LOCAL NEWS.

FROM TUESDAY'S DAILY, APRIL 15.

"Juvenile Instructor."—The table of contents for April 15th, is as follows:

Elizabeth Fry, (illustrated); Punctuality, by J. C.; Virtue, by W. J.; Answer to Prayer, by M. F. C.; Our Theological Class, by Uriel; Topics of the Times, by the Editor; Capacity of the mind; Editorial Thoughts; A Boy's Legacy, (illustrated), by Homespun; History of the Church; Easy Science Lessons, by Sunny; Varieties; A Japanese Execution, by J. N.; Nature's instructions; song of Triumph, words by H. W. Naisbitt, music by E. Beesley.

Light-Plate Castings.—Brother Leo Whitehead, one of the inventors of the model balance engine described in these columns some time ago, is now engaged experimenting in light plate iron castings, and has produced some very creditable specimens. It has been supposed that this kind of work could not be done here, but from the samples shown us, it is evident that the day is not distant when such manufactures will flourish, and home-made stoves will be the result.

The present specimens were produced by means of the little engine referred to, at Mr. Whitehead's workshop in City Creek Canon. Bishop Nathan Davis, a machinist of long experience, says he considers the specimens as very good indeed, considering the difficulties hitherto experienced in their production here.

A Richmond Romance.—A correspondent signing "Revera," gives the Logan Journal the following account of an incident that happened at Richmond, Cache County, recently:

"Tommy Petty, a boy of 12 or 13 years of age, created quite a sensation the other day by running away from home. He obtained a gun, borrowed a saddle, 'hooked' his mother's pistol, and it is thought, sold a calf of his father's, and thus equipped, started south from here. The cause of the escapade was a scolding that his mother gave him for playing truant. One or two more boys about the same age had arranged to go with him; but one of them took sick and backed out, while the other failed to connect. The whole affair is romantic enough to have been born of yellow-back style of literature. The father of the boy was at conference in Salt Lake City when he left, and as soon as it was ascertained that the boy was gone his uncle started in pursuit, but failed to find any track of him. It is said that the boy told his sweetheart, a girl of nine or ten years, where he was intending to go and promised to write to her when he got so far away that his parents could not find him. The girl says that she knows all about it, but refuses to tell; and has been crying and taking on as though her heart was nearly broken, which no doubt it is. The boy's parents are feeling very badly about his conduct.

Third District Court.—Proceedings before Chief Justice Hunter on Tuesday, April 15th, 1884.

Charles M. Gilbertson vs. Miller Mining Co.; motion for a new trial heretofore submitted to Judge S. P. Twiss. Court delivers opinion upon the motion—motion for new trial sustained. Defendant excepts and gives notice of intention to appeal.

Studebaker Manufacturing Company vs. Forsyth; default and judgment for plaintiff.

Empaneling of Grand Jury for April term. Panel complete.

Drawing of sixty names for petit jurors in the case of the People vs. Fred Hopt.

THE WORK IN CANADA.

INTERESTING NOTES FROM A MISSIONARY.

Elder Edward Stevenson, writing from Komoka, Middlesex County, Ontario, Canada, on the 5th inst., to President Joseph F. Smith, says:

"There are no very flattering prospects, although a few believe, but what is done is done slowly."

"The Salvation Army and the Evangelists are the rage here. I have seen 2,000 follow the drum, fife and tambourines, and the soldiers with red jackets, 'saved through the blood of Christ,' dancing through the streets as they march."

"Anything but a valid Priesthood will do this priest-ridden generation. But for the priests and leading men, something might be done with thousands of good, honest souls."

"We have put out tracts and proclamations, with our address on, but not a single inquiry has been made, and also given many lectures and discourses, with but little apparent good as the result."

"On the 31st ult. and the 18th inst., I held meetings in a Town Hall with good results until further enquiry about the Hall and another hearing, when one who said he had come as spokesman told me they did not want 'Mormonism,' and if I did not soon leave I would get what I did not want. No one spoke up in my favor and the Hall was closed."

"Next day I was followed through a lonely swamp by a rough-looking fellow, who hooted at me as he approached, and as we neared the cross railroad and guard house, he turned abruptly into the woods."

"Two weeks ago, in this lonely spot, a poor Englishman, without money, work or friends, stepped upon the track and bowed before the express train. His skull was broken into over fifty pieces, and he was thrown from the track."

"Whoever comes here as a missionary will require great faith, patience, self-sacrifice and the spirit of the Lord. Canada is married to idols; woman, wine and money first. There are many hard-working, intelligent people, considerably of the Scotch race."

FROM WEDNESDAY'S DAILY, APRIL 16

Third District Court.—Proceedings before Chief Justice Hunter, on Wednesday, April 16, 1884:

D. W. Scribner vs. G. M. Peirce; attorneys for defendant withdrawn. Motion to dissolve attachment overruled.

Stephen Hays vs. Agnes Ladders, et al.; demurrer to amended complaint argued by S. H. Lewis for defendants, and by Woods and Hoffman for plaintiff. Submitted.

Milton Mentions.—Brother Eli Whitear, at Milton, Morgan County, writes April 14th:

There have been quite a number of children sick, but no deaths. The weather is very unfavorable; no plowing done as yet, and hay very scanty for teams. But we expect to raise a bountiful harvest and I am not discouraged. The majority of the people seem to be more in earnest than I ever saw them and are living their religion, but I am sorry to say some are losing their faith. We have good meetings, also a good Sunday school.

Funeral Services.—The funeral of Brother Henry C. Foster was held in the Seventh Ward meeting house, at 10 a. m. to-day. The speakers were Bishop Thorne, Elder Geo. Romney, Counselor Wm. McLachlan, Elder C. R. Savage and Apostle George Teasdale. Counselor Thomas H. Woodbury pronounced the benediction. A portion of the Tabernacle Choir, led by Brother E. Beesley, furnished the music. Upwards of thirty carriages followed the remains to the cemetery, where the dedicatory prayer was offered by Apostle George Teasdale.

More of Stove Castings.—Apropos of light plate iron castings, mentioned in an item last evening, we are informed by Brother James H. Anderson that his father, James Anderson of the Sixth Ward, has produced such castings many years ago, and numbers of others in Utah have also done the same. Most of the stoves now used on the Utah Central Railway for car heating, are home-made, so far as the castings are concerned, having been constructed at the railroad foundry, where there is a large stove entirely home-made.

Funeral of Brother Osguthorpe.

The funeral services of Brother John Osguthorpe were held yesterday, in the East Mill Creek meeting house, which was crowded on the occasion, and many evidences were apparent of the affection in which the deceased was held. The casket was covered with floral emblems, among which was a crown made by the ladies of the Relief Society and a cross from the young ladies. The services were conducted by Bishop John Neff. The speakers were Elders John Nicholson and Julian Moses, Patriarch William Smith, Elder William Taylor and Bishop Neff. The remains were followed to the cemetery in this city by eighteen vehicles filled with relatives and friends. At the grave the dedicatory prayer was offered by Elder Nicholson.

A Pleasant Time.—Last evening the Tent Mutual Improvement Association adjourned its winter session. After the rendering of the program the President, S. E. Baxter, announced that the Bishop had given his consent for a party to take place in the hall immediately after the meeting had closed, and if the deacons would carry out the seats and put things in order, dancing would commence forthwith.

This was a genuine surprise to those assembled, the presiding officers being the only ones aware of it, but like all such affairs, it was all the more enjoyable. The musicians soon appeared and the ball proceeded. Dancing was interspersed at intervals by music from the Tenth and First Ward harmonica bands, and songs from several ladies and gentlemen present, and the evening wore happily away.

Broken Blood-Vessel.—"On Tuesday, April 7th," says a Brigham City correspondent of the Logan Journal, "Mother Fishburn, of the Second Ward, had just arisen from the dinner table and passed into an adjoining room, when she was seized with a cough and at the same moment she vomited a large quantity of blood, the latter spouting through her nose and mouth, almost choking her. Her daughter-in-law and other members of the family were within hearing and proceeded to render the old lady what assistance they could. Becoming alarmed at the discharge of so much of the vital fluid, a physician was summoned, who made an examination and found that the lady, during a spell of coughing, had broken a blood vessel in the stomach." By the application of remedies internally, the flow of blood was soon stopped.

From a death notice published yesterday, it appears the case resulted fatally, though the patient was thought to be improving a short time before.

Going South.—Presidents John Taylor and George Q. Cannon, accompanied by Presiding Bishop William B. Preston, Counselor R. T. Burton, President A. M. Cannon, President L. J. Nuttall, Bishop John Sharp and Elder John Irvine, will go south by the 3 o'clock train to-morrow afternoon. One of the objects of the journey is to visit the Utah Iron Works at Iron City, but most of the party will continue on as far as St. George, and visit some of the intervening settlements on the way home. They will be absent three or four weeks.

The party will be accompanied by the committee of Zion's Central Board of Trade, who will examine into the prospects of the iron manufacturing industry in that locality, with a view to reporting their findings hereafter for the benefit of the public. The committee is composed of the following named gentlemen: William Jennings, Moses Thatcher, Erastus Snow, John R. Winder, F. M. Lyman, John R. Mordock and Elias Morris. Most of these will return to the city, as soon as they have finished their business in Iron County, the others will go on with President Taylor's party to St. George.

FROM THURSDAY'S DAILY, APRIL 17.

That Lost Valise.—James Henry Langford's valise was standing near the Temple Block. A valise in the wagon was stolen. Papers of no intrinsic value; but possibly of value to him, can be had at the City Hall. The valise was found on Arsenal Hill a few days ago.

Funeral.—The funeral services of Sister Salmer H. Robinson, wife of Brother Arthur Robinson, who died April 15th, aged 20 years, 5 months and 11 days, were held in the Second Ward meeting-house, at the hour of noon to-day. Many were present to pay their last respects to the deceased, who bore an excellent character and was beloved by all who knew her. Elder Charles W. Penrose delivered the funeral discourse.

Third District Court.—Proceedings on Thursday, April 17, 1884:

Wm. Mitchell admitted to citizenship. Charles W. Watson vs. London Bank of Utah. Default and judgment on motion.

D. Williams vs. London Bank of Utah; same.

Louis Robinson vs. George Crismon et al. Death of plaintiff suggested and administrator made party plaintiff.

Loring R. Ketchum vs. U. P. R. R. Co. Demurrer to complaint argued by Williams & Young for defendant, and by Hall and Marshall for plaintiff.

Good Sense.—The first number of the Idaho Herald, edited by Hon. Geo. N. Crawford, at Soda Springs, has the following bit of good sense in the editorial salutory:

"Regarding the question of religion as purely a personal one, and the discussion thereof entirely foreign to the Herald's mission, it will be absolutely non-sectarian and maintain an unqualified neutrality."

We announced the prospective birth of the Herald a few days ago. We now bid it a hearty welcome into the world of journalism."

"Journal" Jottings.—From the Logan Journal of the 16th:

The runaway boy of Richmond, has been heard from, and peace and tranquility now reign in the home he deserted. He stopped at his grandmother's in Ogden, and it seems has considerably modified his dreadful resolve—never to return home alive—and has promised to come back.

On Monday, April 7th, Sister Maddison, wife of J. F. Maddison, of Providence, was riding from there to Logan, when the wheel of the wagon went suddenly into a hole in the road, and pitched her and a little girl out. She was bruised very badly, but is recovering. The little girl was not hurt.

Last Sunday two men were buried at the railroad gravel bank near Richmond. One was unhurt, but the other was severely injured. He was removed at once to Logan and examined by Dr. Ormsby who found that the collar bone and an ankle fractured.

The Richmond depot is expected to remain, as the requisite amount of land has been purchased and deeded to the company. The business men and those most deeply interested, and fully alive to the well-being of the community, made up the deficiency left by the city council. The mayor took an active part in helping to obtain the land, as did also President M. W. Merrill, the latter having donated some three acres of it.

The dynamite accident on the Canada Pacific referred to in our last occurred at Isaac Smith's camp, not M. D. Hammond's. A foreman named Fred Colwell had been putting in a charge of dynamite, and called to a boy named G. Smith, son of the proprietor of the camp, to bring him some more material when an explosion took place. Colwell was blown to fragments, and the bodies of both were blown a considerable distance into the water of Lake Superior, near the shore of which the accident occurred. The father of the boy resides, we understand, near Lewiston. He is a sub-contractor on the Canada Pacific railroad.

On Wednesday, April 9th, two boys, Almond Whittle and Joseph Eckersley, both residents of Richmond, aged about eighteen and sixteen years, were hunting snipes in Coveville fields. Whittle carried his gun left-handed, and the other boy right-handed. They were on the wrong side of each other, so that their guns were pointing toward each other and both had their guns cocked. They were about ten feet apart, when, in the excitement, Whittle's gun went off and buried the full charge of shot, numbers 8 and 4 mixed, in the hip of Joseph Eckersley. He died on Saturday April 12th, from the effects of the accident.

Penetrated To The Bone.

Alderman John Baxter, Toronto, Canada, avers that St. Jacobs Oil will penetrate to the bone to drive out pain. I know it, for I have tried it; it hits the mark every time.
