

BY TELEGRAPH AMERICAN.

NEW YORK, 24.—The Times has the following on the ending of the democratic committee meeting:

"The celebration at Willard's tonight was a very disgraceful exhibition of the influence of rum in the democratic council. Bands of music assembled in front of the main entrance and the music called together a handful of negroes and loafers. The Ohio headquarters were directly above the main entrance of the hotel, and the cat-calls of boot-blacks induced some of those in the room to send Senator Pendleton out upon the balcony to make a speech. His remarks were brief and formal, and at their close, he declared that the Cincinnati nominee would be honorably, legally and fairly elected, and would be inaugurated. The scene, even from the beginning of the performance, was a ludicrous one, for Pendleton was talking to the air; the persons before him could not be called an audience. After he had returned to the room, a few of the most sober visitors from New York were pushed through the window and set up before the rabble, to be greeted with hoots and wails that were by no means complimentary. Congressman Hill, of the Sixth District, insisted upon expressing his sentiments, although his utterances were far from clear. 'The democrats,' he cried, 'will nominate their candidate in Cincinnati, and we will inaugurate him whether he is elected or not.'"

After he had made this sentiment, his friends pulled him back into the room and J. Frank McKinney, chairman of the Democratic State Central Committee of Ohio, took his place. The speaker promised that the democrats would carry Ohio for the Cincinnati nominee, and would furnish an army of 350,000 able-bodied men to inaugurate him.

Armstrong, of the Cleveland Plain Dealer, whose thick utterances and wild gestures amused the boys below, was ridiculed unmercifully. This treatment made him angry and caused him to indulge in profanity, whereupon his friends quickly withdrew him to the seclusion of the Ohio headquarters. After one or two men, who were under the influence of strong simulents had spoken in an incoherent way, the performance came to an end, and the band were invited to drink.

Edward Cowley, the convicted manager of the Shepherd's Fold, was in court again to-day, this time on a writ of habeas corpus. Judge Daniels dismissed the writ and Cowley was remanded to the custody of the sheriff.

CHICAGO, 24.—The Journal's Washington special says: The routine of proceedings in the House to-day was enlivened by Representative Reagan, Speaker Randall and others regarding the alleged remark of the first named that the Speaker had packed the commerce committee against the Inter-State commerce bill. Reagan denied the correctness of the story, and the Speaker said he was satisfied the statement had not been made by them. There was quite a breezy passage between Mc Lane and Reagan about what the latter had said regarding the action of the majority of the commerce committee.

A colored man named Brown and his wife, have been arrested at Galesburg on suspicion of having robbed the Galesburg bank of several thousand dollars, part of which was found in their house. Some excited citizens took their son to the outskirts of the town and by threats of hanging, got from him a full confession, throwing the guilt also on Bill Stamps, of Knoxville, Lew Ellsworth and Ed. Adle, of Maquon, all of whom have been arrested.

A Bismarck special says: The worst snow storm ever known in the Northwest raged here two days. For two months a succession of storms has interrupted travel on the Northern Pacific railroad, causing a very large loss to the road, and to the Black Hills Stage Company. But three trains from the East have arrived since February 1st. Extension, improvements and repairs are suspended.

NEW YORK, 25.—The Herald has a vigorous article on the threatened trouble in San Francisco, wherein Kallach and the "Sand lot" Constitution are handled without gloves. The writer takes the ground that the President has the right to interfere immediately, even without the consent of California to enforce national treaty obligations. The article closed thus: "The violation of the treaty by California is an act of rebellion against the federal authorities and should be vigorously put down like any other rebellion. If the local powers refuse or neglect to afford protection, it is the duty of the President to supply it, and all reasonable citizens will rejoice to see the Sand Lot demagogues receive the long-needed lesson.

The Herald's Irish Relief Fund is now $244,000.

The Herald's Madrid special says: The case of Gonzales Oterio, the regicide, came before the higher court on appeal yesterday. The public prosecutor, in a speech two hours in length, energetically demanded the confirmation of the extreme penalty and attacked the medical report of the doctors, which was favorable to the accused. He said that reprehension was necessary when such a crime became in Europe so frequent. The same counsel as at the first trial defended the regicide, repeating his plea on the ground of the irresponsibility and imbecility of his client, and urging the court to grant a medical investigation and at least the extenuating circumstances. He was called to order by the judges, when he ventured to criticize the custom of Spain of making the judge at the first trial of criminal cases the same magistrate who prepared the case for their own prosecution. The prevailing opinion in legal circles is that the sentence will be confirmed. It will be sent to the Supreme Court on a point of law and then become definitive. In political any social circles of Madrid the attempt on the Emperor of Russia caused such a deep sensation that very few people now doubt that the sentence against Oterio will be carried out.

A later Madrid dispatch says: The court of appeal has confirmed the sentence on Oterio, the would-be assassin of the King. A final appeal will be made to the court of cassation.

SAN FRANCISCO, 25.—The board of supervisors last evening passed an ordinance to increase the police force to 400 men. The ostensible reason was for the purpose of giving employment to needy men. At a meeting of the 11th Ward Club of Workingmen last evening, resolutions were adopted stating that there was an attempt to be made to prevent the condemnation of China town, and that being law abiding citizens they would defend with their lives their leaders in enforcing the law, and offer a thousand armed men to aid the government in carrying out its provisions. Speaking to this resolution, Kearney said he had been informed from a reliable source of a Chinese crusade, the Chinese Six Companies and some of the merchants being the instigators and the police department and the national guard the tools; that the enemies of the workingmen were to inaugurate the trouble by starting a fire or row; then Kearney and the mayor were to be assassinated by policemen in the disguise, and that Chinese armed to the teeth were to be let loose to massacre men, women and children, selecting the laboring population of the city as their victims. Regarding the case now before the United States circuit court involving the constitutionality of the law forbidding corporations to employ Chinese, we would accept no decision but that of the people and they say the Chinese must go. He would leave a list of names of persons that must be guillotined in case he was assassinated as his assassination would be a blow at every workingman and woman in the civilized world. He announced that to-morrow the ward presidents, mayor, and workingmen city officials would meet at the headquarters of the party, for a purpose not stated.

The unemployed, yesterday, waited upon Alex. Sharon, of the Palace Hotel, who declined to allow them interference with his business. The leaders of the movement informed the crowd of the result and added that in their opinion it was no harm to kill such a man.

Mrs. Smith who has been prominent in the movement lately, suggested dynamite as a means of removing the Chinatown nuisance.

Parades will be continued during the day. Unemployed women are joining the ranks.

MONTPELIER, Vermont, 25.—The greater part of the delegates to the State convention, to-morrow, to choose a delegation to the Chicago convention, have arrived here. Every one of the delegation express strongly against a third term, and the feeling for Edmunds as first choice is very strong.

ALBANY, 25.—A fire last night destroyed the Delevan block. The loss is estimated at over $100,000.

OMAHA, 25.—Superintendent Clarke announces that the Union Pacific will immediately commence a broad gauge road from Cheyenne to the Yellowstone National Park, with a Deadwood branch, and that another will be built from Echo to Park City, in Parley's Park, Utah.

PHILADELPHIA, 25.—The Times on account of the production of Bayard's secession speech in Dover, in 1861, abandons him for the campaign.

BOSTON, 25.—The newly arranged democratic harmony includes Mayor Prince for Congress of the 4th district, Leopold G. Morse for Mayor of Boston, Gaston for Governor, Ben Butler to await a cabinet position.

FARGO, 25.—Thirty passengers arrived from the snow bound trains, walking eight miles. The Bismarck workmen have used up five locomotives, breaking the snow which is like battering a stone wall.

PAROWAN RELIEF SOCIETY.

Conference—Fatal Occurrence.

PAROWAN, Feb. 18, 1880.

Editors Deseret News:

On the 14th and 15th inst., the sisters of the Relief Societies of the Parowan Stake of Zion held their first general conference at Parowan, Iron Co.

On the stand were Sister Ellen W. Lunt, of Cedar City, president of the Relief Societies of the Stake with her counselors Sister Mary Ann Lunt of Cedar City and Hulda A. Mitchell, of Parowan, Mrs. Sarah Chatterley, Secretary of the Stake Organization, Mrs. Sage Jones, president of the Cedar City relief society and Mrs. Hunthank, all of Cedar City, also a number of the brethren and sisters of the place and Paragonah.

During the conference Sister Augusta Mitchell was appointed and ordained President of the Relief Society of Parowan, (vice Sister Emma Smith resigned), with Sisters Mary Stevens and Cornelia Mortensen as her counselors. A primary association was organized with Sister Mary Durham as president and Sisters Annie Fowler and Metie Rasmussen as her counselors.

The teachings and instruction of the Sisters during the conference were excellent, so much so that some of the brethren expressed the hope that the Sisters' conferences might be many and not far between. This was no silly puff, but a well deserved meed of praise.

One circumstance occurred to mar the general joy and cast a gloom over the whole place. Sister Chatterley, of Cedar, went to meeting on the afternoon of the first day of conference, leaving a little child, a girl of 18 months old, with its sister, 10 years old, at the house of W. C. McGregor. The child had a bad cough, the mother before going to meeting gave it a few drops of Green's Bosh-ee's German Syrup, and put the bottle up on a shelf out of the way. While at meeting, the little girl with another who came in to see her, when the baby cried, got down the syrup and gave to the child, with the best intentions undoubtedly. The syrup being sweet, the child cried for more. The little girl, thinking no harm, gave her baby sister nearly two tablespoonfuls. The family of Brother McGregor was busy in the kitchen while this was going on in the front room and were not aware of it. The mischief done was not known till too late to administer an antidote with effect. Everything was done that could be thought of or suggested, but without avail; the child died at 5 o'clock in the morning of the 15th instant. The parents, Bro. John Chatterley and his wife, are grief-stricken over losing their child so suddenly and in such a way. We pray that God may comfort their hearts; in their loss they have the deepest sympathy of the people here and at their home in Cedar City. Respectfully, W. C. MCGREGOR.

Conference assembled on the 14th of February, as per adjournment. There were present of the Presidency of the Stake, Councilors H. Beal and J. B. Maiben, also the Bishops were well represented. Opened by singing and prayer. Pres. Maiben reviewed the dealings of the Lord with this people, admonished the Saints to be faithful in the discharge of the duties of their religion, and to embrace every opportunity afforded them to meet together, that thereby they might strengthen each other, and thus be enabled to keep the commandments of God.

Bishop Jensen, of Manti, South Ward, Olson, of Spring City, Irons, of Moroni, each addressed the Conference a short time and gave good reports of their respective wards.

2 p. m.

Opened by the usual exercises. A. H. Lund read the statistical report of the wards comprising the Stake. Also report of the Stake Superintendent of Sunday Schools, J. B. Maiben.

Bishop Reid, of Manti North Ward, reported his ward in good condition, addressed the conference on the principle of co-operation, showed that where monopoly exists there could not be union. Bishop Seely, of Mount Pleasant, said his ward was doing pretty well, had labored faithfully in the cañon during the winter in getting out timber for the temple.

Pres. Beal said that it was the duty of the brethren who are possessed with means to use it for the development of other interests as well as merchandising, spoke upon the advantages to be derived by doing our own importing business, but which is now largely done by those who are not of our faith; exhorted the Saints to unite together and not countenance anything that has a tendency to divide their interests.

Sunday, 10 a. m.

Singing and prayer. Pres. Maiben read the report of the receipts and disbursements of the temple committee for the quarter ending February, 1880, also the total disbursements to the above date.

Elder W. H. Folsom addressed the conference upon the gathering of Israel in this dispensation, the necessity of building temples wherein the ordinances of the gospel may be administered and the laws of God revealed; recounted some of the scenes of persecution and suffering that he had witnessed, also some of the operations of the wicked when the Saints were laboring to build temples; felt thankful for the hearty response of the people of this Stake in helping forward the work.

Elder James, from Salt Lake City, addressed the conference a short time; bore testimony to the unanimity of feeling and spirit that characterizes the Latter-day Saints.

2 p. m.

Singing and prayer. Sacrament administered.

Elder James Wareham addressed the conference upon the fulfillment of the predictions of the Prophet Joseph, and the necessity of being guided by direct revelation; the Lord is not delaying his coming as some vainly suppose; the world by their discoveries are themselves demonstrating the truth of the Book of Mormon.

President Maiben presented the general authorities of the Church, all of whom were unanimously sustained; also the authorities of this Stake, who were likewise sustained unanimously, except Bishop Draper, whose resignation was read to the conference and accepted.

Bishops Olson, Reese, Anderson and Bartholomew each addressed the conference a short time, and reported their wards in good condition.

President Beal advised those who had relatives and friends in the old countries who wished to be helped out, to first ascertain their standing in the Church through the presiding authorities in those lands before asking the saints here to help them to fetch them here. Instanted the leaders of this Church as examples of integrity for the Latter-day Saints to pattern after.

Conference adjourned, to meet at Mount Pleasant on the 17th of May next, at 10 a. m.

Dismissed by singing and benediction.

GEORGE TAYLOR, Clerk of Conference.

Important to Wool Growers!

I take pleasure in announcing that I am making a pure "TO-BACCO SHEEP DIP" from the best Kentucky Leaf, which makes an article of uniform strength and purity, without the addition of poisonous substances, and should be diluted 100 parts to one (although safe to use at any degree of strength) for dipping sheep.

This dip is convenient for use, as it only requires water to dilute it. As tobacco is so well known to wool growers who have used the same, I can only add that I have it in this convenient form for them—put up in one and five gallon tin packages, sealed tightly.

Order either of my Sheep Dips, viz: Concentrated Extract of Tobacco. Also Non-Poisonous Sheep Dip. Price per Gallon:
