Who shall judge a man from manner? Who shall know him by his dress? Paupers may be fit for princes,-Princes fit for something less. Crumpled shirt and dirty jacket May heelothe the golden ore Of the deepest thoughts and feelings-

Souls, Not Stations.

Satin vests could do no more. There are springs of crystal nectar Ever welling out of stone: There are purple buds and golden, Hidden, crushed and overgrown. God, who counts by souls, not dresses. Loves and prospers you and me,

While he values thrones the highest But as pebbles in the sea. Toiling hands alone are builders Of a nation's wealth and fame,

Titled laziness is pensioned, Fed and fattened by the same : By the sweat of others' foreheads, Living only to rejoice, While the poor man's outraged freedom

Vainly lifteth up its voice. But truth and justice are eternal, Born with loveliness and light. And sunset wrongs shall never prosper While there is a sunny right; And God whose world-heard voice is singing Boundless love to you and me,

Will sink oppression with its titles,

As the pebbles in the sea. moon is as short lived as a lucifer match; after that you may wear your wedding dress at the wash tub, bought. Then he gets up from the table, lights his cigar with the last evenings? paper that you have not had a chance to read; gives two or three whiffs of smoke, sure to give you a headache for the af ernoon, and just as his coat tail is vanishing through the door, apologises for not doing "that errand" for you yesterday; thinks it doubtful if he can to-dry; "so pressed with business" Hear of hin at 11 o'clock taking an ice cream with some ladies at Vinton's while you are like the same and in the States, we find we are the States, we find we are sufficiently situated. We are not governed by men who have not the Constitution at heart, but by men who have not the Constitution of the U. S.; and we, as a people, will ever honor those men who may be placed at our head, that will honor those laws that our on him; long may he live to guide the destinies of the latter days, in visidon forth and in the Saints of the latter days, in visidon for the Saints of the latter days, in visidon for the saints of the latter days, in visidon for the saints of the latter days, in visidon for the saints of the latter days, in visidon for the saints of the latter days, in visidon for the saints of the latter days, in visidon for the saints of the latter days, in visidon for the saints of the latter days, in visidon for the saints of the latter days, in visidon for the saints of the latter days, in visidon for the saints of the latter days. an estors hed for.

at home new lining his coat sleeves. Children by at home new lining his coat sleeves. Children by the ears all day, can't get out to take the air, feel as crazy as a fly in a drum; husband comes home at night, nods a'how d'ye do, Fan,' boxes Charleys' ears, stands little Fanny in the corner, sits down in the easiest chair in the warmest conner, puts his feet up over the grate, shutting out all the fire, while the baby's little pue-nose grows blue with the colds rand. baby's little pug-nose grows blue with the cold; reads the newspaper all to himself, solaces his inner man with a hot cup of tea, and just as you are laboring under the hallucination that he will ask you to take a mouthful of fresh air with him, he puts on his dress gown and slippers, and begins to reckon up the family expenses! after which he lies down on the sofa, and you keep time with your needle, while he anores till 9 o'clock.—Next morning ask him to leave you a little money,' he looks at you as if to be sure that you are in your right mind, draws a sigh long enough and strong enough to inflate a pair of bellows, and asks you 'what you do.' Gracious kingl as if those little shoes and stockings, and petticoats could be dittle shoes and stockings, and petticoats could be had for half a dollar! Oh, girls! set your affections on cats, poodles, parrots, or lai dogs, but let matrimony alone. It's the hardest way on earth of getting a living; you never know when your work is done up. Think of carrying eight or nine children through the aneasles, chicken pox, rash, mumps, and scarlet fever, some of 'em twice over; it makes my head ache to think of it. Oh you way segime and save and twice

Oh, dear!-[Olive branch.

think of it. Oh, you may scrimp and save and twist and turn and dig and delve, and economise AND DIE, and your husband will marry again, and take what you have saved to dress his second wife with, and she'll take your portrait for a fire-board; but what's the use of talking? Pil warrant every one of you'll try it, the first chance you get; there's a sort of be-witchment about it somehow. I wish one half of the world warn't fools, and tother half idiots, I do.

this would be the end of it; and I see I was right, for it is not half over yet. At present there are such goings on that everything

No longer ago than yesterday, the coach with the mails from Dublin was robbed near this town-the bags had judiciously been left behind for fear of Immediately every man in the place, including women and children, ran out to meet them. We soon found our force much too little; and we were far too near to think of retreating. Death was in every face; but at it they went, and by the time that half of our little party were killed, we began to be alive again. Fortunately the rebels had no guns except pistols, cutlasses and pikes, and as we had pienty of guns and ammunition, we put them all to the sword. Not a soul of them escaped, except some of them who were were of different colors, but all green. After the and make such laws that will be acknowledged by him who rules and governs the nations of the earth. The same wove into muslin and they left behind them. All we found was a few pikes, without heads, a parcel of empty bottles full of water, and a bundle of French commissions filled of water, and a bundle of French commissions filled of water, and a bundle of French commissions filled long to watch over the Union, and never consent to its dissolution.

Troops are stationed all around the country which

P. S. If you do not receive this, of course it must have been miscarried; therefore, I beg you will write and let me know."

BURNING OF THE STEAMER POCAHONTAS-Twelve lives Lost.—On the night of the 11th inst., as the steamer Pocahontus was descending the Arkansas river, when near Choctaw Bend, about thirty-four and immovable in support from the lower mouth of the river, she caught United States as the foundations of the mountains fire, and in less than an hour burned to the water's that surround it. It appears that some sparks ignited the car-2400 bales cotton, which were stowed on the guards, and reached the hurricane dock, and in less than ten minutes, the boat was completely enveloped in flames. The scene that ensued, on the alarm of fire being given, beggars all description. The heat and smoke drove the engineers and officers from their every law therein enacted. exit from the cabin, and when successful in this, the exit from the cabin, and when successful in this, the swollen river was the only chance for escape; and twelve passengers lost their lives, either in the flames of the President, whose name twelve passengers lost their lives, either in the flames.

Among the singular customs of the Island of of t

FOURTH OF JULY AT THE CAPITOL.

[Celebration on the 5th.]

At a previous meeting of the citizens of Millard county, to make arrangements for the celebration of our nation's birth-day, Anson Call, S. P. Hoyt, Esq., Capt. Standage, Wm. Felshaw, John Norton, and Lorin Babbit, were appointed committee of arrangements, and Josiah Call, marshal.

ORDER OF THE DAY.

Flag hoisted at sunrise, amid platoons of musketry, (for want of cannon) by order of Licut. Warner.
At 10 a.m., the Millard County Brigade enrolled, and exercised till 12. Dinner at one.
2 p.m., before a general assembly of the citizens, Judge A. Call delivered the following ORATION:

FELLOW CITIZENS OF MILLARD COUNTY:

It is with pleasure that I meet you to participate in It is with pleasure that I meet you to participate in the celebration of our nation's birth-day of Independence. We have all assembled here for one and the same object. I would ask, what is that object?—We, as a people, have enjoyed for a few years, the best government, the best order, laws, and society of any people on earth; therefore, the object of our assembling here should be to give thanks unto him from whom all these blessings flow. First of all, we are indebted to our heavenly Father. Secondly, honor is due to our forefathers, the signers of the Declaration of Independence, who run all risk of treason, trusting in God to sustain them in their struggle for liberty. of Independence, who run all risk of treason, trusting in God to sustain them in their struggle for liberty.

We find ourselves this day far from that land, far from where they risked their lives; but we behold with the rising sun this morning, the flag of our country, and as long as we have blood in circulation, let us honor those stars and stripes.

The Governor of Utah—May he live to see her try, and as long as we have blood in circulation, let us honor those stars and stripes.

We are located in the centre of this large Territory; we behold the first crops, and the organization of our new country. The citizens of this place have our new country is all future generation. Then he hastened to his brother, the gardene at error to all evil and the rise of the will tree; for lo, this is the third year, and yet it has produced nothing but leaves. Then he hastened to his brother, the gardene made of a fruit-row new or near miserable barren stick instend of a fruit-row new or new or new country is the cold made of the creation of the will tree; for lo, this is the third year, and yet it has produced not in God to sustain them in their struggle for liberty.

We find ourselves this day far from that land, far from where they risked their lives; but we behold with the rising sun this morning, the flag of our country, and as long as we have blood in circulation, let us honor those stars and stripes.

We are leasted in the centre of this large Territor our new country. The citizens of this place have and egreat/exertions in converting this wild and uncivilized country into a fruitful field, which does them great honor. Let us, as citizens, consider in whom our strength lieth; it is not in our physical constitution, nor in our numbers, but in that God who hath brought us hither; it is in Him our strength lieth, and not in the strength of man; yet we are to have laws and constitution which have have any constitution which have have involved the price of the color wind, and netter Igni or time to be a pattern of industry to all future generations.

Liberty—That precious boon bought at the price of blood by the heroes of seventy-six, and bequeathed it with an evil and suspicious heart. Why dost thou then expect to gather from it anything noble and beautiful?

W. F.

President Brighau Young, the Lion of the Lord—Way his life be preserved long muon the earth; and more at the price of the and suspicious heart. Why dost thou then expect to gather from it anything noble and beautiful?

Liberty—That precious boon bought at the price of blood by the heroes of seventy-six, and bequeathed it with an evil and suspicious heart. Why dost them expect to gather from it anything noble and beautiful?

Liberty—That precious boon bought at the price of blood by the heroes of seventy-six, and bequeathed it with an evil and suspicious heart. Why dost them expect to gather from it anything noble and beautiful?

Liberty—That precious boon bought at the price of blood by the heroes of seventy-six, and bequeathed it with an evil and suspicious heart. Why dost them expect to gather from it anything nor every line.

President Brighau Young, the Lion of the Lord—Why W. F.

W. F.

W. F.

OVEMBER last, from Dr. Richards' Pasture, and talking of lovers and honey-moons; it makes the future capital of une sick; it's perfectly antimonial. Love is a farce-matimony is a humburgi husbands are domestic Napoleons, Neroes, Alexanders, sighing for other hearts to conquer after they are sure of yours.—The honey-moon is as short lived as a lucifer match; after that was and stop building air-castileth, and not in the strength of man; yet we are to make the future Capital of Utah, that can recommend the presence of the top, an oblong wart forward of the hip bone, and stating the constitution which have made from God, through man, unto us. In this poleons, Neroes, Alexanders, sighing for other hearts to conquer after they are sure of yours.—The honey-moon is as short lived as a lucifer match; after that was and stop building air-castileth the hotel the form of the Lord—May his life be preserved long mon the earth; and the future Capital of Utah, that can recommend the hotel was and constitution which have life building air-castileth, and not in the strength of man; yet we are to make the future Capital of Utah, that can recommend the preserved long man the earth; and the future Capital of Utah, that can recommend the top an oblong wart forward of the hip bone, which have a sumption of the Lord—May his life be preserved long man the earth; and the future Capital of Utah, that can recommend the hotel kept by one Bush, in Delhi, N. Y. the residence of the top, an oblong wart forward of the hip bone, and the future Capital of Utah, that can recommend the preserved form of the Lord—May his life be preserved long man the earth; and the calchard of the top an oblong wart forward of the hip bone, and the future Capital of Utah, that can recommend the president specific top an oblong wart forward of the hip bone, and the future Capital o people gathered from every land, and have brought with us our different notions of things, differing from every nation under heaven. One thing we do rejoice and relationship which exist here be continued in; the submission of our people to those principles, throughout all eternity.

The Female sex—A blessing sent from God to cheer man in his toils and trial's here; may those ties and relationship which exist here be continued throughout all eternity.

Lovenzo turned his grave face, and long waving beard, towards the General and Mr. Bush, and relationship which exist here be continued throughout all eternity. in; the submission of our people to those principles, laws, &c., that our fathers fought fer. This shows and your nightcap to meeting, and your husband would't know it. You may pick np your own pocket handkerchief, help yourself to a chair, and split your new gown across the back reaching over the table to get a piece of butter, while he is laying in his breakfast as if it was the last meal he should eat in breakfast as if it was the last meal he should eat in this world; when he gets through he will aid your digestion, (while you are sipping your first cup of coffee.) by asking what you'll have for dinner, if the cold lamb was all ate yesterday; if the charcoal is all out, and what you gave for that last green tea you bought. Then he gets up from the table, lights his circum, and in the letter when we draw a contrast between our situation here and in the States, we find we are

But those men who have driven us from our land, praise that Being who governs the destinies of the us, and say, "your cause is just, but I can do nothing at a distance, may depend on the cockney Gothamites say next?

Persons living at a distance, may depend on the cockney Gothamites say next?

Persons living at a distance, may depend on the cockney Gothamites say next?

Persons living at a distance, may depend on the cockney Gothamites say next?

Persons living at a distance, may depend on the cockney Gothamites say next?

Persons living at a distance, may depend on the cockney Gothamites say next?

Persons living at a distance, may depend on the cockney Gothamites say next?

Persons living at a distance, may depend on the cockney Gothamites say next?

Persons living at a distance, may depend on the cockney Gothamites say next?

Persons living at a distance, may depend on the cockney Gothamites say next? culture, &c., instead of seeking for popularity by stooping to party cliques, and thereby neglecting the rights of the citizens. Now we have another Jefferson or Jackson in the

We discover contention all over the U. S. Why is of charity by such unexpected means. it? Because they have not men who trust in God, hut men who trust in their own wisdom. Now I should have answered your letter a formight ago, but I did not receive it fill this morning. Indeed, scarcely a mail arrives safe without being robbed. while we see this banner flying over our heads, should we see anything arise to destroy our liberty, let us nip it in the bud. Men have sought to destroy us in our infant Territory, and when they found they could not accomplish anything, they have fled from our midst, to a place where they could breathe their ours atmosphere.

LABOR VETSUS GOLD.

An opinion has prevailed to a greater extent—that it is more profitable to dig the precious metals from the earth, than to pursue wealth by the ordinary course of industry.

True, this is sometimes the case, but it has oftener been able ed by being the precious metals from the earth, than to pursue wealth by the ordinary course of industry.

robbers were advancing under the French standard, but they had no colors, no drum except bagpipes.

Immediately every man in the ware of the manual problems of the manual problems with the problems of them. In conclusion, I would say, let us observe the instructions given us by our Governor, and thank our heavenly Father that it hash pleased him to put it into the hearts of our rulers to give us the man of our choice to preside over us, and consider it as a gift of God, and fail not to call upon him to continue to work upon the hearts of our rulers, until they shall appoint unto us such men as will execute the laws of this Territory, and the Constitution of the United States in righteousness, that the Union may be preserved

REGULAR TOASTS.

State House of Utah Territory-May it ever be drowned in an adjacent bog; and in a very short time nothing was to be heard but silence. Their uniforms wisdom and understanding which cometh from God, exactly squares with my ideas. I have only time add that I am in great haste.

I have only time to Yours truly,

PATRICE

The Citizens of Finder—May they increase in for weight. A pound of iron, worth four cents can be made into 50,000 pendulum springs of a watch, each worth four cents.

The Fair Sex of the Mormon community—May each worth four cents.

The Fair Sex of the Mormon community-May they have the gift of discernment and wisdom, suffi-cient to refuse the evil and choose the good. The Ladies of Fillmore City-Upright and just, beautiful and virtuous, true to their integrity, and be-The City of Fillmore-May this city stand as firm Do. and immovable in supporting the Constitution of the Do.

Millard County Militia—Men bearing the Priest-hood; defenders of Zion, truth, virtue, and liberty; gold. may they always so conduct themselves, as never to Let

May this Territorial house now in progress be soon

May the infant Territory of Utab show to its mo-ther States and all the world, that it is willing to give its aid in supporting the Constitution of the United States and all of its virtuous officers.

May the Territory of Utah far excel any of its sisters in virtue, industry, and enterprise; and may virtue be always the motto of its citizens.

The President of the Church of Jesus Christ and the Pioneers—May they live in peace, love, and union, and let charity fill every heart, and the valleys of the mountains be filled and bud and blossom as

A Toast for the Ladies of Utah.—As faithful heroines and worthy pioneers, they have braved the extended plains, loval to their country, an honor to their shalt enjoy the fruits of it,—thy children, and thy children's children."

Then spake the gardener to minimate, my nursery—and thousand the fruits of it,—thy children, and they children, and thy children's children."

Then he called his husbandmen, and dug up a the called his husbandmen, and the called his husbandmen, and dug up a the called his husbandmen, and the called his husbandme

The Governor of Utsh Territory—For his patriotic zeal, and unfiring diligence in laying the foundation of this Territorial government, may he live to see the cities of these valleys flourish like the Green Bay where he should plant the tree, for he thought "If I tree, and his children inhabit them from generation to generation.

Independence; may it be held in honorable remembrance by our children down to the latest generaby the citizens of Utsh or their posterity.

world; may we still increase in numbers and in strength, and in all good works, until the name of a inhabitants increased until it becomes a city of re-nown, with its towers ascending high, and its inhabprosper in righteousness forever

Utab Territory-An asylum for the oppressed, and try and clime. Whether on the scaffold high,

Or in the hattle's van, The fittest place for man to die,

Brigham Young—The mantle of Joseph has fallen on him; long may be live to guide the destinies of the Saints of the latter days, in wisdom, truth and right-

So much for independence at the Capitol of Utah, there."

wind family.

So much for independence at the Capitol of Utah,

When we trace the conduct of our worthy Presi-trumpeted to the world as being 150 miles from every dents, Washington, Jesses and Jackson, we are considered the days of Matty, they would not have suffered such things to be heaped upon us; but a little, penurious Van Buren would laugh at the suffered such things to be heaped upon and nothing but wolves and Indians standing on the us; that a little, penurious Van Buren would laugh at the suffered such things to be heaped upon the crickets having eat all the earth around for fifty miles and nothing but wolves and Indians standing on the none are read or preserved unless they contain en-

Double Disappointment.

Johnson tells us in his life of the great Frederic of Prussia, that his majesty's father was particularly attached to his tall regiment, and that if he met with Now we have another Jenerson or Jackson in the chair, and not a Matty; everything has prospered in our hands for some time. Our last President (Taylor) began to raise his feathers a little, how soon they were cropped. Our heavenly Father laid his feathers, and we prosper. We attribute this to our heavenly Father. We have no power to choose a man for that station; we have no power to choose a man for that station; we have no voice in the matter; but yet we have as much power as any State in the Union. Where does it exist? I answer, in faith and the property of the prop where does it exist? I answer, in faith and prayet, which is more than their votes, ten to one.—
Therefore, confide in Him who rules over his people as he did Israel in the days of Moses and Joshua.

The days of Moses and Joshua. he'll take your portrait for a fire-board; but what's he use of talking? Pli warrant every one of you'll ry it, the first chance you get; there's a sort of bevichment about it somehow. I wish one half of he world warn't fools, and t'other half idiots, I do. Dh, dear [Olive branch.]

Ass Isish Letter.

Copy of a letter written during the rebellion, by ir Patrick—, an Irish member of Parliament to Copy of a letter written during the rehellion, by Fatrick——, an Irish member of Parliament, to his friend in London:

"My Dear Sir—Having now a little peace and quietness, I sit down to inform you of the dreadful bustle and confusion we are in from these bloods this yrebels, most of whom are (thank God) killed and spersed.

The Quorum of Seventies are the neighborhood to carry it. The deputy was surprised. However, his bustle and confusion we are in a pretty mass—can get nothing to ear, and dispersed.

We are in a pretty mass—can get nothing to ear, nor wine to drink, except whiskey, and when we sit them I have no dispersed. However the first person he wished to see were his hondown for dispersed. However the first person he wished to see were his hondown for dispersed. However the first person he wished to see were in a pretty mass—can get nothing to eat, and dispersed. We are in a pretty mass—can get nothing to eat, the sign of dispersed. However that distance. Newspapers not weighing over that distance which the first person he wished to see were his bounded the first person he wished to see were his bounded the first person he wished to see were his bounded to carry it. The deputy was true to our borders, and secure all the eight of the deputy was true to our borders, and secure and the letter, bargained with a little old woman in the letter, bargained with a little old woman in the letter, bargained with a little old woman in the letter, bargained with a little old woman in the letter, bargained with a little old woman in the letter, bargained with a little old woman in the letter, bargained with a little old woman in Inasmuch, fellow citizens, as we are expecting a not suspecting the rank of the personage who gave following: We are in a pretty muss—can get nothing to eat, nor wine to drink, except whiskey; and when we sit down to dinner we keep both hands armed. While I write this, I hold a sword in each hand, and a pistol but when we look at Matty, we see nothing but a the sight of the bride, and in great wrath demanded but when we look at Matty, we see nothing but a the sight of the bride, and in great wrath demanded but when we look at Matty, we see nothing but a demanded this would be the end of it; and I see I was right, for been slain in consequence of such men, and will we not be wise and guard against such men hereafter?

Providence in bringing about such a wonderful work From the New York Weekly Sun

LABOR verms GOLD.

bags had judiciously been left bending for the accident, and by good luck there was nothing in it our midst, to a place where they could breathe their our midst, to a place where they could breathe their our midst, to a place where they could breathe their our midst, to a place where they could breathe their happened that the discovery of gold or silver mines the theorem and the province and thank our and runed those who have undertaken the working in righteousness, that the Union may be preserved genuity, equal in value to so much gold, the same inviolate and forever. I add no more. strove so zealously to attain-Let us now look at the transforming power of labor. The items which foilow are drawn from Hunts' Magazine—October, the surface of the soil

75,00 The Citizens of Fillmore-May they increase in which is ten times the value of standard gold weight

A pound of cotton wool, when spun

Lead to the value of five dollars when made into small type, is worth, Bar iron to the value of five dollars made into needles is worth,

" " gun barrels, " " scissors, do Dor polished steel

terial is made to be worth many times the value of true philosopher's stone.

six of the here litary rajahs are females. Among the Buges, some men dress like women, and some women twelve passengers lost their rives, either in the shore.—
or subsequently, in attempting to reach the shore.—
This is the same boat that on her previous trip collines the same boat the

From the Model American Courier. THE UNFRUITFUL TREE. A PARABLE.

FROM THE GERMAN OF KRUMMACHER. A countryman had a brother who lived near the city and was a gardener, and his orchard was full of the most beautiful trees, upon which he greatly prid-ed bimself, and his skill in rearing them. Now the countryman went to visit his brother and admired the trees which stood in beautiful rows, tall and even like wax candles.

Then spake the gardener to him: "Here, my brother fruit? It was and still is a noble tree, but thou hast warded.

Filmore City—May its borders be enlarged and its plied, with importurable gravity—(Heaven, my friends, is a vast extent of smooth will be taken in exchange by

A STICK.—C. was a cute 'Down-Easter'—a real ve Yankee—always ready for a joke, and hard to home for the honest in heart of every nation, country and clime. He was one day in a country har-room down are killing their hogs will confer a favor by saving where several persons were as embled, when all the hair and bristles and bring the same to the Public Works for which they will he allowed a fair one of them said.

"Mr. C., if you go out and stick your pen-knife price on their Tithing.

"Mr. C., if you go out and stick your pen-knife price on their Tithing.

D. H. WELLS, Supt. P. W. into anything, when you come back I'll tell you what it's sticking in." "Yere can't do no sich thing," responded C.

"Wall. I rayther gues: I'll take that bet; here, capting. (turning to the landlord.) hold stakes, and I'll right side of her neck about 7 inches in diameter, with a red spot in the centre about 3 inches in dijust make half a saw horse in less than oo time." ameter; also a white spot in her face. The parties deposited an X a- piece and C. went his mission, but in a short time returned, saying: "Wall, nabor, what is it stickin in?"

gratefully received by siness, and that he has secured the services of Mr. Jonathan of course won the wager, and the Southerner sloped to parts unknown, amid roars of laughter. Alauson Norton, who has had 20 years experience great value to some persons addressed or to their families. Irreparable lorses from this cause sometimes occur to individuals, and not unfrequently is expected to be furnished by the owner of the applications are made for letters apparently in great interest to the person applying, but which have months or years before been committed to the flames. We learn that in the new edition of the regulations of the Post Office Department of the regulations of the Post Office Department of the published, it is provided SHADERICK HOLDAWAY. applications are made for letters apparently that "in every case where the writer of a letter chooses to protect it from the chance of being opened at the Department, and destroyed as a dead letter, of September.

A New Postage Law.

We learn from Washington that the Committee on Post Offices will soon report a bill to Congress that will be a decided improvement upon the present.

N. B. Public bands can be accommodated, and It is orders taken for pay. said that among other provisions it will contain the jan24.6tf ing or delivery; if not, double these rates are charged. All transient printed matter to be deemed unpaid, unless paid at the office where it is mailed. Books, bound or unbound, decored mailable matter. not weighing over 4 lbs, to be weighted when dry. Publishers of newspapers and periodicals may send a copy of their respective publications to each other, and to actual subscribers, bills and receipts free. Publishers of weekly newspapers free within the FRUIT TREES FROM CUTTINGS .- We have never been able to see what great advantage would be gained by being able to raise fruit trees from cuttings immersed simply into the soil, over the common practice of first inserting the cutting into a portion of root, favorable change. and some other sorts of fruit. If consists simply in hending a long cutting into the form of a letter ninverted, the two limbs being immersed into mollow soil, and leaving one good but at the bent summit, at the two limbs are the summit, at In this way, the cut end. instead of becoming the seat of dryness, by evaporation from the open pores is shielded below hy contact with the moist earth. A cut surface at the end will pay charges, and take her away. throw on moisture several times faster than the pores

G. W. HILL, through the surface of the bark, and hence the advantage of this method. If desired, one of the arms may be cut off and removed, after the cutting is well may be cut off and removed, arter the cutting is well tooled, or two made of each one—Cultivator.

For two made of each one—Cultivator.

Hindoo Letters.—In external appearance and construction of expressions, a Hindoo letter is worthy be is prepared to card wool at the Woollen Factory, of notice. It is written on a palm leaf, with an iron on Jordan river, 10 miles south of the city, on stile, four to six inches long, sharp-pointed at the end, lin writing, neither chair nor table is needed, the leaf heing supported on the middle finger of the left hand, and kept steady with the thumb and forefinger. The 1190,00 right hand does not, as with us, move along the sur2230,00 face, but after finishing a few words, the writer fixes 3284,00 the point of the iron in the last letter, and pushes the leaf from right to left, so that he may finish his line. sword landles, do - 4860,00 This becomes so easy from long practice, that one often sees a Hindoo writing as he walks the street. As this species of penmanship is but a kind of faint engraving, the strokes of which are indistinct, they The the hard working man reflect that labor is the make the character legible by besmearing the leaf with an ink-like fluid. A letter is generally finished on a single leaf, which is then enveloped in a second, whereon is written the address. In communicating completed; may justice and equity form the basis of every law therein enacted.

Whereon is written the address. In communicating the disease of a relative, the custom is to single the every law therein enacted.

Whereon is written the address. In communicating the disease of a relative, the custom is to single the point of the leaf upon which the afflicting news is EPITAPH ON A LIAR. What he once was, he is—he need not rise; True to himself in death—for here he lies.

Cash not refused.

mar20-10tf

mar20-10tf

nov15-tf

ap17-12tf

ool is in good order.

Provo city, mv 15-14tf

Residence in 13th ward.

OLD SOLDIERS, WAR 1812, and 1813, and 1814, you are enti-tled to land or money; call and I will assist you to get it. Pension is due all who have in the east been disabled in the service or by the service ware made to order. The patronage of the public of the United States. jy10-18tt S. M. BLAIR.

LOOK TO PUBLIC GOOD!!

H. PECK, Blacksmith, 17th Ward, hereby

ANDREW HENRY.

A. NEIBAUR

14th Ward.

rior quality kept on hand, for which produce

HAIR! HAIR!!

STRAYED,

MRS. SAMUEL W. RICHARDS,

WOOL CARDING

Wool received, and rolls delivered at the Post Of-

BARBER SHOP & EATING HOUSE.

(Hot Meals at all Hours.)

DESERRT BAKERY.

Commenced business in the above long.
Having been 15 years in the business, principal ly in London, England, New York and Boston, he is prepared to fill orders in all kinds of crackers,

TAKEN UP,

IN Ogden city, one red and white speckled cow

HURRAHI

Wool left at the Tithing Office, care of Mr. A

WANTED.

SIX good Boot and Shoe makers; also a good steady man to drive team.

MULLINER & ALLEN,

MATTHEW GAUNT

Descret Tannery.

about four years old, marked with an under-

JOHN WILLIS.

apr3-11tf

Pound keeper.

good as if done in Boston or New York.

afforded, or exchange for good flour.

made to order and 2 inches wide.

wise.

15 cents.

my15 14tf

je12-16tf

Apply immediately to wool.

THE subscriber wishes to inform the citizens of Great Salt Lake City and vicinity, that he hus

M. PECK, Biacksmath, trul same

M. requests all persons indebted to him for Werally, that we are going into the business Blacksmithing, &c., to call and settle forthwith; of manufacturing nails, and wish to purchase all the which may be done through the Tithing Office, or old wrought and cast iron we can, for which we ders on the Church Store, Lumber, or Country will pay a liberal price, either in nails, or apply the on Tithing. All kinds of Blacksmithing, Horse shoeing, &c., feb7-7tf BURR FROST & CO

WOULD just say to all indebted to the firm of J. & E. Reese prior to the arrival of their last train of goods, that they are requested to call The Fourth of July—The birth-day of American nedependence; may it be held in honorable remembers by our children down to the latest generation.

The American Flag—May it never be dishonored by the citizens of Utsh or their posterity.

The American Flag—May it never be dishonored by the citizens of Utsh or their posterity.

The saints in Utah Territory and throughout the saints are the should plant the tree, for the though of the plant it here can the north side of the temped on on, much land must go with Though or the laborer; and SURVEYED and remaid for t she will endeavor to merit.

Residence 15th Ward, opposite the N. W. corner of the Old Fort.

FOUND. TN the Big Field, a Scythe and Snath. Apply my1-13tf WM. MANTLE, Big Field.

between his fore legs a small white spot on the inside of his hock joints, a crop and split in each ear; middling size; no brands visible.

J. & E. REESE

HAVE just received a large stock of NEW GOODS, which they are selling at REDUC-ED PRICES, for CASH. They have on hand CLOTHS, CASSIMERES & VESTINGS, LADIES GOODS of different kinds; Dress

ROM the subscriber, on the 29th March, a the very latest styles.

Small Red Cow. She has a white ring on the Farcy Goods, a la

Also, --- A large lot of DRIED FRUIT, which they offer at the lowest market price-CHEAP FOR CASH. nov15-ltf J. & E. REESE

STRAYS. A ND Cloth Dressing—The subscriber wishes to inform the citizens of this Territory, that his double wool carding machine is now ready for bu-

Customers may rely on having their work well er is requested to prove property, pay charges, and one, with promptness and dispatch.

GEO. ALLEN. Near head of East Temple st. mar20-10tf Persons living at a distance, may depend on hav-

A. NEIBAUR. All damages done to rolls will be paid for, if the One pound of clean grease to 8 lbs of wool, which Terms, 10 cents per lb for common, and 15 cents performed by him. WHY DON'T YOU

WANTED. MAN acquainted with the manufacture of A Combs, who has necessary tools for operation.

THE subscriber takes this method to inform his customers and friends, that he has opened, PARENT SCHOOL. THE THIRD TERM of the Parent School of Deseret University commenced on Monday, Oct. 27, in the 13th Ward School House, where an not calculated for more than 75 or 100 scholars, early attention will secure a privilege for those who may wish to improve in knowledge. ORSON SPENCER, Chancellor. G. S. L. City, Nov 151f W. W. Phelps, Reg.

BY ORDER OF THE Surveyor General, H. G. Sherwood, I have connected all of the sorveys in Utah Val ley; and am now ready to settle and give certificates f the same.

N. B. The Surveyor General wishes all the Resuch as Boston, Soda, Sugar, Butter, &c.; also Pastry of all kinds, which he will warrant to be as turns made against the first day of April next.

ANDREW J STEWART,

Prove City, ian 24-lift County Surveye He will also bake for parties on reasonable Provo City, jan24-6tf County Surveyor. Bake House opposite Messrs. J. & E. Reese's GENUINE SUGAR BEET SEED.

WE have 200 lbs of superior Sugar Beet sced, raised in this Valley last season; warranted to be the Sugar Beet, for sale by feb2i-Stf J. & E. REESE. store. JOHN WILLIS.
N. B. J. W. will have constantly on hand Light Brend, which he will sell as reasonable as can be Wedding, and all other kinds of fancy Cakes LAT. 40° 45' 44" LON. 111° 26' 34" Butter, Flour, Wood, &c., &c., taken in ex-

DESERET NEWS,
Published every other Saturday, at five dollar per annum, payable invasiably in advance. Single copy, 25 cents. Papers delivered at the post office, which will be slit in the right ear, branded with a brand resembopen each Sabbath, from 12, to 1 o'clock, p. m.

TERMS OF ADVERTISING. ling a figure 8 on the left hip, about six inches long For a square of 10 lines or less, 1st insertion, $ 1.50 The owner is requested to call, prove property, Each subsequent insertion, FOUND AND LOST.

Found and lost articles from 1 to 3 lines, inserted once, AGENTS.

City Bishops for their respective wards.

North Weber—Lewis Hardy.

Ogden City & Brownsville—Isaac Clark, FOR Wool Carding!—The subscriber respect-fully wishes to inform the inhabitants of Great Ogden's Hole-LEMUEL MALORY. Kay's Ward-Wm. Kay. North Cottonwood -- LYMAN HINMAN. Cherry Settlement-A. B. CHERRY. Sessions' Settlement-John Stoker. Tooele Vailey-John Rowberry. South Cottonwood-J. C WRIGHT. Big Cottonwood-Ezeriel Lee. ittle Cottonwood-SILAS RICHARDS. Mill Creek-REUREN MILLER. West Jordan—Joseph Harker. Evansville, Utah Valley—Bishop Evans. N. Hill, to be carded into rolls, will be returned by him, free of charge for carriage. American Fork-Bishop L. E. HARRINGTON. Battle Creek and Pleasant Grove-G. S. CLARK

TERMS-White wool 10 cents per lb, mixed wool Provo City-ISAAC HIGBER. Springville and Spanish Fork-AARON JOHNBOR N. B .- Clean washed wool is the best, with about Payson-JAMES PACE. 1 lb of lard or butter without salt, to every 8 lbs of Summitereek—B. F. Johnson.
Salt Creek—T. B. FOOTE.
Manti City, San Pete Co.—Nelson Higgins. Fillmore City, Millard Co.-Anson CALL.

Parowan City, Iron Co.-James Lewis. Coal Creek-Henry Lunt. Santa Clara and Rio Virgin JOHN D. LE Settlements.

Sas Barnidino, California-R. R. HOPKINS.

will be thankfully received. JAMES BIRD. nov15-1tf WE WISH to inform the citizens of Utah gen-NOTICE.

TURNING,

NOTICE.

Ladies' own materials made up on the shortest no-

A BLACKSMITH WANTED,

The owner is requested to call and prove property, pay charges, and take him away.

G. W. HILL.

jel2-16tf Pound Keeper.

Trimmings, Fashionable Hats, Caps, and Bonnets,

FARCY GOODS, as large variety; Boots and shoes, and READY MADE CLOTHING; Hardware, Tinware, Chinaware, and Glassware; Paints, Oils, Patent Medicines, Dye-stuffs, Groceries, Liquors Any information respecting this cow will be most and Cigars.

round his nose, and white stripe under his belly.

Also, one Red Stag, four or five years old, with some white under his belly, NO BRANDS. The own-

SURGEON DENTIST, grateful to his patrons' and friends for the last eleven years' favors solicits a continuance of their kindness, and the patronage of the citizens of the valleys of Ephraim in general. His charges are strictly moderate, and satisfaction is warranted to be given in all operations DATRONIZE Home Manufacture? We have Bread Bowls of all sizes; also Butter Ladles, P. S -Oor Fulling Mill will be ready on the 1st Bread Bowls of an size.

Washinbs, &c., for sale low by
J. & E. REESE.

> For further particulars enquire of Z. PULSIPHER, 16th Ward, G. S. L. City.