

SULLIVAN-UNHOLZ TOMORROW NIGHT

Lightweights Ready For Their Twenty Round Battle at Ogden Opera House.

BOTH IN GOOD CONDITION.

SAMMY MCCLINTIC Anxious to Match Hyland With Winner of Herman-McFarland Contest Tonight.

Practically everything is in readiness for the 20-round fight scheduled for Ogden tomorrow evening between Pete Sullivan and Rudolph Unholz. Both fighters declare they are in the best of physical condition and each is confident of victory by the knockout route. Sullivan left off training yesterday and today did nothing but a little shadow work to prevent going "stone." This afternoon, with his manager, Tom Osborne, and a few friends, he left for the Junction City where he will rest tomorrow. Sullivan is below the required weight. The men fight at 138 pounds ringside. This morning Sullivan tipped the beam at 135, which demonstrates that he is a lightweight and can easily drop down to 133 and be strong. He declares he is in better condition than ever before and does not concede the Boer a chance to defeat him. When he fought "Cyclone" Thompson, Sullivan was in anything but first class shape, but in spite of that fact he was awarded the decision.

Jimmy McDonald, who has been training with Sullivan, will act as the latter's second. McDonald is matched to fight Charles Williams at Rawlins. Elsewhere on this page is an account of the match of these fighters. They will fight for the middleweight championship of Wyoming.

Book Unholz says he is in splendid shape for the fight and is down to weight. He claims to have improved greatly since his fight with Thompson and declares he will prove clever enough and strong enough to bring home the money tomorrow night. He is confident of landing a knockout punch and has many friends in Ogden who will help him.

WITH THE BOWLERS.

CROWNS.

Pierpoint	... 400	180	224	604
Collins	... 139	172	146	505
Bart	... 128	129	170	437
S. Williams	... 161	198	170	533
J. Williams	... 180	178	181	540
Totals	... 863	868	891	2422
Z. C. M. L.
Margolis	... 398	212	231	642
Haymond	... 178	165	175	518
Walters	... 172	202	190	635
R. Williams	... 178	185	181	554
S. Spitz	... 172	194	157	525
Totals	... 904	965	904	2774

CLASS FOOTBALL GAME.

Medics and Laws Teams Fight it out On Gridiron This Afternoon.

The annual football game between the medics and the laws team at the University of Utah is scheduled for this afternoon. Other class teams are getting ready for their games and from now on the students will have a busy time on the gridiron. Yesterday afternoon there was a bunch of them.

PLAY OPEN GAME.

Yale is playing the remodeled game for all it is worth, making special points of kicking, punting, end and back work. It is open play, which makes it more interesting for the spectators, and the 34,000 who witnessed the game promises to be a good one.

PENNY GOSSIP.

Next Saturday the All Hallows football team will meet the academy of Idaho team on Cummings field.

GO THE SCENIC WAY. The Rio Grande and Burlington Route have daily tourist express trains to the coast to Chicago via Denver, also daily except Thursday, tourist sleepers to St. Louis, on many days of the week personally conducted Tourist Sleepers Excursions to Cheyenne and St. Louis.

Pete Sullivan and Charley Neary are likely to give a 10 round boxing exhibition at the Park City high school on Dec. 5. Neary will be in Salt Lake soon and will go to the coast where he expects to get a number of important matches. John Chapman heard of his coming and made arrangements for a bout between Neary and Sullivan.

The Logan Aggies seem to be in hard luck as far as getting games is concerned. They have signed up for a game with the St. Vincent college team but failed. Then efforts were made to sign for a game with the Oregon Aggies but the latter declined, stating the season was too far advanced. Coach Walker is now burning the wires trying to induce the St. Vincents to come here for a game on Christmas. The Aggies do not care to compete. The Aggies team will be disbanded on Thanksgiving day. A game with some local team may be played on that date.

Bill Squires had a narrow escape from death in a California oil factory the other day. Bill has fought two fights so this is his third hairbreadth escape. When he got back to Australia again he can rightly star in that thrilling drama "The Man Who Came Back Alive."

Manager Connie Mack of the Athletics does not think that Willie Keeler has outlived his usefulness. Connie says: "Willie had a bad season this year, but I think he will come back." As an evidence of my faith in Keeler, I will take him any time the Highlanders feel they no longer need him." Mack remembers vividly how Jimmy Collins braved up the Athletics and kept them in the American league fight until the last days of the season.

Jerry McCarthy, the notorious pug who used to box in New York seems to have been resurrected from the plastic graveyard long enough to be knocked out or lay down. The Butte Inter-Mountain has the following about Jerry: Jerry McCarthy was defeated by Clarence English in eight rounds of Sioux City, Iowa, just after the last hard contest. The men were biffed to go to the rounds but McCarthy tired badly in the fifth after being downed really in which he tried to turn the tide of battle, and only the song saved him in the seventh. After being knocked down three times in the eighth round McCarthy was unable to get up and was counted out. Jack Sullivan of Butte acted as McCarthy's manager and seconded him in the fight.

GENUINE CASTORIA ALWAYS

Bear the Signature of

Chas. H. Fletcher.

The Kind You Have Always Bought

In Use For Over 30 Years.

THE CASTORIA COMPANY, 77 MURRAY STREET, NEW YORK CITY.

A Nurse's Story

If you are a sufferer from headache, neuralgia, or pain from any cause you should read the following letter from a nurse.

"For sometime I have felt it my duty to write you, as I was having no doctor twice every week for headache. All he did for me was to give something to drink. I am not well now. Sometimes the pain was so severe that I could not speak and members of my family stood over me and gave me something to drink. After a few days I was released. A couple of Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills came into my hands. I read the directions very carefully and took one every day. The next time my head began to ache I took the Pain Pill according to directions and I felt I was getting better so went to the drugstore for another box and took them until I was so much better that I was about the house all the afternoon. I did not speak to anyone about my headache until I met her again. When we met sometime after he wanted to know how I was and I told him what had been done, and he replied 'I'll give you a box of Miles' Anti-Pain Pills to help you stick to it,' and so I have. Being a nurse I have recommended them to a great many great people. Once I had a neighbor who gave me a box to go to a neighbor every week for months because she had such awful headaches. I told her I had a few times and she said 'why didn't you tell me about them before?' I could tell her about them but I did not tell her about them before because I did not want to bother her and I gave her a half a box of Miles' Pain Pill and she said 'Well, I'll take it.' I told her but I did not do it again. She says that she is not able to bear and said, 'why didn't you tell me about them before?' I could tell her about them but I did not tell her about them before because I did not want to bother her and I gave her a half a box of Miles' Pain Pill and she said 'Well, I'll take it.'

Mr. Callahan considers Cornell as having the next best team in the college world, and would like to see the Cornell team again. He thinks that the prospects of the team are excellent. They sing an illustrated song called "I Know It's Wrong to Take But When the Old Folks at Home" which is something to speculate over.

WILLIAMS- McDONALD FIGHT AT RAWLINS.

(Special to the "News.")

Rawlins, Wyo., Nov. 21.—Charles Williams, lightweight champion of Wyoming, and Jim McDonald of Dehydrator have been matched for 15 rounds. The fight will occur at Rawlins on Nov. 27. Both men are in training. This will be their third meeting. Williams is winning the title, and the most recent bout in a draw. The latter fight occurred at Saratoga, and ended 20 rounds of the fastest fighting ever seen in this section. Both men are determined to win the third fight, and will start at 10 o'clock.

TO RECEIVE WESTON.

Chicago, Nov. 26.—With a view of making the reception of Edward Payson Weston on its arrival in Chicago next week worthy of his performances in a recent match, the Illinois Athletic club and efforts will be made to include the mayor and other city officials in the reception, as has been done in other cities through which Mr. Weston has passed along leaving Portland, Me.

YALE VS. HARVARD.

Opinion of Local Expert on Game Next Saturday.

Local football experts are looking for "a cinch" on the part of Yale as against Harvard next Saturday, at New Haven in football. D. A. Callahan who has been watching the progress of the season carefully, has made up his mind that the sons of Old Eli will score a comparatively easy victory. Harvard has not shown up well this season, in fact, has had the poorest team for some years, while the Yale team is considered one of the best the college ever had. Harvard had, of course, won posted men in attendance on the Yale-Princeton game, when every play was noted, and on the return of the critics to Cambridge, the details were fully reported and discussed among the Crimson athletes. But, as Mr. Callahan says, Yale will change tactics her tactics for the contest next Saturday, so that, after all the tips that were given away last Saturday, are not likely to be of much value to the Cambridge team, as they will face a new proposition in the matter of tactics and strategy. Mr. Callahan made special reference to the strong contrast between the two halves of the Princeton-Yale game. One set of tactics was tried during the first half by the Blues, and found to be good, as the score 10 to 0 against the Harvard team proved. Then the methods of procedure were radically altered, and an entirely new set of game put up. This proved efficacious as the final score evidenced, 12 to 10 in favor of Yale.

PLAY OPEN GAME.

Yale is playing the remodeled game for all it is worth, making special points of kicking, punting, end and back work. It is open play, which makes it more interesting for the spectators, and the 34,000 who witnessed the game promises to be a good one.

PENNY GOSSIP.

Next Saturday the All Hallows football team will meet the academy of Idaho team on Cummings field.

GO THE SCENIC WAY. The Rio Grande and Burlington Route have daily tourist express trains to the coast to Chicago via Denver, also daily except Thursday, tourist sleepers to St. Louis, on many days of the week personally conducted Tourist Sleepers Excursions to Cheyenne and St. Louis.

Pete Sullivan and Charley Neary are likely to give a 10 round boxing exhibition at the Park City high school on Dec. 5. Neary will be in Salt Lake soon and will go to the coast where he expects to get a number of important matches. John Chapman heard of his coming and made arrangements for a bout between Neary and Sullivan.

The Logan Aggies seem to be in hard luck as far as getting games is concerned. They have signed up for a game with the St. Vincent college team but failed. Then efforts were made to sign for a game with the Oregon Aggies but the latter declined, stating the season was too far advanced. Coach Walker is now burning the wires trying to induce the St. Vincents to come here for a game on Christmas. The Aggies do not care to compete. The Aggies team will be disbanded on Thanksgiving day. A game with some local team may be played on that date.

Bill Squires had a narrow escape from death in a California oil factory the other day. Bill has fought two fights so this is his third hairbreadth escape. When he got back to Australia again he can rightly star in that thrilling drama "The Man Who Came Back Alive."

Manager Connie Mack of the Athletics does not think that Willie Keeler has outlived his usefulness. Connie says: "Willie had a bad season this year, but I think he will come back." As an evidence of my faith in Keeler, I will take him any time the Highlanders feel they no longer need him." Mack remembers vividly how Jimmy Collins braved up the Athletics and kept them in the American league fight until the last days of the season.

Jerry McCarthy, the notorious pug who used to box in New York seems to have been resurrected from the plastic graveyard long enough to be knocked out or lay down. The Butte Inter-Mountain has the following about Jerry: Jerry McCarthy was defeated by Clarence English in eight rounds of Sioux City, Iowa, just after the last hard contest. The men were biffed to go to the rounds but McCarthy tired badly in the fifth after being downed really in which he tried to turn the tide of battle, and only the song saved him in the seventh. After being knocked down three times in the eighth round McCarthy was unable to get up and was counted out. Jack Sullivan of Butte acted as McCarthy's manager and seconded him in the fight.

GENUINE CASTORIA ALWAYS

Bear the Signature of

Chas. H. Fletcher.

The Kind You Have Always Bought

In Use For Over 30 Years.

THE CASTORIA COMPANY, 77 MURRAY STREET, NEW YORK CITY.

the great game of Saturday last enjoyed it as never before. One great explanation of Yale's marked prominence in football, is, as Mr. Callahan says, due to the timely advice and counsel of Walter Camp, who is considered the greatest authority on the game living. It has been remarked that when Walter Camp and Mike Murphy sat together, nothing went together—well, it was something fresh.

It has been remarked that Yale may get into a box through "despising an enemy." But Mr. Callahan says there is no danger of that. Yale recognizes that no matter how poorly Harvard may show up as against other colleges, when she comes against Yale, it is "blood in the water." Harvard will fight as against no one else, when she lines up against the Elis, so it is a case of "you can't always tell" when they two get together.

Mr. Callahan considers Cornell as having the next best team in the college world, and would like to see the Cornell team again. He thinks that the prospects of the team are excellent. They sing an illustrated song called "I Know It's Wrong to Take But When the Old Folks at Home" which is something to speculate over.

Mr. Callahan considers Cornell as having the next best team in the college world, and would like to see the Cornell team again. He thinks that the prospects of the team are excellent. They sing an illustrated song called "I Know It's Wrong to Take But When the Old Folks at Home" which is something to speculate over.

Mr. Callahan considers Cornell as having the next best team in the college world, and would like to see the Cornell team again. He thinks that the prospects of the team are excellent. They sing an illustrated song called "I Know It's Wrong to Take But When the Old Folks at Home" which is something to speculate over.

Mr. Callahan considers Cornell as having the next best team in the college world, and would like to see the Cornell team again. He thinks that the prospects of the team are excellent. They sing an illustrated song called "I Know It's Wrong to Take But When the Old Folks at Home" which is something to speculate over.

Mr. Callahan considers Cornell as having the next best team in the college world, and would like to see the Cornell team again. He thinks that the prospects of the team are excellent. They sing an illustrated song called "I Know It's Wrong to Take But When the Old Folks at Home" which is something to speculate over.

Mr. Callahan considers Cornell as having the next best team in the college world, and would like to see the Cornell team again. He thinks that the prospects of the team are excellent. They sing an illustrated song called "I Know It's Wrong to Take But When the Old Folks at Home" which is something to speculate over.

Mr. Callahan considers Cornell as having the next best team in the college world, and would like to see the Cornell team again. He thinks that the prospects of the team are excellent. They sing an illustrated song called "I Know It's Wrong to Take But When the Old Folks at Home" which is something to speculate over.

Mr. Callahan considers Cornell as having the next best team in the college world, and would like to see the Cornell team again. He thinks that the prospects of the team are excellent. They sing an illustrated song called "I Know It's Wrong to Take But When the Old Folks at Home" which is something to speculate over.

Mr. Callahan considers Cornell as having the next best team in the college world, and would like to see the Cornell team again. He thinks that the prospects of the team are excellent. They sing an illustrated song called "I Know It's Wrong to Take But When the Old Folks at Home" which is something to speculate over.

Mr. Callahan considers Cornell as having the next best team in the college world, and would like to see the Cornell team again. He thinks that the prospects of the team are excellent. They sing an illustrated song called "I Know It's Wrong to Take But When the Old Folks at Home" which is something to speculate over.

Mr. Callahan considers Cornell as having the next best team in the college world, and would like to see the Cornell team again. He thinks that the prospects of the team are excellent. They sing an illustrated song called "I Know It's Wrong to Take But When the Old Folks at Home" which is something to speculate over.

Mr. Callahan considers Cornell as having the next best team in the college world, and would like to see the Cornell team again. He thinks that the prospects of the team are excellent. They sing an illustrated song called "I Know It's Wrong to Take But When the Old Folks at Home" which is something to speculate over.

Mr. Callahan considers Cornell as having the next best team in the college world, and would like to see the Cornell team again. He thinks that the prospects of the team are excellent. They sing an illustrated song called "I Know It's Wrong to Take But When the Old Folks at Home" which is something to speculate over.

Mr. Callahan considers Cornell as having the next best team in the college world, and would like to see the Cornell team again. He thinks that the prospects of the team are excellent. They sing an illustrated song called "I Know It's Wrong to Take But When the Old Folks at Home" which is something to speculate over.

Mr. Callahan considers Cornell as having the next best team in the college world, and would like to see the Cornell team again. He thinks that the prospects of the team are excellent. They sing an illustrated song called "I Know It's Wrong to Take But When the Old Folks at Home" which is something to speculate over.

Mr. Callahan considers Cornell as having the next best team in the college world, and would like to see the Cornell team again. He thinks that the prospects of the team are excellent. They sing an illustrated song called "I Know It's Wrong to Take But When the Old Folks at Home" which is something to speculate over.

Mr. Callahan considers Cornell as having the next best team in the college world, and would like to see the Cornell team again. He thinks that the prospects of the team are excellent. They sing an illustrated song called "I Know It's Wrong to Take But When the Old Folks at Home" which is something to speculate over.