SAN JUAN NEWS.

CROP PROSPECTS—RESOURCES OF THE COUNTRY—MURDER OF INDIANS BY COWBOYS—RETALIATION COMMENCED.

DURANGO, Colo., July 3d, 1885.

Editor Deseret News:

I left Bluff City, San Juan Co., Utah, on the 23rd. The members of my family who are there and the Saints at Bluff were then all well, and the prospects for crops were good. The fruit, what little there is, also looks very promising. It is a fine country for fruit and stock raising. I visited the Saints at

BURNHAM,

New Mexico, a little ward situated on the San Juan River, some sixty miles from this place, last Sunday, and had a good time. Its prospects are good, but the settlers are too few in numbers to contend with the labor attending all new settlements. I came by the way of La Plata River, a stream which runs into the San Juan River just above Burnham. Here I found a few families of Saints, located on some rich, heavy, bottom lands, about six miles from Farmington down the river. They, too, need help to hold the situation. Thirty families can find homes here, and in one of the finest climates on the earth.

We are in the midst of an

INDIAN OUTBREAK.

Some cowboys murdered a quiet, peaceable, old Indian and his family while out hunting. There has been one white man killed and his wife wounded. The cowboys have brought on the trouble and now want the question settled as to whether they are to leave or the Indians.

I shall set out on my return to northern Utah as soon as I get back to Bluff City, I hope by the 10th inst.

Yours as ever,

F. A. HAMMOND.

CORRESPONDENCE.

FATALITY AT SALINA.

A WOMAN SO DREADFULLY BURED AS TO CAUSE HER DEATH.

SALINA, Sevier County, Utah, July 6th, 1885.

Editor Deseret News:

In the spring a family by the name of Harper came to our town with the intention of making this place their home. They were not in the Church, but known to most of the people here as a respectable family. On January 1st Mr. Harper was at work up the cañon. His little daughter had been to a meeting, and the mother left a candle burning on a chair and went to sleep. When the child came home she went to bed and left the candle still burning, and it being close to the mother's bed set the clothes on fire. Mrs. Harper awoke from the heat, and saw the bed in flames. She got her two little children out of the bed when she was herself in flames, and when her children were safe she ran out of doors to call for help. Sister Martin and her daughter came quickly and threw water over her from a barrel close by, until the fire was extinguished, when it was discovered that the poor woman was dreadfully burned. The neighbors did all they could to ease her pains, but after lingering in great agony she died at 1.45 a. m., on the 3d of July, and was buried on the fourth. She was aged 34 years, and leaves a husband and four children to mourn her death. Respectfully, WM. McFADYEN.

DEATH OF JOSEPH HALLIDAY

Moscow, Lamar Co., Ala., June 17, 1885.

Editor Deseret News:

With sorrow I announce the demise of Brother Joseph Halliday, which took place April 21, 1885.

Deceased was born July 8, 1816, in South Carolina. His father removed to this State when he was two years of age. About 1845 the Elders first appeared in this part.

Uncle Joseph, as he was familiarly called by all who knew him, was a friend to them from the first. In 1868 the Elders again came to this part and were found as home and resting place under his roof. In 1870, part of his family having joined the Church, he emigrated to Utah, and settled in Santaquin, Utah Co.

In 1871, his family being desirous of seeing their relatives, he returned to this State. A few years after the Elders again came to this part, since which time he, with others of his family who emigrated to Utah and returned, has united with the Church, and a branch of about thirty members has been organized. He was baptized into the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints by Elder A. Cazier, in Bogue Creek, Lamar Co., Alabama, March 24, 1884.

Brother Halliday was a kind and affectionate husband and father. His generosity was proverbial, and he was especially beloved by the poorer classes, and respected by all who knew him.

He leaves a wife and numerous relatives and friends to mourn his loss.

Your brother in the Gospel,

J. W. B.

"Crossest Man in Alabama."

"De crossest man in Alabama lives dar," said the driver as we approached a way-side home, near Selma, Ala., to to ask accommodations for the night. At supper, and after it, "mine host" scowled at every one, found fault with everything earthly, and I was wondering if he would not growl if the heavenly halo didn't fit him, when incidental mention being made of the comet of 1882, he said: "I didn't like its form, its tail should have been fan shaped."

But, next morning, he appeared half-offended at our offering pay for his hospitality! My companion, however, made him accept as a present a sample from his case of goods.

Six weeks later I drew up at the same house. The planter stepped lithely from the porch, and greeted me cordially. I could scarcely believe that this clear complexioned, bright-eyed, animated fellow, and the morose being of a few weeks back, were the same. He inquired after my companion of the former visit and regretted he was not with me. "Yes," said his wife, "we are both much indebted to him."

"How?" I asked in surprise.

"For this wonderful change in my husband. Your friend when leaving, handed him a bottle of Warner's safe cure. He took it and two other bottles, and now—" "And now," he broke in, "from an ill-feeling, growling old bear, I am healthy and so cheerful my wife declares she has fallen in love with me again!"

It has made over again a thousand love matches, and keeps sweet the tempers of the family circle everywhere.—Copyrighted. Used by permission of American Rural Home.
