Scandinavian Services.—We are requested to announce that Bishop Canute S. Peterson will preach, at the Seventies' Hall, to-morrow evening, commencing at 6 o'clock.

A Rough Character.—Last night "Jack" Langley, a very rough character, and frequent inmate of the city jail, indulged in drinking bad whiskey, creating a general disturbance of the peace, profane swearing, obtaining liquor and oysters and refusing to pay for them, assaulting and striking a citizen and resisting the officers. He was arrested and was to have a hearing before Justice Pyper to-day.

Lecture.—On Tuesday evening, commencing at 7 o'clock, Elder Joseph F. Smith will deliver a lecture, at the 13th Ward Assembly Rooms, under the auspices of the Young Men's Mutual Improvement Association of that ward. Subject—"Scenes Connected with the Early History of the Church." Admission free to all.

Scribner's Illustrated Magazine for Girls and Boys for February, is a beautiful specimen of this favorite juvenile journal, with thirty or forty illustrations. Among the various articles are "The Black Douglas," "The Boy Emigrants," "Tobaggans and their use," "How Much for a Penny?" "The Castaways," "Sally Watson's Ride," "Jon of Iceland," "How to Make and Stock an Aquarium," "Jack in the Pulpit," "Mother Goose," etc.

Theatre.—There is a splendid programme at the Theatre this evening, for the benefit of the Ladies' Centennial Fund. "George Washington and his Army" will be there, also the "Declaration of Independence," all in "Putnam, or One Hundred Years Ago." Then seven talented vocalists will sing a beautiful septette. Prof. Mallero will give a solo diabolique. Mr. Ainsworth will manipulate the clogs. Miss Davis will sing a centennial song. Messrs. Harris and Bowring will exhibit the "Mulligan Guards." Messrs. Margetts, Marden, Lindsay and Bowring will get up "A Ghost in Spite of Himself." Messrs. Graham and Lindsay and Miss Cogswell, and other able artists will also appear in prominent characters.

Sudden Death.—Last evening about half past five o'clock Brother Bernard McAdams, when walking from the house of his father-in-law, Bro. Jones, in the 11th Ward, to his own residence in the 20th Ward, while near the house of W. J. Moss, fell and died instantly, without uttering a word or moving a limb. Geo. Hedger and T. Manning, who were approaching from the opposite direction, saw him fall and ran to pick him up, but life was already extinct. He was taken into the house of Wm. Steers and Dr. Smith of the 11th Ward was sent for, but of course the young man was past human aid. Deceased was twenty-seven years old.

An inquest was held over the body to-day, by Coroner Taylor and a jury, the verdict being that deceased came to his death by apoplexy.

THE LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY.

COUNCIL.

Council convened at 2 p.m. yesterday, Jan. 28th.

The following communication was received from the House and read:

"Gentlemen:—The House has passed the accompanying bill (H. F. No. 2), 'A bill to incorporate the City of Richfield, Sevier County,' and forward the same for your action thereon."

Said bill (H. F. No. 2,) passed its first reading and was referred to the Committee on Municipal Corporations and Townsites.

On motion of Councilor Caine, the Committee on Education was instructed to enquire if the Superintendent of Meteorological Observations, appointed by virtue of a "resolution creating the office of Superintendent of Meteorological Observations, and appropriating money therefor," approved Jan. 15, 1857, has performed any of the duties of said office, as required by the provisions of said resolution, other than to draw his salary; also to enquire if the establishment in this city of a branch of the U. S. signal service, which publishes daily weather reports, does not supercede the necessity of continuing such service under the Territory, and if said resolution ought not to be repealed, and the office abolished.

On motion of Councilor Harrington, titles 1 to 14, of (C. F. 1,) "The Penal Code of Utah," were taken up on their second reading by sections, and at the close of the reading of the sixth chapter, of title 8, Council adjourned.

HOUSE.

House met yesterday Jan. 28, at 2 p. m.

On motion of Mr. Bringhurst, the Committee on Petitions and Memorials was instructed to act with the Council committee on the subject of a resolution of City Council concerning the legislative halls, etc.

Mr. Bringhurst presented a petition from Henry Monroe, Sen., and seventy-four others, of Springville, for the amendment of the charter of Springville City; referred to Committee on Municipal Incorporations, with instructions to draft a bill, if they think proper.

Mr. Pace presented the Territorial Librarian's report for the years 1874 and 1875; referred to Committee on Library.

Mr. S. S. Smith, on behalf of Chairman on Judiciary, presented a bill for an act to extend the jurisdiction of Justices of the Peace in criminal cases, and to regulate the mode of procedure therein. Read and ordered that sixty copies be printed for the use of both Houses, and the bill be read a second time.

On motion of Mr. Thomas Taylor, the vote for the passage of (H. F. No. 1), was reconsidered, and the bill was recommitted to the Committe on Municipal Incorporations.

Meetings—Well Treated—The Country—A Mild Winter.

BOSQUE COUNTY, Texas,
Jan. 13, 1876.

Editor Deseret News:

Myself and Elder D. H. Greer have been in this county now about two months, and have held several meetings in this and over in Hill county. Our meetings have been pretty well attended, sometimes we have had crowded houses, with excellent attention, and better order I have never witnessed, which some of the people think remarkable.

We found in this section several who had been baptized years ago, some of them have kept the faith, several defend "Mormonism" on all suitable occasions, and two of them have borne a strong testimony to the work of the "last days" and to the divine mission of Joseph Smith the Prophet, publicly in our meetings.

I have an opportunity (by request) at Mrs. Ivins', six miles above Kimball, on the Brazos River, for next Sunday. There seems to be considerable inquiry in some quarters and some few desire to get the Book of Mormon, &c.

The people here have treated us with much kindness, and we have had frequent invitations from strangers to call on them.

Kimball (my post-office) is about seventy miles north-west from Dallas. Waco is the nearest railroad point, distant about fifty miles from this place.

This is a beautiful country, and the lands are fine, especially the Brazos lands. The Brazos bottoms here are free from stagnant water and miasmatic swamps, which render the lower River lands an objectionable, neither is the long moss which was so abundant in the region where I once lived (some 200 miles below here), seen in this upper Brazos country. This country is settling up very fast, and there is room for a great many thousands yet. Only think of a State 1200 miles long and six or eight hundred in width.

The winter here so far has been very mild, mostly like Spring, yet I have seen some ice three times. On New Year's day I saw corn up and growing.

Yours truly,
E. W. EAST.

Progress—Meetings—Schools—Manuscript Magazine—Social Party.

SANTAQUIN, Jan. 24, 1876.

Editor Deseret News:

Although situated upon an eminence, our want of thrift and intellectual advancement has rendered us less noticeable than our sister settlements. But since the inauguration of our new bishop—Bro. G. Halliday, a great change is seen and felt for the better. His kind manners, and his enterprising and persevering disposition induce a general belief that he is the right man in the right place, to direct our abundant facilities and physical energies.

The order of the day here now is union and progress in every laudable enterprise. Our meetings, also our day and Sunday schools, are well attended, with satisfactory results. We have lately organized a young men's mutual improvement society, of about seventy-five members, which, with the young ladies here, has commenced to edit a semi-monthly paper, in manuscript form. The first issue made its appearance on Thursday morning, the 20th inst. The readings were interspersed with songs, glees, recitations, dialogues, &c., which made the time a very enjoyable one for all present. A dance followed in the p. m. part of the day, and was kept up till 10 o'clock, when all retired with the satisfaction that they had had a rare treat.

WM. C.

Leap-Year Party—Improvement.

PAYSON, U. Co.,
January 23d, 1876.

Editor Deseret News:

On Friday, the 21st, the young ladies of this city prepared a good Leap-Year Party. Dancing commenced at 2 o'clock in the afternoon. The hall was elegantly decorated with evergreens, flags, charts, pictures, mirrors, and beautiful festoons.

I must say that the committee of young ladies deserve much praise for the taste and interest manifested in making this party sociable, convenient and attractive. The young ladies generally exhibited great prudence in the choice of their companions for the occasion, which made the party agreeable and pleasant. They seem determined to observe the rules of order and propriety in all their social recreations.

In order to avoid much of the confusion usually attending public parties, a dance committee of three responsible men has been appointed to regulate and manage all public parties got up in this Ward. This arrangement is already proving an excellent modulator. Our Bishop also freely mingles his presence and influence with our social gatherings, which of course is highly appreciated.

Signs are already visible of a social reform among the female youth, specially, of this place. A desire seems to be coming over this class to live a better life. As aids to our youth, societies are being formed for moral, intellectual, and spiritual improvement.

Respectfully, H. W. B.

An Explanation.

Editor Enterprise:—During the sitting of the grand jury at its last session in Beaver, I noticed in your paper that among the findings of said grand jury, was an indictment against our townman Isaac Riddle, for larceny. Knowing Mr. R. to be a man of thrift and wealth, it naturally created a sensation in my mind, and the community generally was taken by surprise. While I do not wish to prejudice the case, I think justice to the accused, without prejudice to the pending trial, requires an explanation which I propose to make as the result of an impartial examination. It seems that Mr. R. has a large amount of stock running on the range, hence necessarily spends considerable time in looking after them. A third party having some cattle running at large asks Mr. R. in case he find any of his to bring them in and he would pay him for his trouble, Mr. R. finds three head belonging to said party and drives them in, but the owner is gone from home and has no agent to receive said stock; the grass is destroyed with drouth and rabbits—to turn the cattle out was running a great risk of their entire loss to the owner, hence Mr. R. decided to have them appraised and turned into the Beaver Co-op Stock Raising Company's herd in the owner's name or to his credit." I have examined the said company's books and find that they fully justify the above statement. ZED.

"MOTHER SHIPTON'S PROPHECY."

The following, which is known as "Mother Shipton's Prophecy," was first published in 1488, and republished in 1641. It will be noticed that all the events predicted in it, except that mentioned in the last two lines—which is still in the future, have already come to pass:

Carriages without horses shall go,
And accidents fill the world with woe.
Around the world thoughts shall fly
In the twinkling of an eye.
Water shall yet more wonders do;
Now strange, yet shall be true.
The world upside down shall be,
And gold be found at root of tree.
Through hills man shall ride,
And no horse or ass be at his side.
Under water men shall walk,
Shall ride, shall sleep, shall talk.
In the air men shall be seen,
In white, in black, and green.
Iron the water shall float,
As easy as a wooden boat.
Gold shall be found, and found
In a land that's not now known.
Fire and water shall wonders do,
England shall at last admit a Jew.
The world to an end shall come
In eighteen hundred and eighty-one.

In compliance with a number of requests we publish the foregoing.
