

CHARLES D. HENRY GETS FOUR YEARS

Young Embezzler Sentenced by Judge Stewart This Morning.

FORGER'S STIFF SENTENCE.

Frank Blanchard Sent Up for Three Years—Robert Giggi Found Guilty of Neglecting Family.

Charles D. Henry, the embezzler, was sentenced by Judge Stewart this morning to serve four years in the penitentiary. Henry was charged with embezzling $75 from Ora E. Upp, his employer, and on last Wednesday, pleaded guilty to the charge.

When asked by the court if he had anything to say why sentence should not be passed upon him, he said that he was guilty of the crime, but that he had no criminal intent in the matter, that he merely lost the money gambling. He said further that he did not take the amount of $75 as was reported, but the amount embezzled would not reach $100. He denied that he caused Mr. Upp to go into bankruptcy, but that he was merely a bankrupt when Henry went into partnership with him.

Upon being questioned by the court, he stated that he had been convicted for $25 and passed the same upon Thomas J. Nipper, received a sentence of three years in the state prison for his crime.

He had nothing to say against the court passing sentence upon him. To the court's questions he answered that he was 20 years old, had never been convicted before of any crime, and that this was his first offense.

BLANCHARD GETS THREE YEARS.

Frank M. Blanchard, who forged the name of Mrs. C. E. Kennedy to a check for $25 and passed the same upon Thomas J. Nipper, received a sentence of three years in the state prison for his crime.

He had nothing to say against the court passing sentence upon him. To the court's questions he answered that he was 20 years old, had never been convicted before of any crime, and that this was his first offense.

George Moore, the old soldier who, some time ago, pleaded guilty to the crime of petit larceny, and who has been in jail waiting for the Grand Jury to raise money to send him home, was sentenced to three months in the county jail for failing to appear for trial.

He was charged with failing to appear for trial on March 1, 1902, and was sentenced to three months in the county jail for failing to appear for trial.

KEY CHIN'S CASE GOES OVER.

Key Chin, the Chinese boy charged with being incorrigible and likewise incurable from a penchant for misdeeds, was not tried before Judge Stewart this morning, but it is said the case will be disposed of within ten days.

ROBERT GIGGI GUILTY.

Robert Giggi, who was convicted by Judge Diehl and fined $30 for neglect to provide for his one-year-old child, and who appeared in court again today, was found guilty by Judge Stewart this morning and found guilty. He was ordered to appear on March 15th for sentence.

CUMMUCK GETS $700.

D. F. Walker, by his attorney, today consented to a judgment of $700 against him and in favor of H. P. Cummock, the elevator boy who had his foot crushed by the elevator in the D. F. Walker building some time ago. In the complaint, which was filed today, plaintiff asked for $1,000 damages, but the suit was compromised by Mr. Walker consenting to a judgment against him for $700.

DAMAGE SUITS.

Geo. O. Poulsen Sues for $10,200 for Injuries Sustained.

George O. Poulsen, by his guardian ad litem, Andrew Poulsen, today filed suit against the American Smelting and Refining company to collect $10,200 damages for injuries alleged to have been received by plaintiff while in the employ of defendant and through its negligence.

The complaint alleges that on Oct. 13, 1901, the plaintiff was engaged in running a lot of slag from the smelter to the dump and upon crossing the bridge, over which the track runs, it gave way and precipitated him to the ground, the plaintiff and contents of his clothing being injured permanently to his damage in the sum of $10,000. He alleges that he had paid $200 for medical treatment and for total damages in the sum of $10,200.

SCHOFIELD ESTATE.

Will of Late Susanah Schofield was Filed This Morning.

Nephi Y. Schofield, Amelia J. Reynolds and Isabella P. Schofield today petitioned the court for the appointment of the first named as executor of the estate of the late Susanah Schofield, deceased, as provided in her will. They also filed the will of decedent.

By the terms of the will the deceased left her estate valued at $4,233 to her children, each receiving one-fifth. That amount ($846.60) was evidenced by a promissory note signed by W. J. Schofield and J. W. Scheld, and Nephi was given to secure the purchase price of 1844 head of sheep.

In their petition it is stated that the note was worthless but that the makers of the note agreed to turn over to N. Y. Schofield, as trustee for the heirs, 2,000 head of sheep in settlement thereof.

FEDERAL COURT.

C. A. Eklund, a well known tailor of Ogden, today filed a petition in bankruptcy in the federal court. His debts are scheduled at $3,327.78, while his assets amount to only $150, but they are claimed to be exempt, as they consist of household goods and machinery used in his trade. Most of his creditors are eastern wholesale tailoring firms.

DIED AT ST. MARK'S.

BEGIN WORK ON GRADE.

Utah Construction Company Start on S. P. Cut-off Monday.

(Special to the "News.") Ogden, March 1.—The Utah Construction company has received notification from San Francisco that its bid on the grade work between Ogden and the lake on the Southern Pacific cut-off has been accepted. The company declines to give out the amount of the bid, but W. H. Wattis stated today that work would begin on Monday morning next. The first grading camp will be located at or near West Weber and there will be 12 camps or sets of grades between Ogden and the shore of the lake. The grade for that distance, which is almost a straight line for 15 miles, must be completed within three months.

Engineer Mariner, of the Southern company, is in Ogden preparing to perform any engineering or surveying work on the grade that may be necessary.

The city council held a special meeting last night to consider the matter of paving Washington avenue. A long and

SNOW AFTER BARTCH.

Says Justice of Supreme Court Conspired Against Him.

Justice George W. Bartch of the Supreme court was the subject of much criticism at the hands of Alviras E. Snow in an answer filed yesterday afternoon in the case of C. D. Morrison vs. Alviras E. Snow, the Morrison Mining company and others.

The complaint, which was filed by Morrison several months ago, and later amended, alleged that Snow had entered into a conspiracy to defraud Morrison of a large number of shares of the stock of the Morrison company, by prevailing upon him to sell 145,000 shares to Snow for $150,000.

Mr. Snow, in his answer, denies that he defrauded the plaintiff. He then avers that Justice Bartch, Justice Minors, Mayor Thompson, Bishop H. B. Clawson and others are stockholders in the company, Justice Bartch being president. The latter by reason of his authority to Snow neglected and refused to call a meeting of the directors to levy the assessment complained of by Morrison, although it was needed and still is needed, as is recognized by other stockholders.

Regarding the purchase of Morrison's stock by Snow, the answer alleges that Morrison was satisfied until Justice Bartch conspired with him to prevail upon him to start the suit. After the purchase of the stock, Snow says that Justice Bartch demanded that the stock be sold to him, and that Snow refused to do so, whereupon it is alleged that Justice Bartch used his personal and judicial influence to induce Morrison to bring the suit.

The answer further alleges that Justice Bartch has acted in a hostile manner towards the interests of the company by personally advising and directing the locating by W. H. Child of some claims which already belonged to the Morrison Mining company.

Snow also charges that, when more than half of the stockholders requested him to call a meeting to remove Justice Bartch from the presidency, by reason of his neglect of duties and malfeasance in office, Morrison, acting under the advice of Justice Bartch, procured an injunction to prevent the defendants from holding the meeting.

In conclusion, the answer alleges, up to and including the date of the filing of this information and belief that the facts set forth shall be divided between Morrison and Justice Bartch. For all of which, Snow alleges, he has been
