SAN FRANCISCO, 28.—Another scene occurred in the Assembly at Sacramento to-day. Brounhart, who was suspended yesterday, took his seat and attempted to speak, but was ordered under arrest and removed. He is now on his way to the city with the view of bringing his case before the Supreme Court.

Subscriptions to furnish funds for the employing of needy men with work on the Golden Gate Park is meeting with gratifying success.

The city has to all appearances assumed its wanted quiet, and no further disturbance is likely at present.

The impression among the best informed seems to be that if the order to condemn Chinatown is carried out legally and in good faith at the end of thirty days notice, there will be no further trouble, but if anything occurs to interfere with the execution of that project, then there will be no guarantee for peace. The arrest of Gannon yesterday appears to cause no excitement among the Workingmen.

A Stockton dispatch says: John Petty, a prominent citizen, was deliberately shot down and fatally wounded in the Court House yard this afternoon by Henry Parker. The cause of the affair was this: The sheriff levied an execution on the property of Parker to satisfy an old judgment in favor of Petty.

NEW YORK, 1.—The Times argues the necessity of an immediate extension of some form of government over Alaska, and says: A party of real estate dealers could take Alaska from the government's hands for the sum the government paid and with political power like that formerly possessed by the East India companies, make it for themselves a paying investment. Nothing like this, of course can or ought to be done; but the possibility will serve to overthrow the pretense that Alaska is worthless. The revenues could easily be increased to $500,000, or double the cost of a territorial government. No body can dispute that it is rich in fish, furs, timber and minerals. Without reviving the ludicrous extravagances of Seward and Sumner, concerning the wheat-bearing properties, and the fine, mild climate of Alaska, it is enough to say that its fish and furs would easily support a far larger population, could the protection and comforts of an orderly government be assured.

BOSTON, 1.—At Lowell there has been a general advance in wages in all the leading corporations within a few weeks, and several manufacturing establishments have joined in the increase, which was agreed to by the manufacturers without petition or other movement of the workingmen.

Jos. Nickerson, director of the Atchison and Santa Fe R. R. and President of the Pueblo and Arkansas Valley Road, died of apoplexy at Brewster, Massachusetts, on Saturday night.

WASHINGTON, 1.—Babe Bedford, Sandy Pinn and Edward Queenan have been found guilty of the murder of Geo. P. Huth on the evening of the 7th of January last.

Friday night last Miss Lein, residing on Capitol Hill, while on her way to church, was struck down and carried into an open lot by a negro, who outraged and robbed her of her satchel and prayer book. It was nearly two hours before she reached her home. Her throat was black with choking, one ear was nearly torn from her head, and her body was covered with bruises from the cuffs and kicks she had received. The young woman now lies in a critical condition. Thos. Smothers was arrested yesterday and recognized as the assailant. At midnight a crowd of about 100 men marched to the Seventh District station-house and demanded the prisoner, but he had been removed to another station, where he was guarded during the night by the entire reserve of the police force.

CHICAGO, 1.—The Times has a statement of a gossiping correspondent in Washington upon which it casts discredit editorially that Jay Gould is Blaine's confidential adviser and is partly managing his presidential campaign. The correspondent thinks railroad development would be a principal feature of Blaine's administration if elected President.

FOREIGN.

ST. PETERSBURG, 27.—The Imperial ukase issued by the Czar nominating members of the Commission of Supreme Control, dated February 25th, and addressed to the Senate, says: Being determined to put an end to the repeated attempts of criminals to undermine the order of state and society, the Supreme Commission is established in St. Petersburg for the protection of order. General Melikoff is appointed to the head of this commission, and the appointment of its other members will be made on General Melikoff's suggestion by Imperial ordinance. The head of the commission has more over the right to summon upon the commission all whose presence he may consider useful in order to give united character to the action of all the authorities. The head of the commission, setting aside the right of the commander-in-chief of St. Petersburg, shall have direct control over all political trials held in the capital, in the military district of St. Petersburg and throughout the empire. All local authorities, the Governor-General and the town commandants, are placed under the jurisdiction of the head of the commission, and all employees in the various departments are bound to afford him their entire co-operation. The head of the commission is at liberty to adopt any means which may appear desirable for the protection of order in the empire, and all orders he may issue are to be unconditionally observed.

Gen. Melikoff has issued a proclamation in which, after referring to the indignation felt in Russia and throughout Europe at the attempts on the life of the Emperor, he declares that the Government is compelled to adopt effectual measures for the suppression of an evil threatening social order. Gen. Melikoff says he recognizes the difficulty of his task and will not encourage exaggerated expectations of immediate success. He will not hesitate to take the most stringent measures for the punishment of criminals, while endeavoring on the other hand to tranquilize and protect the well intentioned part of society. He hopes for the co-operation of honest men, and begs the population to await the future with calmness and disregard malicious and frivolous rumors.

The Czar has appointed members and defined the powers of the commission of Supreme Control, of which Gen. Melikoff is chief. Prince Dondoukoff Korsakoff will succeed Gen. Melikoff as temporary Governor General of Kharkoff.

Hartmann in Paris confesses, to being engaged in the attempt on the Czar's life at Moscow. It is said the French Cabinet has instructed the Minister of Justice to draw up a report on the question of Hartmann's extradition.

Vera Sassulitch, the famous feminine Nihilist agent, who on the 5th of February, 1878, attempted the assassination of Gen. Trepoff, Prefect of St. Petersburg, has been arrested at the residence of one of her friends in this city.

LONDON, 28.—A dispatch from St. Petersburg says: It may be unintelligible to many persons abroad how the Nihilists succeeded in doing their work in the very residence of the Imperial family. Probably no other building in St. Petersburg is less safe than the Winter Palace. It has always been the refuge for numberless vagabond workmen, friends of the servants and others, and many without passports who would not live with impunity anywhere else. The Imperial ukase of last April gave full powers to General Gorko to search the buildings of Hataca, but even that severe Governor General could hardly venture to interfere with the special authorities of the Imperial residence. There is an old Russian law which gives the right of sanctuary to criminals taking refuge within the buildings of the Imperial Palace. No fewer than 5,000 persons have been living in the Winter Palace, and nobody has ever known the precise duties of one-half of them.

Inquiry into the fall of the railroad bridge over the Frith of Tay on the night of December 28th, by which many lives were lost, is proceeding at Dundee before the Board of Trade. Several painters who painted the bridge last summer, testified they saw numerous bolt holes empty. They found bolts in the holes where should have been rivets, and found rivets without heads and bars loosened and nuts unscrewed. The supporting columns of the high girders were cracked from top to bottom, and held together with four hoop-bands, and that sometimes the oscillation of the bridge was so great they feared it would fall.

The German government has given notice of its intention to increase the amount of silver currency to 12 marks per head of population, instead of 10 marks, as now.

The libel case of the Lord Mayor of Dublin against the Sporting and Dramatic News has been amicably settled.

MARK TWAIN AGAIN.

SALT LAKE CITY,
Feb. 28, 1880.

Editors Deseret News:

In your issue of Feb. 25, I notice a card inspired by the pen of Mr. D. C. Johnson in regard to the agency of Mark Twain's book entitled "A Tramp Abroad." I should not intrude again upon the valuable space in your paper had not Mr. Johnson made some untrue and uncalled for reflections upon my publication. The "Tramp Abroad" is published by the American Publishing Company, of Hartford, Conn., and I hold their written agreement assigning me the Territory of Utah for the sale of the book. No other booksellers or publishers have the right to commission any one as agent for the same work in Utah. Messrs. Bancroft & Co., of San Francisco, buy the book of the same publishing house and pay the same price that I do. Mr. Johnson is buying his books of Bancroft & Co., and not of the publishers, and it is for this reason that Mr. Blanchard and Mr. Johnson are compelled to charge for the book the exorbitant price of $4.25 and $5.00 while I am selling it for $3.50 and $4.00. It is an extortion which they are compelled to inflict upon the public for the reason that they are not getting the books from first hands.

I have no bitter feelings against Mr. Johnson personally. I presume that he is a perfect gentleman endeavoring to pursue a legitimate business, but it is not honorable for him to try to hoodwink the public by telling them that the book I have may be an inferior publication. There is but one publisher of the "Tramp Abroad," and I shall be in Provo City and Utah County the coming week and take orders for the book. It is for the public to decide whether they will pay Mr. Blanchard and Mr. Johnson on $1.25 and $5.00 for the book, or pay me as the publisher's authorized agent $3.50. Jonathan Crosby, Beaver, J. P. Madsen, Sanpete, David F. Stout, Rockville, Kane Co., are authorized to take subscriptions for said work.

R. M. POWERS.

In his early Californian days, the present bonanza man, Mackay, used to say that his greatest ambition was to accumulate $25,000 and make his "dear old Irish mother comfortable." He is now forty-five years of age, and a few days ago made a good many dear old Irish mothers happy by sending $10,000 to the relief of Western Ireland.

Telegrams to the London papers state that terrible distress and mortality prevail at Adrianople, especially among the refugees. Fifteen of these were found dead of hunger in one day. In the mouths of the corpses were pieces of wood, with which the unfortunate persons had endeavored to satisfy their hunger. The famine at Van and Bayazid increases. There are 7,000 refugees at Philippopolis, and the consuls can only relieve a third of this number. The distress in the neighboring villages to Philippopolis also is beyond consular power to relieve.

The professional tour of the great violinist, Wilhelmj, who is to reappear in this city on Thursday next, has caused many disputes and comments on the pronunciation of his name. Among other squibs that have appeared on the sound of the final j is the following:

Oh, king of the fiddle, Wilhelmj,

If truly you love me, just telmj;

Just answer my sigh

By the glance of your eye;

Be honest, and don't try to selmj,

With rapture your music did thrilmj,

With pleasure supreme did it fillmj.

And if I could believe

That you meant to deceivmj—

Wilhelmj, I think it would killmj.
