DAVID WHITMER'S LAST TESTI-MONY.

The speakers at the Tabernacle yes-terday were Elders Don W. Conover and Jos. B. Keeler. The former gave an interesting account of his missionary labors in Arkansas and Kansas City. In the latter place he had met a lady who was with David Whitmer when he died, and she told Elder Conover and his companion, Elder England, of Logan, that Mr. Whitmer on his deathbed reaffirmed the truthfulness of his testi mony in regard to the coming forth of the Book of Mormon. He had done this in the presence of his family and others, and his affirmation was reduced to writing by the county clerk, at Mr. Whitmer's request. This statement made by the lady, who was not a member of the Church, had been of to the Elders, who had referred skeptics to her when they had questioned the divine authenticity of the work.

GEN PACE SERIOUSLY ILL.

Mrs. Empey Pace has received a letter from John Pace of St. George, which brings to sad news that her husband, General W. B. Pace, is suffering from the effects of a severe paralytic stroke. General Pace is well known throughout the state and was prominent in military circles in the days of Indian fight-ing. He represented Utah county for several terms in the Legislature, was for many years a prominent citi-zen of Provo. For over twenty years he has been living in the southern part of the state. It has been his wish to be brought to Provo when the time came for him to pass away, and Mrs. Pace thinks he will be brought home if his condition is such that the trip. can be undertaken with any degree of safety.

FELL FROM A CAR,

Monday morning Mr. August Rotowsky fell from a car which he was repairing at the O. S. L. car shop, and severely injuring his knee, and he is now confined to the house. WOUNDED BURGLAR CAPTURED.

Tuesday morning the strange conduct of some trespassers in the yard caused the switchmen to look them up in an old abandoned ice house, and here they found a stranger with a bullet hole in his head, and in an unconscious con dition. The officers and Dr. Bean were called, and the Jounded man was taken to the county hospital. His companion was missing, but was later identified and arrested. His wound was old, and the blood congealed, and he had rived here in that condition. His last companion as identified by the switchmen, proved himself a total stranger, and also a Samaritan to the wounded man, whom he found lying between the tracks in the yard unconscious and wounded, while he himself was seeking for an outbound train; and he picked him up and carried him inside of the empty ice house, and procured water for the wounded man. His story held good, and the police released him, Wednesday morning the wounded man recovered consciousness and gave his name as John Brennan of Iowa, 30 years old, and said he did not know how he got wounded. He is severely but not fatally injured, the bullet entering his cheek and com-ing out at the eye. Mr. George W. Goodheart of the Palace saloon at Soda Springs, on hearing of this mysterious case, came post hate, and identified John Brennan as a burglar, at whom he took a shot Monday night after midnight, when two men were trying to burglarize the saloon, He went immediately before Judge Masonheimer and swore to a complaint against said John Brennan, and an unknown man, charging them with this crime.
