Poor Wool Prospects—The snowy, cold weather has set back the sheep shearing two weeks. Flockmasters cold weather has set back the sheep shearing two weeks. Flockmasters are not in the best of spirits over the wool prospects owing to the abnormally low price of flecees, and the entire ab-sence of buyers who are generally pretty thick around here at this time of the year. They say, however, that hardly anything else is to be expected in presidential years.

To Advertise the West-Manager Fisher Harris of the Commedial club is in receipt of a letter from Secy. L. G. Munroe of the Spokane Chamber of Commerce, suggesting making ar-rangements with some castern magarangements with some castern maga-zine for the publication of articles dealing with western conditions. PROF. H. A. HOWELL, OF HAVANA CUBA, RECOMMENDS CHAM-BERLAIN'S COUGH REMEDY. CUBA, RECORDENCE CHART BERLAIN'S COUGH REMEDY. "As long ago as I can remember my mother was a faithful user and friend of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, but never in my life have I realized its true value until now, writes Prof. H. A. Howell, of Howell's American School, Havana, Cuba. "On the night of February 3rd, our baby was taken sick with a very severe cold; the next day was worse and the follow-ing night his condition was desperate. He could not lie down and it was necessary to have him in the arms every moment. Even then his breathing was difficult. I did not think he would live until morning. At last I though of my mother's remedy, Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, which we ave and it afforded prompt relief, and now three days later, he has fully recov-ered. Under the circumstances I would that heatlate a moment in saying that Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, which we is the adverte a substantion of the state a base of the the heatlate a moment in saying that that of heatlate a moment in saying that that be by al druggists.

THE KIDNEYS AND THE SKIN In the spring, the kidneys have much to do. If they are weak or torpid, they will not do it well, and the skin will be pimply or blotchy. That is telling the story in a few words.

Hood's Sarsaparilla strengthens and stimulates the kidneys, cures and pre-vents pimples, blotches and all cutan-cous erruptions. Don't fall to take it. Buy a bottle today
