

BURNING OF THE CATHOLIC CHURCH AT SANTIAGO.

A burning altar heaped with light
Loose draperies of flame,
A canopy of floating fire,
They thought not whence it came;
It surged in heavy crimson waves,
Flickered in golden light;
Then merged its rays in one fierce blaze,
Consuming sense and sight!
Around them!—beneath them!—about them!—above them!
Is there none that can save of the thousands that love them?

The young, the bright, the beautiful
Were gathered there to die.
Woman with hope and glad glance,
And memory shaded eyes;
Woman, whose deepest thought was borne
In laughter from her lips,
And woman with a life that thrilled
From heart to finger tips.
Did the young mother think of a parting like this,
When she bent her soft cheek for her babe's latest kiss?
Did the child-maiden dream of this hour of despair
When her mother's caress left a shine on her hair?
Oh was there no whisper of death—not a sigh,
To lengthen the breath of one careless—Good bye?
Was there no shine of tears in the eloquent eye
That spoke to affection its latest reply?
Were there no clinging fingers that dreaded to sever,
And felt when they parted, they parted forever?

Oh, death! forever terrible!
From thy slim, shadowy shore
We hear no echo but the low,
Wild wail of "Nevermore!"
The love that fills our life, as deep devotion fills a prayer
May go to God, but, oh! the life, the life the gloom is there.
And to part as they parted,
The loving and lost,
On the shore of the billow
That agony crossed!
To part as they parted
Who turned from the brink
Of an anguish so deep,
It were honor to think!
Oh this is a sorrow too bitter for tears!
A grief that will know in the bosom of years!
A memory buried so deep in the breast
It will live forgotten, and die unexpressed.

MASON & HAMBLIN'S

Celebrated Cabinet Organs,
For Meeting-Houses, Schools and Families.

THE Cabinet Organ is a very great improvement upon all instruments of the Melodeon or Harmonium kind. Its superior excellence consists in many important characteristics, among which are:—

1st. The more organ-like character of its tone. 2d. It has greatly more power and volume of tone in proportion to its cost. 3d. Its capacity for expression is made vastly greater than has ever before been attained in such instruments. 4th. It admits of great rapidity of execution, adapting it to the performance of a greater variety of lively popular music. 5th. No instrument is less liable to get out of order. 6th. It will remain in tune ten times as long as a Piano-Forte.
