LOCAL ITEMS.

THEATRICAL.—Mr. Graham presents a very fine bill for his Benefit this evening. He is a deserving gentleman and a good actor, and we hope he will have a crowded house, on the occasion of his first Benefit. This may be called a night for mirth and enjoyment at the theatre.

MR. HARDIE'S BENEFIT.—This gentleman takes his first Benefit on Thursday night, when we understand "Macbeth" and other attractions will be presented. The beautiful music of "Macbeth," rendered as it can be with such effect here by the very superior singers and chorus, that the Management can secure, is alone worth more than the price of admission to hear. No doubt the gentleman will be well patronized.

LAST WEEK.—This is the last week of the theatrical season. After Saturday night there will be a cessation of this enjoyable and interesting source of entertainment, for a short period. A brief rest will make the public all the more ready and anxious to enjoy the pleasures of the theatre with the opening of the Spring season. In the meantime we expect to see good houses for the three evenings which now precede the close.

HE WAS LUCKY.—Last evening, one of our citizens understood of an effort being made by one of those plausible, oily-tongued scoundrels, some of whom keep lurking around, to stain the virtue of his daughter. Proceeding to the house where the young lady had gone ostensibly on an errand, the two were found together. Citizen was not armed, luckily for scoundrel, but he is endowed with a fair share of muscular energy, which was vigorously applied to the other's person, fist and boot playing active parts, until scoundrel got out of doors, when he disappeared with marvelous celerity. He had better keep running, lest he should run against a bullet. This kind of gentry will compel lessons for their benefit which may be more forcible and effective than agreeable.

THE WEATHER.—Cloudy and somewhat cold to-day. There was a little snow on the ground this morning, and a little more fell in the morning, but did not remain. Mud exists ad lib.

By Deseret State Telegraph Line:
Logan; cloudy; snowed about two inches last night; snowing now.
Ogden; very mild, but snowing.
Parowan; pleasant; sun shining. The snow is nearly all gone.
Tukerville; pleasant.

St. George; clear and warm. The people are busy in their gardens; peas, lettuce, &c., are up and looking well. Thermometer 68.

SEVENTH'S LECTURES.—Elder W. Perry Nebeker will lecture to-morrow evening, instead of Elder Kelsey, on "Incidents of travel in Switzerland," a subject to which he is well qualified to do justice from personal travels and experience. His observations on the manners and customs of the Swiss will afford much interest and information. Lecture commences at 7 o'clock, in the 13th Ward Assembly Room.

FATAL ACCIDENT.—We regret to learn by the Deseret Telegraph that this morning, about 10 a.m., a man named Sandy McNeil was killed whilst working on the Logan and Richmond canal. He saw the bank caving in, and stepping aside, as he thought, a large piece of earth fell on his head and completely crushed it. Another man by the name of Beveland had his arm pretty badly crushed. They are both citizens of Logan.

COMPLIMENTARY.—We understand that a movement is on foot, among a number of our influential citizens, to give to the highly esteemed Manager of our Theatre, John T. Cairns, Reg., if he will accept it, a Complimentary Benefit.
