OGDEN OCCURRENCES.

Exciting Times Over Registration-More Brutality by a Deputy-The Liberals Neratching Lively-More ET CHRISTMAS MATINEE, ET Edmunds Bill Victims, Etc.

At an evening session of the District Court here last night (Wednesday), there was a perfect rush of candidates for citizenship. About twenty appli-cants received their papers and became members of the great American Federal Union. The most of them are members of the

and will vote the People's ticket in February next. The remainder are "Liberais," or "League" men, and of course will use their franchise to help to disfranchise the majority of the people. The "Liberals" have become desperate and reckless, and would like to precipitate a collision between themselves and the "Mormon" part of the community. Some of them are "spoiling for a fight," but will not face a man in a fair "fisticuff."

The registration office has been the scene of much excitement and some disgraceful proceedings to-day. At an early hour the "16th amendment" sur-rounded the small enclosure which ensconced the registrar and his aid; but soon "Tommy made room for his uncle" and a large number of individnals from (originally) Afric's dark re gions, walked in and took the oath were registered and then were driven off by livery conveyances. Afterwards a lady entered for the purpose of ascertaining whether her name was on th list. It had been omitted. Now this 1.1.5 lady belonged to the

WHITE TRASH.

She told the officer she wished her name registered, when Stephens told her it could not be done. She told him it had been done before-that her husband and herself had been regstered and were both legal voters He then asked: "Is your husband? a cutzen of the United States?" She re-plied in the affirmative. "Then," said he, "go and fetch your papers, then you can register. Mrs. Branson-that is the lady's name—then said: "At the last'city election my husband and myself went to the poils to vote, and you would not let us do so unless he Christmas Presents. brought his naturalization papers. He went home and got them, and we both went nome and got them, and we boin voted, and now you want to send me home again for them, and preteud our names are not on the list." A gentle-man present, Mr. Joseph Jackson, sug-gested to the lady that she could swear that her husband was a citizen. May the feasting and gayety, pastimes and pleasures which will be the order of the occasion, be seasoned with temperance and made profitable by wisdom. May gladness reign in every heart and union in every house. May well known to the public. faults be forgotten, and feuds be buried, and the bonds of fraternity be drawn firmer and closer. With a fervent God bless you, we wish all people who in their way, whatever it may be, desire to do right, a cordial, Merry Christmas.

-----WHAT IS CHRISTMAS?

CHRISTMAS, contrary to its name, is now a popular festival rather than a religious service. It is of Romish gaged. descent and title but of Pagan origin. Mass is the Catholic communion, either for the living or the dead. Christ means "the anointed," and refers specially to the world's Redeemer. Christmas, then, is Christ's mass, and was established to commemorate. His birth. But though the twenty-fifth day of December has for nearly fourteen centuries been settled upon in Christendom as the anniversary of Christ's natal day, it is not by any means established as the correct date of that momentous event.

When Pagan Rome was converted to the corrupted form of Christianity perusal. which had taken the place of the pure religion of Jesus, many of the heathen customs, feasts and ceremonies of the empire were grafted in to the new forms of faith, and became identified with them. The month of December was a season of such revelries, in commemoration of "the golden age of freedom," and in honor of "the unconquered sun;" and slaves and children especially, were objects of favor, receiving glits from the wealthy; and illuminations by means of wax tapers and ornamentation of the double number is exhausted, may trees with presents for the juveniles know the reason for their only getting and as offerings to various deities, a single sheet extra with the usual were features of the season, as well as ssue. libations and excesses, all of which have been pretty faithfully copied by

DENIES THE STATEMENT of this worthy revenue collector, that Dalton's father was connected; with the Mountain Meadow massacre, and says he is one of the best and most general-ly esteemed citizens in Southern Utab, a member for some years of the Utah Legislature, and against whose charac-ter nothing can truthfully be said. It might be well for you people to know how this Hollister speaks of such a man, that he may get the medicine which so wiffal is despoiler of char-acter merits. The more I inquire, the more unsa-vory do I find the characters by all the men connected with the anti-Mormon movement. The only man who has so far passed muster is Lannan, the French-Italian. By the way, Miss Field spoke of him as a large-hearted Irishman. If it were not for the fact that she is notoriously so untrustworthy I should question whether I had not d to ap

While sitting hear the store, his mother accidentally upset a vessel of hot water which was spliled ever the legs of the child, scalding him severely. On the removal of his shoes and stockings, the skin came off also from both legs. A physician was called and the affected parts of the limbs received the neces-sary attention, and the child was made as comfortable as possible under the circumstances. that there is a delicate sympathy bethat there is a delicate sympathy be-tween them which the vulgar may not appreciate. I am also told, this by a Mormon, that Hollister once in com-peting for a prize for the best essay on Utah and Its People, spoke of the ad-vantages of Utah and the excellence of its people in the best of terms, all of which he had previously denied, and which he has denied since, and circumstances

Circumstances. Bishop W. E. Bassett, of Salt Lake City, was in court to-day. He was ar-raigned on the charge of polygamy. The complaint states that on the 14th of August, 1884, he married Kate Smith, and lived with her as his wife, while he already had one wife living and undivorced. He took two days to plead.

plead. On Saturday the postoffice in Ogden will be closed for the whole day except for one hour, from 9:30 a. m. till 10:30 a. m., the same as on Sunday. This will give Uncle Sam's clerks two con-secutive holidays. They can stand it. The term was crowded again with secutive holidays. They can stand it. The town was crowded again with people to-day, and it seems they have about completed their purchases for the holidays. To-night, Thursday, Robert Hender-son, Thomas MeNeil, Wm. Palmer and Hagh Adams, were convicted of un-lawini cohabitation, and will be sen-tenced on January 3d, on one count
