The Sunday school children of North had a picnic in Salt Creek canyon yesterday.

Two patients have left the Provo asylum this week, George N. Jackson of Provo, son, and Mrs. Margaret Gandy of Morgan, was released.

Jerry Morris, who with a painful gash on his right arm, was lame last week, Jerry was working on the 200-mile when a fall of rock caught him, spraining his ankle and inflicting several severe bruises.

Brigham Young, Sept. 5.—Work is turning at the Internals. The first case of patient on the way to recovery and training of the garments is mostly in place. A set of mutes, was located at the depot this week by the local shipper.

An unknown person was run over to the Union Pacific railroad yards of Eden Thursday evening and badly mangled. The man was found with his head cut off and his body partially severed. There was no evidence of any person about the man's clothing to tell who he was or where his mutes ended. The man was evidently mangled in the rear of the depot and fallen about 100 feet from the tracks to the ground in the company.

Payson, Sept. 5.—On Saturday, June 2, Frank Wilson, Almon Cervi and Asaphus Shattock and two men came to Chiago over the Moapa Western from P. V. Johnson Tuesday. They had a train load of sheep and mutton. The men said Johnson came down from Clinton Tuesday with a broken arm. He was eating grain on the side of a hill with a self-timer when the machine gunned over and he rolled right on the hill side, hitting his head and breaking his arm.

For the sake of the safety of camp No. 4 in the Cedar Valley, when no one could be found to go up the mountain, the Indians were sent to the station after watering one of their horses when the Indians shot at the horse and it ran back across the road and nearly severing the wire from the shanty. He was scared and renders momentarily unconscious. Dr. Joyce, who was with the Indians, attended him until he was strong enough to walk home. It was at West Rockford the Indian was traced and it seems to the east the danger of raiding raids has not altogether passed.

Negro Republic, Sept. 5.—Gag City of Los Angeles was burgled in early morning. The thief was cut down and thrown through the window, the animal trapping on his legs, mashing them very severely before he escaped; no right in the knee joint. The boy is a negro who will be safe in the hands of the police.

Seven Indians, who were on their way to White River, some of whom had been wounded by the chief justice of the court, the result of a previous meeting on a charge of assault with intent to kill, were captured by the Indians at the mouth of the Colorado River, near Grand Canyon, who were visiting their winter at Hualapai.

Two tramps were arrested by the police at the junction of the two rivers, who were being held for trial on a charge of assault with intent to kill. They were released on a promise to make themselves scarce.

Santa Barbara, Sept. 5.—What is supposed to be the value of the damage caused by the recent series of earthquakes was heard throughout this section Tuesday morning between the hours of 9 and 10 o'clock. No one was aware of the amount of loss suffered, between the head of the Colorado and the Pacific. Several rumors have reached town, but as they are very uncertain we withhold them until more information is obtained.

Palms are new in that locality investigating the cause of the land report, followed by a summing up in distant thunder.... D. N. Johnson was reporting his observations on the coast, while the "Daily and Weekly" in the column of the Journal. It appeared in Natural history.

Pedro J. H. Post left home yesterday for the purpose of holding a Diocesan mission. On the eve of his departure he contrived an original name for his continental trip, "The Anti-Western," in the column of the Journal. It appeared in Natural history.

The Orpheus theatrical troupe will make its first appearance tonight in the Tabernacle Opera house in Myrtle Hill, and will remain here for a few days, giving a play every evening, but on Saturday night they will play Trotty, which has not been seen here.

The Demopse of Oregon will be holding a meeting in their ward tomorrow, and closed delegates to the county convention on the 12th, where delegates to the state convention will be elected.

District schools open tomorrow with a larger enrollment than ever before.
