

How King Edward

Listened To and Applauded American Melodies By an American Band.

Speaking of the honors coming to Mr. Sousa in his remarkable career, these were climaxed on Dec. 1 of last year in London, when, on the anniversary of Queen Alexandra's birthday, his band was summoned by royal command to appear at Sandringham in a special concert. The account of this brilliant event will be most interesting.

"The first intimation that I received of the king's desire to hear the band," relates Mr. Sousa, "was when Mr. George Ashton, who is the king's own entertainment officer, brought me the royal command in a letter from Col. Lake, the king's equerry. The strictest secrecy was enjoined, and in order to perfect our plans Mr. Alfred de Rothschild was taken into our confidence, and it was announced that the band would give a concert at the Rothschild country seat, at Thwing. Some of the musicians could not understand why they were ordered to report at the Liverpool Street station, when they knew that trains for Thwing started from Paddington station. These men were told to ask no questions, but to obey orders like good soldiers, and so no hint of our real destination leaked out.

"The party, which consisted of Mrs. Sousa and myself, Mr. George Ashton, Mr. Philip Yorke, managing director of my English tour; Miss Maud Reese-Davies, our soprano; Miss Dorothy Hoyle, our violinist, and the 52 members of the band, found a special train waiting for us at the station. It was a most luxurious train, equipped with all good things of life that the royal stewards could provide. An elaborate dinner for all was served en route to Sandringham, which was reached shortly before 9 o'clock at night. At the station were brakes, omnibuses and carriages in waiting for our party, and the king's own automobile for Mrs. Sousa and myself.

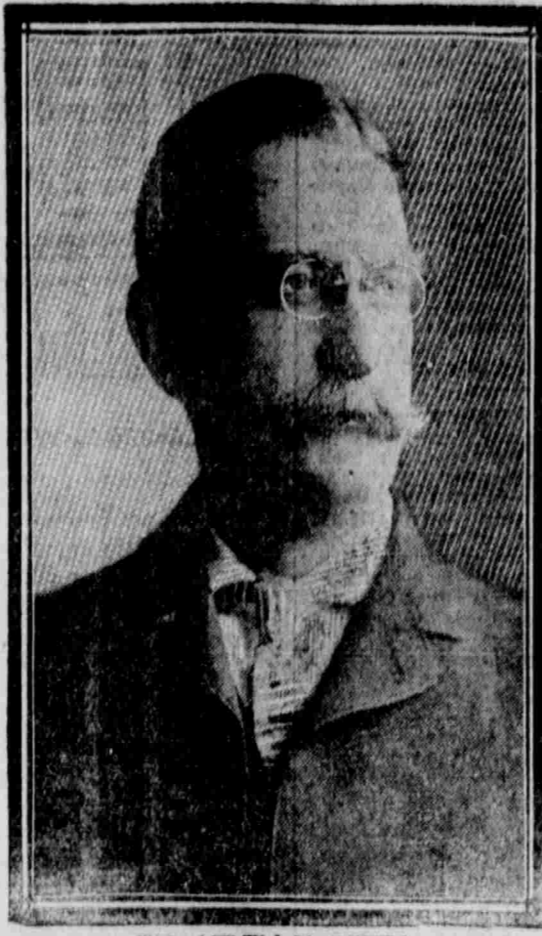

"Arriving at the king's residence, I was escorted to a luxurious suite of apartments, where I remained until notified that everything was in readiness for the concert, and then descended to the ballroom, at one end of which the band was stationed. I notified the equerry that I would play 'God Save the King' on the approach of the royal party, and was told that the king desired me to follow this with 'The Star Spangled Banner.'

"This plan was carried out while the party entered the ballroom, and at the conclusion of the American anthem all took their seats, after the king and queen, who sat at the extreme of the first row of chairs at the right. At his majesty's left was the Dowager Duchess of Manchester, who is an American by birth; nearer the center of the row were the Prince and Princess of Wales, and next to them was the interesting figure of the sturdy, white-haired, octogenarian Duke of Cambridge, uncle of the king, who frequently had time with his cane. There was a large house party, which included the Princess Victoria, the Earl and Countess de Gray, Lord Marcus Beresford, Capt. Lambton, royal navy, who was conspicuous at Lady-smith; the Portuguese minister, and many other notables. In a small gallery at the extreme end of the ballroom were the principal servants of the royal household.

"The entire party were in evening dress, the conventional garb of the gentlemen being, in the case of the king, relieved by the broad, blue ribbons of the Garter, which he wore across his breast.

"Then I began the regular program, which, at the request of the king, was composed entirely of my own compositions and those of other American writers. At the end of the first number, as I stepped down and made my customary bow in response to the applause, an equerry came forward and told me that his majesty desired my march, 'Hands Across the Sea' as an encore, to which I responded, and then played the second number, which was the 'El Capit-

TO TRY TO SAVE SENATOR VEST.

DR. HENRY J. GRAY.

Total blindness awaits Senator George G. Vest of Missouri unless extraordinary medical means can be resorted to save him. Dr. Henry J. Gray of Baltimore, the eminent oculist, held out a ray of hope to the famous statesman. He will try his now famous rotary system which has been successful in many cases. Senator Vest has taken up his residence with Dr. Gray. The aged statesman has childlike faith in this last resort.

The king then proposed to pin the decoration upon my coat, and, taking the little box from my hands, he did so with a few pleasant words.

"The concert party then returned to the special train waiting, the king's automobile being again provided for me. At the train I was handed a basket containing four pheasants shot by the king, which he sent to me with his compliments. Supper was served to our party on the return trip, and we reached London shortly after midnight, tired, but happy.

"The whole occasion was an illustration of the graciousness and tact of King Edward. There was an entire absence of stilted formality, and the king put me very much at ease when conversing with me. He impressed me as a very strong personality, a man assuredly born to command.

"The Victorian medal mentioned above has been worn daily by Mr. Sousa at his new exposition concerts, and is of priceless value to him, as only four other artists have ever been honored with it, viz., Sir Arthur Sullivan, Sir Herbert Parry, Puccini Tosti and Jean de Reszke.

A noteworthy function that could not but flatter the composer of 'Stars and Stripes' was the brilliant banquet arranged in his honor by Baron Alfred Rothschild at his city home, London. Covers were laid for 20 persons, six of whom were members of the nobility, while the leading artists of London were freely represented. To lend relief to the occasion Meba, the vocal star, and Yaxye, the eminent violinist, were especially engaged, and both gave their best efforts in behalf of the distinguished American.

On Dec. 24 the Sousa band returns to England and the continent for a tour extending over 20 weeks. And he said to Mrs. Sousa's lasting credit that during this engagement he proposes to program freely the music of composers residing in the United States, thus making himself the champion-unique of his countrymen's creative efforts.

querry notified me that the king desired to speak to me, and as I stepped forward, his majesty advanced a few paces to meet me with outstretched hand and a cordial grasp. He complimented me highly upon the excellence of my band, remarking: 'You don't give them much rest, but they seem to be happy fellows.' Turning to the queen, to whom I had been presented, he said: 'You know he writes those wonderful marches.' At this I remarked that I should like to have the honor of writing one for his majesty, which he graciously assented, remarking, 'that's a good idea.'

"Then the king thanked me for the pleasure the concert had given him, and asked me to accept the decoration of the Victorian Order as a souvenir of my visit to Sandringham, at the same time handing me the medal in a box which he had taken from his aide-de-camp. I expressed my thanks for the honor as gracefully as possible, and then the king remarked that, while the concert was delightful, there wasn't enough of it. Whereupon I offered to play all night if he so desired, and the king said: 'Suppose you do give us another. Play the 'King Cotton March'; whereas the Duchess of Manchester also said: 'And, Mr. Sousa, play another coon song; to both of which requests I readily assented. The king then desired me to close the concert by playing 'The Star Spangled Banner' once more.

"I went back to the band and found the men all very curious to know what the king had given me. After playing the march and coon song requested, I played 'God Save the King,' whereupon everybody arose except his majesty. Then when I swung into the strains of the American national anthem the king arose also, and the entire audience remained standing until the concluding bar, after which the king and queen retired. I was then introduced to the Prince and Princess of Wales and others. The princess evinced great interest in the American hymn tunes that we played and asked me to send her the music of some of them.

"His royal highness, noting the medals were asked me what they were, and I told him that one was the palms of the Academie Francaise bestowed upon me by the French government, another the headquarters badge of the Sixth corps, United States army, while the third had been given me by the English friends to commemorate my success at the Royal Albert hall. Then he asked me where I intended wearing my new decoration, to which I replied: 'On the same line—but over the heart.'

The prince then proposed to pin the decoration upon my coat, and, taking the little box from my hands, he did so with a few pleasant words.

"The concert party then returned to the special train waiting, the king's automobile being again provided for me. At the train I was handed a basket containing four pheasants shot by the king, which he sent to me with his compliments. Supper was served to our party on the return trip, and we reached London shortly after midnight, tired, but happy.

"The whole occasion was an illustration of the graciousness and tact of King Edward. There was an entire absence of stilted formality, and the king put me very much at ease when conversing with me. He impressed me as a very strong personality, a man assuredly born to command.

"The Victorian medal mentioned above has been worn daily by Mr. Sousa at his new exposition concerts, and is of priceless value to him, as only four other artists have ever been honored with it, viz., Sir Arthur Sullivan, Sir Herbert Parry, Puccini Tosti and Jean de Reszke.

A noteworthy function that could not but flatter the composer of 'Stars and Stripes' was the brilliant banquet arranged in his honor by Baron Alfred Rothschild at his city home, London. Covers were laid for 20 persons, six of whom were members of the nobility, while the leading artists of London were freely represented. To lend relief to the occasion Meba, the vocal star, and Yaxye, the eminent violinist, were especially engaged, and both gave their best efforts in behalf of the distinguished American.

On Dec. 24 the Sousa band returns to England and the continent for a tour extending over 20 weeks. And he said to Mrs. Sousa's lasting credit that during this engagement he proposes to program freely the music of composers residing in the United States, thus making himself the champion-unique of his countrymen's creative efforts.

Pyzun—"I tell you the Rev. Longwinds is one of nature's own preachers. He is one of the sort that see sermons in stones."

Wyzzon—"Ah, then, that accounts for the large proportion of rocky sermons he delivers."—Los Angeles Herald.

"You office holders," sneered the man who was vainly trying to be one, "don't die very often, do you?"

"No," replied the man who was one, as he smiled benignly, "only once."—Philadelphia Press.

PAIN IN THE BACK

A Sure Sign of Kidney Trouble. Dr. Kennedy's Favorite Remedy will cure you.

Pain in the back is a never failing sign of kidney disease; another sure sign is the condition of the urine; if you have a pain in the back then look to the condition of your urine. Take a glass tumbler of your urine; after it has stood 24 hours, if it has a sediment, if it is milky or cloudy, pale or discolored, stringy orropy, your kidneys and bladder are in a dangerous condition and need immediate attention, or the consequences may prove fatal.

F. C. Wilcox of 559 New Britain Ave., Hartford, Conn., says:

"I had a frightful pain in my back, the result of kidney trouble. My physician seemed powerless to relieve me, I determined to try Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy; it helped me wonderfully, and in a short time cured me completely."

Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy is the one medicine that really cures all diseases of the kidneys, liver, bladder and blood, rheumatism, dyspepsia and chronic constipation, and corrects the bad effects of whiskey and beer on the system. It is wonderful how it makes that pain in the back disappear, how it relieves the desire to urinate often, especially at night, and drives away that scalding pain in passing water and in a remarkably short time makes you well and strong.

"All druggists sell Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy in the NEW 50 CENT SIZE and the regular $1.00 size bottles."

Sample bottle—enough for trial, free by mail.

Dr. David Kennedy Corporation, Roudout, N.Y.

Dr. David Kennedy's Rose Jelly radical cure Catarrh, Hay Fever and Cold in Head. 50c.

[ADVERTISEMENT.]

[ADVERTISEMENT.]

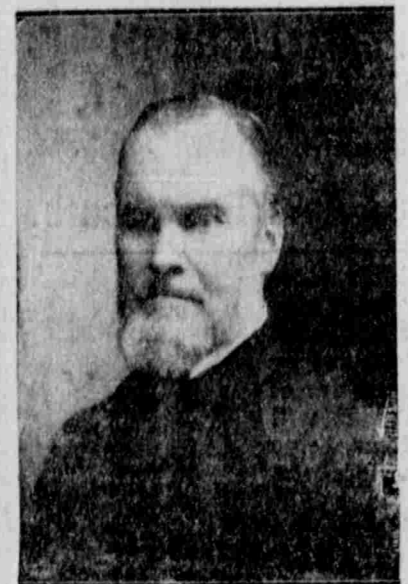

[ADVERTISEMENT.]

Weber County Republican Nominees.

DR. A. S. CONDON,
For State Representative.

Dr. A. S. Condon, who is worthy of being elected to the House of Representatives, is one of Ogden's brightest and most able citizens. He is a gentleman of refinement and education, and is well known to the voters of Weber county. He has filled a number of important positions with honor to himself and all concerned. He has been a resident of Ogden City for many years, and has always worked for the progression and upbuilding of our county. Dr. Condon has practiced medicine in this county for the past twenty-five years, and is one of our most highly respected citizens. His whole interests are in Weber county and the State of Utah; and when he does anything, it may be depended upon it will be done well. He possesses those traits of character which are necessary to make an efficient legislator and one who will do his duty to the best of his ability. Everybody should cast their ballot for Dr. Condon.

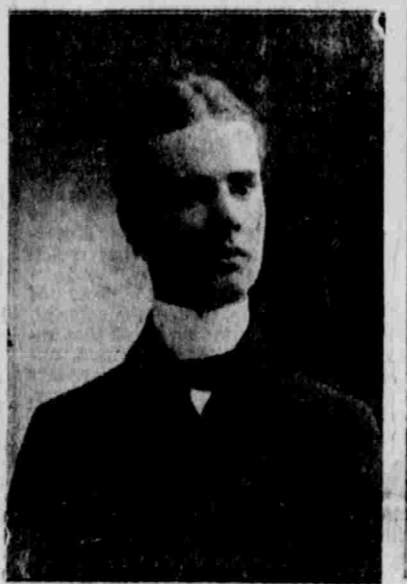

ARCHIBALD MCFARLAND,
For State Representative.

Archibald McFarland of West Weber, Republican nominee for Representative, is one of the best known men in Weber county. He was born in Scotland Dec. 17, 1832, and came to Utah in 1855. He located in Weber county four years later and has since that time been closely identified with the growth and progress of the county and her people. He has always been a public spirited man, and has done much for the upbuilding of our commonwealth. There is no man in the State of Utah who is more thoroughly acquainted with the irrigation, agricultural and horticultural interests of the state than he, having devoted much time to the study of the same and has for many years had the practical experience. Mr. McFarland is a man of ability, true manhood and character and should be returned to the House of Representatives by the vote of the people of Ogden City and Weber county.

JOSEPH STANFORD,
For County Commissioner.

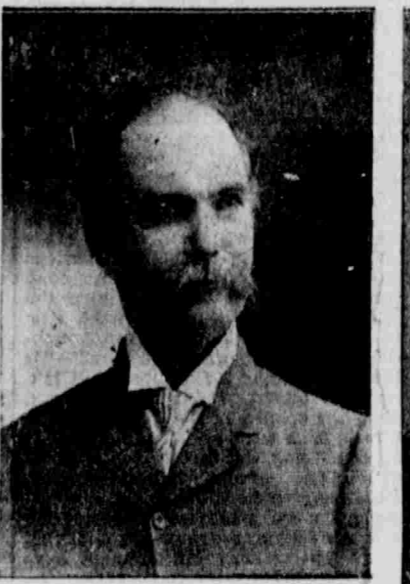

In point of experience in positions of public trust requiring a wide range of ability no candidate on either ticket exceeds Hon. Joseph Stanford, whom the Republicans have named for one of the county commissioners. Mr. Stanford came to Ogden in 1868 and ever since that date has taken an important part in all affairs affecting the interests of the town, county and state. As a city councilman and alderman, justice of the peace, county recorder for two terms, member of the board of education, and as county selectman (the former title of county commissioner) Mr. Stanford has been closely identified with every phase of progress and development enjoyed by his city and county. In the broader field of legislative action our citizens through two terms as representative in the territorial assembly served all the people of Utah with signal ability and honor. The people will make no mistake in re-electing and confiding the very important duty of governing the county affairs to men who, like Joseph Stanford, have the fine business ability, the unimpeachable character, the undoubted integrity and ample time and inclination to faithfully perform the duties pertaining to the office of county commissioner.

CHARLES R. HOLLINGSWORTH,
For County Clerk.

Charles R. Hollingsworth, County Clerk and the Republican candidate to succeed himself, is a native of Utah, his entire life having been spent in Ogden City. While County Clerk he has devoted all his time and energy to the duties of the position, and at all times has given the taxpayers an honest, economical, first class and business-like administration of their affairs. At the same time has been one of the most accommodating and obliging officers the county has ever had. Many reforms and new methods have been installed in the clerk's office during his incumbency. The system established by Mr. Hollingsworth for keeping the accounts between Weber county, and the State of Utah has been very highly spoken of by the State Auditor and he is urging the county clerks throughout the state to keep their accounts after Mr. Hollingsworth's system.

It is readily admitted by all fair-minded people that the office has been economically administered. During Mr. Hollingsworth's first term a saving of upwards of $2,000 was made in the cost of maintaining the office as compared with the term of his predecessor. The present term has also been an economical one. It will surprise some of the taxpayers and at the same time gratify them to learn that the office is now self-sustaining and that the running of it does not cost the county one cent. More than that, the county each month receives a revenue from the office, where it formerly paid thousands of dollars each year for its maintenance. The expense to the taxpayers of maintaining the office over and above the fees collected, during 1897 and 1898 was $3,811.57, or an average monthly cost to the taxpayers of $160.06. For the eighteen months ending June 30, 1902, the excess of fees over salaries was $1,125.25, or a monthly excess of $62.52. In other words, this was the profit to the taxpayers from the clerk's office during the past eighteen months. It is true the fees collected have increased somewhat, which would necessarily cause a proportionate increase in the clerical assistance, but the increase in the latter has not been proportionate to the increase in the fees. Mr. Hollingsworth represents the young, progressive and liberal element of "Young Utah," and his re-election would be a just recognition of a strong and worthy young man.

ALMA D. CHAMBERS,
For County Treasurer.

Alma D. Chambers was the unanimous choice of the Republican county convention for County Treasurer. He is a native of Utah, and for 33 years has been a resident of Ogden, during all of which time his character and reputation for honor and integrity has been above reproach. He is now serving Weber county as County Treasurer, and is known as one of the most efficient, courteous and obliging officials that the county has ever had. He conducts the affairs of the treasurer's office in the most economical manner possible. He has originated a set of accounts for handling the various funds of the county which has no equal in the state, and Col. George B. Squires, representing the State Auditor, who was in Ogden recently, auditing accounts for the state, expressed his intention of recommending that a law be enacted by the State Legislature making his method of accounts a uniform system in every county of the state. He has been most vigilant in protecting the interests of the county in the money received on account of tax sale redemptions, and he has seen to it that each and every school district in the county has received the proportion of taxes due. These are a few of the reasons why a great majority of the voters of Weber county are supporting Mr. Chambers. He is always sure of a vote of confidence, and always ready to serve the people with courtesy, honesty and ability.

JOSEPH W. BAILEY,
For Sheriff.

Joseph W. Bailey, the Republican nominee for sheriff, was born in Weber county 23 years ago, and has made Ogden City his home. The early part of his life was spent on the farm. When 18 years of age he entered the service of the Ogden street railway, remaining with the company for 12 years. In 1895 Mr. Bailey was chosen by Sheriff Charles E. Layne as chief deputy in his office, which position he filled with great honor and credit to himself and the entire community. He resigned his position in the sheriff's office May 15, 1901, when he was appointed assistant superintendent of the Ogden Rapid Transit company.

Mr. Bailey is a young man, fearless and of noble character, possessing those necessary qualities to fill the position, and the people of Ogden City and Weber county can do no better than to cast their ballot on Nov. 4 for Joseph W. Bailey.

MRS. C. E. COULTER,
For State Representative.

Mrs. Chester E. Coulter is the only lady in the State of Utah who has the distinction of being a candidate on the Republican ticket for the House of Representatives, and should receive the suffrage of the voters of Ogden City and Weber county, at the polls on Nov. 4. Mrs. Coulter is best known to Utah people, perhaps, through her association with women's clubs of the state, and that her intellectual ability has been recognized by the ladies, is observed from the fact that she is now entering upon her fourth year of incumbency as president of the Utah Federation of Women's Clubs.

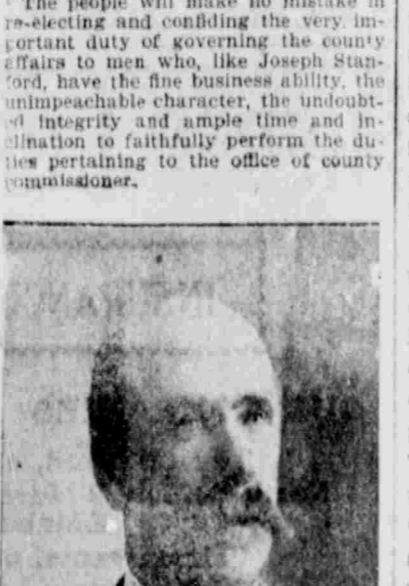

Mrs. Coulter's attainments have been far from limited to club lines. A native of Illinois, she graduated in 1878 from the high school of Mt. Carroll in that state, and afterward from the Northwestern college in 1880. She spent three years studying in the literary and law department of the University of Michigan, and received the degree of LL.B. from that institution in 1885. In the same year she was admitted both to the supreme court of Michigan and to the supreme court of Illinois.

Mrs. Coulter is the wife of Dr. Chester E. Coulter, one of Ogden's successful physicians. She has traveled extensively in the United States, and also in Canada, the West Indies and South America, as has resided in Illinois, Michigan, California and Ogden City, Utah, the latter place having been her home since 1888.

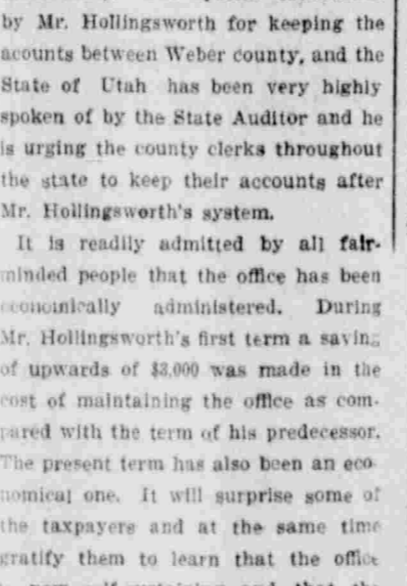

WM. G. WILSON,
For Long Term Commissioner.

William G. Wilson, who has been chosen by the Republican party as their candidate for the four year term county commissioner, is a stalwart Republican and always has been. He has filled the position of commissioner in the past in a most creditable manner. That "Billy" is a road builder is sure; for our Canyon road which is the delight and pride of every citizen of this city, and county, is a sample of his ability in that line. He is a native of Scotland. He came to Weber county in 1883, and has lived here ever since. He has always had the interests of the people at heart, and has unflinchingly done his duty in every responsibility imposed upon him. He has been successful in his private affairs and is today one of the largest taxpayers in the city, and has given his attention to the interests of the county as attentively as his personal affairs. That Wilson possesses every qualification that goes to make a good commissioner, is a man of sterling character, honesty and integrity. The people should do their duty and vote for Billy Wilson and re-elect him with an overwhelming majority.

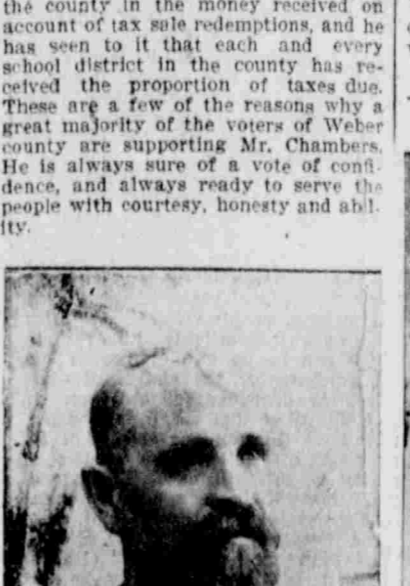

JESSE POWERS,
For County Commissioner.

Jesse Powers, candidate for county commissioner, is a resident of Hooper, and a heavy taxpayer, is well acquainted with the needs of the county in every respect, and is deserving of the vote of not alone Republicans but every taxpayer in the city and county. He is especially adapted for the office of county commissioner, being a conservative man, who will look after the best interests of every citizen in the county. That part of the county, where Mr. Powers resides, should have a representation in the government of this commonwealth. He will see to it that the monies of the county are properly expended, and that an economical administration is given. To know Jesse Powers, is to honor and respect him, because of his brightness and noble traits of character. The people of this county can do no better than to elect him to the position for which he asks your suffrages.

EDWIN DIX,
For County Assessor.

Edwin Dix, Candidate for County Assessor, is widely known, having resided in Weber county since 1859, coming here from Iowa City. He has grown up with the county, having located in Plain City; he engaged in fruit farming with such success as to win for him a fine reputation as a pioneer in the introduction of choice fruits in our county. In 1899 he was elected assessor of Weber county, serving acceptably, of Weber county, serving acceptably. In 1894 he was chosen Weber county's head in Denver. He has always been a sturdy Republican, being selected by his party as County Chairman in the first state campaign of 1895, meeting with the success that he was again chosen by the executive committee as their chairman for the last campaign of 1900. His long residence and experience admirably fit him for the difficult duties of County Assessor. He is regarded as a sure winner.

E. T. HULANISKI,
For County Attorney.

Judge E. T. Hulaniski, Republican candidate for County Attorney, was born in Michigan in 1848; was admitted to the bar in 1866, and has practiced law in this state since 1891, and with the exception of five years spent outside of Utah has made Ogden his home since 1875. He is a heavy taxpayer, and public minded citizen. Mr. Hulaniski served with distinction in the civil war. His honesty and integrity are unquestionable. He has a profound knowledge of the law, and sound business judgment. For two terms he was city judge, which position he filled with honor, and all of his public acts have been characterized with fairness and impartiality towards all classes. He has always been faithful in the performance of his duties and will give the people of Weber county a conscientious and prudent administration as County Attorney.

Deliciously Good
these cold evenings—our hot drinks—all kinds, but especially coffee and tea. Didn't know we served splendid hot tea and coffee—did you?

Willes Horn Drug Co., Prescription Druggists, Deseret News Bldg. Phone 374.

NEW PERFUMES.

So many new perfumes to show you. Some of the nicest odors we ever had too.

One new one of Pinauds—Fascination.

One new one of Le Grandes—Apotheose.

Both of these in bulk or in fancy packages.

Get all our Perfume in bulk now.

Cause it's so convenient for you.

Get all our Perfume in bulk as you want.

Tell what you're getting too. A half hundred or more odors to show you.

There's one point you'll find about Schramm's perfumes that you won't find in any others. They last.

F. C. SCHRAMM.
DRUGGIST.

Where the cars stop. McCornick Bldg.

COAL

Burton Coal & Lumber Co., 80 W. 2nd South, Phone 808. Yard, 5th South & 3rd West

NO POISON
Has Ever Been Found in the Enamel of AGATE NICKEL-STEEL Kitchen Utensils
The BLUE LABEL
Protected by Decision of United States Court
Pasted on Every Piece PROVES IT.
If substitutes are offered, write us. This trade-mark is on every piece of genuine Agate Ware.

AGATE NICKEL-STEEL WARE
Mfg. & Co. G

WE MAKE 1520 KINDS

Sold by First-class Department and House-Furnishing Stores. Send for new Booklet. LALLANCE & GROESBEAN MFG. CO.
NEW YORK BOSTON CHICAGO