

GARFIELD TO SALT LAKE.
Three Young Men Save the Distance in Six and a Half Hours.

Yesterday, July 25, three young men of this city accomplished the feat of swimming from Garfield Beach to Salt Lake. They were Joseph J. Cannon, George to Morris and John Cannon. They left this city on the Utah Beach launch at 10:30, and arrived at the beach at the arrival of a boat which was towed over from across the lake. The three young men, who were accompanied by the launch, were met by a launch which was towed over from across the lake.
