NEWS NOTES.

Darius Wells, the inventor of wood type, died at Paterson, N. J., May 27, aged 75.

Somebody has "filed" on the Laramie graveyard and built a claim shanty among the monuments.

At Elmira lately, eight ladies officiated as pall-bearers at the funeral of a friend.

The New York Herald, alluding to the Holyoke and other catastrophes, says, "Calamity follows calamity with startling speed."

The Reno, Nev., Journal says, "All persons holding Washoe county scrip can get gold for it. Washoe county is out of debt."

San Francisco is thinking of a centenary next year, as on Sept. 17, 1776, formal possession was taken of the Presidio, and the site was solemnly blessed.

Lisgard has had light business in California, and Miss Hattie Roche sues him for $550, which she claims to be due her as damages for violation of contract.

Madame Janauschcek is playing at San Francisco, and Madame Ristori is there with a troupe of thirty Italian actors and actresses. The latter lady and troupe are on their way to Australia.

Estimating the average expense of American travelers abroad at $1,000 each, the amount of money expended by them in Europe last year was $47,730,000 in gold.—Courier-Journal.

Mr. Eugene Godard is reported to be attempting to arrange a balloon race in Paris. The money obtained from spectators is to be applied to the relief of the families of the unfortunate aeronauts Sivel and Spinelli.

The London Times pronounces the Bessemer steamer so far an undoubted failure. It makes but moderate speed, is difficult to handle except when at full speed, and the swinging cabin does not swing.

Mr. Tennyson has at last sent to the press the drama which he has had so long on hand. It is entitled "Queen Mary; a Drama," and embraces the life of Mary Tudor, from her accession to her death, together with the chief scenes in her reign.

Irish moss has been suggested as a substitute for flaxseed meal in poultices. It is said to make a superior poultice, as it keeps moist about eighteen hours, does not slip, is inodorous and neither ferments easily nor soils the bedclothes or linen of the patient.

The robbery of the Sioux chiefs yesterday while they were at dinner, of their money and shirts, was one of the meanest thefts on record. If the thieves are captured they should be turned over to the chiefs for the administration of Indian justice.—Washington Star, May 28.

Carruth, the Vineland (N. J.) editor, remarks in his valedictory, "Two months' constant wrestle with a bullet in our brain has convinced us that we lack the capacity to develop a lead mine and publish an independent Vinelana newspaper at the same time."

John Mangin, formerly one of the wealthiest contractors on Long Island, and the owner of a large amount of real estate in Long Island City, has been a nightly lodger in the police station in Hunter's Point since the beginning of last November.—N. Y. Sun.

The Osservatore Romano reads the Prince of Wales a severe lesson for accepting the headship of the English Masons. It ascribes the downfall of Charles X., Louis Philippe and Louis Napoleon to their connection with the craft, and implores the Prince to take warning before it is too late.

The first blackberries of the season displayed in the San Francisco markets, came from Alameda. The variety is the Aughinbaugh, and is the earliest known. The shipper says he could have had them in the market thirty days earlier but for the April frosts.—Sacramento Record-Union, June 1.

During March there were registered in the eight principal towns of Scotland the births of 3,949 children, of whom 8.4 per cent. were illegitimate. In Greenock, 4.4 per cent. of the births were illegitimate; in Perth, 5.2; in Dundee, 10.8; and in Aberdeen, 13.7 per cent. Scotland must be a great place for bad eggs.

One Nelson, a confidence man, recently asked Police Inspector Walling, of New York, what he would gain by looking him up. "I'm going to make an honest man of you," was the reply. "We'll fire you out and make you honest." "There is a much shorter way," said the man. "Give me a $5,000 sinecure, such as you hold, and I'll be a reformed man."

Colfax is still smiling. He announces that the net profits on his lecturing tour, just finished, amount to $10,000; that he "has had the jolliest winter of the past twenty years," and that he "has on hand more invitations to lecture than would fill every night for the next winter."

Mr. Tilton is a very forbearing man. The fact that Porter is a paid lawyer makes that distinguished attorney's remarks untrustworthy, but if the injured plaintiff were to meet him some dark night and smother him with a feather bed, justice would turn her defective orbs in another direction, and inwardly ejaculate, "Go in, Theodore."—Ex.

Æsop's fable of Jupiter and the wagoner is being illustrated in Missouri. The governor has appointed a day of fasting and prayer for relief from the grasshoppers, while the State entomologist recommends natural means—such as offering a pecuniary reward for every bushel of "hoppers" destroyed, an excellent suggestion if practicable, as it will not only diminish the voracious swarms of destroyers but at the same time afford remunerative employment to thousands of people now unemployed and needy.—Ex

A BIT OF HIS SPEECH.—It has been observed to us that we might have given a portion of the speech of the Mexican Indian orator, Ignacio M. Altamirano, at the banquet given to Secretary Seward, referred to in yesterday's NEWS, we here reproduce the following extract, as hastily translated from Spanish into English by Senor Don Miguel Pedrorena—

"Gentlemen—The Minister of one of the republics of South America, perhaps the most flourishing, said, a few years ago, referring to the honors that had been tendered by his country to the illustrious Cameron and S. Martin, that those nations only that are grateful, deserve to be assisted.'

"A holy maxim that has been stamped for ever in the conscience of the people, the observance of which has raised them to the highest pinnacle of power, and the forgetfulness of which has dragged to degradation the most famous and powerful empires. The republics of this new continent should always keep in their minds this maxim, that we may never forget it, if we wish to see America occupy that position that has been assigned to it by the laws of civilization, that is to say, the first in the world. Gentlemen, the motive that to-day unites us in this banquet is one of friendship to our venerable guest.

"This banquet is not to the foreign monarch, who, leaving his throne for a few days to travel among us, is received with official ovations; nor to the fortunate conqueror, whom we see in our banquet, raising the cup to his lips with a bloody hand, a banquet offered through fear; but it is the apostle of human dignity and honor, the defender of the dignity of America, and one of the most venerable patriarchs of liberty, whom we welcome in our midst, and in honor of whom we decorate with flowers our Mexican homes, and tender to him our sympathies and admiration. See him! You see on his forehead no crown; but those venerable locks, those white locks which show his age—what an age! that show us all that those years have been consecrated to the service of his country, consecrated for the good of all."

STRUCK WITH THE BEAUTY OF CALIFORNIA.—"G. L. M.," of the Omaha Herald, says of his journey to California—

"I cannot write in detail of the journey over to the Pacific. It was a constant delight from first to last. The monotony of the Humboldt Plains is grandly relieved by the splendors of the Sierra Nevadas, of which the rounding of "Cape Horn" is the culmination, the placid pictures with which these thrilling mountain scenes are brought in contrast as we descend into the broad and beautiful valley of the Sacramento must be seen to be appreciated. No pen can adequately describe them. The beauty of the land is beyond the power of words to paint. I came almost in a twinkling, from snow-capped mountains into a vast and limitless world of flowers, and into a boundless ocean of waving grain in the very midst of the harvest."

San Jose, he says, is "the most lovely city of its size in the world."

Gala Day In Monroe.

MONROE, May 12, 1875.

Editor Deseret News:

The 1st of May was a grand gala day here in Monroe. The Superintendent of our Sunday School, S. Simonson, having promised the members of the school a "fete" on that day, at sunrise the American flag was hoisted amid the firing of guns and the playing of the brass band under the direction of Captain Doxford.

At nine the teachers and children met at the Schoolhouse, a "Queen of the May" was chosen, also a Queen Consort and Maids and Esquires of Honor. The procession then formed and, after marching through the principal streets and receiving the principal authorities of the town in their midst, returned to the Schoolhouse, where we listened to short, pithy, appropriate speeches, interspersed with songs by our Sunday School choir. I will add can say for the choir that they have few superiors in this southern country.

At one, dancing commenced for the scholars, which was a truly delightful sight. Such order and quiet were an example to older children.

The dance for the teachers came off on Monday evening.

This is a live town of good people. The larger portion of them are working in the United Order, working with a will, and the people generally are contented. Some of course show out human nature, and growl a little, but the growl is a very faint one.

Yours, &c., C.E. BOLTON.

Improvements—New Settlers—Crop Prospects.

PLYMOUTH CITY,
Box Elder Co., May 30th, 1875.

Editor Deseret News—

The increasing wealth and spreading advancement of material improvement are raising us to an equal standard with other and earlier settled localities. Among the latest strides is the erection of a store, well filled and containing a variety unequaled in northern Utah. It is kept by H. D. Persons & Son. We have also made an application for a post office, which we expect to have in a short time. As this would make the name of the place more commonly known, the citizens thought it would be more praiseworthy to have a different name, which was agreed upon as Plymouth City, instead of Squaw Town.

Besides many town lots that have been taken up and houses and other improvements erected, we have all around us new comers, who are taking up land and settling, many sanguine of success in farming without irrigation. The fall wheat in this locality affords ample encouragement, for without a drop of water there is a fine prospect for a good harvest. The grain in this settlement looks splendid, the fall grain being in the boot, and crops of all kinds look promising, and even this spring's grain will require but little if any irrigation. Mr. Shean & Son have located a whole R. R. section and have many thousand feet of lumber engaged for fencing and building, which they expect to do this summer. They intend to have, in grain, a good portion of it before snow flies. As I have said in other communications, this is a fine section of country, the soil rich and deep, averaging about two feet, and the greater portion susceptible of irrigation, if necessary. Hundreds of acres have been taken up this spring, and I would not jeopardize my reputation for truthfulness by saying that every acre of arable land will be claimed in a very short time and those who would not settle here and who would not give a "fig" for all the land around here will, like others who have been thus mistaken, have cause to regret their misstep. Grain can be raised here without irrigation, and it will be raised without it, and that in a short time. There is room for many yet and I can say with propriety that a better place cannot be recommended to those who wish homes in a healthy and beautiful section. I do not wish to impose my opinion upon the public without proof, but let the skeptical come and see, and to them my assertions will be verified.

Respectfully, FELTS.

Our Country Contemporaries.

Beaver Enterprise, June 1—

Yesterday John D. Lee was removed from Fort Cameron to the Beaver jail, where he will be under the care of Mr. Wm. Thompson, sr. This move has been made, we are informed, to curtail expenses.

Ogden Junction, June 3—

Jas. Richey of Marriott's settlement, met with a painful accident yesterday morning; while cleaning a corn sheller one of his thumbs was caught in the machine and so badly crushed that it was thought necessary to resort to amputation, which operation was performed by Dr. E. G. Williams, the patient being under the influence of chloroform, administered by Dr. P. L. Anderson.

EASTERN.

Turned States' Evidence.

NEW YORK, 4.—Lafayette Graff, jointly indicted with Charles L. Lawrence, for smuggling silks, and who escaped to Montreal, returned yesterday, and voluntarily surrendered himself to the United States District Attorney. Graff was admitted to bail in $5,000, and he will be used as States' evidence against his alleged accomplices.

Resumed Work.

POTTSVILLE, Pa., 4.—All the collieries resumed work this morning. The citizens think it will be necessary to retain the troops several days to secure continued work. Adjudant General Lotta arrived from Philadelphia last night.

Dead.

PHILADELPHIA, 4.—George O. Evans, who was recently tried for frauds in the collection of the state claims against the general government, died here last night.

Conference With Indians.

WASHINGTON, 4.—The Indians and Secretary Delano had a short conference to-day. The Secretary told them that if they would take the twenty-five thousand dollars he would try and get as much more for them next Winter, and if they did not take it they could not have the privilege of hunting on the Smoky Hill Fork any longer; he said that if gold was found in the Black Hills, the government would pay them liberally for the lands. He desired them to take all that had been said to them home to the people, and obtain answer back soon as possible. The Indians were photographed in a group, with the exception of Red Cloud, who declined, saying that his picture could be had by paying him $25.

Suit Decided.

CINCINNATI, O., 4.—In the circuit court yesterday, the case of Mrs Davenport, vs. the Western Union Telegraph Co., for the recovery of sixty thousand dollars worth of W. U. stock, alleged to have been fraudulently transferred, was decided in favor of Mrs Davenport.

Unfounded Accusations.

LONDON, 4.—The Telegraph's Berlin dispatch says the German government possesses proofs that the charges of conspiracy made against Durin were unfounded. Durin's arrest was due to the excessive zeal of a Prussian police agent. The prisoner will be released.
