Washington, Nov. 26 .- Two distingeneled alienists testified today that Mrs. Annie M. firnaley was insanwhen she shot and killed former Senator Brown of Utah. Both of the experts have notional reputations and have figured prominently in trials of sidespread importance. They were Dr. Charles Hill of Baltimore, professor of prevous and mental diseases at the paltimore Medical college, and Dr. Brittan D. Evans of New York, a memper of the board of directors of the New Jersey hospital for the insans. Dr. Evans was one of the experts who testified in the Thaw case in New Yark, Both were very positive that Mrs. Bradley was insane and could not distinguish between right and

Dr. Evans was severe in characterizng the conduct of Senator Brown in performing criminal operations on the defendant, which brought an admont-tion from the court in the form of a augestion that Senator Brown was not on trial and could not defend himself and his name was only to be used the shealurely necessary to show his mination over the defendant. What may prove as complicated a scandal as Salt Lake has seen for some time came to light yesterday when Dr. W. A. McEnery was served with papers in a breach of promise null for $25,000 to be instituted against him by Miss Edith Evans, now a nurse in the employ of the Murray hospltal. Dr. McEnery became prominent in Utah circles when he married Mrs. Renrietta McLaughlin, about three years ago. When Mrs. McEnery, nev McLaughlin died, some time ago he was named in her will as guardian of her daughter, Isubel, now in her sixicenth year. Behing this summary is a story—a long story. Mrs. McLatagalin was the widow of David C. MeLaughlin, who accumulated a good sized fortune at Furk City. He died some years ago and the widow came to Sait Lake with her daughter. Isabel 9 Loise. Mrs. McLaughlin' health began fait

Among the lourists at the resort was one Dr. William A. McEnery, an Englishman, elegant in manners and immoculate in dress. He sympathized deeply with the American widow who had lost her jeweiry and a companion-ship grew hetween them.
