Efforts Making to Close Public Buildings Against Public Amusements.

PROF. BALLANTYNE'S RECITAL.

Mrs. Crawshaw Laid to Rest—Held for Trial in District Court—Wedding.

An action has been brought by J. T. Terry, a resident of Warren, Weber county, against Joseph Carver, Mattie Thomas and R. L. Short, trustees of county school district No. 2, to restrain and enjoin the defendants from permitting a public dance in the public schoolhouse at Warren, a temporary restraining order was issued yesterday afternoon by Judge Rolapp prohibiting the defendants from holding a dance at the schoolhouse last evening. The complaint alleges that the defendants have been permitting public dances in the school building, and that on such occasions the defendants have taken up and piled in the corners, greatly to their damage and to the damage of the building. The plaintiff asks the court that an order be issued permanently restraining the defendants from permitting the building to be used for dancing purposes.

Should the court grant the injunction it will work a hardship on the young people of several wards in the county where they have only the schoolhouse for pleasure purposes. This is the first action of this kind to be filed in this county on such charges, but it is believed should the case be decided against the trustees that several other complaints from other towns in the county will be filed. It is expected that the case will come up for trial in this term of court.

PROF. BALLANTYNE'S RECITAL.
Thursday evening next Professor John Ballantyne is to give a recital of his pupils in the Ogden tabernacle, assisted by the tabernacle choir—200 voices—of which he is conductor. Much interest attaches to this recital because of the enjoyment had last spring in listening to a similar one he rendered, and a special feature of the evening's pleasure will be the concerted and solo work of Mr. Ballantyne's vocal pupils. A class of 60 voices will interpret Finetti's "Good Night, Good Night, Good Night." There will also be two female choruses, a male chorus, a trio for soprano, tenor and baritone, and three vocal duets for soprano and tenor, soprano and contralto, and for two sopranos. All seats in the tabernacle have been reserved complimentary, and given to Mr. Ballantyne's pupils for distribution. It has promise of being a very successful and artistic affair.

HEARING OF HOLD-UPS.
The preliminary hearing of R. J. Hickey, John Monroe and James Bains was held yesterday before Justice A. S. Hall at North Ogden, the defendants having been granted a change of venue by Judge Howell. The state was represented by County Attorney Hulanicki and the defendants by Soren X. Christensen. The men were charged with complicity in the recent Zang saloon hold up. The evidence introduced was practically the same as that given at the Wells hearing, Halling and Wynne, the two men who turned state's evidence, being the principal witnesses. The defendants Monroe and Bains did not take part in the hold up, but were only furnished guns and money by the state. The state charged by the justice, who held the trial, was not sufficient evidence against him to bind him over.

MRS. CRAWSHAW LAID TO REST.
The mortal remains of Mrs. Aesenth Crawshaw, who died in Salt Lake City, Wednesday, were consigned to the silent tomb yesterday afternoon in the Ogden city cemetery. The funeral services were held in the Fourth ward meetinghouse at 2 o'clock yesterday. Bishop's Counselor Hyrum Belnap presiding. The ward choir rendered appropriate music, and solos were sung by Mrs. Mary Farley and Mr. Lily Pye Bradford. The speakers were Presidents L. W. Shurtliff, Patriarch George W. Larkin and Bishop John Watson, who spoke of the many tributes of the useful, God-fearing life of the deceased. Some very pretty floral tributes were on the casket, and the attendance evidenced the high esteem in which the deceased was held in the city.

RACE-WEEDMAN NUPPIALS.
Marriage license was granted to George N. Weedman, 27, and Miss Laura M. Hase, 19, both of Ogden City.

BRIEFS AND PERSONALS.
Hon. Lorin Farr has gone to Colorado, Mexico, to visit for the winter with his brother Winslow. The local order of Eagles is going to give a fine minstrel show at the Grand house Tuesday night.
Presidents L. W. Shurtliff and S. T. Whitaker have returned from St. Louis where they have been in the interest of the erection of the Utah building and the state exposition. They report the work progressing very satisfactorily.
The new padded cell at the county jail is completed, and a man named Joseph Harkins was the first demoted person to be placed in it.
Last evening Deputy Sheriff Charles Wright took to Brigham City Joe Anderson, wanted on a charge of assault with deadly weapon, and C. R. Meyers and J. J. Brind on the charge of jumping a board bill at Willard.

Mr. George A. Smith was down from Salt Lake yesterday visiting relatives. Mr. N. G. Whipple has returned from Garland.

PARK CITY.

SERIOUS STABBING AFFRAY.

Eugene Sullivan Probably Fatally Wounded—Another Mine Mishap.

Park City, Summit Co., Dec. 11.—Very early this morning a serious cutting affray occurred at the Half-way boarding house near the Daily-Judge tunnel, and Eugene Sullivan was probably fatally wounded. Arthur Murphy is accused of the assault, though of this there is some doubt, but he is under arrest for the crime. The wounded man was sent to a Salt Lake hospital for treatment.

Shortly after midnight Murphy and a companion came from the boarding house and hunted up Sheriff Blair and demanded protection for Murphy, who had been driven out of the house by Sullivan in his underclothes, and Murphy wanted the sheriff to aid him in getting his clothing. The complaining parties returned ahead of Sheriff Blair and Deputy Alex Wright, and the latter were greeted from within with cries for help. Upon entering the officers found Sullivan suffering from severe knife wounds in the head and breast, which may prove fatal.

As a knife was found in Murphy's clothes that were hanging in the room he was arrested and lodged in jail. Murphy was arraigned this afternoon before Justice Sperry on the charge of assault with a deadly weapon on the person of Eugene Sullivan and entered a plea of not guilty. His bond was fixed at $5,000 pending preliminary examination. The defendant was unable to furnish the bond and will be taken to the county jail at Conville tomorrow to await the result of Sullivan's injuries.

For disturbing the peace, George Clark, a side-partner of Sullivan, the man who was stabbed this morning, was tried before Justice Sperry and found guilty of disturbing the peace and fined $50. In lieu of the fine he was committed for 60 days. Clark was in an ugly mood and made violent threats against the justice as he was being taken to his cell.

Considerable light was thrown on the stabbing affray through the cross-examination of Eugene Sullivan. Murphy, the man who is accused of doing the stabbing, was very much abused and persecuted prior to the tragedy. Clark admitted to driving Murphy out of the house in his underclothes. Murphy was obliged to steal into another part of the building and borrow a suit of clothes before he could go to town for help.

ANOTHER MINE MISHAP.

An employee of the J. I. C. mine, James Thomas, had a narrow escape from being crushed to death in a cave-in this afternoon. His scalp was laid bare by a rock that came through the roof of the mine with a half car of earth that fell. Mr. Thomas is the man who recently was killed by being crushed to death by the mine cage.

NORTH OGDEN.

TO BUILD AMUSEMENT HALL.

Brass Band Surprised—Welcome Snow—Missionary Call.

North Ogden, Weber Co., Dec. 10.—The most excellent winter weather we have been favored with for some time past was brought to a sudden termination this morning by several inches of precipitation of the beautiful. Considerable enthusiasm was being aroused in our little burg over a proposed amusement hall. A meeting was held of the citizens this week. James Storer, William E. Ellis and Arthur O. Bennett were appointed a committee on plans and specifications, ways and means and uses, and are being well received in their visits among the people. It is designed if proper encouragement is met with, to proceed at once with the construction work, and in all probability North Ogden citizens will soon own their own social hall. The ladies of this place precipitated a very pleasant surprise upon our brass band Wednesday evening during one of the weekly practices; among other good things bestowed upon the musicians was a purse to assist them in the purchase of a bass drum to take the place of one lost in the conflagration of the Stevens building on Washington avenue.

Elder William Bailey has received a call from Box B to prepare for a mission. The south Washington school in charge of Miss Kate Montgomery is progressing nicely in the new building with an attendance of about 50, reducing the heretofore crowded condition of the Central school, and all teachers are consequently doing much better work.

President J. G. Kimball of Salt Lake City will meet with the Seventies here tomorrow to fill up a vacancy in the presidency of the local quorum.

Arrangements are steadily going on for a grand fiftieth anniversary jubilee of the organization of the Thirty-eighth quorum in this place, Dec. 18. A very entertaining program will be rendered.

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Chandler are rejoicing over the advent of their first child, a handsome boy.

Thomas Norris has been ill for some time with a complication of troubles.

I notice that when I sell a bottle, they come back for more. I can honestly recommend it. 25c, 50c and $1.00 at Z. C. M. Drug Dept."

KAMAS.

M. I. A. WORK PROSPERING.

Arranging for Friday Evening Dances and Entertainments.

Special Correspondence.
Kamas, Summit Co., Dec. 5.—We have had a second Indian summer in this part of the country. The roads are as good as the paved streets of some of the towns, and teams are busy freight-lumber, hay, and grain from the north, and are being driven to Park City. Mr. J. W. Carpenter has fixed up his business with Uncle Sam's agent, and will run his saw mill here in town again.

State superintendent of Y. M. M. I. A. C. A. Callis, and his aids are busy visiting the associations of this stake since the commencement of this season's work. Elder Callis and Stake Aid E. Thomas visited the Woodland association last Sunday evening. The people of that ward were out in full force, and listened to two of the best discourses they have been privileged to hear for some time, one by Elder Chris. Jensen of Fairview, who is teaching school at Woodland, and the other by Supt. Callis. The prospects are good this season for M. I. A. work in this stake.

The people of Kamas and surrounding settlements are taking steps to discourage so much dancing on Saturday evening by arranging for entertainments of various kinds and in different parts of the wards on Friday nights, to offset the desire for dances on Saturday evenings, which are so detrimental to Sunday schools and meetings.

CEDAR FORT.

MRS. E. DAYTON DEAD.

Came to Utah in 1853—Close Eventful Career in 72nd Year.

Special Correspondence.
Cedar Fort, Utah Co., Dec. 5.—Mrs. Elizabeth Berry Dayton, one of the earliest and most respected citizens of this place passed away Nov. 13. Grand-mother Berry was born April 7, 1832, at Ashborne, Warwickshire, England, and was married to John Berry of the same town, Feb. 17, 1852. In 1853 she was with her husband and parents emigrated from England in 1853, and spent the winters of '53 and '54 in Salt Lake City locating in Cedar Fort in the spring of 1854. In 1855 she was left a widow with seven children. Later she became the wife of Moroni Dayton, and two children were born to them. Her descendants numbered 53 at her death.

For many years Mrs. Berry has been a most efficient nurse for the sick. She was for many years counselor in the Primary association and for the past 13 years and up to the time of her demise, was president of the Relief society, filling the office with much energy and faithfulness.

The funeral services were impressive and beautiful. Words of praise and commendation were given by her Bishop and neighbors, also by visiting sisters of the stake presidency of the Relief society.

LA GRANDE, OREGON.

STAKE CONFERENCE.

Thriving Wards—New Stake House—Shipping Big Apple Crop to Europe.

Special Correspondence.
La Grande, Oregon, Dec. 4.—We have just closed one of the best conferences held in the Union stake. While we were not favored with any one from Salt Lake, President Bramwell had the entire High Council and all the stake officers speak and as he said, "report what you have done and say something about what you should have done and expect to do the ensuing three months." A splendid feeling prevailed and all expressed themselves as being determined to make a better record in future than in the past. A spirit of work seemed to manifest itself throughout the conference.

It very pleasing to note the growth of the Union stake. Bishop Stoddard of the La Grande ward reported that his ward now numbered more than 500 souls and that the tithing had increased three times over that of last year. All the other wards made a similar report. Two years ago we had but five wards and not strong ones, either, while now we have 12 wards, all in excellent working order and increasing numerically very fast. We have such a good country that to see it, to move here, hence we may confidently anticipate a continuous growth.

WORK ON NEW STAKE HOUSE.

Work commenced next Monday on the stake house. All seem enthusiastic with the thought that it will be an easy matter to build it. We have the very best location that could be had in this city, and the citizens here express themselves (without solicitation) as desirous to aid us. We tell them that while we shall not ask, we certainly will be glad to receive any contributions tendered. We think quite a sum will be had from the members of the Church. The feeling here is generally good towards our people, and a good deal of missionary work is being done. The stake house will be of gothic design and a beauty. It will have three steeples and will be 60x115 feet. The money is all subscribed and the work will be pushed to completion, so that it will be ready for use for the fall conference of 1904.

BIG APPLE CROP.

Most of our people have just shipped their apple crop and they have made good returns. About 100 carloads of apples have gone from here during the last few weeks. Many thousands more were set out last spring and many thousands more will be planted next spring. The demand for the Oregon apple is constantly increasing as they prove to be a better shipper than any apple on the market. Many consignments are made to Germany and other foreign nations. This means a good price and a constant market, and we may say a growing market.

We mildly suggest to any contemplating making money here by changing their location to make no move until they have seen this country.

M'CAMMON, IDAHO.

NEW TOWNSITE SURVEY.

South McCammon Booming—Ward Organizations Flourishing.

Special Correspondence.
McCammon, Bannock Co., Dec. 10.—We have a new townsite surveyed and called South McCammon, this is about one-quarter of a mile from North McCammon and contains the following: One general merchandise store, one blacksmith shop, one meat market and one saloon, all doing a flourishing business. Many improvements have been made. Bishop A. M. Boyce has just finished his fine two story dwelling, and several smaller dwellings are in course of erection. By the way, there is room for a good shoemaker and a cooper.

The ward is in a flourishing condition, all the organizations are in good running order. We will soon need a new meetinghouse as the old one is getting too small.

North McCammon has a Catholic church in course of erection.

We are having very fine weather now.

PARKER, IDAHO.

AUXILIARY SUGAR MILL.

To Be Built Here—District and Stake Conferences—Births.

Special Correspondence.
Parker, Fremont Co., Idaho, Dec. 7.—The district conference, including the St. Anthony, Parker and Esch wards, was held here on Saturday and Sunday, 25th and 26th ult. The stake conference and association meetings and joint Sunday schools were held here also, and a time of great rejoicing was had.

The interior of the meetinghouse has been remodelled, and is somewhat more roomy than before, and the speakers' stand is not so cumbersome. The new kitchen building is rapidly approaching completion and will be a credit to the town. Two more frame residences have gone up lately.

BRANCH SUGAR MILL.

Most important of all we are to have a beet crusher in our town, the lumber and other materials for which are being put on the ground. The ground is in fine condition for hauling, as this cold spell succeeds a wet one, so the roads are as hard as a pavement.

The district school, with Mr. Chas. L. Johnson as principal, with Miss Ida Wakely and Mr. J. J. Anderson as asstants, is giving universal satisfaction.

Born, to the wife of R. A. Palmer, Sept. 10, a girl; to the wife of F. A. Miller, Nov. 1, a boy; and to the wife of E. D. Jones, Nov. 29, a boy; all well.

RIVERSIDE, IDAHO.

THANKSGIVING FEAST.

Interesting Program and Dancing—Bountiful Harvests Occasion for Gratitude.

Special Correspondence.

Riverside, Bingham Co., Idaho, Nov. 26.—Thanksgiving day was duly observed by the good people of our ward. Services were held at 10 o'clock in the morning, at which an appropriate program, consisting of speeches, songs and recitations, was rendered. At the close of meeting, tables were arranged the full length of the hall which were loaded with the bounties of life. After all had partaken of a bountiful repast the tables were cleared away and the little folks enjoyed themselves in a dance. In the evening a very successful basket party was held, two tables being filled with beautiful baskets, a prize being given the lady having made the prettiest one.

The health of the people is excellent. Bounteous crops have been harvested and the people have much to be grateful for. We have no snow and fall plowing is being done by the farmers.

THATCHER, ARIZONA.

ANTI-SALOON LEAGUE.

Temperance Propaganda in Arizona—Its Purpose and Principles.

Special Correspondence.

Thatcher, Graham Co., Ariz., Nov. 28.—Today an anti-saloon league was organized here and a constitution adopted which provides that the "league shall be non-sectarian in religion and non-partisan in politics. The purpose of the league being the suppression of the saloon on all questions of public policy, and the enforcement of the laws of the territory and of the municipality against the saloon so long as it shall exist, the league, as such, shall maintain a strict neutrality on all questions of religion, politics, which do not relate to the liquor traffic. The officers shall constitute the executive committee, and have a general supervision of the entire work of the league. The department of the territory the league shall be three, viz: agitation, law enforcement and legislation. Each department shall be committed to a special committee."

One hundred and sixty persons signed the constitution and became its first members. It is proposed to visit each of the districts of the valley and organize societies.

The public meeting at 2 p. m. was called to order by President Andrew Kimball, chairman of the committee, which has in hand the campaign against the saloon. The committee gave a report of the work performed up to date, and recommended the organization of the anti-saloon league and the central board to perpetuate the principles of temperance and aid in the coming election.

After the adoption of the constitution, the following were elected general officers: Andrew Kimball, president; Rev. C. Wardlaw, first vice president; Hon. W. T. Webb, second vice president; Mr. W. E. Glosscock, secretary; Chas. M. Layton, treasurer.

TWO BOYS WHO MEAN BUSINESS.

This is a true story of two boys who represent the independence and grit of the American people.

James Hackett was not in need of additional help, but something about the latest applicant compelled his attention.

"So you want work," he said, after a moment's thought.

"I'm eleven, sir, and if you'll give me a chance I will show you that I can work."

Mr. Hackett was evidently in good humor, for he called the foreman, and told him to give the boy something to do. Thus it was that John Arola gave the first evidence of the character which should some day make him a power in the state of Washington. His mother was dead, and his father was away in the woods, thus leaving John and his brother Carl, aged thirteen years, to fight their battles with the world. On day the foreman of the mill said to Mr. Hackett, "That is a bright boy you turn over to me."

"Good," said Mr. Hackett. "Raise his wages to one dollar a day."

"He is worth it," replied the foreman. John was elated at this turn in affairs, but to the surprise of Mr. Hackett, he requested permission for his brother Carl to take his place at the mill.

"If he is like you, it will be all right," said Mr. Hackett.

"Indeed, sir, he is just as good a worker as I am," said John, and his face lighted up with a look of pride.

Here was loyalty unadulterated. Carl went to work. He gave satisfaction. John disappeared and in the run of business Mr. Hackett forgot to inquire about him until one day he chanced to meet Carl.

"Where is John?" asked Mr. Hackett.

"Oh," said Carl, "he is attending school in Aberdeen."

"This was a new phase of the case, and Mr. Hackett became intensely interested in the two boys, were not only anxious to earn their living, but who also were planning to acquire an education. By inquiry he learned that the boys were living in a little tumble-down shack, and that the one who worked in the mill carried enough money to keep both supplied with food and clothes while the younger one attended school. Out of school-hours John did the housework and cooked the meals. Everything about the old shack was tidy, there was honest effort, youthful independence and happiness. A few days later Carl requested a short vacation.

"What for?" asked Mr. Hackett.

"Well," said Carl, in a burst of youthful confidence, "John and I are building a house."

"You may have your vacation," was all that Mr. Hackett said; but he did a lot of thinking and before he went home that night he instructed the foreman to see that Carl's salary went on just the same. In due time John and Carl completed their "manston." It was two rooms and the same number of doors and windows. The roof is well shingled. Carl has returned to work in the mill, and John continues to attend school when not engaged in household duties. In the evening the two lads study and read. They are happy in their independence.—Pittsburg Bulletin.

SEALING BIDS.

Sealed bids will be received by the City Recorder until Monday, December 14th, 1903, at 1 o'clock p. m., for No. 100, City and County Building, for contemplated improvements at Fire Station No. 1, in accordance with plans and specifications in the hands of the Chief of the Fire Department.

A certified check of 5 per cent to accompany each bid.

The city reserves the right to reject any and all bids.

By order of the City Council of Salt Lake City, Utah, December 2nd, 1903.

This Is The Latest.

A lady just returned from California ordered Huslers Flour, but her grocer sent the "just as good" kind, with a "moon-back" appendage. Bread baking failures resulted in a return of the flour, but the money—it was hard to get, so a compromise was made on another "better brand." The result was even more unsatisfactory. Moral: insist on having the genuine moon-back Huslers Flour—and then there'll be no trouble.

LIKE A BOY'S POCKET.

A most remarkable case of gastronomy for foreign bodies of the stomach was described at a meeting of the Academic de Medecine. The patient, a youth sixteen years old, had entered St. Joseph hospital for epilepsy. He had had malena, and the physicians had removed the operation in the left hypochondrium. The operation was performed in June, and the following medical work was done: a incision of two and a half centimeters, eight teaspoons, from 8 to 1 centimeters long, and 12 sharp points; a needle 6 centimeters long, a knife blade 5 centimeters long, and a pair of pliers 12 centimeters long, and a key. There were in all twenty-five bodies, weighing 233 grams. The stomach was removed completely.—Paris letter to the Medical Record.

DANGEROUS SURGERY.

Death Follows the Surgeon's Knife—Not the Surgeon's Fault, of Course—He Can't Help It—You Can.

Pyramid Pile Cure Cures Piles Quickly. Painlessly—Without Danger.

People go along for years suffering with piles. They try this and that and the other thing from carrying a buckeye to getting treatment from a physician. They obtain temporary relief, maybe, but they are never quite cured. A little strain in lifting, excessive fatigue, a little constipation or a little diarrhoea and the piles come.

They don't seem to amount to much, but they banish sleep and appetite. No position is comfortable. There is intense local pain and the dreadful feeling of weight in the perineum.

Maybe in the early stages some of the many salves on sale will afford temporary relief. If the case is of long standing there is only one speedy and sure remedy. It is Pyramid Pile Cure. Even in light cases it is the safest thing to use. Other applications may cure and may not. Pyramid Cure is always certain, always reliable, always brings comfort at once. Its prompt use saves months of severe suffering. In extreme cases it will save surgical operations, and their attendant dangers and discomforts. It is better than a knife. Will cure easier, quicker and safer. Thousands have used it. Thousands have been cured by it. The cost is trifling compared with what it does. The price is 50 cents. Most anybody would gladly pay ten dollars to be rid of piles.

All Druggists sell Pyramid Pile Cure. Write Pyramid Drug Co., Marshall, Mich., for their book on Causes and Cure of Piles, which is sent free for the asking.
