UTAH TO BE A STATE.

The Committee on Territories Considering an Admission Bill.

NO. 60. OPPOSITION IN THE HOUSE.

Chairman Wheeler's Measure May Be Rejected, If Congress Remains in Session Long Enough.

Washington, Oct. 27.—The committee on territories has for some time been considering the bill to admit Utah to the Union, and every effort is being made by those interested to have the bill referred to a committee at an early date. It was expected the bill would be referred to the Select Committee on Territories, but as Chairman Wheeler of the committee is at the World's Fair no meeting was held. The bill under consideration is one introduced by Wheeler, delegate from Washington, who introduced a bill, but the committee decided to take up Wheeler's bill, which is being amended. Some members are trying to meet the views of the delegates. At present, nothing definite as to length of time, it is possible that the minimum will be three weeks. There is little hope of action in the House.
