

JURY LIST FOR 1876.

In pursuance of section four (4) of an act of congress in relation to courts and judicial officers of the Territory of Utah, approved June 23d, 1874, Hon. Elias Smith, probate judge of Salt Lake county, and William H. Betts, clerk of the district court of the Third judicial district of the Territory of Utah, met at the office of the probate judge at the court house in Salt Lake county, on this 13th day of January, 1876, and then and there prepared a jury list from which grand and petit jurors are to be drawn to serve in the district court of the Third judicial district of the Territory of Utah, to be held in said county of Salt Lake pursuant to the provisions of said act and the proclamation of his excellency, the governor, dated Sept 13th, 1875, and until a new list shall be made as provided by said act. Names on said list being alternately selected by said clerk and probate judge from among the male citizens of the United States, who have resided in said district for the six months next preceding, and who can read and write the English language. The name and residence of each person so selected is hereto appended, as follows, to wit:

Information Wanted.

TIPTON, Staffordshire,
December 28th, 1875.

Editor Deseret News:

Dear Sir—I am very anxious to find the whereabouts of my son, Edward Richards, who left England in 1873, in the Ellenor David son, of Whitehaven, bound for Antwerp, and went from Antwerp to Philadelphia, America, and from that place to Ogden City, in the same year, and from Ogden to Salt Lake City, and when last heard of he was in San Francisco, California, in the year 1874. If this should meet the eye of my son or of any one that knows him, I request him to write to his father and mother directly.

Address—Edward Richards, No. 15 Hopkin Street, Burnt Tree, near Tipton, Staffordshire, England.

Laughter Lends a New Charm.

To beauty, when it discloses a pretty set of teeth. Whiteness, when nature has supplied this element of loveliness, may be retained through life, by using the fragrant SOZODONT.

Do not defy Providence by neglecting a chronic cough or cold, when the certain antidote to these dangerous complaints—Hale's Honey of Horehound and Tar—is obtained at every Drug Store in America.
