Its seating capacity will reach 1.000, its auditorium is 00 by 80 feet, while the stage is 40 by 60. It will be the best hall west of Winni-peg, a city of greater population than Salt Lake, and although there are sev-eral towns in Alberta larger than Ray-mond, some of them having a popula-tion of over 15,000, Raymond being but 2,000, none of them having a popula-tion of over 15,000, Raymond being but 2,000, none of them having a bing but building here.

DEMISE OF MRS. JNO. O'BRIEN.

DEMISE OF MRS. JNO. O'BRIEN. Impressive services were held yester-day over the remains of Mrs. Rebecca A. O'Brien, wife of the late John O'-Brien of Layton, Utah. She had been a sufferer for some months from dropsy, to which she finally succumbed, being at the time of her death in her sixty-fourth year. Her children, who reside here, are among the best known and highly respected of Raymond's resi-dents. Mrs. O'Brien is survived by six sons and two daughters, one son being a resident of Layton. Utah, and one daughter living in Idaho, the others re-side here. Interment was made in the Raymond cemetery. Raymond has had an epidemic of measles the past few weeks, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. T. Wride hav-ing lost an infant son from that cause. Apart from this malady, which has been in a light form, the health of the peo-ple is excellent.

The weather has been near the perfect mark, but cold.
