No DISCOVERY in Medical Chem-istry has been so productive of such benefit to the human cuticle as Glenn's Sulphur Soap. All local dis-eases of the skin are speedily eradi-cated by it and it is at once the best and most inexpensive clarifier and emollient of the complexion in use. With a box of this Soap, which only costs 60 cents, all the advantages of Sulphur Baths, which cannot be en-joyed without incurring considerable expense, are secured. Nothing opens the pores so effectually and no ad-junct of the bath so happily com-bines the properties of a specific with those of a tollet article. All com-plexional defects are obviated by its use and it invariably mitigates rheu-matic pain.
