VIENNA, 10.—The governor of Dalmatia has informed the Austrian government that refugees from Herzegovina will yield neither to persuasion nor to promises of money to enable them to return to their homes; the insurgent chiefs say they are willing to return with an Austrian escort, which is refused.

ST. PETERSBURG, 10.—War has broken out between Japan and Corea; on Wednesday Japan declared war, and has blockaded the Korean ports.

LONDON, 10.—In the House of Commons this evening, Geo. Anderson, one of the members for Glasgow, asked the government if it were true that General Schenck, the American minister, had withdrawn at the demand of Great Britain. Robert Bourke, one of the under secretaries for the foreign department, replied that there was not the slightest foundation for the report that the British government had demanded the recall of Schenck. The declaration was greeted with loud cheers.

The principal feature of the Stock Exchange during the past week has been violent fluctuations in Argentine and Buenos Ayres securities. The decline was most marked on Monday, when it amounted to 8½ per cent. in Argentines. No cause for this heavy decline is known, except speculative operations here, and the continually repeated mail advices that trade there is bad and money almost unobtainable.

Great excitement prevails in Brussels over the discovery of an extensive defalcation in the National Bank there; it appears that 6,000,000 francs have been embezzled by one of the clerks of the bank. A man, suspected to be the guilty party, was arrested to-day on the steamer City of Paris, at Queens-town, as she was about leaving for New York.

LONDON, 11.—The Wiener Presse states that the landvater of Dalmatia have been called out for service on the border of Herzegovina, and are now awaiting orders near the frontier.

The man suspected of being connected with the embezzlement of six million francs of the Banque de Belgique's funds, and arrested at Queenstown yesterday, when leaving for New York, is M. Kind, secretary general of the abovenamed institution. The Pall Mall Gazette's correspondent writes that the bank shares have depreciated twelve million francs since the frauds became known. This bank should not be confounded with the Banque Nationale, which does the government business, occupying a position analogous to the Bank of England.

In the Bow Street police court, yesterday, the solicitor of the London Bankers' Association appeared in behalf of the Fall City Tobacco Bank at Louisville, Ky., to prosecute Brent, charged with forging a draft for fifteen thousand dollars; the detective who brought Brent from Queenstown deposed that £56 and a draft for twenty-nine thousand francs were found on him.

A landslip, last night, at Coat Cut, a small town in Northern Germany, caused by the recent heavy rains, buried eight houses and twenty-six persons.

HAVANA, 11.—The entire tobacco crop in the Remedios District, with rare exceptions, is lost.

BERLIN, 12.—Bismarck has determined to exact the fullest satisfaction from China for the plunder of the schooner Anna, at Foo Chow, the Chinese pirates, after murdering the captain and pilot, being protected by the local authorities, the American and British governments support the German claims, and the British Admiral has offered armed resistance. The British and German squadrons will assemble at Hong Kong, for joint action.

The High Court of State has decided to indict the Count Von Arnim for treason on charges established by the preliminary inquiry, just concluded.

LONDON, 12.—A violent storm has prevailed throughout the British Isles to-day, and the telegraph lines in various directions are prostrated.

While the Egyptian steamer Sammanoud, with troops on board, for Massawah, was at Suez, her boiler exploded, and twenty-four men were killed.

A Berlin dispatch reports that, in consequence of the indictment of the Count Von Arnim in the High Court of State, for treason, his property will henceforth be sequestrated.

A telegram from Vienna announces that Ljubobratich, the insurgent leader of Herzegovina, was arrested on Saturday on Austrian territory.

BUDA, Pesth, 12.—In five small townships along the Danube 521 houses collapsed from the 7th to the 9th inst, in consequence of their foundations being damaged by the flood. In Pesth and its suburbs, it is impossible to count the ruined, for 100 square miles of winter corn have been lost to Hungary. The foundations of houses in Buda Pesth are being undermined, and if the inundation lasts huge blocks of splendid houses must fall. On the 8th the large island of Czepele, below Pesth, containing five villages, was submerged, all the houses except 10 being swept away.

LONDON, 13.—A dispatch from Odessa to the Times says that a large number of Ottoman troops are sent daily to Herzegovina. In frequent messages, which are exchanged between Constantinople and Belgrade respecting the Servian armaments, the Porte complains that even convicts are enlisted in the Servian army. Servia acknowledges that she is arming, but alleges that her purpose is to protect her frontier from scattered insurgent bands. Ill feeling prevails on both sides.

A Vienna special to the Times confirms the report of the arrest of Ljubobratich, and adds that he was taken as he was crossing the frontier with 100 followers; he was endeavoring to enter Bosnia, and was driven back by the Turks, and as he recrossed the frontier into Austria, near Imosi, he was made a prisoner by the Austrian authorities.

The storm of Sunday did much damage at Portsmouth, Weymouth and other seaports; six hundred vessels took refuge in the Downs. The mail boat from Calais and Ostend was compelled to put back. The French steamer Labrador, from Havre for New York, remained at Plymouth some hours. The storm extended to the continent, and the telegraph wires in the north of France were prostrated and communication between Paris and London was interrupted.

A telegram from Pesth to the Daily News says that the waters in the Danube show no signs of subsiding, and that the distress is increasing. A large dam has burst, and 50,000 additional acres of land, on which are several villages, are inundated.

A London dispatch says that Lord Ailsford's wife has eloped with the Marquis of Blandford, eldest son of the Duke of Marlborough. The Marquis of Blandford is notorious for his social escapades, and the Marlborough gems have been, it is said, sold to pay his debts. He is brother of Lord Randolph Churchill. Lord Ailsford, the unfortunate husband, was called home from India on urgent affairs some time ago. The elopement is the topic in the clubs, absorbing all the conversation.

A postscript edition of the Daily News contains the following—

"Alexandria, Egypt, Sunday, 12.

"On Wednesday night last the Abyssinian army crossed the river Decassa Deppa, and attacked the entrenched camp of the Egyptian army, when a severe fight took place. On Thursday the Abyssinians were repulsed, and retreated to Addowa. King Kassa, the Grand Vizier, six chiefs and 5,000 Abyssinians are reported killed in the trenches. Prince Hassan, and Gen. Loring, the English officer in the Abyssinian army, escaped unhurt. Rhatab Pasha was wounded. The Egyptian losses were heavy, but the victory was complete."
