IMPORTANT TO THE TRAVELING PUBLIC.

It is the duty of all persons before starting on a journey to ascertain by what route they can reach their destination with the least trouble, and if there are two or more roads leading to the same point, to decide which is the safest and pleasantest to travel.

We take pleasure in stating that the CHICAGO & NORTH-WESTERN RAILWAY is the oldest, and several miles the shortest, route between Omaha and Chicago. Within the past two years the road has been put in admirable condition, and almost the entire line has been re-laid with steel rails.

di prints EAST and SOUTH-EAST.

If you are going to Chicago, St. East, you should, by all means, purchase your tickets at the Old Pioneer Hotel.

The Chicago and North-Western.

You will find on all through trains Pullman Sleepers, new and magnificent Day Coaches, and the most smoking and second class cars now on any road in the United States.

EVENING NEWS.

Monday, June 22, 1875.

Local and Other Matters.

Thermometer 50 degrees F in the shade at 1 p.m. to-day. Fine.

Tabernacle Meeting.—Elder Orson Pratt preached yesterday afternoon.

Will Get Back.—It is expected that President Young and a portion of the party accompanying him on his visit to Sanpete will reach this city to-morrow evening.

Artistic Penmanship.—To-day we were shown a certificate of honorary membership of the Deseret Typographical Union of Mr. William Fuller. The document was a beautiful ornamental penmanship, neatly executed by the hand of Mr. John E. Evans.

A Mistake.—We learn from Dr. Benedict that in giving an account of the lad in his employ being run over by a buggy the other evening, we stated he was a son of Mr. Wm. (a)der, which is not the case, his name being B. R. Ritter. The driver of the vehicle has not been discovered which is unfortunate. His criminal indifference in passing along heedlessly after the occurrence was commendable.

Mr. Little's New House.—The foundation, one of the most substantial in this city, of Mr. F. Little's new house, 12th Ward, having been completed, the bricklaying has been commenced, and the large force of hands at work on it, indicates that it will be put through in quick time. Morris & Evans are the contractors for the mason work.

We understand it is Mr. Little's intention to remove the building he now occupies, when the new one is completed.

Severe Accident.—On Saturday a young man, John Lambert, of the 7th Ward, obtained a quantity of gunpowder, in the house, and took it into the yard, where he applied a match to it, the flame, when it exploded, scorched his face in a most frightful manner. It was feared at first that the little fellow would lose his eye-sight, but we are glad to learn that he is able to partially open his eyes this morning, and can see a little.

Funeral Services.—The funeral services of the two children of Brother and Sister Wheeler, burned to death at Washup on Thursday last, were held in the Second Ward meeting house yesterday morning, there being a large attendance of friends on the occasion. The speaker was Elder Wilford Woodruff, who took as a foundation for his remarks the first chapter of the Book of Job, upon which he delivered an interesting and profitable discourse, during which he endeavored, by incalculable faith in and resignation to the dispensations of providence and elucidating the principles of the gospel of Christ as revealed through the Prophet Joseph Smith, to console the sorrowing parents under their sad bereavement. The remains of the poor children were followed to the cemetery by a large number of the residents of the Ward, Brother Wheeler having been a long time resident and much respected member thereof.

A Memorable Anniversary.—Yesterday, the 27th of June, was the anniversary of a most memorable event in the history of the Latter-day Saints, and in future time will be held so by the whole world. Thirty-one years ago yesterday Joseph Smith, the great prophet of the Latter-day dispensation, and his brother, Hyrum Smith, while in Carthage jail, Hancock County, Ill., awaiting trial on a trumped up charge, were murdered, in cold blood, by an armed mob of about 150 men, with blackened faces, while Elder John Taylor, who was with them, had four bullets shot into his body, Elder Willard Richards, who was also present, escaping unhurt.

The mob which burst into the jail and did the murderous work had blackened their faces to prevent recognition, and the deed was perpetrated while the victims were under the pledged protection of Governor Thomas Ford of Illinois.

Another Man Killed.—Yesterday intelligence was brought to this city to the family of Brother George Holden, of the 6th Ward, that he had been killed, at Silver Fork Springs, Big Cottonwood Canyon, but it was not stated whether his death was caused by accident, or whether he had met with foul play. It appears that there existed between Mr. Holden and a man named Wilson a dispute regarding the ownership of a mining claim at Silver Fork, which Mr. Holden had developed, and there facts lead to the supposition that he has probably been shot.

On receipt of the intelligence at

Silver Fork, to bring the body to this city.

Deceased was late of Manchester, England.

The Watermasters.—We call the attention of the Ward watermasters to the notice of Watermaster Hyde, who desires them to meet at the City Hall, at 7 o'clock, on Wednesday evening, for the purpose of adopting measures for the proper distribution of water.

Yellowstone Expedition.—The Bozeman Avant Courier says that the Yellowstone expedition launched upon the river, June 17, for boat loads, heavily loaded, with eight persons in each, destined for the "head of navigation," where they would land, build stockades, and permanently locate.

Grand Opera.—There was a fairly large audience at the Theatre on Saturday Evening. The tragic opera of "Ernani" was excellently performed, and proved highly acceptable to the spectators. "Ernani" (Breathin' not Thee," by "Silvia" (Miss Annie Beaumont), was especially good. As worthy of particular praise we may mention "In Fine, One Swift Enraging Blade," by "Silvia," (Geo. A. Conly). Further we may refer to "O Carmagnole," by "Charles," (Mr. Castle), with the concerted piece following, "To Charles the Fifth," as exquisitely rendered. The audience were well satisfied.

This evening, Auber's "Fra Diavolo" will be presented.

"Fra Diavolo," or, the Inn of Terreno, is a comic opera, in three acts. The scene is laid in Italy. "Fra Diavolo" (the Devil's brother), is a notorious bandit and robber, possessed of some popular qualities, being courageous, frank, gallant, and giving freely to the poor of that of which he robs the rich. He meets Lord and Lady "Allcash" in the mountains and at the Inn. "Zerlina," the innkeeper's daughter, is the sweetheart of "Lorenzo," a soldier, who is about to go on an expedition in search of "Fra Diavolo."

Lord and Lady "Allcash" enter, and the Lady tells "Fra Diavolo," thinking him to be the "Marquis San Carlo," how they saved their valuable property from his hand of brigands. He is enraged, makes love to the lady, eludes the soldiers, and plans to secure the lord and lady's treasures.

In the second act "Zerlina" returns to rest on her wedding eve. "Fra Diavolo" and two bandits gain access to her room, and as one moves to stab her, they are awestruck by her singing a hymn to the Virgin. "Fra Diavolo" enters the lord and lady's chamber, when all are awakened by the noise of the returning soldiers. The robbers conceal themselves. The lord and lady arise to learn the cause of the tumult. "Lorenzo," hearing a noise in the closet, approaches it. "Fra Diavolo" steps forth and asserts an appointment with "Zerlina," disconcerted, her lover enraged, "Fra Diavolo" escapes, but his companions are detained, and they betray him.

In the third act "Fra Diavolo," at liberty, anticipates a profitable meeting with the lord and lady, but finds himself betrayed and in the hands of his enemies, and falls by a soldier's bullet. "Zerlina's" fair fame is established, she is married to "Lorenzo," with a liberal wedding present from the lord and lady.

To-morrow, Gounod's "Faust."

Supreme Court of Utah.—The Supreme Court of Utah met, pursuant to adjournment, at the Federal Court House, at 2 o'clock on Saturday afternoon.

J. B. McKean, Supreme Court reporter, announced his intentions to publish a volume of Utah reports, and asked for an order of court giving him the privilege of taking from the Clerk's office decisions filed therein. The order was made.

Mr. C. W. M. Silva, heretofore admitted to the bar of the Third District Court, was presented, by Mr. F. Tifford, for admittance to the bar of this court. A committee was appointed to examine the applicant as to his qualifications.

Wines & Kimball vs. Stevens & Shurtliff. Appeal from the Third District Court. The opinion was delivered by Lowe, Chief Justice. Various motions were overruled, and others approved; order to be entered; motion to dismiss appeal denied.

Thackara, Buck & Co. vs. Reid, Kinsey & Greeley. Appeal from the Third District Court. Lowe, Chief Justice, delivered the opinion. Judgment of the court below affirmed, with costs on appeal.

Onne Brothers Manufacturing Co. vs. Reid & Kinsey. Appeal from the Third District Court. Lowe, Chief Justice, delivered the opinion. Judgment of the court below affirmed, with costs on appeal.

Joseph W. Wilson vs. Emily R. Jarman et al. Appeal from the Third District Court. Boreman, J., delivered the opinion. Judgment of the court below affirmed, with costs.

Henry Thomas & wife vs. The Union Pacific Railroad. Appeal from Third District Court. Boreman, J., delivered the opinion. Judgment reversed and cause remanded to Third District Court.

John Leesham et al. vs. Patrick Cougle. Appeal from Second District Court. Boreman, J., delivered the opinion. The order of the court below is reversed.

The United States vs. James E. Woodman et al. Appeal from Third District Court. Emerson, J., delivered the opinion. Judgment of the court below affirmed with costs.

Samuel Smith et al. vs. Jeremiah Richardson et al. Appeal from the Third District Court. Boreman, J., delivered the opinion. Judgment of the court below affirmed.

Lawrence A. Brown vs. Thos. Atkin. Appeal from Third District Court. Lowe, Chief Justice, delivered the opinion of the court. The judgment is affirmed, except to the amount of $200 for damages, which is overruled.

Marion J. Channellman vs. John Rowberry et al. Appeal from Third District Court. Lowe, Chief Justice, delivered the opinion. Action of Court in refusing a jury overruled, and the cause remanded. In the case of Lynch vs. Lee, the same judgment was rendered for the same reasons. Boreman, J., read a statement of his holding that the judgment should have been the same as in Brown vs. Atkin, &c.; damages denied and the rest affirmed.

Henry Thomas vs. U. P. R. R. Appeal from Third District Court. Lowe, Chief Justice, delivered the opinion of court. Judgment of court below affirmed, with costs. The case was held that the common law prevails in this Territory, despite the lack of action to that effect by the legislature. J. C. DeMingway, for applicant, reserved question.

The Court appointed E. T. Sprague United States Commissioner in place of DeMingway, who resigned. James M. Kimball in open court resigned his position as United States Commissioner.

Geo. R. Maxwell, United States Marshal, presented his accounts for services and expenditures to date, when the same order was made as in regard to the Clerk's office, leaving the question of law to the Comptroller.

R. N. B. skin presented the petition of Naana Springer for writ of habeas corpus, and admission to bail. Taken under advisement by the Court.

Court adjourned till Wednesday, June 30th, at 10 a.m.

The British Mission.—We extract the following from the Millennial Star—

"Copenhagen, Denmark, May 27.—Our journey thither was very pleasant, nothing occurred to mar our peace."

"The Conference held at Copenhagen began on Saturday evening, 22nd inst., at the Salts Hall, Frederick the Seventh's Hall. On Sunday we assembled in a very fine hall, of which we had some six hundred people, which was well filled in the morning, and overflowing in the afternoon and evening. I never saw better attention. The Conference was remarkable for the excellent spirit abounding—the large numbers attending—the good attention paid throughout the day. It was a time of rejoicing. The native Elders spoke with great freedom and power."

"On Monday evening the choir gave a concert."

"On Wednesday evening we held a priesthood meeting, which was attended by some forty or fifty of the local priesthood, and several Elders from Zion. After the reports of the various Branches were given in, which were very encouraging, President C. G. Larsen and myself addressed the brethren at some length; Brother J. Franzen interpreting for me. Again we had an excellent time. The Elders are feeling well and happy in their labours."

"We have had the pleasure of seeing the kings and queens of Denmark and Sweden, the latter being on a visit to the former."

"We are well. We leave to-morrow for Stockholm, thence to Berlin, Cassel, Frankfurt, Basel, Bern, Geneva, Paris to London."

"JOSEPH F. SMITH."

"Nottingham, May 21.—To-morrow, one year will have passed since I came to labor under President Lyman in the Nottingham Conference. Two or three months previous to that time my health appeared to be on the decline, and my feelings at times were anything but buoyant, and it was thought by some that I had altogether met my end. For I had an earnest desire to perform a mission before me, that would meet the approval of heaven—the servants of God who sent me—and also of my family and friends. Many times since then have I been thankful to him, who inspired my brethren to permit me to continue my labors in the ministry, and who appointed me to do so, and that to under those favorable circumstances in which I have since been placed; for in a short time after my arrival here, I was restored to my former health and buoyancy of spirits, and in my travels to-day I am in my labors ever since."

"On Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday of May 14th, 15th and 16th, I held meetings in the open air, at the following places in Lincolnshire: Sleaford, Swineshead and Wigford; and had attentive audiences at each place. The following Sunday, May 17th, I received instructions by letter from brother Lyman for me to hold meetings in the open air, and to advise the brethren in my travels to do the same during the fine weather and long days. From May 2nd to the 16th I held seven meetings in the open air, and gave the word of life with the gift of utterance while addressing them; and at which, in all probability, I bore testimony to the restoration of the Gospel to more persons not of our faith, than I would at thirty of our in-door meetings."

"The Saints have been exceedingly kind to me, and have ministered to my wants in a most generous manner, and have given me a hearty welcome to their homes."

"I have had a season of my spirits buoyant; it is the same with my genial friend and fellow laborer, Brother George L. Farrell."

"Elder W. & G. Brown lived here yesterday in good health and spirits."

"JOHN SQUIRES."

"Manchester, May 24.—There was a time when the Manchester Branch was equal to any in the British Mission; but we do not number so many today as we did twenty-five years ago. Manchester has furnished its quota of Saints for Zion. We are well represented in Utah. At the present time, I have twenty-five Saints, and I am glad to say that the majority of them being alive in the faith, and I judge that their labors below are under the able presidency of Elder John Miller, a veteran in the cause of truth. We are adding to our number by baptism."

"We had a picnic on Whit-Friday on the farm of Elder John D. Downs, at Wittington, near Manchester. Elder Samuel Brown, Teacher Rushton and myself, were the committee of management. Elder Downs kindly furnished the children with milk. Post. Sneggers and Elder Holbrook were present."

"JOSE H. DEWNESE."
