

NON-PARTISAN CONVENTIONS ON

Meetings Tonight to Nominate Candidates for Board of Education.

JUDGE HENDERSON NAMED.

"Americans" Will Make an Effort to Drag the Schools Into a Straight Political Fight.

At the twentieth ward amusement hall, non-partisan mass convention to nominate a candidate for the board of education, for the fourth precinct.

At the sixth ward amusement hall, non-partisan convention to nominate a candidate for the school board in the second precinct.

In addition to these meetings the following "American" party conventions will be held, in an attempt to drag the schools into a straight political fight.

First Ward—Judge Whitaker's court-room, basement of city and county building.

Second Ward—Cullen hotel dining-room.

Third Ward—Mass convention at home of Samuel M. Barlow, 306 north second west.

Fourth Ward—Knott's hall, First street between N and O streets.

Fifth Ward—Judge Diehl's court-room, 230 east First South street.

JUDGE HENDERSON NAMED.

The first of the non-partisan mass conventions of citizens was held last night. The meeting place was Judge Diehl's court-room and it required a session of less than three minutes to agree upon Judge H. P. Henderson for re-nomination. The nomination was made unanimous and came by acclamation upon motion of Maj. H. P. Myton.

There were no other aspirants for the place and the service of Judge Henderson upon the board was considered as excellent that the only thing to do was to return him to the service. J. M. Horn acted as secretary.

There will remain after tonight non-partisan conventions to be held in the first ward, Thursday evening at 8 o'clock; at the seventh ward meeting-house; and in the third ward Monday evening at the High school building.

"AMERICANS" NAME OFFICERS.

Another Effort to Swing School Board Into Kearns' Machine.

The newly formed "American" club, the object of which is to swing the school board into the Kearns machine, of such a thing is possible, elected officers last night. Robert S. Conner, who in Walker Bros' bank, was elected president, and the following were chosen for the executive committee: Thomas Homer, Judge A. C. Cherry, E. A. Rodgers, G. R. Cleveland and Thomas Watkins. President W. Houston and Secy. Frank R. Christensen are to serve on the board of trustees, as ex-officio members.

Joseph Lippman was present as a non-partisan representative of the barrel which he located early in the past campaign by scenting it from afar and compelling down upon it before it got to the Kearns machine. Lippman's mission is to prevent any members of the club from expressing a dislike of Kearns along with their dislike of the political conditions, and at the final show down to hook the "American" party sentiment up to the Kearns office-getting machine. That was what they did last night. The campaign to the loss of hundreds of votes, which were for supposed principles, but not for Kearns, and resented the "baiting in" of Kearns' personal interests, after they had once left the party to die before Darmer picked it up and shoved it through for the successful city campaign of a year ago.

No false pretense has marked the career of Ely's Cream Balm. No idle promises of rewards for cases it does not cure. Being entirely harmless, it is not responsible like the catarrh pills and powders, for minds shattered by delusion. The great positive virtue of Ely's Cream Balm is that it speedily and completely cures nasal catarrh and hay fever. JORDAN STAKE CONFERENCE

Spirited Addresses by Elders Whitney, Richards, Young and Others.

IMPORTANCE OF SACRAMENT.

Spiritual and Corporal Starvation and Their Effects Compared—Young Should Qualify for Ministry.

The quarterly conference of the Jordan stake of Zion was held at Sandy, Salt Lake county, Saturday and Sunday, Nov. 17 and 18, commencing at 10 a. m. Saturday. There were present of the general authorities of the Church Elders Geo. F. Richards, Orson F. Whitney and Seymour B. Young.

The presidency of the stake presided. The Sandy and Union ward choirs furnished the singing in a pleasing and competent manner throughout the entire conference. Owing to the inclemency of the weather the attendance at the first meeting was not very large, otherwise the meetings were well attended both by representative officers and the saints generally.

After the usual opening service, of song and prayer, President Hyrum Goff made the opening remarks, welcoming the saints to conference and reported that the general conditions and affairs in the stake are good. Other reports were given by President Hilda H. Larson of the stake Relief societies, and by Bishop Wm. D. Kuhre of the Sandy ward. Elder Geo. F. Richards complimented the saints for having erected a number of commodious meeting-houses at great expense and otherwise contributing to the advancement of the Church. He regretted, however, that many of the young men in Zion failed to qualify themselves for labor in the ministry. This he thought was a serious mistake. Some seemed to feel that they are doing the Lord's work by keeping his commandments and doing his work, when in fact we are favoring ourselves, for the gospel is given for our salvation.

Elder Orson F. Whitney said too many are inclined to draw the line as to how much they shall do for the cause of the Lord. Some may congratulate themselves for their inability and oftentimes unworthiness of performing missions abroad. Such conditions are nearly always coupled with unwillingness to labor at home. The Lord makes commandments for our sakes; and by so doing he figuratively speaking furnishes us employment. If we work we shall receive the reward. The way to progress is to accept every call that comes. Man should not set up his judgment against the Lord's but should cultivate a spirit of willingness to do the bidding of his Father in heaven.

At the Saturday afternoon session Elder James Jensen of the stake presidency, spoke upon the general duties of the Latter-day Saints and urged the promotion of the stake organizations, especially the Religion class work. Elder Orson F. Whitney said the credit for a good, spirited meeting or the responsibility for a dull meeting is divided between the speakers and the listeners and may be likened to the sowing of the seed; which for the purpose of the abundant harvest is not done until after the soil has been prepared; the Lord in each instance giving the growth. The Saints do not attach enough importance, he said, to attendance at the stake meetings. Absenting oneself from these gatherings is much the same as fasting from temporal food; first a hunger, a craving; then an indifference, a dislike and a distaste for food. Much of the apathy and neglect of duty is due to the non attendance at stake meetings. The erring ones need not remain away. It is a serious matter of course to partake of the holy sacrament unworthily, thereby eating and drinking condemnation to our souls; yet repentance and turning again to the Lord with a full purpose of heart will entitle all to partake of the spiritual food. The excuses for apostasy are that Mormonism has changed and that the saints have outgrown Mormonism. The trouble is that those who think they have outgrown Mormonism have become so small that they have dropped out. The fundamental principles of the gospel do not change. Only the appearance of the Church changes from time to time as does the appearance of a child from childhood to manhood. Those who have in the past forsaken this work have not all been wicked, but many have starved the spirit within them by omitting to attend to their smaller duties; especially that of attending the stake meetings.

Elder George F. Richards said: It is much better for us to live lives pleasing to the Lord instead of being chastized and brought to a forcible realization of the duties we owe to our Father in heaven. It is not sufficient for Latter-day Saints to be good. A constant labor for salvation all the days of our lives is required. The principal to be remembered is the Father's admonition, "See that ye love one another."

On Sunday morning Elder J. W. W. Fitzgerald of the presidency of the stake spoke upon stake matters, explaining that certain efforts are being made for the betterment of the quorums and organizations. He spoke also upon education in the Church schools. Reports were made by Bishop John A. Egbert of the West Jordan ward, by President Samuel Bateman of the "Thirty-third quorum of seventy," by President Nels W. Magnuson of the Third quorum of elders.

Elder Seymour B. Young of the First

Council of Seventy spoke upon the mode of living of young men who may be called on missions, and particularly recommended the observance of the word of wisdom by all such as a means of great benefit and strength both of body and of mind.

Sunday afternoon: The Sacrament was administered under the direction of the bishopric of Sandy ward. The general authorities of the Church and of the stake were present and sustained.

Elder George F. Richards spoke of the responsibilities that rest upon the Latter-day Saints by reason of having received the blessings and privileges of the gospel, the power of the priesthood. He exhorted all to diligence and faithfulness in paying tithes and offerings, and taking advantage of the privileges afforded by the temple ordinances. The strangers that come among us should be looked after and treated right, both by precept and by example. Parents were admonished to teach their children the principles of the gospel and have them commence early in life to be active workers in the cause of Christ and thus be preserved in the faith.

President Hyrum Goff made a few closing remarks, and the conference closed by the united choirs singing the anthem, "Let the Mountains Shout for Joy," and benediction by Patriarch William C. Allen.

M. I. A. CONFERENCE.

The usual M. I. A. conference was held Sunday evening and addressed by Elders George F. Richards and Seymour B. Young.

JURISDICTION IN DIVORCE CASES

An Important Opinion Handed Down by the Supreme Court.

WRIT OF MANDAMUS GRANTED

In Case of Emma K. Aldrich Against Her Husband—Court Ordered To Give Decree.

An opinion was handed down by the supreme court yesterday afternoon, which settles the matter of the jurisdiction of the courts of this state to grant divorces where service is made on the defendant by publication and where the defendant is not a resident of the state at the time the action is instituted. The opinion was rendered in the case of Emma K. Aldrich against John L. Aldrich, and it grants a peremptory writ of mandamus against Judge C. W. Morse of the district court requiring him to render a decree of divorce in favor of plaintiff.

SUMMONS BY PUBLICATION.

From the facts in the case it appears that the plaintiff and defendant were married in this state and had established a "domestic of matrimony" within the state. The defendant deserted plaintiff and left the state, whereupon she filed suit for divorce and the summons in the case was served by publication. Judge Morse found that the plaintiff had sufficient grounds for divorce, but that, according to the ruling of the United States supreme court in the case of Haddock vs. Haddock, there was no jurisdiction over defendant, and hence could not grant a divorce. The plaintiff then appealed to the supreme court for a writ of mandamus.

THE HADDOCK CASE.

The opinion of the supreme court, which was written by Justice Frick and concurred in by Chief Justice McCarty and Justice Straup, reviews the Haddock case and then lays down the rule which will guide the courts of this state in regard to the matter of divorces by publication. The opinion does not agree with Judge Morse's construction of the Haddock decision and in relation to the latter case has the following to say:

"As we read this case, the one essential to confer jurisdiction upon the state court in divorce proceedings is what is denominated in that case as the domicile of matrimony and that such domicile must be within the state where the action is brought and be with the party bringing the action. If such a domicile exists, then the state courts have full power to sever the marital relations upon constructive service in cases where statutory residence and a cause for divorce co-exist."

CONDITIONS SET FORTH.

The mere fact that the defendant deserts plaintiff does not affect the domicile of matrimony which confers jurisdiction upon the state courts over the parties to the action. The court then sets forth the following conditions under which divorces may be granted, upon proper cause, in compliance with the ruling of the United States supreme court in the Haddock case:

1. In cases like the Aldrich case, where the parties are residents of the state at the time of the marriage, and thus establish a domicile of matrimony in the state, and the complaining party continues the domicile up to the commencement of the action.

2. In all cases where the parties are married out of the state, but come to reside in the state afterward and recognize the marriage within the state, thus establishing a domicile of matrimony therein, and the party bringing the action continues the domicile up to the time of commencing it.

3. In all cases where a statutory cause of residence co-exists.

DOMICILE ESTABLISHED.

The supreme court holds that as the domicile of matrimony had been established in this state by the parties to the Aldrich action, the lower court should have granted plaintiff a divorce. A peremptory writ of mandamus compelling him to enter a decree. The decision of the supreme court in this matter is very important, as there are a large number of divorce cases now pending in this state which depend upon the ruling of the court on the question of service by publication to bring them within the jurisdiction of the state courts.

COURT NOTES.

Suit for divorce has been filed in the district court by Bernis Williams against George A. Williams on the ground that the defendant has been convicted of a felony and is now serving a term in the state prison. They were married in this city on Aug. 5, 1904. Williams was convicted upon the charge of grand larceny.

WATCH MAKERS

Require Steady Nerves for Fine Work.

Sitting at a watch maker's bench day in and day out is tedious work, and if the workman suffers from headache, nervousness and indigestion, as he is liable to do from his sedentary occupation, he requires special food to put him right. A Seattle man writes:

"I am a watchmaker and have sat pretty constantly at my bench for 15 years, and have suffered badly from indigestion and its many evil effects, such as headache, dizziness, nervousness, etc. I always had a weak stomach until I began to use Grape-Nuts."

"I didn't seem able to find anything that would digest properly with me for breakfast or supper, and my four children inherited the weakness from me. Now, I place four teaspoonfuls of Grape-Nuts in a dish, then set it in the oven. When good and hot I eat it with cream. This with some other food gives me a nice hot breakfast. For the children we give each one three teaspoonfuls with warm milk, which softens it and they like it better."

"We have practically the same for supper and are not troubled in sleep with an overloaded stomach. With this diet we keep our digestion in fine condition and our continual good health and fat rosy boys prove that we are on the right track."

"I have gained in weight and have found a food in Grape-Nuts that has saved me lots of doctors' bills for the children, and has given me a clear head, steady hand and good digestion for the past two years."

"One must have a steady nerve and feel well to work on fine watch work, and the use of Grape-Nuts twice a day has kept me right up to the mark." Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich. Read the book, "The Road to Wellville," in place. "There's a reason."

Why Vinol Is Better Than Any Other Remedy to Restore Health and Strength

Because Vinol is a real Cod Liver Preparation and does not contain a single disagreeable or harmful ingredient and is not a secret formula.

Because Vinol contains all the medicinal elements—the soothing, healing, strengthening and flesh creating properties of Cod Liver Oil—but without oil or grease.

Because everything in Vinol,—except the tonic iron and a fine old wine,—is actually extracted from fresh cods' livers and their oil.

Because Vinol is deliciously palatable and agreeable under all conditions. Everybody likes it.

Because Vinol tones up the system, strengthens every organ, nerve, muscle and fibre of the whole body and thus overcomes weakness by thoroughly eradicating the cause of disease.

That's Why Vinol is altogether different and better than any other remedy for Coughs, Colds, Bronchitis, and all Throat, Lung and Wasting Diseases.

That's Why Vinol Restores Health and Strength to Delicate Children, Feeble Old People, Weak and Sickly Persons, Nursing Mothers, and Convalescents.
