DESERET EVENING NEWS: SATURDAY, MAY 9, 1903.

Such is the Enphemism Employed to Plaster the Wounded Feeling of Supt. of Free Delivery System.

Washington, May 8 .- The investigation of the affairs of the postoffice department, which has been dragging along for two months, took a sensational turn this afternoon, when, by order of Postmaster-General Payne, August W. Machen, general superintendent of the free delivery system, and one of the most widely known government officials in the United States, was relieved from his duties. and Postoffice Inspector M. C. Fosnes was designated to take charge of that service. The change will take effect tomorrow morning, when Mr. Fosnes will assume charge of the free delivery service, and , at the same time that service will pass under the control of the office of the fourth assistant postmaster-general. Heretofore it has been under the juricdiction of the first assistant.

The action of the postmaster-general was taken on the written recommenda-tion of the fourth assistant postmas-ter-general, who is directing the inves-tigation of the affairs of the depart-ment, that the transfer of Mr. Machen's bureau to his jurisdiction and its administration by a postoffice inspector would expedite the investigation. In ordering the change the postmaster-general gave Mr. Machen "leave of absence"until the investigation is concluded.

Mr. Machen tonight was not inclined to talk, but expressed confidence that to talk, but expressed confidence that he could rebut allegations made against him. He said: "I have no fear of not being able to meet any and all of the charges that have been made under this investigation. I take the action of the department to be a step toward ex-pediting and closing up the investiga-tion as promptly as possible, and de-signed to give the fourth assistant an opportunity of getting a thorough in-sight into the free delivery service." There are so many women, especially married women, who drag themselves wearily around from year to year without any particular disease, and yet miserable beyond description. They ache and tremble and throb, growing more nervous, tired and debilitated every day.

For this class of sufferers Peruna is the most perfect remedy in existence. It relieves, it soothes, it quiets, it strengthens, and no tired, overworked woman in the land should be without Peruna in the house for a single day. PAYNE'S DECISION.

Late this afternoon, before a large number of newspaper men, Mr. Payne announced his decision and read the correspondence between himself and Mr. Machen, together with the recom mendation of the fourth assistant. The latter's recommendation, made under date of yesterday, was made as follows:

"In order to complete the departmental investigation now in progress in a more expeditious and satisfactory manner. I beg to request that the division of free delivery be temporariy assigned to the bureau of the fourth assigned to the bureau of the Fourin assistant postmaster-general, and that I be authorized to assign a postoffice inspector of said division during the continuance of this investigation."

LETTER TO MACHEN.

The letter of the postmaster-general to Mr. Machen was as follows: "I am in receipt of a request from the fourth assistant postmaster-general that, the division of free delivery be temporarily assigned to his bureau and that he be authorized to assign a postoffice inspector as the acting general superintendent of said division during the continuance of the investigation now in progress. In conformity with this request I have issued the following order, to take effect at the comencement of business on the 9th inst.: "The division of free delivory, here-tofore under the supervision of the first assistant postmaster-general. hereby transferred and assigned to the fourth assistant postmaster-general and the regulations of the department are hmended in conformity therewith." "You are hereby granted leave of ab sence until the investigation is conclud-ed, and will turn over the division of free delivery to the control of M. C. Fosnes, postoffice inspector, who has been designated as the acting general superintendent of the free delivery sys-tem."

MACHEN'S REPLY.

Following was Mr. Machen's reply: "I am in receipt of your letter of this date advising me of your order, to take effect on the 9th inst, transferring the enect on the status, transferring the division of free delivery from the su-pervision of the first assistant post-master-general. I also note that I have been granted a leave of absence until the investigation now in progress is concluded, and that during my absence Mr. M. C. Fosmer, courted and the state of the Mr. M. C. Fosnes, postoffice inspector, will'be acting general superintendent of the free delivery system. "In conformity with your instructions will turn the division over to Mr. osnes tomorrow morning. In this connection I desire to state what I have said to you heretofore, that I court the fullest investigation of my official conduct and stand ready at any time to aid in the investigation now in progress, as I am unconscious of having done wrong.

Postmaster-General Payne, in disussing the matter, said he believed the orrespondence told the whole story. He said his conclusion to relieve Mr. Machen was reached yesterday after office bours. family blood taint. Scrofula is bred in the bone, is transmitted from parent to child, the seeds are planted in the seeds are planted in infancy and unless the blood is purged and purified and every atom of ula is sure to develop at Scrotula appeared on the head of my little grandchild when only 18 months old, and spread rapidly over her body. The disease next attacked the eyes and we feared she would lose her sight. Em-uould do nothing to relieve the little in-nocent. It was then that we decided to try S.S. S. That medicine at once made a speedy and complete cure. She is now a young lady, and has never had a sign of the disease to return. MRS. RUTH BERKLY, hoth Street.

150 South 5th Street.

No remedy equals S. S. S. as a cure for Scrofula. It cleanses and builds up the blood, makes it rich and pure, and under the tonic effects of this great Blood Remedy, the general health improves, the digestive organs are strengthened, and there is a gradual but sure return SSS is restored to a normal condition, and the sores, erup-tions, and other symptoms of Scrofula disappear.
