Dr. FOOTE, Senior,
Of 120 Lexington Avenue, New York,

Hereby cautions the public NOT to Employ or Communicate With a man styling himself "Dr. Foot, Jr." without making due inquiry.

This man came to Salt Lake City representing himself as the son of Dr. E. B. FOOTE of New York, the well known specialist, as abundantly proved by affidavits. As rumors came into Salt Lake City from Dakota and Montana from an exposé made there, he changed his base and represented himself as the son of a more noted specialist in New York City than Dr. E. B. FOOTE, the well known author. Mr. JOHN F. TROW, of the well known Trow's Directory, in New York City (forty years in the directory business), Ex-Governor FRANK FULLER, of Utah, and the Hon. ABRAM WAKEMAN, for many years Postmaster in New York City, also Surveyor of the Port, gave their affidavits that there are no other doctors in New York by the name of FOOTE or FOOTE, excepting Dr. E. B. FOOTE, the the author of "Medical Common Sense," etc., and his two sons, DR. E. B. FOOTE, JR., and Dr. HUBERT T. FOOTE. The genuine Dr. FOOTE, Jr., will hereafter always employ the initials, E. B., in designating his name. Heretofore he has been known not only at home but wherever his publications have been circulated, by the name of Dr. FOOTE, Jr. Greater care will be taken hereafter, in view of the fact that an unprincipled person has assumed to profit by his and his father's reputation.

Those desiring further and more detailed information in respect to this matter, will receive it by addressing Box 414, Salt Lake City Utah.

Persons having information of advantage to plaintiffs will kindly communicate the same to J. W. Ivey, with Sutherland & McBride, Salt Lake City.

A GRAND JURY REPORT.

EXCUSING THE "WEAK AND VICIOUS" OFFICERS OF THE COURT,

AND CONDEMNING PEACE OFFICERS FOR ARRESTING CRIMINALS.

Yesterday afternoon the grand jury of the Third District came into court and presented six indictments under Territorial laws. The following report was also submitted. It plainly shows the marks of its infamous author.

Hon. C. S. Zane, Judge, Third District Court:

Your Grand Jury herewith returns two indictments for conspiracy, four indictments for keeping houses of ill-fame, under the Territorial laws, and one indictment for carrying on business as a retail liquor dealer without payment of the special tax therefor under the law of Congress.

In connection therewith we deem it our duty to specially report as follows:

Since the year A.D. 1876, there has been a statute of the Territory prohibiting the keeping of, residing in, or resorting to houses of ill-fame for the purposes of prostitution or lewdness (See Com. Laws, p. 693). During a great part, if not all, of the period, ordinances of the municipality of Salt Lake City upon the same subject have been in exisrence. Under these ordinances a few weeks ago a number of prosecutions were instituted under circumstances which very generally attracted public attention. These proceedings were summarily brought to an end because of the ruling of this Court, determining the question of law immediately involved adversely to the city. The attention of the grand jury, as well as the public, was, however, directed to certain matters connected with these prosecutions, and in the discharge of our duty, as understood by us, we have investigated the same as thoroughly as the means at our command would permit. Officers of the county and city governments, together with private citizens, have appeared before us and been sworn and examined, and the present result of our inquiry is embodied in indictments herewith returned. We are not content, however, to pass the matter over without further and emphatic expression condemnatory of the methods and practices hereinafter mentioned.

Some time in April or May last an officer of the city government, not connected with the police, with others unknown at present to the grand jury, entered into a conspiracy to open houses of assignation and ill-fame within the city limits, for the avowed purpose of entrapping weak and vicious persons into the commission of offenses against chastity and morality, in order that all such might be exposed and punished in the courts. This scheme involved the renting and fitting up of houses for the purpose, the employment of public and private prostitutes, the conversion of the police bureau into a nest of spotters and spies, and the expenditure of a large sum of money.

For years there have been well-known houses of prostitution in Salt Lake, which have been under police surveillance, and at stated periods have contributed monthly to the revenues of the municipality. Several of these houses are situated on the main and prominent streets of the city, and with their keepers and proprietors have been and are by reputation generally known in the community. We do not understand that the scheme above mentioned contemplated the investigation of these places, nor the enforcement of the law against those who reside therein or resort thereto for purposes of prostitution or lewdness. On the contrary, as appears by the evidence before us, the plan was conceived and carried into effect without reference to the suppression of existing nuisances, but with the design of using the criminal law as a snare for the weak and immoral, and with the object in part, at least, of creating a great public scandal. In pursuance of this scheme, houses were rented and furnished on West Temple Street, and women placed in possession thereof. These houses were so altered and arranged in their interior that persons could be placed to observe all that transpired within, and every member of the police force of Salt Lake City, with two honorable exceptions, John Y. Smith and Wm. Calder, volunteered his services as a spy and informer in aid of the conspiracy. The women were hired to perform their parts, and their exertions stimulated by the promise of exorbitant sums for their success in entrapping high officials. One of these creatures was promised $1,000 in the event of her being able to draw the Governor of the Territory into her toils. In the course of their operations, these women conveyed notes of invitation to many prominent officials and citizens, requesting interviews on business at the places designated. The following, leaving out names and initials, is a sample of the notes sent to several to solicit boys:

SALT LAKE CITY,
July 25, 1885.

Dear Sir—If convenient, I would be pleased to have you call and see me this afternoon or about dusk this evening. I want to see you on particular business. Please send answer by messenger boy when you will call.

Respectfully.

We are informed by persons engaged in this infamous plot, that from their secret posts of observation they, from time to time, personally witnessed all that took place in apartments in these houses visited by men and women, who were weak and depraved enough to respond to the opportunities presented to them. Their names were taken and the evidence noted for future reference and use.

When the exposure of this conspiracy was at hand the houses were closed. One woman was sent to California upon a ticket furnished her. Another was driven to Francklyn by a police officer who had previously purchased her a ticket, and then took the train for Denver under an assumed name.

One of these women was paid by the city official above referred to $300 or $400 and the other $700 for her services. When the women were safe out of the Territory complaints were filed, warrants issued and arrests made and the community thrown into a state of excitement and alarm. The money employed in this scheme, we are told by its prime mover, was paid by one of the high officials of Salt Lake County. It is claimed that the money was raised by private subscription. We have been unable to ascertain that any part of it came from the public treasury. Neither the Mayor Chief of Police, nor other city official, except as herein stated, so far as we can learn, were advised of the proceeding until the plot was ripe. All of the police officers engaged in it, it is claimed, performed the services required when off duty. One of them states that his services were rendered "for the good of the cause."

We have promptly indicted all persons connected with this unlawful and criminal undertaking against whom we could procure evidence, but we are not satisfied to rest here without publicly directing the attention of the municipal and county officers to the fact that a great crime has been perpetrated. We do not understand that the criminal law of the Territory was designed to aid scoundrelly spies, sneaks and informers in enticing and encouraging well disposed persons to commit crime, nor to tempt weak and wicked persons to disobey the laws. The law is humane and considerate, and has for its object the prevention of crime, and the reformation as well as the punishment of offenders. It does not, we think, contemplate the commission of crimes in order that additional crimes may be committed, and the last offenders exposed and punished.

It cannot be supposed that the law of any civilized State will permit an association of persons, officers or private citizens, to employ the means herein stated to induce people to do wrong in order that they may be punished. No "cause" however "good" can justify the use of such means. We think the public good and the peace of the community demand a rigid and satisfactory investigation by the municipal and county authorities, whose officers have violated the law in this matter. We are not certain but that every person engaged in the attempt to induce another to violate the criminal law under the statutes is equally guilty of the crime so induced.

As the life of our body is drawing to an end, we have not deemed it advisable to pursue this inquiry, but we respectfully request that your Honor submit the matter now considered to the next grand jury of this district, with such instructions as the law may warrant.

MORRIS R. EVANS,
Foreman of the Grand Jury.

A GOOD TIME.
Can Always be Had as Indicated Below.

One of the prevailing questions of the hour is: "Where can we go to have a good time?" The query may be construed to mean a good, jolly, convivial time; and it may also be interpreted to convey the idea that the inquirer is after an instrument which will prove good as a timekeeper, ergo, good time. To the latter suggestion the solution is to be had at E. J. SWANER & Co.'s, where the variety, style, excellence and number of clocks are extensive and undoubted. All sizes, shapes, designs and prices, warranted to keep time and endure for an unlimited period, may be had at their establishment. And not clocks exclusively, either, but watches, jewelry and precious stones of all the latest and most approved makes. Step in there, any time, and cast your eye over the stock. You can experience a good time in doing so, whether you buy a good timepiece or not.
