The Evening paper is the paper of Today, the morning paper is the paper of Yesterday.

DESERET EVENING NEWS.

5 O'clock EDITION.

TRUTH AND LIBERTY.

NO. 259. THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 27, 1894, SALT LAKE CITY, UTAH. VOL. XXVII.

MORE AMNESTY

A Presidential Proclamation Issued Today.

CIVIL RIGHTS RESTORED;

Pardon to Polygamists, Either Convicted Or Not,

THOUGH WITH A RESERVATION.

Applying to Those Who Have Not Complied With the Amnesty Proclamation of Pres. Harrison.

The following highly important dispatch from Washington was received this afternoon. From a perusal of it there is no doubt that it is preceded by certain whereases almost as important as the proclamation itself. That it will be read with exceeding interest by thousands of people in the Territory and in the adjoining states is true beyond the possibility of doubt. The telegram is as follows:

WASHINGTON, D. C.,
Sept. 27, 1894.

Chairman of the Utah Commission, Salt Lake City:

Dear Sir—The President has made a proclamation as follows: "Now, therefore, I, Grover Cleveland, President of the United States, by virtue of the powers in me vested do hereby declare and grant a full amnesty and pardon to all persons who have in violation of said act committed either of the offenses of polygamy, bigamy, adultery or unlawful cohabitation under the color of polygamy or plural marriage, or who having been convicted of violation of said act are now suffering deprivation of civil rights in consequence of the same, excepting all persons who have not complied with the conditions to said executive proclamation of January 4, 1893.

W. Q. GRESHAM,
Secretary of State.

By Associated Press.

CHICAGO, Sept. 27.—A Washington special to the Tribune says: President Cleveland has granted amnesty to all Mormons. A proclamation to that effect was given out this afternoon. The preamble sets forth the statutory definition of polygamy, bigamy, etc., the promise of the Mormon Church to no longer sanction such crimes, the conditional amnesty granted by President Harrison to certain Mormons and the belief that the Mormons are obeying the laws. The proclamation concludes: [Here follows the text of the document as published above.]

FAITH IN CHINA.

Captain Gordon Says that Country Will Ultimately Win.

VANCOUVER, B. C., Sept. 27.—Captain Gordon, late commander of the flagship of the British Asiatic squadron, was a passenger by the Empress of India, en route home on sick leave. He says although the Japanese have the best of the fight so far, he thinks that China will ultimately win. Native enthusiasm, he says, in Japan is most intense, and not only are large numbers volunteering for active service, but private subscriptions amounting to a large fund have been contributed by rich and poor alike, the sums being contributed even from the "poor house" or local headquarters of the cities. Capt. Gordon's story bears out all the best foreign reports he has ever seen and its opportunities are first class.

Surveying the Fraser River.

VANCOUVER, B. C., Sept. 27.—The Dominion government has commenced a survey of the banks of the Fraser river from Yale to the mouth, in order to settle a suitable working scheme that will prevent a repetition of the disastrous flood of last year. It is thought the work of construction will be commenced next spring.

A RAILROAD PROJECT.

Down the San Joaquin Valley in Competition With the S. P.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 27.—The project of a railroad down the San Joaquin valley, in competition with the Southern Pacific railroad, has been entered into by the Traffic Association, and five trustees were elected.

An agreement has been drawn up and signed by the trustees and will soon be signed by each of the directors, etc. It is covenanted that the stock shall be placed in the hands of Isaac Upham, F. W. Vanderhaise, H. F. Dutcher, Thomas Magee and Alvinza Hayward in trust jointly. They shall vote for the board of directors and such officers as are usually chosen by the stockholders, and the stock entrusted to them will not confer a controlling fund from the Bay of San Francisco via Fresno to some point in Kern county, probably Bakersfield.

The name of the new line is to be the San Francisco, Stockton & San Joaquin Railroad company, with a capital stock of $3,000,000, although it is believed $2,000,000 will be ample for construction and rolling stock. No subscription to the stock is to be valid unless more than $200,000 persons per day, and who utilizing watchmen to the city, that the plant is not now and was not at the time it was sold to the city of greater value than $750,000, and that it was well known to the company and its agents that throughout the great hilly region upon the representations made by the company, and that it was, in effect, swindled out of $1,000,000, in which amount the city was damaged and now seeks relief.

TONG WARS.

Twenty Rioters Attack the Japanese Temple.

YOKOHAMA, Sept. 27.—The Tong Hans, a powerful set of Corean refugees, have attacked the Japanese temple, at Tsuki, southern Corea. Reinforcements have been sent the Japanese from Pusan.

The Tong Hahs constitute one of the most powerful revolutionary elements of Corea. They are the precursors of the Corean risen and commerce in the presence of foreigners. The Tong Hahs have taken a prominent part in the Corea of the foreigners and they represent the Japanese as well as the people of other nations. Last year, incited by the Tong Hans, 30,000 Coreans threatened to massacre the Coreans, capital and expel the foreigners there. The movement was suppressed but the feeling which existed led to disturbances which eventually brought about the war between China and Japan.

FATALLY BEAMED.

One More Victim of Gasoline Explosion.

WICHITA, Kas., Sept. 27.—Mrs. Mary C. McDaniel was fatally burned by sending paraffine on a gasoline stove today. After the explosion she ran half a block in the open air and fell in a grass plot, where some boys found her and carried her to her home. She was burned from head to foot.

Found Out at Last.

NEW YORK, Sept. 27.—Captain Henry Howgate, formerly chief of the secret service at Washington, was arrested in this city today on charges of forgery and embezzlement of $200,000, committed in 1878 and 1879.

The arrest is the result of a search which has occupied the attention of the United States secret service over 15 years.

Howgate was arrested in 1880 in Washington, but having obtained permission to go to his room to dress, he escaped through a window and has since been able to elude all attempts at recapture. It is thought that he went to Canada. Howgate was a notorious witness of Washington for whom it was alleged he robbed the government.

DEL'S CASE.

Argument for the Government Closed —The Defense.

CHICAGO, Sept. 27.—Assistant District Attorney Bonfield closed the argument for the government in the Debs case.

S. S. Gregory, for the defense, contended that workingmen have a right to strike, based on the Constitution, and that any interested party has a right to order a strike. The attorney insisted the United States courts for injunctive writs against Debs were void and that he can not be punished for refusing to obey a void injunction.

APPROACHING NEW YORK.

Forecast About the Hurricane Moving North Along the Coast.

NEW YORK, Sept. 27.—The West Indian hurricane is moving in its usually in this direction. Early today it was off the coast of South Carolina. It is traveling slowly in an easterly direction with a rotary motion describing circles about 2,000 miles in diameter. Speaking of the storm the weather forecaster said: "We shall begin to feel the storm by tonight or tomorrow. The rainfall attending the storm is the heaviest ever known on the coast, 4 or 5 inches having fallen. We shall get the full violence of the storm here and do not anticipate that it will be so severe as they report having down south. If the storm is confined to the ocean, we may say that its worst is over. The top of the storm is now passing Cape Hatteras, and we