

The week has been a comparatively dull one, the festivity of the carnival last week perhaps aiding in the impres-A number of events will transpire next week commencing with the ball to be given by the Society of the Army of the Philippines and continuing with a list of weddings, receptions, dinners, etc. The opera also enters into the social scheme to a considerable extent, a large number of box-parties being planned for the performances of "The Wedding Day."

An interesting event of the week was the wedding of Miss Ada White and Mr. Reed T. Cannon, which took place on Tuesday, the ceremony being per-formed in the Temple at noon, and an elaborate reception taking place in the evening at the bride's home. The rooms were beautifully decorated, the parior where the bridal party received being embowered with roses, palms and vines, and the rear parlor, hall and dining rooms being also bright with flowers and vines. The bride wore a beautiful costume of white satin with trimmings of old lace and carried Her bridesmaids were five little girls, Marguerite, Crilla, Irene, Pauline and Hazel White, all daintily attired. B. T. Cannon acted as best man. An elaborate supper was served at the beautifully decorated table, which extended the length of two rooms with an Identification. rooms with an L formed at one end for the bridal party. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. White, and the groom a son of the late George Q. Cannon. Both have a large number of friends who extend good wishes for their future happiness.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Clark celebrated their fifteenth wedding anniversary on Tuesday night, in a delightful social gathering of friends and relatives at the me of Mr. Clark's father, Hon. John The rooms were decorated with autumn leaves, and the evening was spent with music and other social pastimes. Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Barlow, Mr. and Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Empey, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Madsen, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Mc-Cey, Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Richards, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Groesbeck, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Whittaker, Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Sorenson, Mr. and Mrs. B. B. Brown, and blackberries, old-fashioned can delebra shaded in red and red souvenirs completing the scheme. The parlor was in green and yellow, dahlins being the flowers used. The guests were:

Mrs. Hayward, Mrs. La Motte, Mrs.
Markland, Mrs. Perguson, Mrs. O. L.
Cary, Mrs. D. D. Wallace, Mrs. Packard, Miss Preston, Miss Crawford.

Mrs. Ayers, of Denver, and Miss Fra-zier of Rossland, British Columbia, will be the guests of Mrs. Rachel Maler next week.

A pleasant event of the week was the surprise party perpetrated on Mrs. Maxwell, wife of the well known florist. Maxwell, wife of the well known florist.
Mr. J. L. Maxwell, of 321 east Flith
South. The affair was gotten up by Miss Sarah Maxwell and the guests included Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Jacobson,
Mr. and Mrs. John Black, Mr. and Mrs.
Herbert Urry, Mr. and Mrs. D. P. Feit.

Mrs. S. V. Shelp was hostess at a delightful dinner on Thursday in hon-or of Mrs. Stubblefield. The table was or of Mrs. Stubblefield. The table was artistically decorated in pink, asters of beautiful variety filling a cut glass bowl as centerpiece, and candles with pink shades adding to the pretty effect. The guests were Mrs. Stubblefield Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Tracy, Mr. and Mrs. F. E. McClurrin, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Carpenter, Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Stephens, Mrs. J. T. Donnellan.

Mrs. Stubblefield who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. R. L. Tracy, dur-ing the summer, leaves tomorrow for her home in Louisville.

companying Mrs. Cocks with the piano.

After the program dainty refreshments were served in the dining room

Mrs. Charles Wilkes entertained at luncheon on Monday for Miss Page, of Denver. The color scheme was yellow, which was prettily decorated in green and white. The hostess and guest of honor were assisted in receiving by honor were assisted in receiving of Mrs. P. T. Ryan, of Ogden, and Mrs. W. W. Rivers. Coffee was served by Mrs. Buscher and Mrs. Seabert, and Mrs. Miller and Miss Stevenson pre-Mrs. Miller and Mrs. sided at the punch bowl.

Miss Anna Ridge Early a Washington belle of distinguished ancestry is shortly to marry Renald Rudolph Fairfax of Virginia. The bridegroom comes from one of America's best families in line for the English Fairfax title, being a descendent of the hero of Naseby.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Williams entertained at high-five on Thursday even-ing, the prize winners being Miss Judge and Mr. J. Lewis. The scores and tal-lies were in oriental design and the rooms were decorated with roses and carnations. Present were: Miss Judge, Missfiatch, Miss Wimmer, Miss Lyie Wimmer, Mrs. Jackson, Miss Rita Jackson, Mr. McAllister, Mr. Morris,

Mr. Faust. . . . Mrs. R. S. Hayward was the guest of honor at a luncheon given by Mrs. J E. Galigher yesterday at her residence on First street. The dining room was beautifully decorated in red, corres-ponding with the color of the walls, autumn leaves being used with charming effect. From the chandeliers which were shaded in red, were suspended streamers of narrow red ribbon en-twined with Virginia creeper, and in Sorenson, Mr. and Mrs. B. B. Brown, the center of the table stood a cut Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Dinwoodey, Mr. glass bowl filled with autumn leaves marigolds being used, and a beautiful feature was the Japanese dragon cloth laid over yellow which covered the table, Japanese favors carrying out the oriental scheme. The guests were Miss Pope, Miss Salisbury, Miss Geddes, Miss Dooley, Miss Lena Preston, Miss Donnellan, Miss Laura Sherman, Miss Emma Read, Miss Zane, Mrs. Hayden, Mrs. Roberts, Mrs. Fyler.

Mrs. J. M. Bowman entertained the Whist club last night.

Mrs. E. W. Ferry has returned from California where she has been spending the summer.

Mrs. Schoppe gave a shower party on Thursday for Miss Josephine Kaiz, whist being the amusement of the afternoon. Present besides the hostess were Mrs. A. W. McCune, Jr., Miss Katz, Miss Lucile Jennings, Miss Pauline Groo, Miss Mamie Porter, Miss Hampton, Misses Jane and Frances Mrs. Thomas Fitzgerald and Mrs. P. T. Ryan, of Ogden, were guests of Mrs. Joseph Young on Thursday.

Miss Mamie Porter will give a card party for Miss Katz next Wednesday. The Ladies' Republican club will meet with Mrs. Joseph Young on Mon-

Miss Afton Young will give a shower party for Miss Claire Clawson next

Mrs. J. F. Marshall, of Mercur, who has been visiting in the city, left for a trip to Omaha and Des Moines on Thursday. . . .

Mrs. Lillie Slater, of Pocatello, is the guest of Misses Elnora and Florence Mrs. James McFarlane has gone to New York to join her husband. Both will sail shortly for Peru, where they will spend the wirter. Mrs. E. R. Dickenson and son Wesley left on Tuesday for Denver. Mrs. Elias Smith left yesterday for Philadelphia where she will spend the next six weeks. Mr. E. J. Luce has gone to Denver to Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Allen leave next week for San Francisco, whence they will sall on the 16th for Honolulu.

Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Benson and Mr. Fred. Luff left vesterday for the Pan American exposition. Mrs. F. E. McGurrin and Mrs. R. H.

Officer were hostesses at the country The engagement of Miss Nellie Oliver of this city and Clyde C. Hubbard of Rockport, Ill., is announced.

Mrs. G. W. Moyer will spend the next few weeks with relatives in Illinois. George M. Scott has gone to San day for Philadelphia, where she will spend the winter with her sister, Mrs. Joseph McIntyre.

Miss Mabel Anderson left on Tues-

Mrs. E. W. Harriman of Hannibal, Mo., and Mr. and Mrs. T. S. Love and children of Council Bluffs are visiting The engagement of Miss Lillie Mc-

Coy and Dr. G. Barr Dunkle of Wash-ington, Pa., is announced. Dr. Garwood of Ann Arbor, Mich., was the guest of Dr. M. E. Van during the week. Dr. Garwood was fermerly igan and she is considered one of the best medical instructors of her sex in the United States. The reception given by the W. C. T. U. yesterday was a delightful affair.

a professor at the University of Mich-

DESERET EVENING NEWS: SATURDAY, OCTOBER 5, 1901.

Mrs. J. P. Keegan, who has been visiting Mrs. Joseph Cohen, has returned to her home in Denver.

Among recent engagement announce-ments is that of Miss Irma Alff, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Alff, and Mr. Charles Henrotin of Chicago.

The Misses Wilkers of Washington, D. C., are visiting Maj. and Mrs. Wilkes.

Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Glendinning have gone to New York.

Mrs. L. Sprague and her daughter, Mrs. A. E. Walker, have gone to Cali-fornia for a brief visit.

Christensen's dancing academy has opened for the season, and large classes have been already formed. Mrs. John J. Judson and son have re-

Thousand Isles. Among the the October weddings will be that of Misses, Bertha Hampton, daughter of Mrs. H. D. Hampton, and Mr. R. L. Bird of the L. D. S. University. Mr. and Mrs. D. W. R. McDonald are in California.

Mrs. Edwin F. Holmes has returned from the east.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter C. Lewis have returned to their home in Butte. Mr. A. D. Roundy and Miss Florence Roundy will leave for Australia in November.

Miss Addie Zane left during the week for Chicago, where she will visit with relatives during the autumn.

Mrs. Thomas Carter has gone to California for a six weeks' visit. Miss Jennie McIntosh has arrived from Chicago and will spend the win-ter in Salt Lake.

Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Cary will spend Mr. and the the winter in Europe. Mrs. George Downey and children have returned. Mrs. W. H. Jones who has been spending the summer in Idaho, will return next week. Mrs. Thomas Marioneux and daughter, have returned to Nephi.

Misses Marie and Helen Meloy, who have been in St. Paul for the past six years, have returned to Salt Lake to recide with their father, H. V. Meloy.

Mr. Milton Sprague entertained a few friends informally at his home Wednesday night. The marriage of Miss Meriba May Best and Mr. Albert C. Boyle, Jr., of Millereek, will take place October 16. Miss Edna Donnellan has gone to

Mr. and Mrs. Theron Geddes leave next week for the east.

Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Jones have gone The marriage of Miss Lennie Savage and Mr. Will D. Riter takes place next Thursday. . . . Miss Keisel who has been visiting Miss Margaret Park, has returned to her home in Ogden. The marriage of Miss Ella Atkinson and Benjamin Rash will take place

Miss Annette M. McIntosh, who has been visiting in the east for the past six weeks has returned,

Mrs. A. M. Grant has returned from her eastern trip.

Mr. and Mrs. Corey are the guests of Mrs. Robert Patrick. The Silver Maple circle of Women of Woodcraft gave an enjoyable card party at Oddfellows' hall last night. OGDEN SOCIAL NEWS.

The Salt Lake Opera company will give the opera "The Wedding Day" at the Grand, Friday evening, October 12th.

The home of Hon. Nathan Tanner Jr. on Lincoln avenue, No. 2416, was the scene of a very pretty wedding reception Wednesday evening, October 2nd, given in honor of his son, William J., who was married Wednesday afternoon in the Salt Lake Temple to Miss Inga K. Anderson, also of this city, Bishop Winder performing the ceremony. The contracting parties after the ceremony was solemnized, took the evening train for Ogden, where they were taken to the home of the groom's parents. There were gathered at the home only the relatives of the contracting parties and a few intimate friends, who glady welcomed them and extended congratulations. A sumptuous wedding repast was served in the dining room. The home was very prettily decorated with cut flowers and evergreens. The bride is one of Ogden's charming young ladies, and the groom is a popular Southern Pacific employe. Mr. and Mrs. Tanner will remain in Ogden about a week when they will go to Promontory to make their future home. ents were numerous and beautiful.

Miss Mae Rouse has gone to Terrace, Utah, to visit with friends.

Mrs. H. L. Crismon returned home this week from a month's outing in Wyoming.

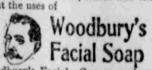

2 4 4 Miss Julia Drake of Keokuk, Iowa, is visiting in Ogden the guest of Mrs. Albert Foulkes

Mrs. A. A. Richter returned home Monday from an extended pleasure trip to the Pan American Exposition and James Robertson and wife of Chicago are the guests of the families of Myzers. George H. and E. W. Matson.

Mr. and Mrs. George Lochhead gave a very enjoyable party Tuesday even-ing at their pretty home on Twenty-sixth street in honor of their son, Wiliam, who recently returned home from mission to Scotland. was pleasurably spent in playing games, songs, etc., after which refresh-ments were served. Those present

How to be Young and beautiful with little time and expense is told in our booklet, which also tells all about the uses of Woodbury's Facial Cream and other toilet articles. It contains instructions, with illustrations, for massage, manicuring, bathing, etc., etc.

Woodbury's Facial treum curus chapped faces and handa. Sold by dealers, 25 contreach. Booklet free. Trial size parkage of soap and crown 5 cents postpent Andrew Jergens & Co., Sole Agents, Dept. 114Cincinnati, O.

were Mrs. E. A. Larkin, Misses Bessie Holther, Clara Carstensen, Molle Woods, Sarah Larkin, Leona Woods, Hattle Hineacuff, Lizzie Rackham, Dera Snow, Eliza Hineheliff, Rose Young, Clara Brown, Nell Young, Lizzie Lochhead, Wealthy Gibbons and Lillias Lochhead, Messrs. Alma Lindsay, Leon Browning, Alma J. Larkin, Robert Wilson, Alva Scoville, George Lochhead, John McGregor, Waiter Heller, Parley Woods, Artis Young, Angus Lochhead, Artie Young, James Lochhead, and E. A. Larkin.

The Fourth ward amusement committee will give their first of a series of balls to be given this season, next Friday evening, October 11th. The public is cordially invited.

Dr. Dixon and wife returned home this week from an extended pleasure trip to Iowa and South Dakota.

The Lynne ward Sunday school gave a very pleasurable dance Wednesday evening in Southwell's hall.

Wednesday evening Hon. W. W. Burton had a pleasant family gathering at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Fred Foulger, No. 738 Twenty-fourth street. There were present about thirty of his turned from their summer's stay at the children, grandchildren and other rela-The evening was enjoyably spent in vocal and instrumental music, recitations, etc., Mrs. Mary Farley being present, sang several beautiful solos. Light refreshments were served.

Louis King of Almo, Idaho, was visiting in Ogden this week, the guest of George W. Larkin Jr. Mr. King is en route to Canada in the interest of the Young Men's Mutual Improvement.

One of the most delightful events of the week and the opening of a series of parties with the leading society ladies of the city, took place at the pretty home of Mrs. George M. Hanson on Twenty-fifth street, Thursday afternoon. It was an "Autumn Party" given by Mrs. Hansen. The parlors were exquisitely decorated with autumn leaves and beautiful cut with autumn leaves and beautiful cut flowers, red and golden being the color scheme which was carried out very artistically. The afternoon was very enjoyable spent at "Euchre" Mrs. Armstrong and Miss Clark drawing for first prize. Miss Clark winning. Mrs. Armstrong and the other ladies drew for the consolation, Mrs. Armstrong being the successful one.
After cards, delicious refreshments, consisting of crab-salad, oyster patties, ice cream and cake were served. The guests were charmed with some very sweet instrumental and vocal music rendered by Miss Arvilla Clark. The in-vited guests were Mesdames Abe Kuhn, Ad Kuhn, Nate Kuhn, George Matson, J. C. Armstrong, I. L. Reynolds, Joseph Peery, E. M. Luikett, S. L. Brick, E. M. John Conlisk, W. H. Chevers; R. T. Hume, T. D. Ryan, Thomas Fitzgerald, A. P. Bigetow, John Pawles, R. T. Harris, O. B. Gilson, J. B. McGonagle of Ogden, Mrs. W. W. Cluff of Coalville. Mrs. H. H. Spencer, Mrs. Joseph Yates of Provo, Mrs. W. F. Olsen and I. Marks of Salt Lake, Misses Leda Kuhn, Ella Conroy, Julia Marks, Graynor McGonacle and Miss Arvilla Clark of Provo Provo.

Alma H. Chambers, son of County Treasurer Chambers has gone to Salt Lake to take a course in mining engineering in the University.

Mrs. Joseph Wheeler, who has been visiting with her daughter, Mrs. George W. Larkin, Jr., of Ogden, has returned to her home in Salt Lake.

Prof. Mose Christensen this week, transferred his lease for the dancing academy to Mr. Diguan, of Salt Lake and Mr. Conley of Colorado. These gentlemen will run the academy duing the season, and no doubt the series of balls which they are arranging for will be just as delightful as those given last year by Prof. Christensen.

Joseph S. Larkin, of Snowville, Boxelder county, was visiting in Ogden this week with his brother George W. Lar-

A very enjoyable time was had Thursday evening at a dance in the Fifth ward.

CLUB CHAT.

The Tourist section of the Ladies Literary club will meet on Monday Oct. 7th, at 10 o'clock. The torics will be "Luther and the Reformation," by Mrs. Miller and the Minnesingers and Mas-tersingers by Mrs. Henderson.

The Daughters of the Pioneers will meet with Mrs. Harker on Tuesday next.

The past week witnessed the resumption of work by nearly all the clubs of the city, and from this time the club members will be busy with the programmes, which promise from their list of subjects to be more interesting than any past year.

On Monday the Reviewers' club held its first meeting of the season at the residence of Mrs. Wightman, Mrs. Kelsey giving a paper on the life of Stephen Phillips with readings from his works. The rooms were prettily decorated with flowers and autumn leaves and refreshments were served. Several guests were present to enjoy the afternoon.

On Tuesday The Woman's club met. and Dr. Paden entertained the mem-bers and guests with an interesting talk upon "Travels in Russia." Tea was served after the program.

At the Ladies' Literary club yester-afternoon Mrs. Shelly Tuttle gave an interesting paper upon "The Great Steel Strike," and Mrs. White reviewed Gilbert Parker's "Right of Way."

St. Augustine's Literary society, recently organized at St. Mary's academy, has elected the following officers for the ensuing year: Miss E. Ashton, president: Miss M. Plumhof, vice pres-ident: Miss Ethel McDonald, secretary, and Miss N. Mullen, treasurer. In ac-cordance with the alm of the society to cultivate an acquaintance and ap-preciation of the Shakespearean dramas-the serious work of the year will be as—the serious work of the year will be the study and analysis of "Julius Caesar." Hudson's edition of the plays present "The Wedding Day" at the "Hamlet," "Merchant of Venice," "As You Like It," and "Macbeth" were the studies of previous sessions. In lighter volus current literitative will oclighter vein, current litertature will oc-

the society meetings. The Round Table club met with Mrs. Allen Sanford on Monday, the poet being Bayard Taylor, and the chair-man Miss Preston. The table was man Miss Preston. The table was prottily decorated in yellow and green nd the place cards were ink blotters. with a cover handsomely mounted in tale green linen with a sunflower beau-tifully embroidered by hand, yellow being the club color. A delightful time was spent, several guests being present to enjoy the afternoon.

asionally be used and discussed at

In Portland, Me., the Women's Literary union, which has been instrumen-tal in accomplishing a great work in school room decoration, has voted to donate money to fit up a kitchen in the new manual training building of that city. Two prominent and influentiar club women are members of the school board, and to this fact may be attributed to a large degree the interest that exists in making manual training a part of the regular school work.

The Cincinnati Housemaids' union has a rule that members shall keen themselves in a clean and suitable dress for their duties, and a clause in parenthesis states that when the union is

With scarcely an exception is the modish woman worshipping at the shrine of the long wrap. This model designed for carriage wear is an example of the gay touches possible on these all enveloping garments. It is built of light gray cloth and has a collar, yoke, cuffs and trimming bands of Persian embroidery. The circular flounces at the bottom are trimmed with satin folds.

The latest acquisition to the ranks of woman's suffrage is Norway. On May 29th King Oscar promulgated the law of municipal suffrage, which admitted women 25 years of age who have had fixed places of abode for five years, who pay taxes upon $81 in the country and $108 in the city, or who live with husbands who have haid an equal amount. the right to cast the ballot. In October the women of Norway will exercise this right for the first time.

The question of whether the club work of Denver should be altruistic or purely literary was decided by the club women of that city when they inaugurated the scheme of the "Pingree Patches." "How to help the poor" is now no longer a theory with them. A philanthropic citizen gave the use of fifty acres of land and the county commissioners had it plowed and furnished a superintendent to teach acronitive. a superintendent to teach agriculture. The women's clubs supplied the tools, a charity organization the seed and the street railways half-fares to the gardeners going back and forth from the patches. This was eight years ago. What are the results?

The average number of families re-ceiving gardens since 1894-5 is 66, representing 375 families of various as tionalities. From 35 to 60 acres have been cultivated annually. Every gardener has realized from $5 to $150 in cash, besides having supplied his table with all the vegetables needed during the summer, and storing enough for winter use. Several families traded vegetables for groceries, five to the amount of $150 The annual expenses avetworth each. age about as follows: t To the county-for plowing $46, for superintendent's services, $225; to the charity organiza-tion-for seed, $45; for plants, $13; for sign posts, $2; to the women's club-for car fare advanced (and refunded stronger it will insist upon employers doing likewise.

And then the old adage will be revised to read, "Like maid, like mistress."

The latest acquisition to the ranks of the province of the corp entailing such an outlay at $2,500. Approximately, the corplant is the corplant of the corp entailing such an outlay at $2,500. proximately, the gardners have earned for themselves $20,000 in eight summers; but it is not by dollars and cents that

> "Westward Ho!" is the enthusiastic cry of the club women nowadays.
>
> They whose inevitable "last word" is law—the executive board of the Gen-eral Federation of Women's Clubs— have decided to hold the sixth biennial in Los Angeles. The exact date is May 1, 1902. As a club woman's state California > is interesting. It is an empire in uself with splendid sectional organizations of the fair sex, so that, after attempts innumerable, its final affiliation as a state with the general federation just before the Milwaukee biennial was the cause of one big broad official smile. No sooner had California been put down on the list than its most persuasive sisters, headed by the president of the California Federation of Women's Clubs, Mrs. Robert J. Burdette, began to urge that the next convencome to the Golden Gate. Each individual letter sent East this year by a California club woman, it is safe to say, contained a hearty refrain some-thing like this: "Do all you can to thing like this: "Do all you can to bring the next biennial to California. We want it." With Boston in a cold and classicbut not "colorless"—state of mind, af-ter posing for many months as the prospective hostess of the next blenni-al, the executive committee was glad to send its most gracious "Thank you' across the country to California.

That the convention is to go to Los Angeles makes conspicuous its Ebell club, which, of course, will be open to

BEAUTIFUL OGDEN HOMES.

 $\textbf{Y}_{i}^{-1} + \textbf{y}_{i}^{-1} + \textbf{y}_{i}^{-1$ RESIDENCE OF C. A. SMURTHWAITE.

The photo reproduced above is of the residence of Mr. C. A. Smurthwalte, of the Smurthwaite Produce company. The residence is situated at No. 2251 Jefferson avenue, and was built about ten years ago. It is constructed of pressed brick with red sandstove trimmings. The first floor is occupied by six large rooms and vestibule. On entering the home one passes into the vestibule, at the right of which is a spacious reception room, with a large parlor adjoining, with folding doors. The dining room, sitting room, kitchen and one bedroom are at the rear of the front rooms. A beautiful staircase done in mahogany and cherry leads from the reception room to the second story, which is conveniently divided into five large bedrooms, with bath room. The rooms are provided sith setty fire places, and are lighted with electricity and gas. The furnishings throughout are elegant. The grounds surrounding the home are very beautiful, with a well kept lawn, flower beds and shrubbary,

MISSES SMART FALL COAT.

Blue cloth cape coat with turned back revers of white, edged with fur and ornamented with large buttons. Cuffs to match. The fur trimm tends the length of the front and satin bands finish the bottom edge.