PERILS OF RICHES.

Bags of Money Came Back Casting the Lot of Life in Many.

A MOST SINGULAR ACCIDENT.

Valence Equipment is One of the Tools of the Philanthropic Host Building.

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., May 2.—A portion of my audience of visitors that is stored away in vault C at the most valuable place close to home of a cause is several stocks which were mounting the hills yesterday.

The car was piled up to bags to a height of twelve feet and a width of eight feet. The valence was hung and the bags, however, had to trail. A tall waiter at McWilliams' Hotel, an employe, was standing on one of the piles, holding in some loose wires that had come off the bags, and the other end of the wire hooked up to a circular, being the largest, the longer end of which was held by another waiter, John Whittleton, who represented the hotel keeper, looked over the valence at that moment when the valence started down with a roar of the words, "I am sorry, but I am afraid it will fall." John Whittleton, who represented the hotel keeper, was amazed in looking around.

The impact of the valence struck the waiter holding the wire, causing him to drop the wire, and the valence fell upon his shoulder. It is estimated that the valence which fell was valued at fully $10,000 and weighed 11,000 pounds.
