FROM TUESDAY'S DAILY, FEB. 14.

Willets' Bill .- In the Congressional House of Representatives today, Willets, from the committee on judiciary reported a bill to prevent persons living in bigamy or polygamy from holding any civil office of trust or profit in any of the Territories of the United States, and from being delegates to Congress. It was placed on the House calendar.

Wyatt was approaching the entrance of a dance house, of which he is proprietor, he was accosted by Harry Mix, a professional jockey, and after a brief squabble in regard to a money difficulty which existed between them, Wyatt drew a revolver and struck Mix on the head, knocking him down and inflicting a severe but not fatal scalp wound. A third party, named Isaac VanZant, a friend of Mix, then took a hand in the melee, and six or seven shotswere exchanged between hlm and Wyatt. One of the balls struck the latter, penetrating the groin, about three inches to the right of the navel. He now lies in a critical condition and the case is considered hopeless. Van Zant was arrested.

Narrow Escape.—The Southern Utonian (Beaver) tells the following about a narrow escape of Joseph Ash from being accidentally killed: "Last Monday morning Joseph Ash of this town had one of the closest calls that falls to the lot of our average laboring citizens. It seemed that he and F. O. Wilden were engaged in deepening and curbing a well for Dr. Herbert; Ash taking the work at the bottom, and Wilden attending to the windlass on top. At the time in question the latter was in the act of lowering a large bucket heavily loaded with curbing rock, when from some unexplained cause, the windlass roller suddenly slipped out of its bearings, falling along with rope, bucket and contents upon the unfortunate man 53 feet below; for a moment it was feared that he was killed, but in a few minutes his faint voice was heard calling for help, and a man was sent down to aid him to come up. Dr. Christian was summoned without delay, and upon his making an examination, agreeably surprised everyone by announcing that slthough badly cut and bruised, no bones were broken and that a endeavored to carry out his fatherly seeker, capitalist and tourist. Ogden and Wyoming Railroad .-The Ogden Herald publishes particulars concerning the project to build a railroad from that town to the Mammoth coal beds on the Wyoming border.

The following are the names of the incorporators, each of whom has subscribed for 100 shares: John S. Lewis; J. M. Langsdorf, W. G. Child, Wm. Van Dyke, R. J. Hill, E. A. Shiells, L. P. Highee, Wm. Beers, Joseph Clark, R. M. Dooly, all of Ogden; and F. A. Hammond, of Huntsville.

This makes 11,000 shares subscribed, more than enough to satisfy the requirements of the law and to start the business on its boom.

as follows: John S. Lewis, President; F. A. Hammond, Vice Pres't;

Wm. Van Dyke, Treasurer: Wm. Beers, Secretary;

A. Shiells, Wm. Van Dike, R. J.

The capital stock of the enterprise, as we "stated before is $2,000,-000, in 20,000 shares, at $100 each.

It is proposed to commence operations at the end of the road as soon as the weather will permit and to push the work vigorously ahead to an early completion.

THE HOGAN SUICIDE.

THE DECEASED WROTE A LETTER TO BISHOP BROWN, OF BOUN-TIFUL.

Justice Thomas F. Fisher, of the South precinct of Davis County, sends us the following particulars of the suicide of yesterday:

"As the justice of the peace who held the inquest on the body of the man, Paul Hogan, who committed suicide yesterday, in this south pre cinct, I have thought you should be informed of the facts.

The first witness, Charles R. Hartley, stated that about 11.30 a.m., yesterday, he was passing a point known as Wardel's crossing, near the U. C. 'railway. Hesaw deroad, on his back, with a pistol lying on his body. Supposing him a drunken man, he passed on. Shortly after, Wm. Salter and Joseph Moss came upon the body and discovered life to be extinct. A pistol and a letter addressed to Bishop Wm. Brown were lying by his side. They gave me information of the matter. The body proved to be that of Paul Hogan, a resident of this place, a man about 30 years of age, raised here, married and had one child. He bore a most excellent character, but was often affected with despondency. I send you a copy of the inquisition."

THE TOOELE EMBEZZLEMEN CASE.

In the Third District Court, at 10 o'clock this morning, the consideration of the case of Tooele County against Edward Bird, charged with embezzling about $1,100 of county funds was resumed.

Upon the question of the official capacity in which Mr. Bird acted,

Mr. F. M. Lyman testified that Mr. Bird was acting as deputy assessor and co lector in Tooele County. in 1878, and acted in that position until March, 1879. Mr. Mitchell and Bird were the chief persons acting in those offices. The general public transacted their business, with Bird or Mitchell. Records introduced which witness testified were kept in the handwriting of defendant.

Mr. John C. Sharp testified that in 1878, Bird was acting as deputy assessor and collector of Tooele County. Was acquainted with Mr. Mitchell, assessor and collector.

Cross-examined-I was acting as collector for Bird for two years, and delivered all moneys collected to him, and also looked to Bird for remuneration for my services. In paying moneys collected to Mitchell or Bird, always received receipts in the name of those paying such taxes. Mr. Bird I supposed to be a deputy assessor and collector, as he always did all of the assessing and collecting in the community where I lived. I was only deputy collector in the matter of transient herds. Bird always signed the tax receipts.

Mr. John Rydalch knew Bird as deputy collector. I was acting under him. He was acting in that capacity all the time that I was so acting. Cross examination-I was collector in the matter of sheep herds. 1 sent the money I collected to Mr. Bird, but considered Mitchell as chief assessor and collector.

Prosecution rests. Mr. Enoch Martin, sworn for the defense, was county clerk in 1878; was so acting till March 29, 1879. Had charge of county records. The assessment blanks for sheep herds were left in my office after hey had been filled up. Mr. Mitchell asked for more time from the County Caurt as he had had some trouble in collecting from transient herds. The only record of the collections is the stubbs in the receipt books. On March 29, 1879, Mr. Lyman and others forcibly took the office away from me and I have since had no control of the books. The sheep herd accounts were then in the office.

Cross examined: There was nothing else in the book except the sheep herd accounts. It may have been several days prior to the 29th of March, 1879, when I last saw that record. Don't know where that record is Re-direct-There were between 50 and 75 men in the mob who wrested the office away from me.

On showing the discrepancy to Mr. Martin he appeared sorry and wished to correct the error. It was not done and the moneys for which Bird gave receipts were not accounted for.

Cross-examined .- I told Martin if he did not issue the certificates I would prosecute him before the court. There iwere probably not more than 30 persons in the posse which took the offices.

Enoch Martin re-called. In regard to signing the certificates of election, I did not do so voluntarily. Mr. Lyman put his fist in my face, and said he would have me put in the "cage" if I did not issue the certificates.

The arguments were then made by the respective attorneys. This afternoon the jury came into court with a verdict of not guilty.
