

FRAGMENTS.

THE festive burglar is again about town.

LEW JOHNSON's minstrel appear at the Theatre tonight.

HARRY TURNER was arrested by the police last night, and is to be tried on a charge of vagrancy.

AN Independent Party for Idaho is to be organized at Paris, Idaho, on April 21st.

DON BURKE, for interfering with the police, was fined $10 in Justice Poyer's court today.

"SHIR," by Barrows and Staley, will be given at the Theatre on Tuesday and Wednesday evenings.

HENRY MCKEAN was before Justice Poyer today on a charge of drunkenness. He pleaded not guilty, and will have a trial.

SAMUEL FENTON was buried (March 31st, at 12 o'clock, beside his wife and daughter, at Mt. Vernon Cemetery, Philadelphia.

JACOB MARON is in the custody of the police, awaiting trial on a charge of resisting the officers while they were endeavoring to make an arrest.

ANTHONY MCFARLANE came before Justice Poyer today, and pleaded guilty to having indulged in a Sunday drunk. The justice assessed him $7.50 for his impropriety.

A LITERARY and musical entertainment will be given in the Sixteenth Ward schoolhouse, on Tuesday evening, commencing at 7:30 o'clock. Admission free.

We were called upon today by Wm. E. Harris, business manager of Royce & Lansing's musical comedy company and Swiss bellringer, who are shortly to appear at the Theatre.

An error occurred in the advertisement of Dr. Carver's shooting exhibition, as it appeared in the News of Saturday. The date should have been given as Wednesday, April 4th.

AMONG the enterprising competitors for the dry goods trade here is R. K. Thomas, who calls attention by a new advertisement in today's News, to the inducements and attractions his stock affords.

At present there is only one family having scarlatina in our city. The case has not been a case of diphtheria since the spring of '43, nor a case of typhoid fever for about two years.—Provo Enquirer.

It is asserted that the jury in the Anderson-Ewing suit were not unanimous for the plaintiff, but that six were for Mrs. Anderson $50, and the remaining six were with the defendant.

THE Salt Lake State Academy opened its fourth term today. There is an opportunity for those who desire to attend the school to enter it for this term by applying to Willard Dene, at the Social Hall, or at 720 e. South Temple Street.

S. R. MARKS & Co. call attention by means of a new display advertisement in this issue, to their furniture business, which seems to be growing rapidly, though it was started but a short time ago. They carry an excellent and varied stock.

THE Saints in the Twentieth Ward will have a pleasant social tomorrow evening, in the ward schoolhouse, commencing at 7:30 o'clock. The poor of the ward have all been furnished with free tickets. The price of admission to those who are able to pay will be twenty-five cents.

We are requested to publish the following: There will be a conference of temperance workers in Independence Hall, on April 3d, at 2 p. m. A good program has been prepared and all are invited to attend. Delegates from adjoining towns will be present. C. S. Burnett, Pres. W. C. T. U.

CHARLES SMITH, a "civilized" Indian, was placed in jail on Saturday night on a charge of embezzlement. He was brought down from Farmington by Sheriff Willey, and is accused of having sold fifteen sheep belonging to Richard Smith, of Ogden, for whom he was herding, and appropriated the money to his own use.

G. W. JONES was before Commissioner Norrell today on a charge of battery, to which he pleaded guilty. He had been engaged with A. H. Winn in the Land Trust Co. The two had a dispute, the outcome of which was that Mr. Jones proceeded to wind Mr. Winn up, a la John L. Sullivan. His little exercise cost him $5 and the expense of the legal proceedings against him.

THE HOME DRAMATIC CLUB have received some fine pictorial printing from the east for their Conference session of "The Shepherdman," "After Dark" and "Confession," and the appearances are that they will do all the business they can well attend to this week and next. Four entirely new scenes will mark the production of "The Shepherdman" Thursday and Saturday evenings.

FROM a friend just up from Milford we learn that the railroad surveying party has completed the survey from Deseret Springs to Shingler Springs. It is thought that a route will be found down Clover Valley Wash to Meadow Valley Wash, a point about 15 miles south of Panaca, from there to go to Antelope. This may not be the route determined upon finally, but it is said to be about 100 miles shorter than the original direction.—Beaver Usonian.

ABOUT two o'clock Tuesday morning that gallant gentleman known as "Shorty" Watson, with a chain of the same breed, came to Paris and sacked several houses, among them the residence of Walter Hoge. "Shorty" says he is a deputy marshal, but it was proven in court last fall that although he had invaded and disturbed many "Mormon" homes, yet he had never been appointed a deputy. What is he now, a deputy or a burglar?—Southern Idaho Independent.

LAST evening, at about 6:30 o'clock, as Lieut. R. W. Young was about to drive away from his mother's residence on Fifth South Street, next to the Seventh District schoolhouse, his horse became unmanageable and ran away. On arriving at the corner west attempted to turn around and the wheels of the buggy coming in contact with the street car track, the vehicle upset and threw Mr. Young violently to the ground. The frightened animal then dashed into a fence and some trees, almost totally wrecking the buggy. Mr. Young was not injured.

Sudden Death.

At 8 o'clock yesterday afternoon, at the Colgate Hotel in this city, Charles Marsh died suddenly. He was from Leadville, Colorado. Cerebral apoplexy was the cause of death. Mr. Marsh has been investing in Salt Lake real estate. His wife came with him to this city.

JULIUS CAESAR.

A Great Performance.—Close of the Booth and Barrett Engagement.

After all that has been said of unworthy theatrical shows and entertainments, and the too liberal patronage bestowed upon them, we cannot help a feeling of pride and satisfaction that there is still in our community such a beautiful sentiment, and let us hope a growing one, as the past week gave expression to in the tremendous public outpouring to witness the sublime performances of Booth and Barrett at the Salt Lake Theatre. While not in favor of the speculations who chose to prey upon this sentiment for their own private ends, nor of the furore and excitement by them created, which was all of a piece with the spirit of the "boom"—a spirit manifestly more human than divine—it is certainly gratifying to a watcher of intellectual and moral signs of the times to see such crowds of worshippers flock to the temple of Theatrics to burn incense on the altar of the legitimate drama.

The play of Julius Caesar is one of the purest and greatest of Shakespeare's creations. Dealing with the scaled themes of friendship and patriotism, and incidentally with those of pride, ambition and envy, pointed with moral, proverb and epigram, and adorned with poetry and philosophy, it is made a powerful vehicle of instruction, such as indeed "holds the mirror up to nature," showing "the very age and body of the time their form and pressure." In the greatness of Caesar and the envy there by created, we are shown the truth of Byron's forcible reminder:

"He who ascends to mountain tops shall find
The loftiest peaks most wrapt in clouds and snow;
He who surpasses or evades mankind
Must look down on the hate of those below."

In his fall is illustrated the frail tenure of man upon mortal life and the vanity of human ambition. In Brutus we have the pure and unselfish patriot, devoted to the love of country and the specious pleadings of conspiring envy, into sacrificing at the dagger's point a fellow creature, and that creature his friend, in the interest of a principle which, barring much bloody sequence, should have taken precedence of every personal feeling. Cassius, though not lacking in virtue and courage, is still the spirit of scorn and envy incarnate, "never at ease while it beholds one greater than himself." Mark Antony we behold the true friend, mixed with the wily politician, stooping to conquer, yet terrible in his uprightness. For these characters, Brutus, Cassius and Antony, this noble play was evidently written. The first act is for Cassius, the second for Brutus, the third simply to illustrate Caesar's death, the fourth for Antony and start for the combination, with Brutus and Cassius and their downfall in the foreground.

The performance of Saturday night undoubtedly caps the climax of dramatic events in our city's history. It was in every way a most excellent, well worthy of the monster audience it attracted, and the unanimous tribute of praise which it evoked. Three hours of spell-bound rapture, broken only by brief intervals between acts which scarcely gave thinking time for what had passed or was about to come, and the deafening peals of applause from such a vast multitude, all under the spell to remember to applaud.

The Brutus of Mr. Booth was a noble conception. In look, action, utterance, everything, he was the personification of the character. No less can be said of Barrett's Cassius, famous these many years as probably the complete portrait of the anti-hero "man of envy" that historic genius has yet presented. Booth lacks the flash and dash which we vainly would hear from him, and in various ways evinces that gradually age with healthy peace is gaining on him, but for grace of action and elocution, and expressiveness in both, he is unsurpassable.

Barrett, some years younger, while lacking the ease and polish of his great compeer, is more vigorous, kinder more readily, and is not one whit behind him in native genius. The remnants of the performance were, the speech of Cassius inciting Brutus against Caesar; the soliloquy of Brutus in contemplation of the assassination of his friend; his oration in the name of the people; and the scene in which he was swayed from him by the eloquence of Antony; the oration of Antony, a fine, fiery effort in which Mr. Hanford made one of the pronounced bits of the night, and the great quarrel scene between Brutus and Cassius, which was a play in itself. Besides these strong and prominent features, the most admirable attention was given to every detail. The superlatives were well trained, and though not so numerous as they should have been, acted with remarkable force and precision. The support was good, Miss Gale in the role of Portia, and Mr. Hanford, already mentioned, being especially excellent.

At the close of the play the two great actors and their company were driven to the Central depot, where, by courtesy of the Union Pacific Railroad, a special engine was attached to their train and they were whirled on through the night to wards Denver, where they open out this evening in a week's engagement.

Died on His Birthday.

Joseph Watkins, of Alpine, Utah County, died from pneumonia, last Monday afternoon. He was 34 years of age; he died, being the second man to die on his birthday at the same place this year. He was born at Cottonwood, Salt Lake County, and was well and at work plowing on Thursday before his death. The funeral was held Wednesday, Henry Royce, Hyrum Healy and W. J. Stronze offering words of consolation. He leaves a wife and four children. The two sisters are both widows, their husbands having died suddenly, and each being left with the same sized families.—Utah Enquirer.

Attempted Burglary.

At an early hour yesterday morning two men attempted to enter the house of Arthur Winter, in the Nineteenth Ward. One of them went to the front and the other to the rear door, and the latter tried to burst the door open. Mrs. Winter heard the noise and roused her husband, who arose and went into the back room. He formed the impression that some one had been in that room and had just left it, and so went to the front door and opened it, finding himself face to face with a man in the door way. The would-be burglars took to their heels, without doing further damage than disturbing the inmates of the house.

A Horrible Crime.

A correspondent writing from Willford, Bligh County, Idaho, March 31st, says that on that day John Cheney was taken before Justice Carter, of Rexburg, by Constable S. Jones, and arraigned on a charge of incest with his own daughter, whose name is given as Felice, and who has given birth to a child. The defendant pleaded guilty and was sent to Blackfoot for safe keeping, to await the action of the grand jury.

An Imprisoned Infant III.

The infant of the lady from American Fork who confined in the penitentiary for contempt, is said to be dangerously ill. The mother was committed by Judge Henderson for refusing to answer questions in relation to who is the father of her child. A physician was sent to the penitentiary today to examine the little sufferer, and it is probable that the mother will be released on bail pending its recovery.

MORONI M. SHEETS.

Will Not Testify in the Church Cases, and is Imprisoned.

At the session of the Territorial Supreme Court today District Attorney Peters called up the proceedings against Moroni M. Sheets, who was subpoenaed as a witness in the proceedings against the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints. Mr. Sheets declined to answer any and every question relative to his business and employment.

Mr. Peters—in whose employ are you? A number of other questions were put and received the same reply. The list of interrogations is as follows: Are you employed by Bishop Preston? What are your duties, Mr. Sheets, in that employment? How long have you been so employed? You may state whether or not you are employed as an agent of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints? Are you a member of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints? Are you paid for your services as a Church agent as an employee of Bishop Preston? By whom are you paid for such services? Did you ever see [Mr. Dyer at the farm in the capacity of receiver, or on that business? You may state whether or not there is any live stock on that farm? Are there not some cattle there that have been there for some months past? Is there a sorrel stallion on the farm to which I have directed your attention? Are there two gray horses there? Are there any ponies, seven head? State whether or not there are any wagons on that farm? Were there any wagons there in December last? You may state whether or not there was a bob-tail red steer in December last? Was there a Jersey bull there last December? Is there any there now? Were there four mowing machines in December last? Were there any mowing machines there at all at that time; if so, how many? Are there any there at this time? When were they there last? Were there any there last summer in haying time? Judge Zane inquired of Mr. Sheets—You declined to answer these questions before the examiner, and you still do so, and decline to answer them here?

Mr. Sheets—Yes, sir. The court then held a short consultation, after which Judge Zane said—"The court is of the opinion that the witness must be committed for contempt in refusing to answer. He will be committed to the custody of the Marshal until he purges himself of the contempt or answers the questions, or is discharged by the court."

Mr. Sheets was taken out to the penitentiary this afternoon. The proceedings are not yet finally closed.

TERRITORIAL SUPREME COURT.

The Church Cases to Come Up on April 7th.

The Territorial Supreme Court met in this city at 11:30 today, Chief Justice Zane and Associate Justices Boreman and Elliott, T. L. Gardner and John W. Blackburn being present.

Albert D. Elliott, T. L. Gardner and John W. Blackburn were admitted to the bar. P. L. Williams, attorney for Marshal Dyer in the latter's capacity as receiver in the suit of the government against the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, asked that an early date be set for the hearing of the arguments on the receiver's application for about $12,000 personal property which the receiver claimed, and which it was urged belonged to the office of the Presiding Bishop, and not to the Church corporation.

There was some question as to what should be done with the testimony, which is very voluminous. Finally, at Judge Henderson's suggestion, each of the judges was furnished with a copy, to take home and read. Mr. Williams repeatedly urged the early hearing of the application, and said that although it imposed a great deal of extra work on the court, yet this was a comparatively small beginning and gave but a faint idea of what he thought would come. He wanted the matter hurried up.

Mr. Young didn't understand why Mr. Williams was in such a rush to get the property he was asking for. It was perfectly safe, there not being even a pretense that it was in danger of being spirited away. After consultation, on the part of the judges, the case was set for Saturday, April 7, at 10 a. m., when the arguments are to be made. District Attorney Peters called up the contempt case against M. M. Sheets, and the witness still refusing to testify, he was ordered committed to the custody of the Marshal until he purges his mind or was released by process of law.

The court appointed James N. Louder United States Commissioner at Silver Reef, Utah.

The writ of prohibition issued by the court, forbidding United States Commissioner Carrington of Brigham City, from proceeding against E. H. Pierce, for alleged contempt in writing certain communications to the Salt Lake Herald, was taken up. The arguments are being made by O. W. Powers and J. H. Rawlin.

The accounts of Commissioner Norrell were approved.

Mortality.

The following is Sexton Taylor's report of the deaths in this city during the month of March:

Accidental..... 1
Brain (softening)..... 1
Cancer..... 1
Consumption (phthisis pulmonalis)..... 2
Convulsions (epilepsy)..... 1
Croup..... 1
Diabetes..... 1
Dropsy (general)..... 1
Fever (typhoid)..... 1
Heart disease..... 1
Inflammation of bowels..... 1
Influenza (acute)..... 1
Pneumonia..... 1
Scarlatina..... 1
Strangulated hernia..... 1
Tumor..... 1
Not reported..... 2

Total..... 18

Males..... 12

Females..... 6

Under 1 year..... 6

5 to 10 years..... 2

10 to 20 years..... 1

Over 20 years..... 9

Native born..... 12

Foreign born..... 6

Utah, B. other parts of the United States..... 12

Canada, B. other parts of the world..... 6

Added to the above 3 persons from country places and a still larger number from the territories.

JOSEPH B. TAYLOR, City Recorder.

Ogden News.

A few days ago a young man named John Wilson was amusing himself by sliding down the banister on the stairway of the Union Opera House. He continued it for some time till finally his foot caught and he was precipitated to the bottom. The result was a broken arm and a badly bruised face. Dr. Powers attended the sufferer and made him as comfortable as possible. He is now improving rapidly.

Last Friday the 4-year-old daughter of James Wetherston was playfully running across the floor, when she fell and broke her arm. Dr. Perkins was sent for and on his arrival the bone was set and the little sufferer made as comfortable as possible.

Yesterday morning the bells tolled for the funeral of a fireman and the members of the fire brigade rushed to their post with all the speed they could muster. The fireman, who was of but small proportions, a chimney on the house of Mr. Stone, corner of Wall and Eighth Streets, having emitted a few sparks, falling on the roof, started a fire that was quickly put out by a bucket brigade before any serious damage was done.

Last Wednesday Frank Messervy, son of Joseph M. Messervy, of Hesper, was attending a dance at that place when he was taken suddenly ill with cramp colic and had to be carried home. On Thursday afternoon he died of this complaint. He was buried yesterday at 11 a. m. The speakers at the funeral services were Bishop Beland and Lewis A. Cox. The deceased was 25 years of age. Ogden Standard, April 1.

A WOMAN'S DISCOVERY.

"Another wonderful discovery has been made and that too by a lady in this county. Diseases of the female system, such as indigestion, nervousness, and other ailments, which she had suffered for many years, she cured by the use of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption and was so much relieved on taking first dose that she slept all night and with one bottle she was miraculously cured. Her name is Mrs. Luther H. Thomas, who writes W. C. Hamrick & Co., of Shelby, N. C. Get a free trial bottle at A. C. Smith & Co.'s Drug Store." (3)

The Verdict Unanimous.

W. D. Sull, Druggist, Bippus, Ind., writes: "I can recommend Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption. Every bottle sold has given relief in every case. One man took six bottles, and was cured of Rheumatism of 10 years' standing. Abraham Hare, druggist, Bellville, Ohio, writes: 'I have been selling Dr. King's New Discovery for over 20 years' experience, is Electric Bitters cure all diseases of the Liver, Kidneys or Blood. Only half a bottle at A. C. Smith & Co.'s Drug Store.' (2)

ART RECEPTION.

YOU ARE CORDIALLY INVITED to attend an ART RECEPTION, given to afford an opportunity to examine an EXHIBITION of "DOMESTIC" DECORATIVE ART NEEDLWORK, unsurpassed for beauty and variety; rich in color and design; novel in style and in arrangement of details, and executed in skillful and elaborate execution.

YOUNG BROTHERS CO.

Domestic Sewing Machine Parlor,
No. 38 Main Street, Salt Lake City.

The exhibition commences on Monday, April 2, and closes on Saturday, April 7, 1945.

LOST.

A LARGE POCKET BOOK CONTAINING checks, notes and other papers of no value to anyone but the owner. Return to Arthur L. Thomas, at Utah Commissioner's Room and receive a reward of $10.00.

WANTED.

A HOUSEMAID. APPLY TO MRS. WM. JENNINGS, 334 W. South Temple Street, Salt Lake City.

A SITUATION BY A FIRST CLASS

Bookkeeper and accountant, in some mercantile house or hotel. Is familiar with Banking business. Can give the best of references.

C. W. J. POST, 410 E. 1st Street, Salt Lake City, Utah, April 2, 1945.

NOTICE OF DISSOLUTION.

THE PARTNERSHIP HERETOFORE existing between the undersigned in the firm name of Crim, Stephen & Co., is this day dissolved by mutual consent.

WILLIAM CRIM,
M. G. STEPHEN,
Salt Lake City, Utah, April 2, 1945.

NOTICE TO CONTRACTORS.

PLANS AND BIDS WILL BE RECEIVED by the undersigned until four o'clock p. m., April 12th, 1945, for the construction of four thousand feet, more or less, of iron fence, four and one-half feet high, around the plot grounds, Salt Lake City, Utah. The right is reserved to reject any and all bids.

By order of the Board of Commissioners on Capitol Grounds.

JAMES SHARP,
Chairman of Executive Committee,
Salt Lake City, March 31st, 1945.

CURE FOR NICK HEADACHE.

Z. C. M. I. Drug Store have Free Samples of Dr. Chan's Liver Pills. Cure without fail; removes Bile from the Face; relieves Biliousness; and improves Digestion. Only one for a dose. 50 cents a box.

UTAH BONDS FOR SALE.

One Hundred and Fifty Thousand ($150,000) Dollars, of Five (5) per cent. Utah Territory Bonds for Sale.

THE UNDERSIGNED, IN PURSUANCE of the action of the Loan Commissioners of the Territory of Utah, hereby advertises that bids will be received at the office in the city of Salt Lake, said Territory, until 12 o'clock noon, of the 21st day of May, 1945, for the purchase of, and at such price as may be determined by the said Loan Commissioners, of one hundred and fifty thousand dollars, of the denomination of one thousand dollars, of the first series of January and July of each year, of the said Territory, to be paid semi-annually, or at such date in the City of New York, in the State of New York, as may be designated by said Loan Commissioners, at the option of the purchaser.

The principal of said bonds shall be payable in the lawful money of the United States, within twenty years after the date of their issue, but redeemable at the pleasure of the said Territory, by the payment of the principal of said bonds, at the expiration of the term of said bonds, there is set apart and appropriated out of the general funds in the hands of the said Treasurer of said Territory, annually, not less than fifteen thousand dollars, to be known as the "Redemption Fund," for the redemption of said bonds; and it is also further provided, that should, after the expiration of ten years from the date of the issuance of said bonds, there is available in said redemption fund the sum of fifteen hundred thousand dollars, it shall be the duty of the said Treasurer to advertise the amount of money in the said fund, and the number of said bonds, numbering them in the order of their issue, and the number of said bonds not outstanding which such fund is set apart to pay, and discharge, and the date when they will be redeemed, and such bonds so numbered in such advertisement shall be presented and received by the said Treasurer, and cancellation of the date mentioned in such advertisement, then such bonds shall be redeemed, and the said Treasurer shall be bound to issue and deliver to the holder of such bonds, upon the expiration of ten years from the date of the issuance of said bonds, a new bond, of the same denomination, to be known as the "Redemption Bond," for the redemption of said bonds; and it is also further provided, that should, after the expiration of ten years from the date of the issuance of said bonds, there is available in said redemption fund the sum of fifteen hundred thousand dollars, it shall be the duty of the said Treasurer to advertise the amount of money in the said fund, and the number of said bonds, numbering them in the order of their issue, and the number of said bonds not outstanding which such fund is set apart to pay, and discharge, and the date when they will be redeemed, and such bonds so numbered in such advertisement shall be presented and received by the said Treasurer, and cancellation of the date mentioned in such advertisement, then such bonds shall be redeemed, and the said Treasurer shall be bound to issue and deliver to the holder of such bonds, upon the expiration of ten years from the date of the issuance of said bonds, a new bond, of the same denomination, to be known as the "Redemption Bond," for the redemption of said bonds; and it is also further provided, that should, after the expiration of ten years from the date of the issuance of said bonds, there is available in said redemption fund the sum of fifteen hundred thousand dollars, it shall be the duty of the said Treasurer to advertise the amount of money in the said fund, and the number of said bonds, numbering them in the order of their issue, and the number of said bonds not outstanding which such fund is set apart to pay, and discharge, and the date when they will be redeemed, and such bonds so numbered in such advertisement shall be presented and received by the said Treasurer, and cancellation of the date mentioned in such advertisement, then such bonds shall be redeemed, and the said Treasurer shall be bound to issue and deliver to the holder of such bonds, upon the expiration of ten years from the date of the issuance of said bonds, a new bond, of the same denomination, to be known as the "Redemption Bond," for the redemption of said bonds; and it is also further provided, that should, after the expiration of ten years from the date of the issuance of said bonds, there is available in said redemption fund the sum of fifteen hundred thousand dollars, it shall be the duty of the said Treasurer to advertise the amount of money in the said fund, and the number of said bonds, numbering them in the order of their issue, and the number of said bonds not outstanding which such fund is set apart to pay, and discharge, and the date when they will be redeemed, and such bonds so numbered in such advertisement shall be presented and received by the said Treasurer, and cancellation of the date mentioned in such advertisement, then such bonds shall be redeemed, and the said Treasurer shall be bound to issue and deliver to the holder of such bonds, upon the expiration of ten years from the date of the issuance of said bonds, a new bond, of the same denomination, to be known as the "Redemption Bond," for the redemption of said bonds; and it is also further provided, that should, after the expiration of ten years from the date of the issuance of said bonds, there is available in said redemption fund the sum of fifteen hundred thousand dollars, it shall be the duty of the said Treasurer to advertise the amount of money in the said fund, and the number of said bonds, numbering them in the order of their issue, and the number of said bonds not outstanding which such fund is set apart to pay, and discharge, and the date when they will be redeemed, and such bonds so numbered in such advertisement shall be presented and received by the said Treasurer, and cancellation of the date mentioned in such advertisement, then such bonds shall be redeemed, and the said Treasurer shall be bound to issue and deliver to the holder of such bonds, upon the expiration of ten years from the date of the issuance of said bonds, a new bond, of the same denomination, to be known as the "Redemption Bond," for the redemption of said bonds; and it is also further provided, that should, after the expiration of ten years from the date of the issuance of said bonds, there is available in said redemption fund the sum of fifteen hundred thousand dollars, it shall be the duty of the said Treasurer to advertise the amount of money in the said fund, and the number of said bonds, numbering them in the order of their issue, and the number of said bonds not outstanding which such fund is set apart to pay, and discharge, and the date when they will be redeemed, and such bonds so numbered in such advertisement shall be presented and received by the said Treasurer, and cancellation of the date mentioned in such advertisement, then such bonds shall be redeemed, and the said Treasurer shall be bound to issue and deliver to the holder of such bonds, upon the expiration of ten years from the date of the issuance of said bonds, a new bond, of the same denomination, to be known as the "Redemption Bond," for the redemption of said bonds; and it is also further provided, that should, after the expiration of ten years from the date of the issuance of said bonds, there is available in said redemption fund the sum of fifteen hundred thousand dollars, it shall be the duty of the said Treasurer to advertise the amount of money in the said fund, and the number of said bonds, numbering them in the order of their issue, and the number of said bonds not outstanding which such fund is set apart to pay, and discharge, and the date when they will be redeemed, and such bonds so numbered in such advertisement shall be presented and received by the said Treasurer, and cancellation of the date mentioned in such advertisement, then such bonds shall be redeemed, and the said Treasurer shall be bound to issue and deliver to the holder of such bonds, upon the expiration of ten years from the date of the issuance of said bonds, a new bond, of the same denomination, to be known as the "Redemption Bond," for the redemption of said bonds; and it is also further provided, that should, after the expiration of ten years from the date of the issuance of said bonds, there is available in said redemption fund the sum of fifteen hundred thousand dollars, it shall be the duty of the said Treasurer to advertise the amount of money in the said fund, and the number of said bonds, numbering them in the order of their issue, and the number of said bonds not outstanding which such fund is set apart to pay, and discharge, and the date when they will be redeemed, and such bonds so numbered in such advertisement shall be presented and received by the said Treasurer, and cancellation of the date mentioned in such advertisement, then such bonds shall be redeemed, and the said Treasurer shall be bound to issue and deliver to the holder of such bonds, upon the expiration of ten years from the date of the issuance of said bonds, a new bond, of the same denomination, to be known as the "Redemption Bond," for the redemption of said bonds; and it is also further provided, that should, after the expiration of ten years from the date of the issuance of said bonds, there is available in said redemption fund the sum of fifteen hundred thousand dollars, it shall be the duty of the said Treasurer to advertise the amount of money in the said fund, and the number of said bonds, numbering them in the order of their issue, and the number of said bonds not outstanding which such fund is set apart to pay, and discharge, and the date when they will be redeemed, and such bonds so numbered in such advertisement shall be presented and received by the said Treasurer, and cancellation of the date mentioned in such advertisement, then such bonds shall be redeemed, and the said Treasurer shall be bound to issue and deliver to the holder of such bonds, upon the expiration of ten years from the date of the issuance of said bonds, a new bond, of the same denomination, to be known as the "Redemption Bond," for the redemption of said bonds; and it is also further provided, that should, after the expiration of ten years from the date of the issuance of said bonds, there is available in said redemption fund the sum of fifteen hundred thousand dollars, it shall be the duty of the said Treasurer to advertise the amount of money in the said fund, and the number of said bonds, numbering them in the order of their issue, and the number of said bonds not outstanding which such fund is set apart to pay, and discharge, and the date when they will be redeemed, and such bonds so numbered in such advertisement shall be presented and received by the said Treasurer, and cancellation of the date mentioned in such advertisement, then such bonds shall be redeemed, and the said Treasurer shall be bound to issue and deliver to the holder of such bonds, upon the expiration of ten years from the date of the issuance of said bonds, a new bond, of the same denomination, to be known as the "Redemption Bond," for the redemption of said bonds; and it is also further provided, that should, after the expiration of ten years from the date of the issuance of said bonds, there is available in said redemption fund the sum of fifteen hundred thousand dollars, it shall be the duty of the said Treasurer to advertise the amount of money in the said fund, and the number of said bonds, numbering them in the order of their issue, and the number of said bonds not outstanding which such fund is set apart to pay, and discharge, and the date when they will be redeemed, and such bonds so numbered in such advertisement shall be presented and received by the said Treasurer, and cancellation of the date mentioned in such advertisement, then such bonds shall be redeemed, and the said Treasurer shall be bound to issue and deliver to the holder of such bonds, upon the expiration of ten years from the date of the issuance of said bonds, a new bond, of the same denomination, to be known as the "Redemption Bond," for the redemption of said bonds; and it is also further provided, that should, after the expiration of ten years from the date of the issuance of said bonds, there is available in said redemption fund the sum of fifteen hundred thousand dollars, it shall be the duty of the said Treasurer to advertise the amount of money in the said fund, and the number of said bonds, numbering them in the order of their issue, and the number of said bonds not outstanding which such fund is set apart to pay, and discharge, and the date when they will be redeemed, and such bonds so numbered in such advertisement shall be presented and received by the said Treasurer, and cancellation of the date mentioned in such advertisement, then such bonds shall be redeemed, and the said Treasurer shall be bound to issue and deliver to the holder of such bonds, upon the expiration of ten years from the date of the issuance of said bonds, a new bond, of the same denomination, to be known as the "Redemption Bond," for the redemption of said bonds; and it is also further provided, that should, after the expiration of ten years from the date of the issuance of said bonds, there is available in said redemption fund the sum of fifteen hundred thousand dollars, it shall be the duty of the said Treasurer to advertise the amount of money in the said fund, and the number of said bonds, numbering them in the order of their issue, and the number of said bonds not outstanding which such fund is set apart to pay, and discharge, and the date when they will be redeemed, and such bonds so numbered in such advertisement shall be presented and received by the said Treasurer, and cancellation of the date mentioned in such advertisement, then such bonds shall be redeemed, and the said Treasurer shall be bound to issue and deliver to the holder of such bonds, upon the expiration of ten years from the date of the issuance of said bonds, a new bond, of the same denomination, to be known as the "Redemption Bond," for the redemption of said bonds; and it is also further provided, that should, after the expiration of ten years from the date of the issuance of said bonds, there is available in said redemption fund the sum of fifteen hundred thousand dollars, it shall be the duty of the said Treasurer to advertise the amount of money in the said fund, and the number of said bonds, numbering them in the order of their issue, and the number of said bonds not outstanding which such fund is set apart to pay, and discharge, and the date when they will be redeemed, and such bonds so numbered in such advertisement shall be presented and received by the said Treasurer, and cancellation of the date mentioned in such advertisement, then such bonds shall be redeemed, and the said Treasurer shall be bound to issue and deliver to the holder of such bonds, upon the expiration of ten years from the date of the issuance of said bonds, a new bond, of the same denomination, to be known as the "Redemption Bond," for the redemption of said bonds; and it is also further provided, that should, after the expiration of ten years from the date of the issuance of said bonds, there is available in said redemption fund the sum of fifteen hundred thousand dollars, it shall be the duty of the said Treasurer to advertise the amount of money in the said fund, and the number of said bonds, numbering them in the order of their issue, and the number of said bonds not outstanding which such fund is set apart to pay, and discharge, and the date when they will be redeemed, and such bonds so numbered in such advertisement shall be presented and received by the said Treasurer, and cancellation of the date mentioned in such advertisement, then such bonds shall be redeemed, and the said Treasurer shall be bound to issue and deliver to the holder of such bonds, upon the expiration of ten years from the date of the issuance of said bonds,