers and leaders are not only responsible for these falsehoods, but are also responsible for their circulation, and by such acts they become the enemies of the people of this state. Defeat awaits them in this election and their methods have become desperate. Though trouble and turmoil must result from their methods in the state of Utah, yet they think more of a few petty offices than they do of the welfare of this state and nation. We declare to the people of Utah that in this campaign, as in all campaigns the Democratic party stands for Democratic principles and the representatives of its party, and has no other object or purpose in view than the triumph of its principles and the election of its candidates.

The Democratic party, its managers or leaders, have never at any time or upon any occasion intimated, suggested or contemplated any agreement or combination with the American party, or any other party. The Democratic party of Utah, its managers or leaders are not now and never have been a party to any scheme, combination or deal with any other party whatsoever and in this campaign, it demands justice at the hands of the people of Utah and asks the voters to rebuke at the polls such wilful, disreputable and malicious campaign methods as are being resorted to at this time by the Inter-Mountain Republican and the leaders of the Republican party in this state.

S.S.S. A CURE FOR RHEUMATISM

Rheumatism is caused by an excess of uric acid in the blood, which is carried through the circulation to all portions of the system. Every muscle, nerve, bone and joint absorb the acid, pain-producing poison, causing aches, inflammation, stiffness and other well known symptoms of the disease. Permanent relief from the pains and discomfort of Rheumatism cannot be expected from the use of liniments, plasters, and other external treatment which does not reach the blood, where the cause is located. Such measures give temporary relief, but in order to cure Rheumatism the uric acid and inflammatory poison must be expelled from the blood. S. S. S. cures Rheumatism because it is a perfect blood purifier. It goes down into the circulation, neutralizes the uric acid and drives it from the blood. S. S. S. expels the irritating, inflammatory matter which is causing the pain, swelling and other discomfort, enriches the weak, sour blood, and permanently cures Rheumatism. In all forms of Rheumatism, whether acute or chronic, S. S. S. will be found a safe, vegetable remedy, possessing the properties needed to cure, and at the same time a medicine that builds up the entire system by its fine tonic effects. Book on Rheumatism and any medical advice free to all who write.
